CHURCH NEWS

A fine audience greeted the assistant pastor, Rev. Alex. Jones, Sunday morning. His sermon was logical and full of plenty of wholesome food for the hungry soul. Two joined the church. At the evening service, the Rev. T. W. Green, Jr., pastor of the A.M.E. church at Parsons, Kansas, filled the pulpit and delivered a strong and forceful message. The audience enjoyed it in a high manner.

The oneness of talk now is the Seventh Annual Knife and Fork Banquet, March 17th. W. E. Burghardt DuBois, editor of 'The Crisis,' of New York City, will be the speaker.

We hear this week, through a letter to The Advocate, of our pastor, Dr. J. F. Griffin, who is on his vacation. It is without saying, his many substantial and loyal friends will be glad to read his loving message which is to all.
