

Does God Really Care About The Small Stuff?

Dr. Jack Graham

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:6-7

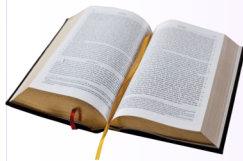

Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, the great preacher of a century ago, once gave a compelling sermon about how believers in Christ should bring every request before God. After the service, an elderly woman walked up to him and asked, "Dr. Morgan, should I really bring my every little request to God? Doesn't He have so much more to be concerned about than my little request?"

G. Campbell Morgan looked at the lady with a gleam in his eye and said, "Madam, can you conceive of anything that's not small to God?"

Well, the obvious answer is that there is nothing that's not small to God. Your problems in life, be they a hurt toe or deep anxiety, are well within His control and worthy of being brought before Him. Why? Because God loves you and whatever concerns you also concerns Him if you're walking in His will.

Don't ever think God is too big to hear your little requests. Yes, He's the Lord of creation, but He's also an intimate friend. Take your requests to Him and trust He'll work every single one of them out for your good and His glory.

BRING YOUR REQUESTS – BIG AND SMALL – TO GOD, KNOWING HE'LL WORK THEM OUT FOR YOUR GOOD AND HIS GLORY.

Retiring Pastor Kim Gray and his wife, Tina, have served the Lord for 47 years. They have ministered to Harvest Baptist Church for 35 of those 47 years.

There is a special box in the foyer where church members and friends can provide a token of their appreciation for Pastor Gray and Tina's ministry to Harvest Baptist Church since 1999.

There are only a few defining moments in the life of a church or an individual. To genuinely seek a perfect heart is one of those moments. To give out of what we already have demonstrates our love. What we commit out of what we do not have demonstrates our faith. It is absolutely necessary for us to seek a perfect heart in order for God to add His blessings on what we are attempting to do. Build a life that seeks a perfect heart with God.

Do not be terrified or discouraged, for I am with you wherever you go. It's easy for My followers to feel frightened and pessimistic when the mainstream voices in this world speak so heavily against them. Looking at this life through godless, biased lenses will indeed pull you down.

Christian courage is the antidote to this poisonous input, and it is nourished by the knowledge that I am always with you.

It is crucial to remember that what you can see of reality is only a very small piece of the whole. When Elijah was deeply discouraged, he said he was the only one who had remained faithful. Yet there were thousands in Israel who had not bowed down to Baal. Elijah was blinded by his isolation and his discouragement. Similarly, Elijah's servant was terrified because he couldn't see what Elijah saw:
horses and chariots of fire all around to protect them from enemy forces.

Beloved, not only am I with you, but I have unlimited resources to help you. So look beyond the way things appear, and take courage!

Joshua 1:9 1 Kings 19:14 2 Kings 6:17 Matt. 14:27

Have not I commanded thee?
Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid,
neither be thou dismayed:
for the LORD thy God
is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

Joshua 1:9
