In My Life This Week

As you use this daily guide, write out your observations and responses on a separate piece of paper and save them with this sheet for reference.

Monday. It is less than two weeks until Christmas (did you need a reminder?). With all that is going on, are you rejoicing? Are you feeling and expressing the gift of God's joy? Do you have a fairly good handle on what true joy from God is? Remember that we described joy as God's gift of steadfast, delightful certainty. Since God gives His perfect joy to us, we can choose to embrace and live in it regardless of what is going on in our lives and world. Do you really believe this? Have you decided to embrace and live in God's joy as you celebrate Christ's coming to earth for us?

Tuesday. The shepherds faced some serious obstacles to being joyful. Review Luke's brief account of the shepherds in chapter 2 of his gospel. From those verses and what we talked about on Sunday, list some of the obstacles to joy they faced. No obstacle, no matter who great or terrible can take away a believer's joy (see John 16:22). What obstacles to being joyful are you facing today, in this season? How are you going to, how are you responding to them?

Wednesday. The shepherds' experience of God's joy included as was evidenced by their overflowing praise to God (see Luke 2:20). Take a quick review of the last (probably hectic) week or so. Have you experienced joy? Have you been praising God? What do you think is the connection between a satisfying experience of joy and overflowing praise to God?

Thursday. The shepherds' experience of God's joy also included as was evidenced by their telling others the "good news of great joy" they had received (see Luke 2:17-18). We thought about this last week as we focused on preparing the way for Christ. What have you been doing to prepare the way for Christ to come into the lives of people in this season? What do you think is the connection between a satisfying experience of joy and telling others the good news of this great joy?

Friday – Saturday. On Sunday we will move on to Loving. Think about God reaching out to us in love by sending Christ into the world and your own reaching out in love to others in this season to help you get ready for our worship on Sunday.
