

MAKE HIM KNOWN

I hate to say this but, we Christians are the biggest hinderance to revealing the invisible God of the universe into this natural world.

Many of us accept God's incredible love for us and the forgiveness of our sins and we accept God's promise of dwelling in heaven after we die.

But we refuse to go on with God and allow the Holy Spirit to transform and equip us to become the ambassadors of His kingdom in this world

The Apostle Paul prayed for believers, that we would know, the height, the depth, the length, and the breadth of the love of Christ. So that we can be filled up with all the fullness of God and so that God can do exceedingly abundantly. beyond anything we could ever dare ask or think by the power of His Spirit within us. Ephesians 3.18-20

But our natural senses protest, "that's way beyond my ability. I could never ever do that." That's why I've said many times, that the Gospel is supernatural and God is the only one who can do it.

God's plan to fill the Earth, and everyone in it with His glory, will not come to pass with an incomplete and purely academic presentation of His complete and total deliverance of His children. Fullness is not an option. It's a necessity to make God known.

This is God's plan for ALL of His children.

For those whom He foreknew [of whom He was aware and loved beforehand], He also destined from the beginning [foreordaining them] to be molded into the image of His Son [and share inwardly His likeness], that He might become the firstborn among many brethren.

And those whom He thus foreordained, He also called; and those whom He called, He also justified (acquitted, made righteous, putting them into right standing with Himself). And those whom He justified, He also glorified [raising them to a heavenly dignity and condition or state of being]. Romans 8.29amp

Again, God is the only one who can do this, and He's done everything necessary to make it come to pass.

God is Spirit. To function in this natural world requires a body. His plan is to fill men with His life.

Jesus became flesh and dwelt among us and we beheld His glory. John 1.14

He said, If you've seen me, you've seen the Father. John 14.9

God has redeemed us into His family as His children.

Romans 8.15 explains;

For [the Spirit which] you have now received [is] not a spirit of slavery to put you once more in bondage to fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption [the Spirit producing sonship] in [the bliss of] which we cry, Abba (Father)! Father!

The Spirit Himself [thus] testifies together with our own spirit, [assuring us] that we are children of God.

1 John 4.16 amp

God is love, and he who dwells and continues in love dwells and continues in God, and God dwells and continues in him.

In this [union and communion with Him] love is brought to completion and attains perfection with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment [with assurance and boldness to face Him], because as He is, so are we in this world.

Hebrews 1.3 declares that;

He is the radiance of His glory and the exact representation of His nature, and upholds all things by the word of His power.

God has predestined that ALL of His children would be transformed into the image of Christ. That is His plan to reach the entire world, before the end comes.

He is coming to be glorified in His saints on that day, and to be marveled at among all who have believed....2 Thessalonians 1.10

God filled the tabernacle in the wilderness and Solomon's temple with His glory, so powerfully that no flesh could function in it.

In this modern world, we are the temples that He wants to fill with His glory, so that our flesh will no longer be a hindrance to the manifestation of Him to this world.

Let's let Paul's prayer in Ephesians 1.17 be the reality of our lives.

That we would receive God's spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that we can comprehend this awesome supernatural calling that He has for us.

And comprehend and lay hold of this mind boggling inheritance that He's made available for His children.

And experience the immeasurable power power that He executed to make us His children, that are one with Him.

God has chosen us, His children, to be the ambassadors of His Kingdom to make God visible in our world.

And there is no substitute or alternate plan B to make this happen.

God bless you.
