Prerequisites:

- This course is recommended for our 7th grade students.
- Students need to have had basic Language Arts coursework previously.
- Please contact the tutor with any questions about your child's readiness for this course.

Course Description

English 7 is an adventure!

This year we have two exciting novels to read, plus a wide selection of short stories and poetry. I can't wait to discover the themes, literary devices, symbols and motifs with your students. Our discussions will be lively and thought-provoking!

In addition to discussing great literature, students will learn to write strong essays and master the basics of English grammar.

Commitment

- This course meets on Thursdays.
- Students will have grammar homework every week.
- Students will write 1 essay in the fall and 1 in the spring.
- Students will memorize 2 pieces of poetry.
- Reading assignments will typically be 2-4 chapters of reading per week.

A typical class will look like...

Class time will start with grammar instruction, then move into discussion about the reading assignments and/or instruction on writing assignments.

Participating in discussion will be part of your grade! We want to hear everyone's perspective, so please share! :)
