THE GOD THAT PROVIDES

Hallelujah Hallelujah
Praise be to God
To the God of land
God of the sea
God of the sky
God of the mountains,
The God of rain
The provider of manna
God of our mothers and fathers
Come and be with us this
Morning as we bring our
Hearts to worship you
We come to you with our
Hearts that are dry, hopeless and heavy
With hope that you are
The God that provides,
You are the God of yesterday,
Today and tomorrow - Claudio Carvalhaes

Why February is Black History Month?

Black History Month — which began in 1926 as Negro History Week — is in February because it coincides with the birthdays of two important figures in the abolitionist movement: President Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass. Here’s 9 facts about Black History Month that you may or may not know:

- 1. Black Students Protested for Black History Month.
2. February Honors Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass.
3. Black History Month Themes Change Yearly.
4. Civil Rights Leaders Popularized Black History Month.

While wearing your African attire is great, I challenge you to learn more, perhaps something new, about the great contributions of African-Americans this month, tell someone about it. and continue learning after February 28th.—Pastor Glenn

CHURCH SCHOOL CONCLUDES WINTER QUARTER

There is a class for everyone. Sunday Church School begins at 9 a.m. and ends in time for morning worship. Carol Smart is our Church School Superintendent. Join us!

In February, we'll conclude the Winter Quarter, "A King Forever and Ever" with Unit 3: "Life in God's Kingdom," returning to the Gospels (Matthew) for the four lessons in this Quarter.

Here, "Jesus explains the nature and obligations of life in his kingdom. This manner of living consists of prayer marked with praise, petitions, and forgiveness (Matthew 6...), not... marked with ease. In fact... Life in the kingdom will often involve reorienting expectations... More than anything, citizens of this kingdom are called to faithful obedience to the King, even in unexpected contexts..."

(NIV Standard Lesson Commentary, p. 115)

- February 2 - Praying for Relief (Matthew 6:5-15)
- February 9 - Resistance to the Kingdom (Matthew 11)
- February 16 - The First Will Be Last (Matthew 19:16-30)
- February 23 - Kingdom Life (Matthew 25)
