

I AM
GOD
II

Written by:
The Writer

I AM

GOD

II

I AM GOD II

I AM GOD II

Copyright © 2015 by The Writer. All Rights Reserved.

Library of Congress Control Number:

International Standard Book Number: 0-xxxxxxx-x-x

Please, no portion of this book may be reproduced in any form without permission.

Thank you.

PRODUCTION ACKNOWLEDGMENTS:

The Lord God

PUBLISHED BY: The Writer

PRINTED BY: The Writer

TITLE: I AM GOD II

“I AM GOD.”

Exodus 3:13-14

¹³Then Moses said to God, “Indeed, when I come to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they say to me, ‘What is His name?’ what shall I say to them?”

¹⁴And God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” And He said, “Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’”

TITLE: I AM GOD II
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Title Page

Table of Contents

Dedication – Page 1

Introduction – Page 3

Opening Statement – Page 5

The Writer – Page 7

I AM GOD—Autobiography – Page 13

Numbers – Page 20

7-to-1

A-Z: A

Animals
Antichrist
Atheist

A-Z: B

Born Again

A-Z: C

Church Commandments Communication

A-Z: D

Death Penalty
Demons

A-Z: E

Earth
End Times
Entertainment
Eternal Life Evil

A-Z: F

Fear
Forgiveness Future

A-Z: G

God
Grace

A-Z: H

Health
Heaven
Holy Days Humility

A-Z: I

Iscaiot

A-Z: J

Jesus

A-Z: K

Killing

A-Z: L

Law
Life
Love

A-Z: M

Marriage Money

A-Z: N

Nightmares

A-Z: O

Obama

A-Z: P

People
Pope Francis
Prayer
Preaching

A-Z: Q

Questions and Answers

A-Z: R

Relationships

A-Z: S

Sex

Shame

Silence

Sin

Spirit Possession

Spiritual Principles

A-Z: T

Temptation

Theft

The Gospel of Mark II

The Ways of God

Time

Transfiguration

A-Z: U

UFO's

A-Z: V

Visualization

A-Z: W

War

Women

Words

Work

A-Z: X

X-number

A-Z: Y

Years

A-Z: Z

Zoo

Questionnaire – Page 231

Test – Page 233

The Last Chapter – Page 240

The Philosophy of “I am.” – Page 241

TITLE: I AM GOD II
DEDICATION

“I AM GOD...
THIS CROSS SYMBOLIZES JESUS CHRIST DIED HERE FOR YOU.”

TITLE: I AM GOD II
INTRODUCTION

†

“I AM GOD...
MARK HIS WORDS...”

Mark my words...

“I am not God.” God is God. I am The Writer.

I am not The Son of God. The Son of God is Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is God. I am not Jesus Christ. I am The Writer, and I am a son of God—“I am not God.”

*God is the Holy Spirit. I am The Writer. I am a spiritual man. I am not the Holy Spirit—
“I am not God.”*

...I BELIEVE THERE ARE MANY TRUTHFUL AND KNOWLEDGEABLE PREACHERS AND TEACHERS, MINISTERS AND MINISTRIES ON EARTH TODAY; HOWEVER, LIKE ALL HUMAN BEINGS, NONE IS PERFECT—NONE KNOWS THE ABSOLUTE PERFECT TRUTH OF WHO I AM, AND NO ONE ON EARTH EVER WILL. NEVERTHELESS, WITH SO MANY DISAGREEMENTS AS TO MY NATURE, THERE IS AN IMMEASURABLE AMOUNT OF DECEIT AND UNTRUTHFULNESS BEING TAUGHT AND TALKED ABOUT ME. KEEP IN MIND, TRUTH IS BASED SOLELY ON WHO I AM AND WHAT I DO. THEREFORE, I BELIEVE IT IS THE APPOINTED TIME, THROUGH THIS ANOINTED MAN, THAT I INSTRUCT AND INFORM YOU ON THE TRUTH AND GREATER YOUR KNOWLEDGE OF WHO I AM.

WHEREBY THE WRITER OF 'I AM GOD' UNDERSTANDS MY NATURE, KNOWS THE TRUTH, AND HAS THE KNOWLEDGE OF WHO I AM; HIS IMPERFECTNESS COMES NOT FROM THE WORDS HE IS TO WRITE FOR ME, BUT FROM HIS DISOBEDIENCE AND SINFUL PAST AND HIS IMPERFECTIONS AS A HUMAN BEING IN THE WORLD. THE HOLY SPIRIT-INSPIRED AND SPIRIT-FILLED WORDS OF GOD, AND MY THOUGHTS, ARE OF ANOTHER WORLD—MY WORLD—THE SPIRIT WORLD.

TITLE: I AM GOD

THE WRITER—The Writer I Know

†

“I AM GOD...
I KNOW THE WRITER.”

Mark my words...

I'm a compulsive addict.

My addictions, I believe, are only a symptom of self-destruction. After I do something evil, I often feel intense pain; physical, mental, and emotional. I entertain many thoughts, serious thoughts, about suicide.

After my sin, I hate myself so much; I wish I were indeed dead. I feel I have absolutely no one to talk to, but for Jesus [at times], that would understand all [both good and evil] that I'm experiencing. I feel like the loneliest person on the face of the earth. I have no idea how to stop. My body is wasting away physically.

THE TRANSITION

The loneliness is only magnified by the facts of what I believe I know, and who I am, even in a good sense. For example:

THE GOOD

I have written a book and movie that should win the Academy Award[®] and will save countless lives. It is God's direct words and story on the meaning and value of life. He allowed me the blessing to work with Him while He created it.

*I saw the fireball; I believe the foreshadowing of the bombing in New York City on 9-11-01 in my dreams 2 weeks earlier. In addition, the event of 9-11-01 was prophetic in relation to the story and revelations dramatized in The Writer's film.*

God has given me the idea for what will be one of, if not, the largest ministry in the world. He has put me in direct line with the personal place of John the Baptist.

I believe God has revealed to me the Antichrist—and if I am wrong—He will reveal to me the Antichrist. And I believe He has shown me how the end of the world will come to be. As well as perhaps the creation of the “new earth,” spoken and written of in the Bible.

THE END

I have felt the presence of Satan and the Holy Spirit on so many gigantic levels and occasions—more importantly, from minute-to-minute and even second-to-second. One minute I am lost—one minute I am saved. These ups and downs, over 40+ years, have weighed me down greatly and I believe the end of my life draws very near.

The combination of the good and evil, and my knowing both, but not being able to fully express both—in conjunction with searching for persons to share these thoughts and works with, has left me both completely isolated and/or completely dependent on Jesus alone.

On a personal note...

A list, abbreviated, of all to whom I wish to speak includes [all of whom would not understand or even help, are]: Dr. Charles Stanley, Fr. Ralph DiOrio, Rev. Billy Graham, the Pope, Benny Hinn, Paul Crouch, Matt Crouch, Steven Spielberg, the President, my father, and my Aunt Helen.

My last words...

Still-in-all, there is no one on earth who could understand all I know.

TITLE: I AM GOD II

THE WRITER—The Writer's Story II

†

“I AM GOD...

THIS IS THE WRITER'S STORY OF BOOK II...

WASHINGTON IS ROME, NEW YORK CITY IS BABYLON AND LAS VEGAS, WHERE I WRITE NOW, IS SODOM AND GOMORRAH.

