Union United Methodist Church Irmo, South Carolina

Child of God

I'm sure you've heard the adage about knowing yourself. I certainly have, many times: "If you don't know who you are, the world will tell you." And I'll add to it, "What the world tells you won't be the truth of you and will likely have harmful effects."

The commercial world will tell you that you are a needy person, and fortunately they have the item to sell you that will meet your need. The political world will tell you that you are a victim (of something) and they are there to fix it for you. The sports world will tell you that you are what you achieve, or fail to achieve, on the sports field. You get the idea.

I've thought about that adage a good bit lately, especially with the schools starting back. I think of our students, many going into new schools, trying to figure out just who they are. That, of course, is one of the primary tasks of the teenage years, exploring abilities, interests, relationships and dreams and coming to an integrated sense of oneself.

All along that journey, "the world" (friends, teachers, parents, coaches, social media, etc.) will be trying to tell them who they are, or who they need to be. It can be overwhelming.

I remember someone saying once that when a toddler is learning to walk, we smile and chuckle at the child's efforts and many falls. We continue to encourage the little one: "You can do it!" we say. But then, with our teenagers, as they try to learn to "walk" the maze of identity (and emotions and relationships), instead of smiling at their stumbles and encouraging them along, we say, "You should know better." Or "Why can't you get it right!" or, "What were you thinking?"

This is one reason the church's voice is so crucial. We need to be repeatedly saying, "We know you, you are God's child." "You are the beloved of God, cherished and chosen." "You are the sheep for whom God would leave the 99 and come seeking you if you get lost."

"We know you, you are part of our body, the church, and we are incomplete without you." "You don't need a title or label because here you are simply valued and loved as a child of God."

Now, I know that the church doesn't always do the best job at communicating all that. The church is made up of imperfect people, sinners who are redeemed not by their goodness, but by the mercies of God in Christ Jesus. We at times pre-judge others by their appearance, by their status, or by their differences from ourselves. And sometimes we pre-judge ourselves too.

Yet, when we get it right, and let God's Spirit guide us, we become part of God's tremendous work of bringing healing to broken people and a broken world. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. -2 Cor. 5

Who are we as Union United Methodist Church? We are a people who are trying to live as children of God, and are trying to help others learn the truth of that identity as well. It's not easy in a culture that has a lot of other agendas, but it's worth it. And your participation, your prayers, your gifts, your service, and your witness makes a difference. This is us, seeking to Know Christ, Share Faith and Show Grace, as the children of God.

Blessings, -Stephen

BACK TO SCHOOL BASH

Sunday, August 13th, we kicked off the school year with our second annual Back to School Bash. The Union Praise band led us in worship and Reverend Faye Jones blessed the bookbags of over 100 children and prayed for a safe and happy school year. It was a great day in the Sanctuary and in our FMC Gym as we tried to beat the heat by having games and fun indoors. The laughter and smiles on the faces of our youth and children was an encouraging sight to see. We appreciate the many hands that went into making this a fun afternoon.

In addition to fun and fellowship, we also collected many items for our Snack Pack Program and handed out school supplies for those who need a helping hand this school year. We continue to be amazed at the generosity shown to these children by our church family. We also want to thank Moe's, Dogs on the Run, and Kona Ice of Irmo/Chapin for a wonderful dinner and dessert! The 360 degree photo booth was a also a hit for all ages!

We pray each of our children, youth, teachers, administrators, and support staff have a wonderful and safe school year!

3rd Grade Bibles

What a wonderful day! On Sunday, August 27, we gave our rising 3rd graders their very own Bible with their name engraved on them.

We hosted a Bible Boot Camp that afternoon where our kids and a parent had the opportunity to learn about this book they were given. We sang some silly songs, learned about a talking donkey and why it is important to spend time with this book.

It is our prayer that this gift will be a starting point for a deeper relationship with God, enhanced through the study of God's word.

Union's Prayer Ministry is Expanding!

Prayer Squares are now available to everyone to "tie" with prayers for those facing major illness, loss, or disruption in their lives. These squares are available for anyone to pick up and deliver. Supplies are in the Welcome Center in the Narthex and all adult Sunday School classes. What a wonderful and caring way to express love and concern for hurting souls.

Pillow Bags are being made to hold a book, toy, snacks, etc. These will be given to children at the Children's Hospital and other children in treatment for major illnesses.

Prayer Shawls and Lap Quilts continue to be available for you to take to someone facing a major hurdle in their lives. Both are comforting and practical for those receiving chemo where they must sit for hours.

We WELCOME everyone to join us in making these items. If you crochet, knit, quilt or sew, we would love for you to join in these projects. You can do them on your own time, or maybe you know someone who would like to help with these ministries.

Any questions or to volunteer, contact Susan Harrison, Prayer Warrior Leader, at susanharrison@me.com or 704-657-6918. You can also contact Connie Warren, Congregational Care Leader, or Shari Johnson.

A Note of Thanksgiving -

Dear United Methodist Church,

We wanted to take a moment to express our deepest and most sincere gratitude for your unwavering support, both in terms of hands-on assistance and generous financial contributions, towards our home repair project. Thanks to the incredible dedication and selflessness of our Union family, we are now able to see the light at the end of the tunnel for this home repair. Your willingness to lend a helping hand and provide essential funds has made a huge impact on our lives!

For months, we endured the challenges of having an incomplete backside to our home and a partial roof, relying solely on tarps to keep the rain at bay. During our moments of despair, you, along with the team lead by Wallace Steadman and his handy helpers - Jim Sharp, Brian Wisnewski, Ned Calvert, Greg Collins, John Bowen, Clarke Smith, Mark Kyle, Don Cornell, and Sam Schlagel - stepped in as a ray of hope, helping us rebuild and giving us the mental strength to persevere.

Today, we are humbled and overjoyed to report that we are almost at the finish line. Your support, along with the supplies from Stier Building, has been instrumental in transforming our living situation from one of uncertainty to one of promise and comfort. Special thanks also go to Michelle Cochcroft and Linda Steadman for providing food, and to our Union Sunday groups for their generous donations. Your compassion and love have not only helped repair our physical home but have also uplifted our spirits in ways words cannot adequately express. We feel truly blessed to be a part of such a caring and compassionate community.

As we near the completion of this project, we are filled with profound gratitude for the love you have shown us. Your kindness has made a world of difference, and we want you to know that your love and care have touched our lives in immeasurable ways.

With warm regards and heartfelt appreciation,
The Haroff Family
