

Los artículos indefinidos “A” y “AN”.

📌 La regla es sencilla:

- A se usa antes de palabras que empiezan con sonido de consonante.

👉 Ejemplo: a dog, a cat, a house, a big apple.

- An se usa antes de palabras que empiezan con sonido de vocal (a, e, i, o, u).

👉 Ejemplo: an apple, an old man, an ugly monster.

⚠️ Ojo: No importa la letra escrita, sino el sonido con el que empieza la palabra.

- Ejemplo: an hour (porque la “h” no suena, empieza con sonido de vocal).
- Ejemplo: a university (porque “university” empieza con sonido /ju/, como consonante “y”).

👉 En resumen:

- a = consonante
- an = vocal
