*R*eal dreams can't be stolen!

Keep away from people who try to belittle your ambitions. Small people always do that, but the really great make you feel that you, too, can become great. —Mark Twain

The world is full of people who will be happy to tell you why your ideas will not work. Everywhere are people who will laugh at you for daring to dream big dreams. You are surrounded by people who will call you crazy for pursuing your goals.

Just ignore them. Their pettiness and mean spirited-ness is their problem, not yours. Sadly, some people take delight in destructive criticism. Constructive, caring criticism is very useful and necessary. But criticism for its own sake is something to simply ignore.

Small minded people think that somehow they can improve their own lot by putting down others. Small minded people have a zero-sum mentality—they believe that people gain success only at the expense of others.

Nothing could be further from the truth. Real dreams can never be stolen.

True success comes only from providing something of value to the world. Your dreams, your ambitions do not diminish the lives of others. When you improve your own life, you cannot help but improve the lives of those around you.

What is life for, if not to reach for the stars?

"Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good,"
Romans 12:21

Minister Effectively . . .

Dr. J. L. Cook

...in the local church...

North Carolina Bible Institute will ignite in you a passion for God's heart, for His people, and for His Kingdom. The book of James says that faith, if has no works, is dead. Therefore, it is important to combine passion with practical knowledge in order to minister productively and be a blessing to others.

Students at NCBI are trained and equipped to step out in faith and engage in practical ministry with the guidance, support, and feedback of the faculty. With quality Biblical education and practical application, students receive the tools necessary to enhance every facet of ministry within the local church and beyond. At NCBI, we believe it is an honor to serve the Lord and His people. Therefore, students are taught to become effective ministers and church leaders who serve the Body of Christ with humility, power, and love.

I Corinthians 2:4-5

And my speech and my preaching were not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

We believe God's heart is to establish His Kingdom throughout the whole earth. Therefore, NCBI students are given the exciting opportunity to travel to other nations to minister to the practical and spiritual needs of people in a culture different from their own.

Students, who choose to participate, serve alongside local pastors, preach and teach in a variety of settings such as home groups, conferences, and local church congregations, and assist in practical benevolent projects for orphans, widows, the homeless and the poor.

In addition to experiencing the joy of being a blessing to others, past students testify that the NCBI mission opportunity was a pivotal time in which they were challenged in numerous areas of their own lives. Many also testify that the Holy Spirit released in them an increase of boldness to preach the Word of God with power and a greater depth of compassion for the world.

You are destined for greatness...Thank you for considering NCBI.

Habakkuk 2:4

Behold...his soul, which is lifted up, is not upright in him; but the just shall live by his faith.

Dr. J. L. Cook, Ph.D.
Founder

From the President:

Dr. Judy Cook

Be a Life-Long Learner!

Being an educator in public education for 29 years I know the value of learning. I shared with my students daily that we should never stop learning because once we do life loses it's zeal.

As a Christian, learning God's Word is exactly the same. Our lives would lose all meaning if His precious Word were not being learned everyday. The wonderful part of this is that a scripture that we read as a young adult has a completely different meaning, as we get older. That is why we should continue learning as long as we have breath.

At NCBI we promote a Christ-Centered learning curriculum. Our programs, Associate, Bachelor, Graduate, Master and Doctoral, give the learner the opportunity to endeavor into God's Word with boldness. We provide study guides along with scriptural questions that enable the student to fully comprehend the Bible.

John 1:1
In the beginning was the Word,
and the Word was with God,
and the Word was God.

Through study, prayer and worship, you will know God in a more intimate way. The Word is God and knowing His Word allows you to know Him better. That is our goal at NCBI. And once you know His Word then you can spread it to the world.

Your life will change as you grow in the Word and become closer to Him. We are changing the world one student at a time.

Thank you for choosing NCBI...you will not regret it. Together we can send a light into this dark world that will be a guide for others to find Christ.

Dr. Judy Cook
President NCBI

From the Executive Vice President

Dr. Timothy Cook

It's Not What is Wrong, but What is Missing.

We have all said to ourselves at one time or another, if I had this or if I had that, then I would be happy. We have all looked to selfish and fleshly things to complete us but none of that can fill the void in our lives. You say to yourself, if I had the perfect spouse, if I can just get a good job or if I can achieve that status in my community, then I will be settled.

Lamentations 3:24...

"The Lord is my portion; therefore I will wait for Him."

He is our missing piece that completes our soul. A portion is a part of a whole. God is the part we are missing to make us whole, not a career, not a spouse...nothing but God can make us whole.