‘YOU ARE GOING TO WRITE A STORY ABOUT THE BIBLE.’

‘GO TO CALIFORNIA.’

‘I AM DELIGHTED IN YOU.’

‘YOU ARE GOING TO WRITE
A STORY ABOUT THE BIBLE.’

...I AM GOD.”

TITLE: I AM GOD II
THE WRITER—Why Me?

†

“I AM GOD...
I ONLY KNOW.”

Mark my words...

Why me? I asked, when it came to my writing “I AM GOD.”

In other words...

The answers I received were these:

- God created my life for this purpose.
- God saved my life for this purpose.
- God needed someone.
- I was chosen.
- I asked God.
- I listen to God.
- God only knows.

TITLE: I AM GOD II

I AM GOD... Autobiography—In the Beginning — (John 1:1)

“I AM GOD...
MANKIND WAS THE LIFE THAT JESUS CHRIST GAVE LIFE TO.”

John 1:1

The Eternal Word

¹In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ²He was in the beginning with God. ³All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. ⁴In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. ⁵And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.

¹In the beginning was the Word...God spoke Creation into existence, and for the first time in the History of Creation; these are the first words of God.

²He was in the beginning with God....The first man was in the mind of God from the beginning existence of God. So too, was God in the person of Jesus Christ.

³All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made....All things were made through Jesus. If God the Creator made all things—and Jesus Christ is God—then Jesus Christ, the Creator, made all things.

⁴In Him was life, and the life was the light of men....Jesus created life. He created life as a state-of-being or a way of existing. And the life He created that was “in His image” was mankind. Mankind was the life that Jesus Christ gave life to.

⁵And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it....Jesus Christ’s holiness and life is the light for which the darkness of sin and death is the opposite of and in opposition thereof.

TITLE: I AM GOD II

I AM GOD... Autobiography—In the Middle — (John 3:16-17)

“I AM GOD...
I SO LOVED THE WORLD
THAT I GAVE MY ONLY BEGOTTEN SON...”

John 3:16-17

¹⁶For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

¹⁷For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

Mark my words...

For God—God is the Creator. He created life.

...so loved—The Bible says God is love. And since God created life, God loves life.

...the world—The world includes every rock, plant and animal; in fact, all of creation. It also means every human being; good or evil, and those who believe in God and those who do not believe in God.

...that He gave—God gave mankind life. He gave mankind a physical presence in addition to man's spiritual being. He gave mankind a place to exist beyond the Spirit World and Heaven. Furthermore, when God gave Adam dominion over the plants and animals, and every living thing; God gave Adam the power over the life and death of creation.

And at The Creation, what could Adam give God in return? The first man, [and in a way, God's first son], Adam, basically did not give God anything in return at the Creation, except to give God someone to love. And so being, all this first created human being could give God, His Creator and Father, was his own life. The truth of the matter is: the most meaningful and memorable thing Adam gave God was sin and death. Adam sinned against God and brought death upon him and all of God's creation. Therefore, God now had to re-create creation and make man sin-free so in the end, man could be of the same spirit as God the creator. God is a giver, and He is also a forgiver.

...His only begotten Son—God had a son in Adam, and now God gave His Son, Jesus Christ to live as Adam first did holy and perfect. And Jesus, as the Son, was able to withstand the satanic forces Adam disobediently fell into when tempted. Jesus would obey God and not fall into temptation and sin. Also, Jesus is God. Truth be told, because only God could defeat Satan, God had to become a man to save man. If God was to re-create another son like Adam, that man would have been powerless over the devil and death would still rule and reign in the lives of mankind.

...that whoever believes in Him—There are two types of people in the world: Those who believe the first words you have just read, and those who do not. The Bible says: 'In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God (John 1:1). Truth be told, the words ¹⁶For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son...are the actual and first words God is speaking of. And continuing, basically, according to God; the only two types of people in the world are those who believe Jesus Christ is the Son of God, and those who do not.

...should not perish but have everlasting life—God created life. God did not create death. God is eternal and everlasting. He created life to be eternal and everlasting. God created life because He loves life, and God wants nothing more and nothing less from life, than for that life, the life He created [in both created beings, and the nature and existence of life as a state of being] to be with Him, and again, a part of Him from The Beginning until The End.

¹⁷For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved....God did not send Jesus into a world of both holiness and sin; of both friends and enemies; and of both life and death—so that the death of Jesus would not have meaning or work in saving mankind. God did not create Hell and eternal condemnation so that the same creation He loves would go there and be apart from Him to the eternal end. God said He is “long-suffering and wants for none to perish.” That is why He waits so long and does not allow Satan to take more lives than he already has. But only through Jesus, and the mankind who believes and follows Jesus, can Jesus and man serve to save the lost bodies and spirits who need saving.*

TITLE: I AM GOD II

I AM GOD... Autobiography—In the End — (John 15:12-14)

“I AM GOD...
IN THE END.”

John 15:12-14

¹²This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. ¹³Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one’s life for his friends. ¹⁴You are My friends if you do whatever I command you.

¹²This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.—God’s Commandment is to love. He also gave a Commandment that is inbred in the conscience and heart of every man: “thou shalt not kill.” Jesus Christ, God; loved man—He never asked or commanded man to kill one another. He created life and would be a two-way, double-minded, hypocritical, untruthful, nonsensical and hateful Man if He created a life, He loves only to see it killed. Jesus Christ came to earth as God; to teach man that there are two ways of being: man may be holy or sinful, good or evil, loving or hateful, dead or alive.

¹³Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one’s life for his friends.—Jesus laid down His life for mankind because mankind is sinful and heading for death. If Jesus did not die for the sins of mankind, no man could ever make it to Heaven and be with God again. Basically, Jesus died for those sinful, murderous enemies of God: man. From Adam at the beginning, to you and me in the end; Jesus would rather die and see man go to Heaven—than for Jesus, Himself, to live and man go to Hell.

¹⁴You are My friends if you do whatever I command you.—One of Jesus’ last commands, his final words, were “Forgive them Father...” When you kill another man for his sin [or yours]—when did or do you forgive him? How did or do you forgive him? Truth be told you did not truly forgive him—it is impossible, according to God, to kill another man and offer him forgiveness; impossible. Therefore, you are not a friend of Jesus if you do not keep this One Commandment; the One He called: “My Commandment.”

In other words...

The life of God is simple.

God created man. God loves man. God loves man's life. A Creation that is loved, when created, is given a choice to obey and follow or disobey and not follow its Creator. Adam, the first man, disobeyed God and brought on all of creation, including himself and all his descendants; every man, woman and child ever born: sin and death.

On one hand, just as God created all that is alive and good—on the other hand; sinful Satan, the disobedient, deceitful devil is responsible for everything that is evil and deadly. And all of mankind has a choice to live with God or die with the devil. And God knows that there will be two-kinds of men: those who believe in Him and those who do not. And God also knows, that apart from His love and forgiveness of man's sin, that death would come on all men, and all of mankind would be eternally separated and have no life with God.

God then sent His Son and came to earth as a man. Like the man He created, God is body and God is Spirit. God is the persons of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit—and God knows that there are two kinds of people: those who believe this and those who do not.

