A Son's first hero is DAD, and a daughters first love!!

FROM THE DESK OF PASTOR DAN

1 Peter 5:6-11

So humble yourselves under the mighty power of God, and in his good time he will honor you. [7] Give all your worries and cares to God, for he cares about what happens to you.

[8] Be careful! Watch out for attacks from the Devil, your great enemy. He prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for some victim to devour. [9] Take a firm stand against him, and be strong in your faith. Remember that your Christian brothers and sisters all over the world are going through the same kind of suffering you are.

[10] In his kindness God called you to his eternal glory by means of Jesus Christ. After you have suffered a little while, he will restore, support, and strengthen you, and he will place you on a firm foundation. [11] All power is his forever and ever. Amen.

[Notes taken from Charles Spurgeon, an English Baptist pastor in the latter half of the 19th century.]

5:6 "Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty power of God." Pride is so natural to fallen human beings that it springs up in the heart like weeds in a watered garden. We may hunt down this fox and think we have destroyed it, but our exultation is pride. None have more pride than those who dream they have none. Pride is a sin with a thousand lives and a thousand shapes. By perpetual change it escapes capture.

Therefore, let us humble ourselves under the hand of God as creatures under the hand of the Creator, as chastened children under a father's rod. Many people have been humbled, and yet they have not become humble. There is a great difference between the two things. If God withdraws His grace and allows a Christian to fall into sin, that fall humbles him in the sight of people, and yet he may not be humble. He may never have a true sense of how evil his action has been. He may still persevere in his pride and be far from humility. The most hopeful way of avoiding this humble affliction is to humble ourselves. Let us be humble that we may not be humbled.

5:7 "Casting all your cares on Him, because he cares about you." His care, though tender and comprehensive, causes no anxiety to Him, for his great mind is more than equal to the task. But our care ferments within us and threatens the destruction of our meager souls. We are to cast our care, which is folly, upon the Lord, for He exercises a care that is wisdom. Care to us is exhausting, but God is all sufficient. Care to us is sinful, but God's care of us is holy. Care distracts us from service, but the divine mind does not forget one thing while remembering another.

5:8-9 "Your adversary the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion, looking for anyone he can devour." Satan knows how to use God's providence to serve his own ends. One of the greatest mercies God grants is not permitting our inclinations and opportunities to meet. Have we not sometimes noticed that when we have had the inclination to sin there has been no opportunity, and when the opportunity has presented itself, we have had no inclination toward it? Satan's principal aim with believers is to bring their appetites and his temptations together, to get their souls into a dry, seared state, and then to strike the match, and make them burn! He is so crafty and wily with the experience of many centuries that human beings, who are but of yesterday, can scarcely be considered a match for him. What should we do to overcome this adversary? "Resist him, firm in the faith. This is our first means of defense. The devil will soon give up if he finds that his attacks drive us to Christ. Amen.

Pastor Dan will be on vacation from July 5th-July 19th

From the Editor

Greeting and happy Summer. As we kick into the summer mode I would like to remind our congregation and committee chairpersons that the next Parish Messenger (Newsletter) deadline will be June, 17th and this is for the July/August issue. The next deadline for a Parish Messenger will not be until August, so plan ahead. Also, I would like to remind our groups and anyone interested in renting or using the church building to call me to check dates. I have a lot of events and groups that meet at the church and to be fair to their needs I try not to double book events out of respect for personal or group needs. Please contact me before you schedule an event, out of respect. Church office: 715-445-2956, email: northlandchurch@hotmail.com
