What it means to be redeemed, and what it means to be the church today.

I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. — Romans 8:38–39

Paul wrote from Corinth circa AD 56, in the midst of his missionary journeys there. He was worried he might be killed before he could reach Rome to meet this group. He wasn’t — he made it three years later. He wanted to write to his Roman friends and address the key truths of the gospel, and he always aimed to answer their most burning questions.

This first epistle, or letter, in the Bible was not the first written chronologically, but it’s considered “the head” of the Epistles because it perfectly crystalizes the nature of the gospel. The church in Rome was a mix of Jews and Gentiles. The Jews wondered, “How do we deal with Gentiles who are now part of our faith? Should they be circumcised and act according to our traditions? What do we do with the Law?” Paul pointed out that Jews and Gentiles are all sinners in the same boat, all subject to judgment, and all offered the free gift of grace through Christ. Jesus circumcises the heart — the most important thing — and that changes our very nature. Our works reflect Christ’s grace; the Law is there to show us where we’ve gone wrong. Jesus’ free gift of love didn’t just land in our laps; the whole of history and the Old Testament led up to this point. And now Jesus’ gospel equips us and gives us hope, peace, and perseverance in this life. Now we live as a community, a body of Christ, transformed, bestowed with gifts, and reflecting His love in the world. Our job as a church is to build up one another and give thanks to Jesus with our lives.

Dear Pastor and Friends December 2022

We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith growth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

2 Thessalonians 1:3

Greetings and Blessings from your ambassador family in Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico. Almost reaching a new year and still can witness the Greatness, faithfulness, and love of our God, but also, I can witness your faith and love growing towards us.

In November, God allowed us to celebrate one more year since my parents, and their 4 children, came to Mexico to plant a Church that has been here, by His Grace, for 48 years and, by His Mercy still going out, and sending out, to share the Precious and Powerful Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. It was such an emotional moment that once again we can only say, THANKS to our Great God and to each one of you who have been very considerate in participating with us in this ministry.

I wish everyone has wonderful and blessed happy holidays. Thank you for being faithful to God. He is always Good!!! *Keep praying for us for revival in our Church and our lives.

*Pray for one of our missionaries, Moises, and a strong spiritual war that he is having.

*Pray for another of our missionaries, Manuel Robles in Panama (money to buy a land property, 50,000 dlls)

*Our new goals for 2023

*Mom is doing good and being faithful to the Lord in all she can. Keep praying for her.

In Christ with Love
John D. Perez and Family

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK

please pray for... John D. Perez and Family Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico

Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. John 4:35