Now, God has given a choice to those who believe in Him in the person of Jesus Christ. And that choice is to love, forgive, and save the lives of the world of people who do not believe. Because, just as Jesus did on the cross; He chose to die for the sins and evil in man, rather than to save His own life. See, a Christian disciple or one who follows Jesus, has the calling and responsibility to do just as Jesus did. God knows that anyone who does not believe in Him is going to die and go to Hell. And only Jesus, and His disciples, and friends can serve to save these lost unbelievers from losing out on the eternal love of God and eternal life with Him in Heaven.

Therefore, when God commands man to forgive and love one another; it is done to save their lives. This means the sinful, evil people who do not believe God or are His enemies; these people are also a Christian's "enemies." However, God commands man to "love their enemies." This is because without love and the forgiveness that follows—these people will never come to know Jesus and will die apart from God, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit for all of eternity. These "enemies" will go to Hell. Truth be told, someone that kills anything or anyone—not only breaks a command, and commits a sin, they will have to answer to God for that unholy sin at The Judgment. In addition, the killer is determining the eternal fate of whatever or whomever they kill at the time they are murdered. From a truly spiritual perspective or viewpoint, man might as well have only two choices: To tell people about the life-saving Jesus; or to be a life-taker and kill one another.

The truth of the matter is: “The best of both worlds” for God, the best of “the evil and the good”; is that a true Christian do everything in their power, from teaching to dying, in order to save the life of the opposition or the lost; because God knows this way both persons will go to be with God in Heaven. Basically, if Christian’s kill non-Christians: no one wins. Sin has gone against sinner and killer against killing; in which case only evil and death will win. This is why Jesus Christ died for man’s sins, because God knew it was a “win-win” situation.

“I AM GOD...”

Luke 8:1-3

The Parable of the Sower

¹After this, Jesus traveled about from one town and village to another, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with him, ²and also some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases: Mary (called Magdalene) from whom seven demons had come out; ³Joanna the wife of Cuza, the manager of Herod's household; Susanna; and many others. These women were helping to support them out of their own means.

Luke 11:24-26 (New International Version)

²⁴"When an evil spirit comes out of a man, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.' ²⁵When it arrives, it finds the house swept clean and put in order. ²⁶Then it goes and takes seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that man is worse than the first."

Mark my words...

Note that the Scripture reads: "... who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases."

In other words...

Diseases are caused by evil spirits. Often times these evil spirits will cause a person to eat meat, which causes disease. Or a person will indulge in smoking, drinking, or drug use. The manifestation may appear in the natural, but the root cause is spiritual.

My last words...

Note that the Scripture reads: “²⁶Then it goes and takes seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that man is worse than the first.”

Truth be told, the combination of 7 demons may all be those who do an identical devilish deed [sex, drugs, overeat, kill, etc.]. And an evil, like-minded demon can work within a possessed person 7-times stronger or with more intensity; by basically having more demons like themselves possess a person. Even if it’s just a person’s evil mindset minus actual action; it is still the sinful act of thinking in an ungodly way.

Alternatively, the demon that first departed may return with 7 “other” demons whose devilish deeds and destructive desires center on other sins.

More humanly speaking; have you ever noticed how once a person gambles, they tend to want to drink, or if and when they drink, they want to do drugs or smoke, and when they have done those, they may want to have sex? That is the principle. One sin leads to another and if you are possessed and/or then repossessed by a demon; odds are that demon will get 7-times more diverse, but always more intense.

CHAPTER: Animals
VERSION: The Bird Murderer

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

The demonic spirit of Satan is “alive”; but its purpose is death. In fact, like a dark cloud that casts a shadow over all the living and created beings that exist beneath the cloud, a demonic spirit hovers over the bodies of any person or animal. Like a disease that carries or spreads from one body to another, human or animal, a demonic spirit will inhabit and bring destruction and death to all beings in its grip and possession.

Truth be told, in relation to man and animal; if a man commits an evil and then possesses an evil spirit, the man, who at the beginning of time, was given dominion over the animal kingdom, by God, will perpetuate or “spread” that spirit to neighboring animals.

In other words...

Man is responsible for the animal kingdom and animals are, in a sense, innocent creatures reflective of the possessed body ruling over the man. And in two ways will a man’s evil and evil spirit lead them to destroy an animal. The first is the evil-minded nature of a man who actually kills an animal, be it out of hateful evil or for food. In relation, it is the destruction of the environment or food sources that helps an animal live and exist. The second and greater means, but the less noticeable and knowledgeable, is the perpetuation of an evil spirit. When a man becomes possessed, that demon and the demonic spirits that accompany it are allowed to rule and reign over the animal kingdom that resides adjacent to or near to the man. Actually, an animal can spread the same disease of possession and the former to humankind, but man is the more dominant creation and while he can and should be the more blessed, he is also the more cursed. And Satan, would surely rather destroy and seeks to destroy man before all other godly creations.

My last words...

I can share a tragic and true story about such a teaching that has and will dramatically change my life.

One night, after an evening of demonic sin; the thought came upon me about the spiritual and demonic relationship between man and animal. Truth be told, the thoughts were the actual communication between The Creator and me regarding the teaching and truth of such a relationship. In fact, earlier in the day, the thought had crossed my mind about all my life experiences and that I couldn't testify to ever having a human being die in my presence. An experience my earthly father had actually encountered. It seemed like an odd thought at the time.

The next day, I was virtually forcibly made to go in a direction I did not want to go, as I was actually walking, I noticed a small bird, a sparrow I think, on the sidewalk in front of a laundry mat. My initial instinct was to walk right by, but then I conscientiously thought, what if the beautiful bird was alive and wounded? And just as bad, what would some insensitive, evil-minded passerby think or do?

I knelt down next to that poor and wondrous creation to discover it was barely alive and couldn't move. It did not look like it fell from any nearby trees and looked like it may have been hit by a car and paralyzed in some way. His beautiful little eyes looked at me and helpless as it was, it tore my heart out. I wanted more than anything in life to save the life of this beautiful bird and maybe even keep him or her as a beloved pet.

I called for information on the nearest veterinarian and nestled the birdie in a bed sheet I was carrying. I even placed a flower there to give it a better feeling of its natural surroundings. I traversed and traveled to the vets and sat outside waiting for the building to open. Ill-filled and exhausted from the sinful evening before, I fell asleep. When the arriving vet woke me, the little birdie had fallen out of the sheet and lay on the sidewalk. Thank God, he (I just thought it may be a male) was okay.

Once inside the office, the assistant insisted on charging me for the bird's care. Thank God, the doctor looked at him. He checked the heartbeat, noting, "It's weak." He offered to give it a shot, saying, "It can either revive him or kill him." I chose to continue praying and if he was going to die it would be by my hands and care. Besides, the doctor did not specialize in birds, so I trekked to the clinic he referred.

As I walked, sort of aimlessly, not knowing the proper directions; I sought out a commuter or a taxi, no one stopped. In fact, with bird in hand, they all acted as if I was a carjacker or criminal fearfully or busily refusing to help or give me a ride. And that included a cab that motored by and one gruesome kid who said, "It's time to give it up."

Like my little friend who was now lying prone, I too was becoming faint. Periodically, he would show a sign of life from what I perceived may even have been a much-needed nap he was taking. He actually really rose to fly when I made a cell phone call to 911 and animal control. Surely, I thought, he and I believed that there must be a better way and that I was entrusted with his care and his life. I began to really hope and believe he was going to make it and survive. And whether I kept him for life or set him free, his life was in my hands, literally, and that The Almighty had seen fit to put us together. And so I continued to pray and wander, more lost now, with the hope someone would help, or I could muster up more strength, spirituality and direction to get the bird the care he needed.

