1. HALLOWEEN MARSHMALLOW GHOST CRAFT

Set a couple of marshmallows aside, because after this unique activity, the kids are going want to eat a few of those sticky treats.

What you'll need: white paint/watercolors should do, black construction paper or white paper & black paint or a variety of colors

2. LOLLIPOP GHOSTS It does not get easier than this. Wrap a lollipop in a tissue, tie it with festive ribbons, and dot on the eyes with a Sharpie or just use a cotton ball and Kleenex.

3. Q-TIP HANDPRINT SKELETONS What kid doesn't love getting all up in some paint? Have them paint their hand and wrist white, press it on to black paper, and then press on Q-tips to mimic the bones (after washing, obviously).

4. TOILET PAPER ROLL MUMMYS Stock up on empty toilet paper rolls, raid your First Aid Kit for some gauze, and buy some glue and google-y eyes from the craft store, and you've got everything you need to make these cute mummies. Paper mache would also work using a flour and water /glue mixture and toilet tissue or Kleenex tissue would work with paper eyes or use your imagination.

5. HANDPRINT BATS You've definitely seen handprint turkey's for Thanksgiving, and the craft trick works just as well for Halloween. Thread a string through the bats middle and hangs from the ceiling

Treats

- 1. Bananas chocolate chips
Oranges & celery sticks

2. Apple slices, peanut butter and miniature marshmallow

3. These Rice Krispie Treat Pumpkins are so cute and they're really easy to make!

Ingredients Servings: 12

- 1/4 cup butter
  - 1 bag large marshmallows approximately 40 marshmallows
  - 6 cups Rice Krispies
  - Red & Yellow Liquid Food Coloring
  - Mini Rolos
  - Green M&M's
1. 1/4 cup cooking oil or melted butter in a small bowl to keep it from sticking to your hands
  2. In a large pot, melt the butter over low heat.
  3. Add the marshmallows and stir until completely melted and combined with the butter.
  4. Remove from the heat. Add several drops of yellow food coloring, mix it together, then add red food coloring one drop at a time, mixing as you go. Add red/yellow drops until you reach your desired. (I used about 4 drops red and 12 drops yellow). Mix well.
  5. Add the Rice Krispies and stir to combine.
  6. Coat both sides of your hands with a generous amount of cooking oil or butter, and roll the Rice Krispie mixture into small balls. Set on parchment paper. Add oil/butter to your hands after each ball.

7. While the balls are still warm, gently press a Mini Rolo or large chocolate chip into the top of each pumpkin for the stem and add a green M&M or other green candy beside it as the leaf. (Tip: If the pumpkins cool before you're finished, use the end of a thick marker or apple corer to make a small indent in the top for the chocolate to sit in.)
8. Allow to cool until firm.

Notes:

You can use green food coloring and shape fingers adding Halloween candy corn as the finger nails or purple food coloring and make a one eyed blob monsters. Your choice for the eye. Add licoriceA string for hair. Recommend food handling gloves to keep the mixture from sticking to your hands or easy, butter your hands!

- ### 5. Humphrey, The Blue-Nosed Pumpkin
- Humphrey the blue-nosed pumpkin had a very obvious nose.
And if you ever saw it, you might even say it shows.
All of the other pumpkins, used to laugh and call him names.
They never let poor Humphrey
play in any pumpkin games.
Then one foggy Halloween Eve, the Great Pumpkin
did say,
"Humphrey, with your nose so blue, you'll make all the ghosts say BOO!"
Then all the pumpkins loved him, and they shouted
out with glee,
