

UNION Connection

Union United Methodist Church Irmo, South Carolina

An Unexpected Lesson

Many years ago, I served as pastor of a church that was located on a busy highway. In fact, it was a major route to a popular beach. Two hundred yards up the road from the church was Madam Selene's place.

Madam Selene, as you might suppose, was a fortune teller, announced by a large sign in front of the modest white frame house.

Imagine my surprise one day when, working away in my office, I received a call from Madam Selene. She asked if I would please come to talk with her that afternoon. I had never met her before, but I wanted to be a friendly helpful pastor, so I said "Certainly."

After hanging up, I questioned my readiness to say yes to her. Did she have a complaint about the church? Were there questions about faith, or a personal crisis she wanted to talk about? She'd given no indication about why she requested the visit.

Then it dawned on me that everyone in that farming community knew my car. What would they think seeing it parked in front of the fortune teller's place? I thought about just walking up the road but decided that that would just raise more questions if I was seen.

So, mid-afternoon I knocked on Madam's door. When the door opened, I met the diminutive Helen Spears, aka Madam Selene. And before me was a richly furnished, dimly lit room, with the requisite round table and plenty of red crush-velvet draperies.

Helen thanked me for coming and said, "Let's go sit at the kitchen table to talk." She opened another door I hadn't noticed and ushered me through. The difference caught me off guard. I stepped into a bare dining room and through it to a starkly furnished kitchen, with a Formica dinette table and metal chairs.

After a bit of awkward small talk, Helen pulled out an envelope and slid it over to me. "I know your church does good work and I've been having a strong sense I need to make a donation" she said.

I looked in the envelope and saw five one-hundred-dollar bills. Surprised, and cautious, I then looked around the sparse kitchen again. Then I said something I shouldn't have. "Ms. Spears. I will be glad to put this gift in our mission fund, but as I look at your place here it seems you are barely getting by, and I don't quite feel right taking this much money from you."

Her eyes flared as she said, "Reverend, my heavenly Father owns the cattle on a thousand hills, and He will provide for all my needs! Please take the money and put it to good use."

Properly admonished, I apologized and thanked her. I invited her to come to a worship service some time, but she declined. "I appreciate the invitation," she said, "but my presence might not be appreciated by the people there."

A few minutes later I was back in my car again hoping I wasn't being watched by passing church members. Then it hit me. I didn't expect "Madam Selene" to know anything about the church, or the Bible (specifically Psalm 50), or God. I had set limits on the way I thought God could work or where God might show up.

A woman "outside the church," taught me, a minister "in the church," a lesson about being generous and trusting God. But sometimes God has to use the unexpected to teach us what we should already know. God is faithful. God provides. And we need to listen to God to shape our own generosity. Thanks be to God!

- Pastor Stephen

BACK TO SCHOOL BASH

On Sunday, August 3, we kicked off the school year with our fourth annual Back to School Bash! The Union Praise Band led us in worship and Reverend Stephen Taylor blessed the bookbags of over 75 children and prayed for a safe and happy school year.

It was a great day in the Sanctuary and in our FMC Gym as we tried to beat the heat by having games, face painting, and more indoors. The cake walk was a hit! Many thanks to everyone involved, from volunteering to make cakes and cupcakes to donate, to face painting, to singing with us up front, and so much more; we appreciate you and your helping hands! As always we appreciate your generosity for our Snack Pack program, which feeds 100+ kids each week.

We pray each of our children, youth, teachers, administrators, and support staff have a wonderful and safe school year!

Welcome New Members!

We welcomed several new members into the Union family on September 14!

Be sure to introduce yourself to these wonderful people when you meet them in the hallways and offer them a warm welcome!

Rest in Dignity Note of Thanks

On behalf of the Richland County Coroner's Office team, I want to thank everyone at Union United Methodist Church who attended our recent Rest in Dignity Burial Service and those who prayed over the work we were doing that day ... remembering those unclaimed and often forgotten. What a blessing to have several of your choir members sing and Rev. Stephen Taylor to share words of comfort as we laid our citizens to rest. Having your church support this service means a great deal to my staff, and to me personally. We are forever grateful for everyone's kindness and compassion.

– Naida Rutherford, Richland County Coroner

Wilson Circle Book Club

The next meeting of the Wilson Circle Book Club will be held Tuesday, October 14, 2025 at 1:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. We will be discussing The Seed Keeper by Diane Wilson. It's the story of Rosalie Iron Wing, a Native American girl from the Dakota tribe, from the time she is placed in the foster care system at age 12 through her marriage to a white farmer and her return to her abandoned childhood cabin in Minnesota following the death of her husband years later. As she struggles to survive, she discovers a hidden box of seeds left by her great-great grandmother. The story focuses on Rosalie but includes the perspectives of her great-great grandmother, her great aunt, and her best friend from childhood, each of whom reveals the effects of either the 1862 US-Dakota War, the removal of Indigenous children from their families, or modern farming practices on the water and land. The Seed Keeper won the 2022 Minnesota Book Award in Fiction.

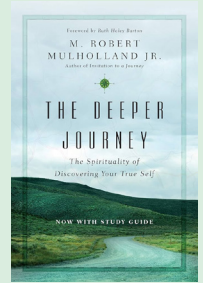

There are two copies of the book in the UWF collection in the Church Library and 2 copies in the Richland Public Library. There are no copies of the book in the Lexington Public Library. It's available through Hoopla, although the Lexington Public Library system has announced that it is only providing Hoopla through September 30, 2025. All are welcome to join us. ## Congratulations Beth!

We congratulate our own Beth Sawyer who was awarded Woman of the Year for the United Women in Faith Columbia District on Saturday, September 20. The Woman of the Year award recognizes a woman who has worked within her church, as part of the United Women of Faith on a circle level and a church-wide level, and in her community to inspire others to be servants of God.

Beth has served as Union's UWF President for two years, and has been involved with her circle for over 35 years, serving in many different positions. Under her leadership, Union's UWF recently hosted its first Shower of Hope, a resource fair for families of young children which provided baby supplies and information from local community organizations. Beth volunteers her time with many different groups at Union, from greeting others at the welcome desk, serving on Church Council, participating in Disciple Bible study, leading a group at Vacation Bible School, and so much more.

Beth is a true servant leader. She gives her time and many talents to Union UMC on a daily basis with humility and grace, and she encourages others in our community to get involved. She is willing to take on any job, big or small, because of her vision for service at Union and the needs of others in the community. She is a living example of a true leader. She gives without receiving, responds to a call when asked, sees a need and fills it, and makes everyone she meets feel special. Congratulations Beth on being the Woman of the Year!

If you're interested in more information about UWF or would like to join a circle, please contact Beth at eosawyer22@gmail.com.

Will you be one of our 600 volunteers needed to bring Bethlehem to life for our Irmo community?