In the next moment, I was distracted and noticed an incredibly shaped woman, dressed in skin-tight black clothing exit a building and get in her car. I knew in my heart from prior experience that woman, especially sexy or good-looking ones were either fearful or uncaring toward others. Yet, the thought entered my head that I could sort of, to use a cliché “kill two birds with one stone,” in the sense that perhaps this woman could be a wife or at the very least cure my loneliness and lack of love. I knew it was improbable that was the case and equally unlikely she would offer a ride. But unwisely, and ensnared by my own evil spirit within, I ventured to her door. Surely, she had absolutely no interest in hearing my plea or helping. She wouldn’t so much as roll down her window.

All of sudden, in a flash, as I really felt my gaze, intention and thoughtfulness go wholeheartedly toward her; the bird fell from the sheet! I saw his wings flutter as he dropped the three or four feet. Immediately he let out a faint and small cry. A splash of white excrement left his body. And I realized, almost immediately, that is what likely happens in the film’s I have seen when a person given the death penalty is actually put to death. I just seemed to know, he just fell to his death. And that I may have been the one who killed him. I looked down and saw his open and lifeless eye. He trusted me and I murdered him. I killed this beautiful little birdie. I was the bird’s murderer. I fell to my knees screaming out in guilty remorse. I knew it was both my lack of care and my spiritual poisoning that took his life. I was and am fully and wholly responsible before God for snuffing out the life of that needy, gorgeous creature. I blame no one but me. His life was placed in my hands, and I carelessly took it from him. And even though I had the brief notion that he was out of his pain and was likely going to die anyway, or have some physician insist he be “put down.” I know that is sinfully selfish reasoning to justify and comfort my culpability, guilt and grief. I murdered that bird and knew I am accursed by God.

I know there is a Holy Scripture that reads: “God knows when a sparrow falls...and is not my life worth more than a sparrow?” And while I can use that Scripture to save myself from my sin, my evil nature, and my own life down the sinful road I was and would be heading; it does not make-up for the worthlessness and curse of The Lord God that I have incurred on myself.

I don't even want God's forgiveness were it acceptable. I don't necessarily want healing or to be sin-free. I don't even want to use that blessed bird's death as some sort of sacrifice for my own resurrection. And while a part of me knows that I just don't want to ever commit that sin; again, so I end-up killing another innocent and suffering animal; I most of all, most of all, just want that beautiful, beautiful little birdie to come back to life. He didn't deserve to have me murder him.

CHAPTER: Atheist

VERSION: Atheist Beliefs

†

“I AM GOD...
IT IS NOT THAT AN ATHEIST DOES NOT BELIEVE IN ME;
IT IS THAT AN ATHEIST BELIEVES THEY ARE ME.”

Mark my words...

It's not that an atheist doesn't believe in God; it's that an atheist believes they are God.

CHAPTER: Atheist

VERSION: Atheist / Jesus

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

In a sense, there are only two kinds of people in the world: Christians and Atheists.

In other words...

If Jesus Christ is God; and atheists don't believe in God; then atheists surely don't believe in Christians.

CHAPTER: Born Again
VERSION: {NKJV}

†

“I AM GOD... YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN.”

John 3:1-7

You Must Be Born Again

¹ There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. ²This man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that You do unless God is with him."

³Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Mark my words...

We are sinful and unholy because of Adam...unless we can be created again or re-created; we do not have the holy body God requires.

Unless we can be reborn or renewed in this life, we cannot see the Kingdom of God.

Being “born again” is a step to seeing the Kingdom—it is not the only step. Jesus will now explain the other steps. But without taking the first step, no one can reach the Kingdom of God, or Heaven.

⁴Nicodemus said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"

Obviously, this is a biological impossibility. But Nicodemus is also going to get the detailed explanation because he is lacking in knowledge. If we lack in wisdom, here is the explanation...

⁵Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.

"Born of the water" means born as a human being, as from the watery womb of a woman.

"Born of water" is also symbolic of being baptized. Jesus also said to be saved one must "believe and be baptized."

"Born of the water" also means we must live, work, and serve a life that identifies us as being a creation of Christ.

Yet, all of the above are another step to being "born of the Spirit" and this is the belief and acceptance of Jesus Christ leading to the inner-possession and inhabiting of the Holy Spirit of God within a person.

⁶That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Jesus knows at the time of a person's entrance into Heaven, God is not interested in the human body—there will be no human body. God is interested solely in the spirit within that body, the spiritual body of a person.

⁷Do not marvel that I said to you, "You must be born again."

"Born again", meaning, people were created from spirit and once we leave our earthly bodies or flesh, people will return to spirit. It is spirit birth and the spirit born again.

And if we have not heard this understanding of being born again, "do not marvel" ... Jesus knows not many have instructed in this interpretation and fullness of meaning.

⁸The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

The initial meaning of this verse speaks of the knowledge and wisdom that God alone has in truthfully knowing the nature and the presence of the Holy Spirit, and if a person truly possesses the Spirit of God within their being. God only knows.

Please read closely and understand another meaning to this verse: Jesus is also letting us know of the temporary nature of the Spirit within the body of a person. That the Spirit can inhabit or exit a person; the Spirit comes and goes. Keep in mind, the Holy Spirit is forever and ever here and available. However, there is no eternal security for a Christian once they receive the Spirit, rather the person must submit moment-by-moment to being filled with the Spirit. Following Jesus all the way to Heaven is a lifelong journey that starts with the first step and ends with the last step.

¹⁰Jesus answered and said to him, “Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not know these things?

Jesus is aware that Nicodemus does not understand. So the message the Lord is giving will not be any easy one to fully understand.

Jesus tells and characterizes for Nicodemus how difficult this is to understand for man. At that time, a teacher of Israel could not clearly understand—if so, the probability exists today that a minister, priest, or person cannot fully understand Jesus’ teaching in all its meaning today.

¹¹Most assuredly, I say to you, We speak what We know and testify what We have seen, and you do not receive Our witness. ¹²If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?

God is the Father. God is Jesus Christ. God is the Holy Spirit. And while Nicodemus and the people of the earth were having a hard enough time following God as they knew Him...How difficult it would be to follow God and accept Him in the person of Christ? And take it another step: How much more difficult to follow Him and accept God as the Holy Spirit? And if we don’t accept Jesus, we will never be given or accept the Spirit of God.

¹³No one has ascended to heaven but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man who is in heaven.

Jesus knows He is God. Jesus knows He is the Christ. Jesus Christ knows He is the Holy Spirit. Jesus Christ only knows.

“I AM GOD...”

John 3:1-8

Born Again {NIV}

³In reply Jesus declared, “I tell you the truth, no one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again.”

⁴“How can a man be born when he is old?” Nicodemus asked. “Surely he cannot enter a second time into his mother's womb to be born!”

⁵Jesus answered, “I tell you the truth, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit. ⁶Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit. ⁷You should not be surprised at my saying, ‘You must be born again.’ ⁸The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit.”

In other words...

“Born Again” subscribes the fact that it would be better were we not born at all and remain with God in the eternal beginning; than to be given the gift and breath of life, only to lose it because of our sinful nature in eternity, ever after. In addition, in this life we must also be “born again” in newness of life—the Spirit life and the mind of the Lord Jesus Christ. And that we must be baptized in, and truly possess, the Holy Spirit in order that our being is seen as holy by Him on the day of our transformation from this body to our eternal body.

