Sermon Outline

Don't Let the Scoffer Get You Down

2 Peter 3:1-9

Intro: Christianity in America faces scoffers as never before.

- Scoffers of the biblical family
Marriage is no longer viewed as one man and one woman.
- Scoffers of the biblical account of Creation
The teachers' union, as well as our present government, would be in favor of any view that would discredit creation and elevate evolution.
- Scoffers of God, our Flag, and the Constitution
God and prayer have been thrown out of school. The Constitution is trampled, criticized, and ignored, and even our Flag is not honored or displayed in the proper place of honor.

There is an obvious bias against God, the Word of God, Creation, and our nation's history and flag.

It seems bitterness will always need a target.

I. Remember His Words of Promise. vs. 2

B. His Apostles' Words

II. Remember His Power. vs. 5-7

III. Remember His Patience. vs. 8-9

1. According to His time-table

2. According to His plan – v. 10

B. His Patience in Salvation v. 9

1. God is not willing that any should perish.

Put Your Trust In Me

Trust in Me at all times. Pour out your heart to Me, for I am your refuge. The more you rely on Me, the more effectively I can help you. Trusting Me is appropriate for all circumstances: joyful and sorrowful, peaceful and stressful. In fact, things that cause you stress can serve as reminders to seek My Face. I want you to remember that I am with you, taking care of you, even when life hurts. Talk with Me about your troubles and leave them with Me. Then rest in My Presence while I go to work on your behalf.

Tell yourself the truth about Me. Use words of Scripture to describe Me: "You are my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust." I am indeed a refuge, a safe place to find shelter in the storms of life. Speaking or singing such truths is an effective way to draw near to Me. Your mind usually has several thoughts or thought-fragments passing through it at once. Instead of just thinking about Me, speak out loud; this gives focus to your thoughts, and to your trust in Me.

Psa 62:8 Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.

CRAFT FAMILY NEWSLETTER

Spring 2023

Romans 5:1 & 2 Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: 2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

MINISTRY: From February 9th -20th we helped minister at the Amazing Grace Gospel Tent at The Florida State Fair. Had many very good conversations where people understood the Gospel and had a time when they put their faith in Jesus for salvation, but needed to hear and understand that their decision was for all of eternity. The joy of seeing them really get truth was really a blessing to see. I talked with a young, eight-year-old boy named Moses, who knew he needed to be saved. He prayed to put his faith in Jesus while his mother sat there and rejoiced. Steph had a good talk with some young girls, but they had never heard much before about the Lord. So, she gave them some literature to take with them, not wanting to push them into a decision they didn't fully understand. We are really enjoying working with AGM at fairs because it gives many opportunities to talk one on one with so many people of all ages and backgrounds. Priscilla is also enjoying it and getting more comfortable as she learns how to get people to look at the three doors.

For March 3rd -12th we were preaching at the Daytona Bike Rally. We were blessed to have two friends come to preach and tract with us. One was a street preacher friend from Wisconsin. The other is a friend/evangelist named David Engesath. He had never gone to anything like it and never dealt with bikers. He did a great job of getting over 2,000 of David Spurgeon's biker tracts out. We enjoyed his fellowship and encouragement.

On March 17th we walked, preaching and handing out tracts to the huge crowd. We were quite surprised at the response of the people. They were friendly and far more took tracts than we have ever seen at this event before. There is another man, from a Baptist church nearby, that we see every year faithfully handing out St. Patrick tracts. Because of the large crowds and the rainy weather, we weren't able to spend any time with the night crowd.

We are now heading the many, many miles to Arizona, to preach for the first time in many years at the outdoor Mormon Easter pageant in Mesa. We will share what happens there in the next letter. FAMILY: After the pageant, we will get to see many of our children and their families when we gather for Caleb and Abby's wedding. We are all looking forward to that, as it is getting harder to get us all together very often. We are well and have avoided the sicknesses we have encountered so far. PRAYER: 1) Safety traveling and no vehicle troubles. 2) Wedding details to come together and for all to go smoothly. 3) Continued direction for ministry. 4) Salvation for family and the people we meet. God bless all who pray and support this ministry.
