

WHEN ENEMIES BECOME YOUR FOOTSTOOL

By: Fountain Hendricks

Hebrews 1:13

When your enemies become your footstool they will be FORCED to SERVE you. They will not serve you by choice. It will be by force. Enemies are forced to serve the ones they've kept down when the circumstances around them changes.

You cannot make your enemies your footstool in your own strength. Only the Lord can do this. Only the Lord can change another person's circumstances to accommodate your strengths. Only the Lord can change a person's surroundings to increase your value.

When your enemies become your footstool what was hidden in you will be exposed to the public. When your enemies become your footstool what was benefiting them will now benefit you. What was helping them will now help you. What was blessing them will now bless you.

EVERYTHING IS REVERSED WHEN YOUR ENEMIES ARE YOUR FOOTSTOOL.

THE REVERSAL

If you are beneath you will be above when your enemy becomes your footstool. If you are the borrower you will become the lender when your enemy becomes your footstool. If are last you will be first when your enemy becomes your footstool.

Your enemy becoming your footstool is the SIGN you are about to go to a higher dimension. The purpose of a footstool is to lift you higher WITHOUT ANY EFFORT of your own. Think about it. Isn't the footstool doing all the work? Yes. All you are doing is stabilizing yourself on the platform.

While standing on a footstool you will attract more attention which will make it impossible for you to be ignored. A footstool raises you above the crowd. It separates you from the crowd. It shines a light on you that people cannot neglect.

WHEN YOUR ENEMIES BECOME YOUR FOOTSTOOL THEY WILL HELP YOU PROSPER.

YOU NEED A FOOTSTOOL

Despite what you may think, in the Kingdom of God you NEED an enemy to raise you above the crowd. David needed Goliath to take him to the palace. Jesus needed Judas to take him to the cross. David needed Saul to be the greatest amongst his people.

Do not be discouraged when you have enemies. In the Kingdom of God He uses evilness to bless you. He uses wickedness to prosper you. He uses trouble to give you victory. THE PRESENCE OF AN ENEMY IS THE SIGN OF ELEVATION.

Every enemy who wants to destroy you will end up SERVING you. Hebrews 1:13 says, " But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?"

CONTROLLING YOUR ENEMIES

Having your enemies as your footstool will cause you to control them. Controlling your enemies is not telling them what to do. It is God POSITIONING you in a way that they will NEED YOU.

When your enemy needs you, you are in control! You are steering the ship. You are dictating the narrative. You are controlling the pace. When your enemy is under your control they are servants to your decisions.

When this happens you are rightly positioned in a seat of influence to exalt, expound and expand the Kingdom of God.

WHEN YOUR ENEMIES BECOME YOUR
FOOTSTOOL YOU WILL RISE TO THE TOP.