Proverbs 37:4...

"Delight yourself in the Lord and
He will give you the desires of your heart."

So many of us look at this scripture and the first thing we think is about those fleshly desires that we have and want. We interpret this scripture as, I am going to delight in the Lord and He will give me all that I want and this is not the case because we have yet to change our mind set. Again, "it's not what is wrong, but what is missing." You see this as what you can receive and the way I interpret this scripture is, I am going to delight myself in the Lord and He will give me the desires of my heart, meaning, He will change my mind set. He will give me spiritual desires. He will give me holy desires. He will give me peace in the midst of chaos. He will give me companionship when I am alone. He will give me purpose in a life that has no fulfillment. He will give me everything and every desire I need. For He is the great "I am"...for God doesn't have to become anything He already is. He is Peace. He is comfort. He is my companion. He is my strength. He is my healing. He is my deliverer. He is my "I am!"

What's missing? It is the scripture that we need to know. It is the Word of God. For John 1:1 tells us, "In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God." To know the scriptures is to know God. To receive the promises of God, we must first know what those promises are that we are able to receive. For we are a child of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords...He will hold nothing back from you.

2 Timothy 3:16-17: All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. God uses it to prepare and equip His people to do every good work.

So, I encourage you, go deeper into the Word of God and fill that void, that missing portion in your life and say, "Lord, fill me with your desire for my life, not my desire, but yours. Amen."

What We Believe

We are a fundamental, evangelical, Bible-believing school based upon canonized Old Testament and New Testament scripture as the inerrant and infallible Word of God. We accept that the Bible is God's instruction manual for life, and it is not open to any single or denominational interpretation but is written to all mankind.

It is our belief that God created the earth and the universe in six literal days and that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, born of a virgin. We believe that Jesus died on the cross at Calvary, arose from the dead three days later, and now sits at the right hand of God as our High Priest. We believe that those who have been born-again through the blood of Jesus Christ will reign in Heaven for eternity. Finally, we believe that non-believers will be sentenced to a burning hell for all eternity.

Staff and Faculty

Any corporation, institution, or government is only as good as its people, and they are its most valuable asset. The North Carolina Bible Institute has been richly blessed with quality staff and faculty. From the office of its president to the administrators and professors, you will find each individual ready and willing to assist every request. Our people are dedicated and loyal to the task of promoting God's Kingdom through quality Biblical education.

Curriculum and Reference Materials

The North Carolina Bible Institute seeks to offer the highest quality curriculum and reference materials. Resources are subject to change, at the discretion of the Executive Board of Directors, and not all subjects are offered every year.

Student Nondiscrimination Policy

The North Carolina Bible Institute admits students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin with all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students of NCBI. The North Carolina Bible Institute does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin in administration of its policies, loan programs, or other school administered programs.

Statement of Standards

All students are required to give a testimony of having accepted Jesus Christ as their personal Savior and Lord. Each student is expected to conduct himself/herself in a manner that will, at no time, bring reproach upon our Savior or upon NCBI.

All students must be a working part of a local church. Time spent in participation within the local church will be logged and turned in to the North Carolina Bible Institute. These hours are figured into the student's semester credit hours as personal ministry. God's Word demands that we be doers of the Word and not hearers (or students) only.

Application Fee and Tuition

A non-refundable application fee of $60.00 must accompany all applications. Please note that NO textbooks will be released without pre-payment! Remaining balance of tuition and other applicable fees MUST be paid in full by April 15th of each school year.

Transferred Credits

The North Carolina Bible Institute reserves the right to allow, or not to allow, credits earned at other institutions for similar courses taken at that institution. If credit is awarded, the candidate will be assessed $2.00 per credit hour. These hours may not exceed 60% of the required hours for graduation from the North Carolina Bible Institute.

Refund Policy

Students may change or drop a program at any time during the first week after notification of their acceptance into the North Carolina Bible Institute. When a program is dropped or withdrawn from and no substitute is taken, a 10% refund will be made, upon request. No refunds are given for Book Fees. A student must notify the North Carolina Bible Institute in writing of the intention to withdraw or drop a program. NO REFUNDS ON DOCTORAL PROGRAMS.

