PRESIDENT'S REPORT: NELSON DUFOUR

Hello Comrades,

October is behind us already, and Poppy season has approached. It's going to be a challenge getting our donation request letters out to the membership due to the rotating postal strikes. We emailed the letters to our email distribution list. We've had a very busy 2 months so far, and the rest of the year looks good. There have been a few major expenses as well, but hopefully we can recover from those quickly.

As you can see, the Men's washroom is being repaired. Sorry for the mess. The Branch continues to be busy and we are still working on a few projects.

ZONE REPORT: NELSON DUFOUR

The next Zone meeting is Monday, February 9 at Branch 255 at 7:30 pm.

Remembering my Dad

William Halstead Gosse.

The above picture shows my dad at the tender age of 19 waiting to board a ship in Halifax harbour to go overseas to England to join the Second World War. Also, in the picture, bottom left, is my son Steven currently serving in the military. In picture bottom right is me receiving the Peacekeeping medal in Bosnia.

At the time, during the Second World War from 1939-46, it was a long time to spend away from family and friends, putting your life at risk each and every day you go to work. However, my dad looked back with good memories of his time in the Naval service, remembering the friends he made and the camaraderie that helped make those days less difficult.

Asked if he would do it all over again, he did not hesitate to answer, "Yes I would."

In the Royal Navy, my dad was stationed on ships that sailed back and forth under cover of darkness in the Atlantic Ocean, protecting supply ships making runs to Allied troops in North Africa.

He spent most of his war service on the Totland — a 250-foot, 1,500-tonne American coast guard boat that had been loaned to the British in 1941 to serve as anti-submarine warfare escorts.

He was just 19 years old when he signed up for duty in 1939, leaving his hometown of Queen's Cove and his job in the family sawmill business for a life of adventure on the high seas.

"I never got a scratch," said the veteran with the clear blue eyes, reflecting on the other ships in his convoy he saw torpedoed and sunk.

"I never once felt scared. I never thought about that."

My dad remembered well the day they heard the war was over.

They were sailing along the coast, on a pitch-black night, heading to England from Africa. As they approached the port of Morocco, they noticed all the lights in the city were on.

"Everything was all lit up." After six years of the nighttime "black out" rule, where lights had to be turned out, or windows covered with black material, to make it more difficult for German airplanes to pinpoint buildings and houses for nighttime attack, the lights of the city were a welcomed sight.

"We knew then the war was over."

My dad remained on duty until the end of 1946.

After his duty he returned to Queen's Cove, to regular work and regular life.

My dad was a founding member of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 27, Clarenville, Newfoundland and did 65 years of service.

My dad was laid to rest on Tuesday, March 6, 2018 at the age of 95.

We will Remember Them.

In Flanders Fields

Canada's most famous war poem

In Flanders Fields is one of the most famous poems from the First World War. Canadian doctor and soldier John McCrae wrote this poem on 3 May 1915. Within months, its powerful words came to symbolize the sacrifices of all those who were fighting. It also established the poppy as an international symbol of remembrance. Over 110 years later, the poem continues to be a part of Remembrance Day ceremonies in Canada and around the world.

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders Fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders Fields.

John McCrae

The willingness to participate in the Poppy Campaign is one of the obligations we undertake when we become Members of The Royal Canadian Legion. All of us must strive to never forget this solemn undertaking — it is part of the debt that we owe to those who have gone before. It is through the Poppy Campaign and the generosity of our fellow citizens that, in addition to providing assistance to Veterans and their families, we foster the Tradition of Remembrance amongst our youth, the leaders of tomorrow.

BETWEEN NOW AND THEN

REMEMBRANCE DAY IS HERE AGAIN
WHAT A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN NOW AND THEN
THE WAR VETS GATHER BY THE CROSS
TO PAY THIR RESPECTS AND MOURN THEIR LOSS
DID YOU BUY YOUR POPPY TO HONOUR THEM
AND SHOW YOUR COMPASSION FOR THOSE FALLEN MEN
BRIGHT RED POPPIES STAND ALL IN A ROW
WHERE THEY REPRESENT SOLDIERS, WE WILL NEVER KNOW
FOR THOSE SOLDIERS FELL BY THE BLAZING GUN
AND THOUGH THEIR LIVES WERE LOST THE BATTLE WAS WON THEIR BRAVERY LIVES ON IN THE STORIES TOLD

ABOUT THOSE HONOURABLE YOUNG MEN WHO WILL NEVER GROW OLD
THEY MARCHED OFF TO WAR DURING THOSE DAYS OF STRIFE
AND VALIENTLY FOUGHT TO NOT LOSE THEIR LIFE
AS THOUSANDS OF BOYS BECAME BRAVE YOUNG MEN
WHAT A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN NOW AND THEN
NOW WE ARE FREE BECAUSE OF THE WAR THEY WON
AND WE SLEEP EASY AT NIGHT WHEN OUR DAY IS DONE
BUT BACK THEN BOMBS SCREAMED IN THE NIGHT
AND MANY DIED BEFORE THE MORNING LIGHT
YES WHAT A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN NOW AND THEN
WHEN SCARED LITTLE BOYS BECAME BRAVE YOUNG MEN

YOUTH & EDUCATION REPORT: STACEY MASSE

I am requesting volunteers to judge the posters, and literary works. I will also need help picking up things. Email me if you are interested or leave your info at the bar.

staceymasse2264@gmail.com.

