“ This is the second time I’ve invited Tim as a guest/anchor speaker for my event. I have worked with Tim in 2010 where he wowed the 535 educational leaders in Jakarta. Everyone left the event singing ‘Yes we can’ and the tune stuck with me for a few months! When I needed to find a speaker for a event that I was organising for my new company, I again looked to Tim, with complete trust that he will be able to do the same awesome job!

He came to our Bangkok event where 150 managers from across the 30 over countries gathered for our annual staff conference. He presented and, once again, he delivered an outstanding session. A few key words kept coming up in the feedback for Tim’s session: ‘Inspirational’, ‘Energetic’, ‘Fantastic’.

From the conceptualisation of the content of our session to the delivery of the presentation, Tim is able to pick up the key issues that we want to address, and incorporate his expertise on these areas into the presentation. The management team is so impressed with the session that we are looking forward to have him back for next year’s conference!

- Here is some of the participant feedback:
- Tim’s presentation was great!
  - Liked his motivations skills and engaging style of presentation.
  - Identifying the different types of mindsets and approaches to customer service really helps me to re-look how my test centre operates and how I can improve.
  - Fantastic 4-step tool to reach the goal.

- Gave us good insights of what we can do to enhance individual & team performances.
- Energetic introduction and lots of food for thought!
- Entertaining but also reminder of all those customer service pointers!
- Tim is Inspirational!
- It helped us to understand how important it is to focus on our customer service as this is what will build a good reputation for the center and for the test.
- Great interaction enforcing the customer value. Tim was great!

Thank you once again for the fantastic session!”
