

College Navigator

Navigator Role and Expectations

- College experience
- Agree to sustain the Navigator/Scholar relationship while the student is in college
- Over the age of 21
- To maintain a dialogue with your scholar by phone, text, email, social media, or face-to-face at least once a month.
- To inquire about progress in school, classes, family, work, college life, or anything that could potentially hinder student success.
- To provide sustained, effective encouragement and guidance to promote academic success.
- To remind scholar of deadlines during the initial award year and subsequent renewal years
- To encourage the scholar to attend CSP events, such as the annual reception for new scholars and their families

Benefits of Becoming a Navigator

- Engage in a volunteering opportunity valued by employers
- Develop 21st century skills: managing, motivating, understanding people, developing empathy, creative thinking
- Encourage scholars to reach their full potential
- Increase your own confidence and motivation
- Enhance your CV or resume
- Create a sense of fulfillment and personal growth
- Training provided
- Gain personal satisfaction