PUBLIC RELATIONS REPORT: STACEY MASSE

Myself, Com Marion and Com Josiah Celestine need to get together. The TV in the members lounge is being kept up to date as much as possible regarding events at the Branch. Com Josiah still needs access to the website. Thank you to Com JeNie Davidson for always posting pictures of the events around the Branch. Halloween is in the air at the Branch.

BINGO REPORT: PAM WINIK

Upcoming dates for Bingo:

Nov. 13 - 4 to 6 pm
Nov. 22 - 2 to 4 pm
Dec. 6 - 2 to 4 pm

Volunteers are desperately needed to do Bingo cleanup at Paradise Bingo on Dougall Ave.. Currently, there are only about 16 people who can or will do Bingo. Keep in mind we need 2 at a time. It is currently the same members every month who participate. This generates a lot of income for the Branch. Please see me to volunteer for a 2-hour session. Your service is appreciated.

1. 2 volunteers are required
2. Dress code and attendance are mandatory (you get to wear a Branch golf shirt)
3. Please send new volunteers along with an experienced volunteer to shadow, for their first assignment
4. 5 business days-notice is required to give up an assignment, failure to do so will result in a compliance violation.

DONATIONS: PAM WINIK

We are working on getting 20% from our Bingo account to help with the renovations going on.

$500 was donated to WVMSC for the purchase of flags.

CANTEEN/BAR: PAM WINIK

The Branch is now open on Sundays from noon till 6 pm. Come out and socialize and watch some NFL football. The kitchen will be open. We will be having some food and beverage specials, such as $4.00 Landshark draft beer! We are allowing the wearing of ball caps on Sundays only.

RESOLUTIONS, BYLAWS, REGULATIONS: LYNNE PINCIUC

Branch Regulations/By Laws are the operating rules for each Branch. I went over a general overview of what is included at October's General Meeting – such as, name and number of the Branch, meeting times and days, offices that can be held (voted in or appointed), order of business, to name a few. I will speak about the process of changing any of these things, at the November meeting.

LEGION SUPPLIES REPORT: LYNNE PINCIUC:

I'm always open to suggestions for ordering.

CORRESPONDENCE REPORT: LYNNE PINCIUC:

TRAINING, ORGANIZATION & DEVELOPMENT: LAURA GASKIN

Comrades Pam Winik, Ken Winik, Nelson Dufour and myself attended the District "A" Fall Convention at the Essex Legion Branch 201 in October.

LEGION SENIORS REPORT: LAURA GASKIN

I have information about the Heart to Hand Meals program. I will be offering this at the November 6 seniors' dinner & dance. The menu from Heart to home meals is available at the bar, with the sign-up list and the letter from Dave Galley with the selections that he is prepared to bring on 6 November at approx. 1 pm prior the start of our senior's dinner dance. Please sign up at the bar with your choice. If you usually attend our dinner dance on Thursday, please come a little early and enjoy a free hot lunch. If you know a senior who is in need of the service that Dave Galley is able to provide please bring them out on Thursday so they can experience Heart to Home Meals.

They also can experience our new kitchen, enjoy 60's Live and share in our camaraderie. As always please let me know if you have any other ideas about any other people or agencies you would me to arrange to come out and speak to our Seniors. Yours in comradeship.

The seniors continue to enjoy the dancing and dinner every Thursday. I am also selling the 50/50 tickets each week. The Mess Hall's first dinner was shepherd's pie and it was great.

Attention Seniors: Some may be aware that Branch 255 has Blind Darts. Apparently, this is really a sport in other countries, like Great Britain. There are people in our community that may be low vision. They probably don't drive a car, but they may like to play darts, if there is an interest, I could have someone from 255 come and explain it to us. They have been playing since the new year, but would like to see another branch come up with a team so in the future they could have a tournament. Please share this info with friends who may know someone who might have an interest.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: DARREN BULMER:

Good day Comrades, at October's General Meeting there were 29 members in attendance.

LIAISON TO RCNA REPORT: RON SITARZ

The HCMS Margaret Brook, was tied up alongside the Naval Monument at Dieppe Park in October. This visit was for recruiting purposes. 7,000 people visited the HMCS Margaret Brooks while she was in port.