CHAPTER: Born Again

VERSION: What Happens To Children Who Don't Have Time To Be "Born Again"? Where Do They Go? How Can They Get To Heaven?

†

"I AM GOD...
IT IS THE PARENT'S JOB."
"AND ONLY 'BORN AGAIN' PARENTS SHOULD BE HAVING CHILDREN."

Mark my words...

As well, a couple who wants children should convert to Christianity.

CHAPTER: Born Again

VERSION: But a Person Only Dies Once

†

“I AM GOD...
“BORN AGAIN” DOES NOT GRANT YOU HEAVEN.
BUT IT DOES OPEN THE GATE.”

Mark my words...

Jesus Himself said, “Not all who call my name will enter.” But rest assured, being “born again” is the first step. Surely, those who do not take this step are damned.

In other words...

Read on...

CHAPTER: Church

VERSION: True

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

The “True” Church is not on this earth, only in Heaven.

In other words...

Only Jesus truly knows those who believe in Him and possess the Holy Spirit at the time of their life and death.

“I AM GOD...”

Exodus 20:1-21

The Ten Commandments

¹ And God spoke all these words:

² "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

³ "You shall have no other gods before me.

⁴ "You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. ⁵ You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, ⁶ but showing love to a thousand {generations} of those who love me and keep my commandments.

⁷ "You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.

⁸ "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy. ⁹ Six days you shall labor and do all your work, ¹⁰ but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant, nor your animals, nor the alien within your gates. ¹¹ For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

¹² "Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

¹³ "You shall not murder.

¹⁴ "You shall not commit adultery.

¹⁵ "You shall not steal.

¹⁶ "You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor.

¹⁷ "You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his manservant or maidservant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

¹⁸ When the people saw the thunder and lightning and heard the trumpet and saw the mountain in smoke, they trembled with fear. They stayed at a distance ¹⁹ and said to Moses, "Speak to us yourself and we will listen. But do not have God speak to us or we will die."

²⁰ Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid. God has come to test you, so that the fear of God will be with you to keep you from sinning."

²¹ The people remained at a distance, while Moses approached the thick darkness where God was.

Deuteronomy 6:1-9

Love the LORD Your God

¹ These are the commands, decrees and laws the LORD your God directed me to teach you to observe in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess, ² so that you, your children and their children after them may fear the LORD your God as long as you live by keeping all his decrees and commands that I give you, and so that you may enjoy long life. ³ Hear, O Israel, and be careful to obey so that it may go well with you and that you may increase greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised you.

⁴ Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. ⁵ Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. ⁶ These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. ⁷ Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. ⁸ Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. ⁹ Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.

Matthew 22:34-40

The Greatest Commandment

³⁴Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. ³⁵One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question:

³⁶"Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?" ³⁷Jesus replied: " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' ³⁸This is the first and greatest commandment. ³⁹And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' ⁴⁰All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

Romans 13:8-14

Love, for the Day is Near ⁸Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for he who loves his fellowman has fulfilled the law. ⁹The commandments, "Do not commit adultery," "Do not murder," "Do not steal," "Do not covet," and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up in this one rule: "Love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁰Love does no harm to its neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

¹¹And do this, understanding the present time. The hour has come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. ¹²The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy. ¹⁴Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature.

John 14:21

¹Whoever has my commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves me. He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love him and show myself to him."

Mark my words...

Jesus summed up the 10 Commandments with just two: ³⁷Jesus replied: " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' ³⁸This is the first and greatest commandment. ³⁹And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'

Additionally, spiritually, there are four spiritual disciplines involved here:

The first is that if we love God, others and even ourselves; we will do or not do that which is listed in the Commandments. Each one is a measure or determining factor in a person's love. If you love God, your neighbor, and yourself; you won't kill them, have adulterous sex with them, steal from them, lie to them, or jealously, greedily, or ungratefully want what they have.

In addition, if you love God, others and yourself; you won't have or love another God, but the one God, Jehovah, God. You also won't idolize anyone but Him; nor will you speak irreverently of Him; and you will love and honor Him as holy at least one day a week; as well as love and honor your father and mother, sister and brother, males and females.

Truth-be-told, it's a two-way relationship; if you love God, you will keep His Commandments as Jesus Christ has said and commands, and if you keep God's Commandments you will learn and show one another what true love is.

The second spiritual discipline is this: To meditate and spiritually discern the different levels you can implement each of the Commandments. And here is a brief listing and description of just some of what each Commandment means:

1. You shall have no gods before Me.

There is only one God. He is God in Spirit and love, the Father. He is God the Son, Jesus Christ; the human being who is both God and man. He is the Holy Spirit; the invisible, living presence of God and Jesus Christ. He is the spiritual being who resides in the Heavens and earth and may in the body of men. In addition, He is the One True God. There are no other “religions,” “gods,” or anyone or anything but Him. And there is no one or nothing that should be placed first and foremost above love for God.

2. You shall make no graven images.

God is Spirit and God is love. God is not jewelry, pictures or artwork that one can truly see or understand. And there is no one or nothing that should represent God or that people should idolize in place of God. Additionally, there is no other “religion” or “belief system” that man himself, including himself, that should be created to represent or imitate God.

3. You shall not take the Lord’s name in vain.

God is His Name. Jesus Christ is His Son. The Holy Spirit is the presence of God. There is never a reason to swear by His name or say His name, other than in reverence, worship, or relationship with Him. There is never a reason to have anything but love, faith and hope in Him and His Name.

4. You shall keep holy the Sabbath.

God creates, created, and rested. God is holy. God loves work and He loves when mankind works. Yet there is a day, a day when man is to worship and love God and rest in reverence for the days when The Lord God did work to create all that is in existence.

There is a day when man, should, above all other days, work to act like Jesus Christ; a day when he should be holiest amongst all the other days of the week. A day when man congregates with the rest of mankind to love and serve God and each other above the work that is done to “keep the planet running,” a day of rest and godly appreciation of all of creation.

5. Honor thy father and mother.

Every person should love and honor; live and be willing to die for God the Father, our earthly fathers, our brothers and all males. Every person should love and honor, live and be willing to die for Christ’s mother, our earthly mothers, our sisters and all females.

Every person including God the Son, Jesus Christ; and Adam and Eve is a creation given birth to by God the Father. And while Jesus Christ is God the Son, He laid down His life for mankind and for the Father. The greatest love man can have is to lay down his life for his fellow man, Jesus said. And that is to lay down our life, for the people who gave us the gift of life. Be that working for them, serving them, honoring them, loving them, or dying for them.

6. Thou shall not murder.

God is the Creator. God is love. God loves life; the life He created. There is no reason, on earth, to kill anyone or anything. That means mankind or animal. That also means any senseless killing of nature apart from God's promises of food, clothing or shelter.

7. Thou shall not commit adultery.

Apart from the relationship between God and man, the holiest relationship between beings is the relationship of holy matrimony. The relationship solely designed for mankind to give birth to one another. There is no reason apart from the union of a man and a woman, for the purpose of childbirth, to have "sexual" relations. Sex is not for pleasure, but for purpose. Marriage is for a man and woman, not similar sexes. Marriage is lifelong. Marriage is holy. It is the foundation of human creation.

