- Unspoken needs of our church people
- All that have visited the field here

Hello Friends,

We have had a very productive month since the last report. All the discipleship groups are moving forward, and we are seeing some real growth in the people involved. Over the last two weeks, we have seen 2 souls gloriously saved and had a young man baptized. A missionary in Belgium asked us to bring teens to his teen rally, which was a real blessing. God has sure been good. We are having a fellowship this week after preaching service and then after that there will be a service with several of the men preaching short sermons. I believe this will be a great encouragement to the church and to those preaching. I am really excited that a young man (Demien), who is in the newest discipleship group, has asked to preach. I am looking forward to hearing what the Lord has put on his heart.

Last week while we were on the Dam Square preaching and handing out tracts, a man named Bart approached one of the men. He had been really thinking about his eternal condition. He knew he was lost, knew he deserved to go to hell, and when he heard the verses about these things and about the gospel message, he bowed his head and asked the Lord to save him. It was almost like a Philippian jailer moment. Acts 16:30, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" "It is amazing to see God work in the hearts of people. Toward the end of August, we had another young lady visit from Michigan. We had her help continue the process of tracting Hilversum. This week my brother and his wife are here with us, and they have helped in that process also. There is a real chance we will get the city done this year. There has been a young couple attending services for a while and he came to me some time ago asking about being baptized. He has been saved for a little while (before coming to Cornerstone) but had been baptized in a church that is not doctrinally sound. It happens a lot here due to the lack of good churches. After several conversations, he decided he needed to clear his conscience about that and submit to proper Biblical baptism. It was a real encouragement to the church and hopefully there will be some others who get this same desire. We are at that point in the new discipleship class. We have put he and his wife in discipleship with another couple. Pray for them to continue to grow in their walk with our Lord Jesus Christ.

Please pray for the 2 souls that were saved. We try hard to get them to come to church, but the devil is very active against this. Pray for spiritual growth through the discipleship ministry, through the preaching/teaching, and for the people to get an increase in their burden for souls. Pray for safety as we go to the streets for evangelism. Some groups are becoming bolder in their anger towards Israel and Christians here, especially where we evangelize every week. Pray for Lisa's health. She's been having some trouble recently. My brother and his wife will be flying Tuesday, pray for their travel back to the USA. Pray for more fruit for the labor here. There are some other needs our people have that I cannot put in a report, so please just pray for the people the Lord allows us to minister to in the Netherlands. Pray for each other!

Love in Christ,
 Eric & Lisa
