

The Feast Day of St. Mary Magdalene

Holding Space For Each Other

July 22, 2023

Then Mary stood up and greeted all of them and said to her brethren, "Do not mourn or grieve or be irresolute, for his grace will be with you all and will defend you. Let us rather praise his greatness, for he prepared us and made us fully human."

When Mary said this, their hearts changed for the better, and they began to discuss the words of the Teacher.

The Magdalene Community

The Magdalene Community is a connective community seeking conversation and dialogue with other spiritualities, religions and traditions. This community takes its inspiration from the Gospel of Mary, where Jesus encourages the assembled community to find the divine nature within.

The Magdalene Community meets the last
Sunday of each month through Zoom
2 pm CDT
