

HOW TO RECOGNIZE YOUR DELIVERER

Psalm 34:17

By: Fountain Hendricks

Deliverers come in all shapes and colors. You cannot recognize your deliverer by the way they look. You cannot recognize your deliverer by their age. Your deliverer comes packaged with SOLUTIONS.

Whatever type of trouble you are in, your deliverer has the resources to save you from it. There isn't one type of deliverer because there isn't one type of trouble. There is a specific type of deliverer for EVERY distinct type of trouble.

THE VARIETY OF DELIVERERS

FINANCIAL DELIVERER: A financial deliverer is someone who is NOT emotionally attached to you. They do not enter your life to become your friend. They are sent to your life to give you wealth.

These people come into your life to prosper you. They are sent to promote you. They are sent to add financial resources to you. The responsibility of these deliverers is to ONLY help you financially.

SPIRITUAL DELIVERER: A spiritual deliverer is someone who enters your life to get you closer to God. They are NOT assigned to help you financially. They are equipped to get you in right alignment with the Kingdom of God and His righteousness.

These people are usually very critical of your lifestyle, living habits and decision making because it involves developing you spiritually. Their ONLY assignment is to increase righteousness and reduce sin in your life.

RELATIONAL DELIVERER: A relational deliverer is someone who is sent to be a friend, companion or lover to you. Their assignment is to provide a safe haven of trust and comfort.

These people become your vault where you can store your secrets, express your fears, share your successes and admit your failures WITHOUT judgment or bias. These people become a circle of trust where nothing is off limits. Their ONLY assignment is to become your confidant.

EMOTIONAL DELIVERER: An emotional deliverer is someone who is sent to boost your self confidence and self esteem. These deliverers are coaches sent to motivate and inspire. They are packaged as an inspirational leader.

These people are sent to provide hope so you can look forward to a brighter future. These deliverers are depression killers. They have the gift of making you smile.

MENTAL DELIVERERS: Mental deliverers are sent to people who cannot get out of their own way. People who are their own worst enemy need to be mentored on how to change the way they think.

Mental deliverers are blunt and to the point. They challenge the way you think, what you say and what you do. They are sent to contest your normal way of living so you can reach a higher level of living. Mental deliverers are not sent to appease your values. They are sent to CHANGE your values.

PHYSICAL DELIVERERS: A physical deliverer is someone who is sent to REMOVE you from your troubling environment. These people have the ability to take you from one location to another.

They do not focus on changing your mentality and reinvigorating your spirit. They are consumed with bringing you to a place of security and safety. This is what Moses did with the Israelites. Moses was assigned to bring the Israelites from Egypt to Cannon. Physical deliverers are necessary to save you from the present threat of danger.

JUSTICE DELIVERERS: Someone who is a deliverer of justice is sent to speak on your behalf for fairness and righteousness. This can be an attorney, judge, community activist, supervisor or someone who holds a position of authority.

These types of people do not have a fondness for you. They love fighting for justice. The display of injustice angers them. These people are sent to your life to make sure you are NOT cheated or taken advantage of.

Depending on the type of trouble you are in will determine what type of deliverer God will send upon your behalf. Deliverers are tailored made for the trouble. Before you can recognize your deliverer you must identify your trouble.

Psalm 34:17 says, "The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles."

Deliverance is a PROMISE of the Kingdom of God to the righteous. When the righteous pray, God delivers! However, if you cannot recognize the deliverers you cannot receive the promise.

People perish for the lack of knowledge. Do not let this be you. Learn to recognize your deliverer so you won't die in your trouble.
