I know, do you?

Who put the stars in their place?
Who made the sun shine on a rainy day?
Who put the fish to swim in the sea?
I know, do you?

Who brings laughter, when there's sadness?
Who brings life, to the lonely?
Who leads the way, when there is no
other way?
I know, do you?

When all else fails and no one seems
to be there,
Who do you turn to?
I know who I turn to,
What about you?