North Carolina Bible Institute Accreditation

If the sole purpose of needing an education is for the Gospel ministry or related field within Christian ministry, secular accreditation is not necessary or required. All Christian churches accept quality Christian education regardless to which accreditation group, if any, the referenced institution belongs. If study is for purpose other than ministry, such as business administrator, engineer, lawyer, etc., students should apply to an institution that belongs to a regional accrediting association. In secular education, regional accreditation is essential! For education of those in Christian service, secular accreditation does little more than typically make the tuition beyond the reach of most ministers.

North Carolina College of Theology holds applicant status with the Association for Biblical Higher Education Commission on Accreditation (5850 T.G. Lee Blvd. Ste. 130, Orlando, FL 32822, 407.207.0808). Applicant status is a pre-membership status granted to those institutions that meet the ABHE Conditions of Eligibility and that possess such qualities as may provide a basis for achieving candidate status within five years.

VERY IMPORTANT

Programs of study offered by North Carolina Bible Institute have been declared by the appropriate state authority exempt from the requirements for licensure, under provisions of North Carolina General Statutes (G.S.) 116-15 (d) for exemption from licensure with respect to religious education. Exemption from licensure is not based upon assessment of program quality under established licensing standards.

North Carolina College of Theology

General Information

Statement of Purpose

North Carolina College of Theology was founded in 2001 by the late, Dr. J. L. Cook. The college started in China Grove, NC with 9 students. Dr. Cook's purpose was to educate men and women of God that did not have the means or resources to attend college. In 2003 after the institution had grown considerable, Dr. Cook moved the college to Wilmington, NC. Under his leadership the college grew to students in 39 states and 112 countries. After his death in 2013, the college has continued to flourish under the leadership of Dr. Judy Cook and Dr. Timothy Cook.

NCCT, as a biblically based, evangelical community, is dedicated to the preparation of men and women for Christ-like servant-hood and leadership in the church, the marketplace and the world. The institution strives to raise up spiritual leaders to hear the voice of God, to communicate the Gospel with vitality, to lead with authority, to minister with compassion, to convey the resurrection power of hope with conviction.

NCCT's purpose can be summed up in one phrase: "Reach the World for Jesus, one student at a time". By fulfilling this one statement, we can have a huge impact on the church, marketplace and the world.

NCCT believes there is only one God that created the heavens and the earth. The divine God-head consist of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. We believe in the virgin birth of Jesus, who came to earth to save humans from their sins. We believe that God sent His only Son to suffer the death on a cross and was resurrected three days after His death. He then ascended to Heaven to intercede with the Father for our sins. We believe in the return of Jesus to earth to retrieve His remaining Saints. He will then defeat Satan and his foes. We believe that the Holy Spirit indwells in all believers to comfort, guide and correct.

NCCT believes that the Holy Bible is the inerrant and infallible Word of God. We believe that every word in the Bible was inspired by God for instructions to live a holy life. We believe that we should not add nor take away anything from the Holy Scriptures. We believe that the scriptures are without error or discrepancy. The Bible is the authority on which we base all our beliefs.

NCCT wants to provide an excellent education to all that want to learn. We want to guide, support and encourage all believers in a deeper walk with our Lord. Our goal is to educate the true meaning of Christianity, which is Love because He is Love!

Vision & Mission

Vision: NCCT, as a Christian institution, is reaching the world for Jesus one student at a time, equipping them with Biblically sound knowledge, for effective leadership and servant-hood to impact the Church, marketplace and the world.

Mission: NCCT, a Christian institution, is equipping and empowering students within the world marketplace for Godly stewardship by preparing Christian servants who will become spiritually vibrant, Biblically strong, theologically balanced, Spirit-empowered, ministry-equipped and culturally sensitive.

Institutional Objectives

To fulfill its purpose, NCCT is committed to:

1. Provide instruction, nurture, and enrichment for personal and professional development within a ecumenical ethos.
2. Instill recognition of the authority of Scripture and provide a solid knowledge of the Bible.
3. Encourage development of a Biblical and balanced Christian Theology in the quest of knowledge and truth.
4. Prepare students for servant-hood in the church, the marketplace and the world.
5. Provide clear learning outcomes, detailed instruction, and assessment for all courses to ensure course mastery and student success.
6. Use technology to create effective mode and means of instruction that expand access to learning.

Philosophy

NCCT recognizes the primacy of the spiritual truth revealed in the Bible and incarnate in Jesus Christ and acknowledges that all truth, wherever it is found, is of God. All truth finds its unity in God. NCCT also recognizes the role of the Holy Spirit in interpreting God's truth in accordance with the words of the Lord Jesus Christ, who instructed His disciples that "when He, the Spirit of Truth comes, He will guide you into all truth". (John 16:13).

