

CENTRAL BOOKENS

King Bookens is an American hip hop known for his early 90s flow, witty punchlines and triumph bars over beats. Born in Goldsboro, NC and was raised by aunts and uncles. Bookens' upcoming was a rocky one, from bids in prison from grinding to burying his loved ones. The hip hop artist's rough life experience has shaped his music career and pushed him to grind harder to achieve his dreams at the age of 47.

Music was always the one thing that kept him inspired, he has huge creative aspirations. He quotes, "I would like to spread joy and give people a good time through my music, give them some knowledge and leave them something to think about all in the same time". Bookens says, he has been doing music since his youth, coming up listening to Dean and Dapper Dan. He's established himself as a rising East Coast artist incorporating subtle undercurrent of pop and rap in his music and keeping it hood at the same time. Straight out of Webb Town, Bookens' music is available on all digital streaming platforms.
