

		Room Number: _____ Thermometer 1 (SN: _____)															Acceptable Temperature Range 15° – 30° C*															Supervisor Initial/Date
Year:		1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
January
Initials
February
Initials
March
Initials
April
Initials
May
Initials
June
Initials
July
Initials
August
Initials
September
Initials
October
Initials
November
Initials
December
Initials
W = Weekend H = Holiday LC = Lab Closed OR = Out of Range, if temperature is out of range fill out a corrective action worksheet. NA = Not Applicable
Equipment or Assay Operating Temperature Range:		1. _____										2. _____										3. _____										4. _____
		5. _____										6. _____										7. _____										8. _____

* Temperature range for the room is based on the equipment or test with the narrowest centigrade temperature range