8. Thou shall not steal.

Theft is taking not giving. Theft destroys; it does not build. Stealing imitates; it does not create. Stealing may take form materialistically, but also physically, mentally, emotionally, or spiritually. God is the Creator; mankind is to accept every gift from Him and then give every gift to each other. Man is to not rob or steal any love, holiness, or godliness from any and every other man, being, or creation. One accepts a gift that is given to them, but a person steals that which is not.

9. Thou shall not lie.

To lie, or bear false witness is the opposite of the truth. It is not seeking or speaking the truth, but a sinful misrepresentation thereof. Lying is defrauding, lying is deception, lying is demonic. The truth is singular, lying can be limitless. Deception is destruction. Lying is also stealing; it is the theft of the truth. Lying is a sin, it is unholy, and it is evil. This, again, may mean sight or speech. It may be physical, mental, emotional, or spiritual.

10. Thou shall not covet.

Covetousness is that ungodly desire for that which a person does not have or possess. It may be materialistic, physical, mental, emotional, or spiritual. It leads to deception, theft and an ungratefulness or lack of appreciation and worship toward a holy, good and just God who gives patiently and timely in direct relation to a person's holiness and perfection or their sinfulness and imperfection.

God has the unlimited, good gifts for all whom He creates, but He will not give unjustly or errantly. He gives, and loves to give, in direct relation to the keeping of His Commandments. The key is to keep His Commands and love, revere, worship and have trust, faith, and hope in Him that He gives you just what you need and want, when and to the measure that He needs and wants you to have it. And any Covetousness only goes to reveal the lack of a perfect relationship with God the Father and His children.

In other words...

The third spiritual discipline is to know and understand that even if you don't actively participate in a physical, "hand's on" way; your mental, emotional, and spiritual dimension and decisions are also required in keeping the Commandments.

That means even if you don't "realistically" do or don't do something; the way you think, feel, or believe about it is just as meaningful to God.

And here is a brief listing and description of just some of what that may mean:

1. You shall have no gods before Me.

Nothing on earth or existence is more important or meaningful than God. Every human is a child of God, before they are their own creation, being, or self. If you have a family, your Father is God and His children are your family. If you have a job or work, your number one job is to work for Him. If you have a hobby, your top hobby should be serving or "playing" with Him. Additionally, you should love Him first and foremost above all things and all people.

2. You shall make no graven images.

No one knows what God looks like, and no man should try to draw or recreate Him in any likeness. In addition, any iconic jewelry should not be worn, especially crosses or crucifixes.

A crucifix was the crossroads where Jesus saved mankind; not a cool, clubby accessory designed to create a sense of self or create a personal image. Man was created in the image of God; it should end there. And no one alive has seen God. A human blasphemes God to even imagine the Almighty.

3. You shall not take the Lord's name in vain.

God is His Name. And the list of curse words people use, especially the name of His Son, Jesus Christ, is virtually limitless. Even the very Name, "God," in any context other than worship is sinful and unholy. Additionally, a person should not swear or take an oath by God as some form of truthful proof to mankind. God is God, and when you call His name, He hears and listens. His name is as holy and as reverent as He is. Truthfully, He created everything with words, just as the words we use to speak.

Additionally, when we speak the Name of God; we don't need to scream, repeat ourselves, or even verbalize His name. He sees when it is written, and He hears when it is spoken. He hears His Name in our thoughts, feelings and spirit.

4. You shall keep holy the Sabbath.

The Sabbath is a day of holiness, rest, thankfulness, worship, service and glory to God. Truth-told, everyday should be as the Sabbath; but for mankind, with his work, few are as such. However, to have a goal of reaching such a day, a reward for a week of labor, or forgiveness for a week of sin, or a renewing of the mind, or healing of our feelings, or spiritual and soulful sanctification; a Sabbath or holy day, set apart, is a necessity.

5. Honor thy father and mother.

To honor means to be loving and thankful for the blessing that is the gift of life, since every person and animal in creation has a father or a mother. It is to honor the creative process that the Lord, Himself, designed. It is to love one another and honor the commonality that all of creation shares.

Additionally, to honor a father and mother means to honor all fathers and mothers, and to honor all males and females. It means to honor the gift of life and to think, feel, and believe that creation, life, and love are all gifts and characteristics of The Creator and that each human being and animal has within their personal possession.

6. Thou shall not murder.

Murder or killing is the destruction of life, creation and the very heart of God. It may mean killing a human being, an animal, or something He created in nature. The sin is the same. It may also mean putting to death any thoughts of love or life or of God that a person has. It may mean putting to death any such feelings toward fellow creation. It may also mean the destruction of the Holy Spirit possession in a created being.

Additionally, one does not have to physically kill or drain the lifeblood from a creation to commit murder. If a person thinks positively about, or supports, or votes, or believes in any theft, destruction, or loss of life; be it the slaying of animals for food, abortion, capital punishment, euthanasia, "mercy" killing, or war; they are a murderer, a killer, and a sinner.

7. Thou shall not commit adultery.

Adultery, sexual immorality, and all perversions are sinful. The misguided word, itself, “sex” which has come to define the act of physically interacting with one another, or intercourse has been perverted. Human recreation is the plan and purpose behind intercourse. It is not for “sexual” pleasure. The only “pleasure” should be giving birth to a creation.

Truth-be-told, any “sexual” or physical, materialistic, mental, emotional, or spiritual interaction between created beings is sinful.

Additionally, as with the other Commandments, a person does not need to “realistically” or physically commit the act to be a Commandment-breaking sinner. If a person thinks positively, supports, votes, or believes in anything apart from the marriage of a man and a woman for the purpose of childbearing, they are committing a sin.

8. Thou shall not steal.

Stealing or theft, taking and not giving, fraud, or robbery can take many evil forms. It may be materialistic, or as noted throughout, it may be mental, emotional, or spiritual.

In God’s creative design, He instituted principles that are organized and unchangeable which are designed for growth of a creation. That may be in any of the realms or dimensions that have been remarked upon. He, the Lord, gifted and created everything to work in a divine, just and even mathematical relationship whereby you “reap what you sow,” amongst many other godly and divine universal laws and principles; in addition to truth that each Commandment works in relation to all the other Commandments.

Additionally, theft by its nature takes a fleeting moment, whereby the growth of anything, including all of creation, is a lifelong and eternal process. And since the creation of Adam and Eve and their first children, Cain and Abel, mankind has been designed to work, care, and live in truth and holy oneness with its Creator.

9. Thou shall not lie.

While many think of lying as “not telling the truth”; again, it may take many forms, from the way people think, feel and believe about things and one another. Additionally, it is more than just “not lying,” it is about seeking and speaking the truth. It is not about hiding the truth either. To not speak a lie that a person knows in their mind, is the same as “harboring a fugitive.” That is to say; to conceal or deceive about the truth is a lie, since a person’s mind, feelings, and spirit are more a part of themselves than the words they speak.

10. Thou shall not covet.

As noted, all the Commandments are interrelated, and just as Jesus Himself, said, “If you break one you break them all.” Additionally, truth-be-told, if you break one—you will be tempted to break the others.

Covetousness is certainly a case-in-point; as it often leads to lying, theft, adultery, murder and dishonor. And meaningfully, it will eventually lead and incorporate the Fourth up until the First Commandment.

Additionally, as is the revelation of noting the complexity of these Commandments; covetousness has its sinful roots and foundation in a person’s mind, feelings and spirit. And any thoughts or feelings that lead to wanton illicit desires, greed, or being ungenerous are sinful and ungodly.

