

Celebrate the 250th Birthday of Ludwig van Beethoven on December 16, 2020!

Beethoven Birthday Banquet: Virtual Visual Victuals - A Joyous Journey through Beethoven's Biography

Join Victoria Martino on Beethoven's 250th birthday, as she presents a complete immersion into the great composer's world --a spectacular sensory spectacle of sight and sound! She will draw upon her unique and extensive expertise and background in music, art, literature, history, philosophy, and theology, to transport the audience viscerally into the life and times of Beethoven.

Wednesday, December 16, 2020

6:30pm PT

Ticket Price: $17 Members/$22 Non-Members

For tickets, please visit the Athenaeum Music & Arts Library's website:

www.ljathenaeum.org/special-lectures

Or Call:

(858) 454-5872

Note: Due to the restrictions imposed by the COVID-19 pandemic, Victoria Martino regrets to announce that she will need to continue the postponement of her much-anticipated Beethoven Marathon, until it is safe for the public to convene in performing venues. In lieu of the Marathon, she is offering a very special interdisciplinary event on Beethoven's 250th Birthday, which will provide a panoramic vision of the composer's life and work.