Dear praying friends,

“...[E]arnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.”

Since early August, Randy has had the privilege of teaching an online college-level class to 20 Khmer students from six different churches throughout Cambodia. This institute was started by veteran missionary Rodney Ruppel and is currently in its inaugural year. The institute is designed to equip Cambodians to become lay leaders and pastors in their local churches.

Randy's class material is split into two topics: true religion, and false religion. During the first half of the semester, we focused on 1,2, and 3 John with an emphasis on how to distinguish between true and false religious teachers. The second half has been focused on surveying various cults in Asia and around the world. We are thankful to hear reports of students learning and being equipped to contend for the faith.

Church planting update:

We are thankful for how God is working in the lives of Srey-Koo'ich, Srey Neet, and Rut. As the first believers in their families to be saved out of Buddhism, they face many challenges. It is a great encouragement to us to see them growing in the faith and learning to imitate Christ. Please continue to pray earnestly for Se'rey's salvation. He has studied to the point where he now must make a decision to accept or reject Christ. Please pray that he would not resist the drawing of the Holy Spirit and would turn to Christ in repentance and faith.

Thank you for your prayers and support!