NCCT recognizes that the Father has shown us truth through Christ in nature, history and above all, in Scripture. Thus the Bible, as the authoritative Words of God, is central in the quest for knowledge. Its principles and precepts are integrated throughout NCCT's curriculum and are foundational in the school's basic philosophy of education.

Benefits of Completing Your Education Through Distance Learning

(Individual Study Program)

Education through Distance Learning has been a part of the American educational system for more than 200 years. During that time, Distance Learning courses have worked well for millions of graduates. Many successful graduates have found Distance Learning to be their best option for learning.

Distance Learning Lets You Set Your Own Pace

You are encouraged to spend as much time as you need to fully understand any complex material. If you progress quickly through a course, you do not have to wait for the slowest class members to catch up. You set your own pace; others don't impose their pace upon you.

Distance Learning Gives You the Opportunity to Concentrate on Important Subjects

Whenever a subject fascinates you, you may spend extra time on it. You are not rushed through because the class must move on at a different pace.

Distance Learning Is A Time Saver

Your schedule is your own. You study around your existing schedule, whenever you desire. You can improve your time use, rather than disrupt your time use. In addition, the programs come directly to your home. Study begins at your discretion. It requires no travel time. What could be more convenient?

Distance Learning Is Fair to Every Student

No grading curve is established to keep grades evenly distributed in the class. You don't get penalized if others receive high grades. You don't have to hope that others do poorly to assure your own good grades. You will get exactly what you earn, fairly. No factors other than your own performance, course by course, determine your success in this program.

Distance Learning Does Not Abandon the Student Who Needs Help

Most importantly, you are not left alone to complete your program. When you need it, you can get individualized help in your studies simply by writing, calling, or sending email to the school.

Our Graduation Gala Event

I am courageous,
for I have courage that is built on my faith in God.

Am I going through something that requires an extra measure of courage? Maybe I need the courage to break free from a negative habit, to further my education, or to begin a new job.

I can be courageous when I know that courage flows from my faith in God. I believe that because God is expressing life and understanding through me, I have the wisdom to make wise decisions and the strength to carry through with those decisions.

I may not realize how strong my faith is until a change or challenge appears. The courage I have may at first amaze me. Then I feel so right about being courageous because I am stepping out in faith – faith in the Creator. God within me is always capable of great and wonderful things.

"Be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the Lord."

ESCHATOLOGY

DOCTORATE of Eschatology

Tuition: $3,250.00 plus $60.00 application fee
Prerequisite: Master of Biblical Studies, Theology or Divinity
Graduation Requirement: VERY IMPORTANT. A 12,000 word thesis / dissertation required for this program, typed and electronically submitted to admin@ncctonline.com, no later than April 15th. This is mandatory! This will be placed in your file at NCBI.

Eschatology: The study of theology concerned with death, judgement and the final destiny of the soul and of humankind.

The book of Revelation is not the Revelation of the Anti-Christ or Mystery Babylon or the Mark of the Beast. It is the Revelation of Jesus Christ. Christ is being unveiled to the world in sovereignty and supremacy to the world.

Chapter 1	Jesus revealed as He was.
Chapters 2 & 3	Jesus revealed to the earthly church.
Chapters 4 & 5	Jesus revealed in the Throne Room.
Chapters 6-19:10	Jesus revealed to the cosmos or the nations.
Chapter 19:10-21	Jesus revealed in conquest at The Battle of Armageddon.
Chapter 20	Jesus revealed in the Millennium.
Chapters 21 & 22	Jesus revealed in consummation or in The New Jerusalem.

The book of Revelation gives the consummate unveiling of Jesus.

Why Study the Book of Revelation? →

Why Study the Book of Revelation?

- #1 The Book of Revelation is an unveiling of a sequence of prophetic events before The Coming of Christ.
- #2 The Book of Revelation is tomorrow's newspaper and it is history written in advance. It shows GOD'S NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS.
- #3 A special blessing is given to those that read, hear and keep the words of this book.
- #4 This book contains almost every doctrine of the Bible so it is not only prophetic, it is intensely doctrinal.
- #5 This book reveals Christ as He will be, The King of Kings and The Lord of Lords when He unclenches the fist of Gentile rebellion in Revelation 19.
- #6 This is not a book of doom and gloom, it is a book of victory, conquest and coronation.

The study of this course will give you the Unveiling of Christ, an understanding of prophetic events preceding The Second Coming of Christ and the ability to see and declare God's News Behind the News.