Truth-be-told, covetousness is built on and has its seed in a lack of faith, trust, hope and love in a person’s relationship with a giving, good, trustworthy, loving and perfect Creator. And to think, feel or believe otherwise breaks the First Commandment; “Thou shall have no other Gods”; because this is Who and how God is—He is good, He is perfect, and He is love. He is God.

My last words...

The fourth spiritual discipline is to take a proactive approach to keeping the Commandments, which means teaching, defending, serving and helping others to keep the Commandments. It is not enough for you to simply avoid breaking them, but to actively discipline yourself, and demand of yourself to keep them and defend them; and to demand and discipline others to keep them and defend them...these are the Commandments of God.

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

1. God is first and foremost.
2. God is nothing or no one but God.
3. “God” is not a curse word. Speak highly of Him. God is His name.
4. Rest and be holiest one day a week.
5. Love and die for your parents.
6. Animals are people too. Do not destroy or kill anyone or anything.
7. Love don’t lust.
8. Ask, don’t take.
9. Always seek and tell the truth.
10. Be content and grateful.

In other words...

1. God is First.
2. God is God.
3. God is His Name.
4. Be holiest one day a week.
5. Love and die for your parents.
6. Don’t kill anyone or anything.
7. Love don’t lust.
8. Ask, don’t take.
9. Always seek and tell the truth.
10. Be content and grateful.

CHAPTER: Communication

VERSION: Give Thought to the Thought

“I AM GOD... GIVE THOUGHT TO THE THOUGHT.”

Mark my words...

When you get a good thought or an idea, especially one that seemingly “comes from out of nowhere”; act on it quickly. The “thought” may well have come from an angel or the Holy Spirit. Therefore meaning, God has decreed that this be the time to obediently act on it.

In other words...

A person has to be aware that such a thought, certainly one that is good, loving and which serves God and mankind, may well have immediately been delivered from an angel or a prompting from the Holy Spirit. And if a person wants to be obedient and get in pace with God’s divine timing, they need to immediately “give thought to the thought” and act on it in order to bring to fruition that prayer which the Lord has answered; the creation He wants made, the work or service He wants done, the blessing He has given, the plan He has in mind, or whatever it is He wants a person act on, in order that it may be done.

My last words...

Countless times, in my imperfection or sinfulness, after I have received a “thought” that “came out of nowhere” and had no apparent correlation or relation to what I was doing or thinking of at the time; when I failed to act on it or follow-through; each time, I either delayed or missed-out completely on the blessing and the work the Lord had for me to do. Truth-be-told; I lost-out on God.

CHAPTER: Communication
VERSION: "I AM THE WORD."

"I AM GOD..."

Mark my words...

The Lord God used His spoken word to create angels, mankind, the animal kingdom and the universe.

In other words...

God communicates with His creation.

My last words...

These are some of the ways The Lord God communicates and speaks to His creation....

ANGELS: Created beings that exist in a realm of their own.

ANIMALS: The Animal Kingdom are created beings.

CIRCUMSTANCE: Non-coincidental circumstances and actions are a communication of God's.

CONSCIENCE: Human beings have a mind guided by a spiritual mindset created by God.

DREAMS & VISIONS: Dreams are visuals when we sleep; and visions when we are awake.

HOLY SCRIPTURE: The Word of God; the Holy Scriptures and the Holy Bible.

MIRACLES: Miraculous happenings or occurrences which are not manmade, but "God-made."

MUSIC: Instruments, sounds, and voices convey messages and emotions from The Creator.

NATURE: God's creation of the Universe and Earth and all the natural creations within them.

NUMBERS: Math is a language of God's [Positive #'s: 7, 10, 40, 50; Negative #'s: 666].

PEOPLE: Prophets and preachers; teachers and ministers; who truly know The Lord, God.

PRAYER: The practice of speaking and the meditation of listening to The Lord.

SCRIPTURES: God is a creator and writer, whose words have been recorded in holy books.

SIGNS & WONDERS: "Out-of-body" or "Out-of-this-world" occurrences which come from God.

TONGUES: A spiritually spoken language of men and of angels.

CHAPTER: Communication

VERSION: Quietness

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

God speaks in many ways: signs and wonders, dreams and visions, circumstances, angels, nature, people, conscience, His voice and His Word, and the Bible. And when wading through the vastness of personal and satanic influences, when trying to discern the mind and voice of God; generally, the voice that is the “quietest” the one deepest within; the one beyond reason and the distracting influences of the world, the Devil, and our own selves—that, that is the voice of God.

In other words...

To discern the mind and voice of God, there will be a conflicting, louder, more visible input in any of the above ways in which The Master communicates, that will be from the Devil himself. It is the thought or the thing that you see the least; or the quietest of all the voices or input you receive, that is generally the mind or voice of God. And a person needs to and can discern and develop this communication level with God.

CHAPTER: Death Penalty

VERSION: Jodi Arias and the Death Penalty

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

I ENCOURAGE SOMEONE TO GET THIS WRITING TO JODI ARIAS AND ANYONE WHOM THEY KNOW WHO MIGHT BE IMPRISONED....

God is against the death penalty.

The death penalty has many flaws, but one primarily; it does not offer forgiveness to the sinner/criminal; it punishes. It is murder and is an evil sin. The Bible says, “It is wrong to fight evil with evil”; yet many will sinfully call it “justice.” For this few of many reasons, God and I are against the death penalty.

The death penalty is a sin and the United States, especially, as the “New Roman Empire” has many states which enforce this punishment.

Now, I have godly advice to those facing such an ungodly penalty; and while I have never, thank God, murdered anyone to my knowledge; I have sinned like we all do as none of us is perfect and we all make mistakes, even if some are deadly to another person(s).

Twice, at least, I have committed sins and crimes which both times had me facing 10 years in prison; and both times I was set free.

How was it done? I shall briefly explain....

I was blessed enough to understand that my case was not against the government, justice system or even those whom I committed my crime against, but rather my relationship with God. I also knew that those entities are also imperfect and sinful and make mistakes just as I do; yet, because I knew who God was and how He worked; I would rather appeal to Him to set me free versus people who are typically ungodly and unforgiving.

Therefore, the first time, I simply asked God to forgive me and vowed I would never commit my sinful crime again; and I did not. I knew Jesus had once said, "God forgives you. Go, but commit your sin no more." I trusted and believed that which Jesus had said, and it was true. In the end, it was a true spiritual miracle that the circumstances, evidence, and all that was involved in my case was miraculously altered and I was completely exonerated and set free having served no jail time.

In the second situation, after committing my obvious crime and sin, I was imprisoned. Again, I was facing a minimum of 10-years in jail. Yet, this time, I knew I had to call on The Lord in a greater way as there is no Hell on Earth like being incarcerated. Yet, I also knew if I faithfully worked with Him, He would set me free.

Truthfully, I was experienced enough to know that the most common sin when it comes to committing a crime or the criminal justice system is lying. I know most criminals lie habitually and it's their first tool for trying to escape; and I also know that police also lie a lot. Therefore, I realized the best thing I could do would be to tell the truth. In a worldly way, it goes against common sense; but I also knew there were stories in the Bible, particularly in The Book of Acts, where the apostles were angelically set free from prison because of their faith in God.

Surely, I am not an apostle; but I had come to learn that while Christians are not openly persecuted for their religion in the US; they/we/I am often tempted, attacked, and trapped by Satan because of my belief in God. In my mind, this is Christian persecution in modern times.

