

VANDALISM IN IOLA

Local businesses plan to install security cameras

By Jane Myhra

The Iola Police Department is investigating recent vandalism in village. A plaque was scratched at the Veteran Memorial park, and there was also vandalism on the River Walk. The information was shared at the September 14 meeting of the Iola Village Board. According to Lyle Mork, the bronze plaque will cost about $700 to replace.

Other acts of vandalism have been reported at various locations around the village. It was noted that businesses and civic groups plan to install surveillance cameras around Iola.
