In Due Season

These words of Paul have been a constant challenge to us as we labor in the field of Cambodia. We want it to be harvest time, all the time! But I'm reminded that it is God who gives the increase, and it is our responsibility to be faithful in the task and to not be "weary in well doing". We are reminded that the fruit of evangelism is not all ripe at the same time. We must work patiently and trust that God will give the increase "in due season".

We thank God for the many relationships we have cultivated and for the opportunity to sow and then water the Gospel seed. We continue to sow and water the seed with Vutha but only God can give the increase. Please pray that we would be able to help him understand the Gospel, and that we would continue to grow in our understanding of the Cambodian culture.

More than a year ago, we asked for prayer for a man named Su-rin. We have continued to cultivate this relationship and give him the Gospel. Just this morning Su-rin came to our house and wanted to speak with me about his need to learn more about God! He was excited to learn that we have a special time of Bible study on—

FAMILY NEWS

BIRTH CERTIFICATE

After 4 months of dealing with the local authorities, we now have Evalena's birth certificate! Please pray that we can get her passport and visa without any issues.

JEWEL

Our oldest daughter has been asking many questions about God and Jesus. We thank God for her tender heart. Please pray for both Jewel's and Joy's salvation and for God-given wisdom in leading them to Christ.

-- Sunday mornings. Please pray that Su-rin would keep his word and come for Bible study this Sunday.

Just this past week we met an elderly lady named Hone who had recently moved to our area and said she was a Christian. The church she attended taught Chinese as part of their Sunday worship time. After visiting with her the following week, it became clear that she was not truly saved, but because she had attended the meetings and had heard some of the Bible stories, she is now convinced that she is a Christian. This demonstrates the great need for a patient and thorough approach in our evangelism here in Cambodia. Please pray Hone would understand the true Gospel and be born again.

Children and Teens

1 Leena holds Evalena

We are thankful for the children and teens that God has brought for us to minister to. Every week two different groups of children and young teens come to our house for Bible Club. Naomi continues to meet with 3 teenage girls (Sorya, Mey, and Leena) for salvation Bible studies. Leena (14; pictured above) has been the most consistent and engaged. Srey Neet (10; pictured left) has been coming to our house consistently for nearly two years and has started a salvation Bible study on Sunday mornings. Please pray that all 4 of these precious young people would have genuine saving faith and not simply a desire to please us.
