November 2022

Give thanks to the Lord for the gifts in your life.

FROM THE DESK OF PASTOR DAN

In my devotions, I've been using the devotional DAILY LIGHT ON THE DAILY PATH. It has a devotion for both the morning and evening based completely on Bible verses. These Scriptures are a treasure to read and meditate on that speaks to situations people have to deal with.

This devotional was put together by Samuel Bagster in the 18th century for his family and friends. These Bible passages were put together in book form in 1875, and it has been a source of strength and hope for Christians and those who are drawn to the depth and meaning of the Scripture. "Daily Light on the Daily Path" is available on Amazon

The Scriptures for the morning of October 12th are the following:

2 Cor. 5:19

For God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, no longer counting people's sins against them. This is the wonderful message he has given us to tell others.

Col. 1:19-20

For God in all his fullness was pleased to live in Christ, [20] and by him God reconciled everything to himself. He made peace with everything in heaven and on earth by means of his blood on the cross.

Psalms 85:10

Unfailing love and truth have met together. Righteousness and peace have kissed!

From the Desk of Pastor Dan (Cont.)

Jeremiah 29:11

For I know the plans I have for you," says the Lord. "They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope.

Isaiah 1:18

"Come now, let us argue this out," says the Lord. "No matter how deep the stain of your sins, I can remove it. I can make you as clean as freshly fallen snow. Even if you are stained as red as crimson, I can make you as white as wool.

Micah 7:18

Where is another God like you, who pardons the sins of the survivors among his people? You cannot stay angry with your people forever, because you delight in showing mercy.

Job 22:21

"Stop quarreling with God! If you agree with him, you will have peace at last, and things will go well for you.

Philip. 2:12-13

Dearest friends, you were always so careful to follow my instructions when I was with you. And now that I am away you must be even more careful to put into action God's saving work in your lives, obeying God with deep reverence and fear. [13] For God is working in you, giving you the desire to obey him and the power to do what pleases him.

Isaiah 26:12

Lord, you will grant us peace, for all we have accomplished is really from you.

I hope that you will have a meaningful Thanksgiving holiday this year.
In Christ, Pastor Dan
