

THE 20 LAWS OF CHANGE

By: Fountain Hendricks

If you change who you are, what you do or where you're going you will ACTIVATE these Kingdom laws. Kingdom laws produce rewards and consequences when they are obeyed or neglected.

The ACT of changing produces a span of emotions, feelings and events that will occur when you make a change in your life. The size of the change does not impact which law takes affect. When changes are made Kingdom laws are activated to produce a consequence or a reward.

HERE ARE THE 20 LAWS THAT WILL BE ACTIVATED IF YOU MAKE A CHANGE, BIG OR SMALL.

1. CHANGE BRINGS UNFAMILIARITY: Anytime you change anything around you or within you the presence of unfamiliarity will appear. The presence of unfamiliarity does not bring negativity, it nurtures growth. You cannot grow in familiar places.
2. CHANGE REQUIRES PEOPLE TO START OVER: Making a change will require you to start over. However, starting over creates an OPPORTUNITY you never had. You will have the opportunity to be bigger, better and wiser.
3. CHANGE PRESENTS NEW OPPORTUNITIES: An opportunity is a gift that will help you break the limitations off of your life. When you make a change you will have the chance to go farther and achieve more without the responsibility of carry old burdens.
4. CHANGE INVITES THE SPIRIT OF FEAR: Anytime something changes that is out of your control, fear will enter. However, while change invites fear, confidence will destroy fear.

5. CHANGE DISTURBS WHAT IS NORMAL: If you are tired of what is normal making small yet significant changes will make a major difference.
6. CHANGE REQUIRES YOU TO TRUST GOD: When you change something you do not know the outcome. Only God knows. Being unaware of the conclusion will force you to trust God who knows the conclusion.
7. CHANGE EXPOSES YOUR WEAKNESSES: Your weaknesses will always become exposed when you decide to do something different that you haven't done before. Unfamiliar territory will always highlight a person's weaknesses.
8. CHANGE HIGHLIGHTS YOUR STRENGTHS: When you make changes your strengths will be amplified because change brings out the best in you.

9. CHANGE HELPS YOU GROW: If you do not change you will remain complacent. Complacency kills progress. The only way to grow is to do something contrary to your comfort, which requires changing.
10. CHANGE BRINGS MATURITY: As you begin to change you will start seeing things differently, doing things more efficiently and maturing into your best self. Changing alters a person's perception.
11. CHANGE BRINGS DISCOMFORT: Changing is not comforting. It is disturbing. It does not matter what type of change you make, the ACT of changing will be discomfoting because it forces you to adjust in ways you have not experienced.
12. CHANGE BIRTHS CURIOSITY: Changing what you do temporarily puts you in the dark. It removes the comfort of predictability. When change occurs people are often curious to learn everything they can as soon as they can so they can stop the discomfort of ignorance and enter into the comfort of knowledge.

13. CHANGE INSPIRES PEOPLE TO THINK

DIFFERENTLY: When you are making changes your mind becomes stimulated with new thoughts. Change inspires people to think beyond themselves.

14. CHANGE FORCES PEOPLE TO DO SOMETHING

DIFFERENT: It is impossible to enjoy or benefit from new changes being made if you choose not to do what is different. Change forces you to upgrade who you are.

15. CHANGE TESTS WHAT HASN'T BEEN TRIED:

Changing will inevitably expose what has a desire to be hidden. For example, if your character hasn't been tried at your current job, changing where you work will test the content of your character.

16. CHANGE REQUIRES PEOPLE TO TAKE INVENTORY OF THEIR LIFE: When things change you are forced to look at the same things and people differently. Change forces you to see what you chose or neglected to ignore.
17. CHANGE FORCES PEOPLE TO SEE WHAT THEY ARE TRYING TO AVOID: When things stay the same, it is easy to avoid what you do not like. However, when things change the things you do not like become the focal point of what you need to deal with.
18. CHANGE FORCES PEOPLE TO MOVE: Change compels you to learn, adjust and grow. This is the dominant purpose of change. If things never changed you will never become more than what you are.
19. CHANGE INSPIRES A NEW PERSPECTIVE: Change inspires you to see things differently. It helps you to see common situations in an uncommon way. As your perspective increases your mind matures.

20. CHANGE BRINGS RESENTMENT: When things change around you unexpectedly it may bring resentment. For example, losing your job unexpectedly will make people feel resentful.
