

Bon Anniversaire!

A Fête for Four Birthday Boys (Debussy, Franck, Leclair, Massenet)

A Tribute to Erika Torri, Honoring Her 80th Birthday, and Her Decades of Faithful Service to the Athenaeum
Performed by Victoria Martino, violin, and James Lent, Piano, with a Special Dance Performance by Beatrice Antonie Martino

Join Victoria Martino and James Lent, as they pay homage to retiring Executive Director Erika Torri in a performance of four beloved masterpieces of the classical violin repertoire

2022 is a Major Anniversary Year for All Four Featured French Composers

325 years: Jean-Marie Leclair (1697-1764), universally acknowledged as the founder of the French school of violin playing

200 years: César Franck (1822-1890), whose magnificent violin sonata is undeniably his most celebrated work

180 years: Jules Massenet (1842-1912), whose "Meditation" has become a favorite encore for violinists around the world

160 years: Claude Debussy (1862-1918), whose final composition was his exotic and hauntingly beautiful violin sonata
