

Union UMC Day School Child Discipline Form

Union UMC Day School is committed to providing children and families with quality learning in a safe and loving Christian environment. A major part of the obligation is to use a system of discipline that will provide a positive learning experience leading each child to develop a strong sense of individual worth and responsibility. We use social emotional curriculum techniques from Conscious Discipline as well as redemptive discipline which involves praying for and with your child. The following are guidelines for handling discipline:

1. No corporal or physical punishment.
2. No limits on behavioral expectation that are not developmentally appropriate.
3. Use of consistency, fairness, and patience.
4. Use of logical consequences instead of punishment. Acceptable consequences are: removing a child from one play area to another, limiting play privileges and giving your child appropriate choices.
5. Use of self-regulation skills will be taught during group learning so that when those skills are needed, the child can calm him/herself.
6. Use of positive reinforcement. What you pay attention to the most, is what you'll get the most of. Thus, appropriate behavior will be recognized and reinforced.
7. Use of a "safe place" where a child can self-calm will be used in place of time-out.
8. The Director will involve a child's parents in the disciplinary process only when uncontrollable behavior and/or behavior that is potentially harmful to the child or others persists.
