December 2023/January 2024

Greeting All,

We thank the Lord for all your prayers/support for the continued work here in the Netherlands. The Lord has been good, and we are being presented with new opportunities and challenges. Our main need now is that the Lord give us the necessary wisdom to find His will in all these things. The Lord has laid on my heart recently, since we have seen some new families begin attending, to go back to basics. I just started a series on the idea of the "Old Paths" from Jeremiah 6:16 and will take the church through the foundational truths of the New Testament Church. Our main desire is to see a real move of God in the hearts of the people here, from a carnal mindset to a Biblical perspective. Please ask the Lord to help us with this.

We had our Prayer/Praise service on Sunday December 31, and it was well attended, and many gave praises for the Lord's blessings through 2023. It was also a real blessing to see several people really opening up their hearts and giving very serious prayer requests for the New Year. This is a big step for the church. There have been some who were a bit timid about trusting others, but now are feeling comfortable enough to share their serious needs. God is doing some big things here! One of the opportunities we have been presented with is that another space in the building we rent has become available. This could be used for extra Sunday School space or Children's Church or many other things that are profitable for the ministry. We have a bit of time to pray about this to see if it is from the Lord or if this is a snare that could cause problems. Please help us pray about whether we should expand now or wait. The last thing we want to do is to get out of the Lord's will. Next month, we will begin a Biblical marriage study with one of the couples. We are still very busy with discipling and are really trying to get others involved in the discipleship ministry, especially the new families.

Our main prayer request is for the young children, teens, and parents in the church. There are two families that are really in some heavy trials. We ask that you pray with us for them to have the wisdom and boldness to do the Biblically correct things in their situations. We are trying to give them Godly counsel through these trials, but they really need a touch from God. Please pray for us as we continue to go to the street. The weather is not great and there is a threat of physical violence from the anti-Israel protesters while we evangelize. We will continue, but your prayers are definitely appreciated. The refugee Bible study is on hold for now but pray that the Lord will allow it to go forward in the future. James 1:5 says, "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him." Please pray for us to have the needed wisdom to serve the people of the Netherlands! Don't forget to pray for one another.

Love in Christ,
 The Krehs
