Introduction

This is the seventh revision 11/22/22 of the Harvest House Manual which is a part of Harvest Outreach since 2010.

 always make sure you have the latest up-to-date manual*

Whenever the masculine pronoun is used in this manual, it means the female pronoun as well. There are Harvest Houses for men and there are Harvest Houses for women. There are no Harvest Houses for both men and women in the same house. The Harvest House is a Christ centered housing and residence into the Harvest House is never mandatory.

About Harvest Outreach

Harvest Outreach Ministries Started under God's Harvesters in 2011. God's Harvesters was founded in 1975 because Brother Edwin Taylor had a burden to preach the gospel to men and women that were incarcerated. Bro. Taylor began prison ministry with his wife, Rev. Lindell Shumake & other volunteers at the old Marion County Jail in Palmyra, MO. It was not too long after it began they expanded to other prisons and county jails in the state of Missouri.

God's Harvesters/Harvest Outreach established The Harvest House in November 2010, which is a ministry for men to get back on their feet after suffering with legal, addictive or financial problems. In 2015 we opened our first women's house and began our women's programs.

Harvest Outreach received their 501 (c) 3 in 2015 and with their partner God's Harvesters continue local ministries and collaborations to help our communities battle the issues of hunger, addictions and to help men and women overcome problems through the power of Jesus Christ.

We are willing to work with probation and parole or any other agencies necessary to help these men become productive and responsible citizens. We will be providing necessary Bible Studies, Biblical counseling, recovery supports, etc. to attain these goals. We believe this happens through the Lord Jesus Christ who changes hearts and the result is changed lives.

*The Harvest House's are an accredited sober living facility in the State of Missouri. We are listed with the Missouri Coalition of Recovery Support Providers (<https://mcersp.org/>)

Harvest House System of Operations

While rules at Harvest House are kept at a minimum, there are nevertheless rules. Unfortunately, it is impossible for any organization to function without having some system or procedures. The rules are set up to give guidance and help to insure the best possible success for all the members.

Rules

Alcoholics and drug addicts by nature seem to dislike rules. It is impossible for a house of recovering alcoholics to stay sober if even one person is permitted to drink or take drugs. The presence of a practicing alcoholic among those who are trying to stay sober invites other relapses. As a matter of self-preservation it is necessary for the membership of the Harvest House to confront the relapsing member immediately. A meeting of the House should be held and if a majority of the members believe that a member is drinking or taking drugs that member can be asked to leave.

Other rules and regulations set up by the Harvest House are to insure the safety and longevity of the house as well as the members.

If the house is not ran by a set of rules there will be no house.

Since the success of the Harvest House depends on having enough income to meet expenses, it is important that members pay their equal share of household expenses in a timely manner. Rules may be required that force the eviction of members who do not keep their equal share of household expenses up to date. All members should be encouraged to pay their share of household expenses at least one week in advance. The weekly house meeting becomes the ideal time to discuss any resident that is not up-to-date in paying the equal share of household expenses. It helps neither the individual resident nor the house group to let anyone get behind.

Leadership

For the Harvest House to run successfully it must have certain leaders in place. These leaders are here to insure the rules are followed and also to help the individual succeed in a Christian lifestyle .

JESUS is always the Head of the Body

House Meetings

It is very important and required to have a House meeting at least once a week.

A meeting should be used to:

- *Report on the current financial status of the House; Consider new applications for membership.
- *Resolve any problem affecting members in the House.
- *Resolve general complaints about maintenance of the House.
- *Consider proposals or projects to be undertaken by the House.

(A fine can be issued for missing a house meeting without prior approval)

(c) 2022 Harvest Outreach www.harvestoutreach.faith

-There are no "secrets" in the Harvest House. Members need to know whether the House is living on "borrowed money" (from fees paid in advance) or whether members are falling behind in fees in order to know how much needs to be charged for a House to be financially sound

A special meeting can be called, whenever there is any suspicion that a member is drinking or taking drugs. Such meetings are the most difficult of any held in any Harvest House. All special meetings shall be facilitated by Harvest Outreach and the decisions made by the Board shall be final. In such cases, as a special meeting the House membership may have a chance to talk with Harvest Outreach to express cares and concerns. The individual suspected of violating the rule against drinking or taking drugs should be directly confronted with the facts leading to the suspicion.

The membership of the House may vote on whether or not the facts support the conclusion that a member has violated the rule, the decision by the House membership should be viewed simply as a factual determination. If a majority of the House membership, attending the special meeting, believes that the individual did in fact drink or take drugs, expulsion of that member is automatic.

Meetings also include the wide range of decisions facing the Harvest House from purchases of wastebaskets to plans for opening a new House. The House meeting is the place to resolve any conflicts, which arise from living together as a group. It is also a good place to pass on information about new AV AA or NA meetings or up-coming events. Staying sober and enjoying life that is led by Jesus Christ is at the heart of Harvest House living.
