

08/2007 by Sarah Huburn

Lord, thank you

Thank you that the sky is blue and the grass looks, so green.

Thank you for the fresh summer breeze and the birds, that sings.

Thank you for the fish swimming in the streams and the fresh water, that flows.

Thank you for making all of these, which you designed before time began.

