It has been a busy season the past two months for our family. In March, we were excited to participate in a leadership conference hosted by New Hope Baptist Church in Phnom Penh. We are thankful for the opportunity we had to minister and meet many new believers.

April was a special time as we celebrated Resurrection Sunday. Over the past 2 months, Randy has been slowly teaching through the events of the Passion Week culminating with a lesson on Christ's ascension. The children in the Bible Club have been responding well to the lessons. A couple of the older boys named Rut and Meng have spoken of believing in Jesus some and believing in Buddhism some. They are struggling with giving up the teachings of their family and culture. Please pray that they would put their faith fully in Jesus alone for salvation.

This past month Mey, a teenage girl and recent convert, moved to a new city in Cambodia. Though we miss her, we are thankful that we were able to reach her with the Gospel while she lived in our city. Please pray that we can find a pastor in her new town who can help her in her walk with God.

Khmer New Year was celebrated this past weekend. Over the course of three days, our city had roughly 15,000 visitors. We hosted a special New Year event at our home with lots of games, candy, and water fights. We are thankful for this chance to meet and spend time with folks who we would not normally get to speak with.

Beginning in May, Cambodia is hosting the biannual SEA games, an Olympic style event for the countries in Southeast Asia. Because of this, the public schools will be out for a 5-week break. We are planning on conducting a VBS during this time when many children are not in school. Please pray that there would be children who begin attending our Bible Club because of this event.

Thank you for your prayers and support!