Therefore to be set free, I put my faith primarily in the Scripture I already knew which read, "You shall know the truth and the truth shall set you free." (John 8:32) God bless. To that end, I asked God to give me the strength to tell the truth and free me from the fear of being tempted to lie. Equally, I vowed to Him to keep the promise many make in prison: "God, if you help free me, I will keep my promise to follow you."

Well, in the end, after a brutal and hellish experience in jail; where I was almost killed by the guards, not to mention being hopelessly suicidal facing a 10-year sentence; I was set free after only 11-days; eleven days of constant thinking, meditation, prayer and preaching. Thank you, God. Thank you for being true to your Word.

In other words...

It does not matter who is incarcerated and what crime they committed, the death penalty is never warranted and is always a sin.

My last words...

God is The God of Life. He hates death.

“I AM GOD...”

Matthew 8:28-34

The Healing of Two Demon-possessed Men

²⁸When he arrived at the other side in the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men coming from the tombs met him. They were so violent that no one could pass that way. ²⁹"What do you want with us, Son of God?" they shouted. "Have you come here to torture us before the appointed time?"

³⁰Some distance from them a large herd of pigs was feeding. ³¹The demons begged Jesus, "If you drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs."

³²He said to them, "Go!" So they came out and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and died in the water. ³³Those tending the pigs ran off, went into the town and reported all this, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men. ³⁴Then the whole town went out to meet Jesus. And when they saw him, they pleaded with him to leave their region.

Mark my words...

Jesus walks by two-demon possessed men. The demons beg Jesus to, in a sense, let them live, until it is the appointed End of Time and all evil ceases to exist. And because demons need to possess a body or be contained within one, Jesus allows them to enter a herd of pigs. Immediately, the destructive and murderous demons destroy the body they possessed.

One note: angels or evil angels are their own beings, entities, and creation; they do not reside in bodies other than their own. Demons, on the other hand, need to reside in a body.

Also in this story, the men did not ask for Jesus to heal them. This was a demonic, evil spirit recognizing the Savior and in fact, as is later written, the whole town is evil-minded as they insisted on driving Jesus out of it.

In other words...

Since “the darkness hates the light,” many people, when they are “forced” to be good or choose not to recognize goodness, God, Jesus, or the Holy Spirit; would rather revel in their own sin and self-destruction.

CHAPTER: Earth

VERSION: “Pack Your Bags.”

†

“I AM GOD...
MAN IS WISE TO PREPARE FOR THE AFTERLIFE.”

Mark my words...

The Earth is passing away. God says it is doomed to destruction; so too are our human bodies. Therefore, any and all efforts made to save the planet, with the belief it might not perish, are totally contradictory toward God. Better yet, mankind should “pack their bags” and prepare for life in the hereafter. If he does, and honors the land God gave him, by not destroying it—but also not worrying about rebuilding it, God will work with man long enough to keep man alive before moving man to Heaven.

In other words...

This earth is doomed. Man needs to concentrate his life and rebuilding efforts on preparing himself to live in Heaven. It’s like many things, when you think about the future, God will then take care of the present—when you think and look toward one project, God will take care of the other one.

CHAPTER: Earth
VERSION: People Planet

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Did you know that Planet Earth was comprised of 70% water? And did you also know that the human body is composed of 70% water?

Truth be told, this relational value between the two is actually spiritual evidence that The Creator had His hand on the creation of both and man was created from God and the “dust of the earth.”

In other words...

When The Lord created the heavens and earth, He chose, both on that “day” and as a part of evolution, that the earth, this heavenly body, would be comprised of 70% water. Then, later, He took man, from the “dust of the ground,” and created our bodies, with the same percentage of water. This seems like an amazing coincidence; that the two greatest bodies in creation would be created so similarly from the one composition needed for life to exist: water.

CHAPTER: End Times

VERSION: The End Is Now, Now, Now

†

“I AM GOD...
THE DAY YOU ARE BORN—
YOU ARE SECOND A CLOSER TO DYING.”

2 Peter 3:8

⁸But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.

Mark my words...

The “goal in life” is to die in Christ.

CHAPTER: Entertainment

VERSION: "God has a sense of humor." — (Ecclesiastes 2:2, 7:3)

†

"I AM GOD... NOT LIKE YOU THINK I DO."

Ecclesiastes 2:2

²I said of laughter—"Madness!"; and of mirth, "What does it accomplish?"

Ecclesiastes 7:3

³Sorrow is better than laughter,
For by a sad countenance the heart is made better.

Mark my words...

In the Bible, Jesus is not in entertainment. Jesus did not tell jokes.

In other words...

God is a good God. God is a God who "loves to laugh" not because of the laughter involved but because of the love. The reason why Jesus, the Creator of all joy [but not joy in the sense of the joy or laughter people get from being entertained, but the joy that comes from seeing people filled with the Holy Spirit and one with Jesus], did not tell a single joke in the Bible—is because 99.9% of every joke is based on a deception or told as a lie. Jesus could or would never, ever tell a lie. He could or would never even deceive in the slightest way.

CHAPTER: Entertainment

VERSION: In Hollywood, the “L” stands for “lie”—it should be “Holy-wood”.

†

“I AM GOD...
ENTERTAINMENT IS THE GREAT, EVIL ADDICTION.
THE MORE “ENTERTAINING” A CHURCH SERVICE—
THE LESS THERE IS THE SPIRIT OF HOLINESS.”

Mark my words...

I've been in entertainment, and I know the difference.

CHAPTER: Eternal Life
VERSION: Eternity

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

I know there is an eternity because life is too short.

In other words...

It seems highly unlikely and implausible God would only create a being who now only lives 100 years; knowing that after he or she dies; life on Earth may go on for another one hundred, one thousand, ten thousand, or one million years.

My last words...

Eternity is now, so live it.

CHAPTER: Evil

VERSION: Why Does God Allow Evil?

†

“I AM GOD...
I DON’T.”

Mark my words...

People have been asking this “age-old” question for millenniums: “Why does God allow evil?” Or they ask a similar version, “Why does a good and loving God allow evil?” And added to both of these questions, they ask, “Why doesn’t He just stop it?”

Truth be told: He doesn’t allow evil! God Almighty is holy, perfect, and free of sin and evil. He is absolute and unchangeable. In fact, if He allowed evil, He would have allowed the author of evil, Satan, to remain in God’s Kingdom.

CHAPTER: Fear

VERSION: "Are You Afraid to Die?"

"I AM GOD...
I KNOW."

Mark my words...

From music inspired by the film, "The Passion of the Christ," is the song, "Are You Afraid To Die?" And while the song is directed to those who "risk their life" without a living or dying belief in God and Jesus Christ; I am one whom wholeheartedly and faithfully believes in God and Jesus Christ. When I am asked, "Are You Afraid To Die?" I answer, "I am."

In other words...

I am not afraid because I have no God or as the song says, "Are you unsaved?" I am afraid because I do know Jesus. But truthfully, I am afraid I don't love, serve or know Him enough. I am afraid because I know He knows if I am saved. I am afraid because I don't know.

“I AM GOD...”

Isaiah 43:25

²⁵“I, even I, am he who blots out your transgressions, for my own sake, and remembers your sins no more.

Mark my words...

God also says, in Scripture, that when He forgives your sins, they are as far apart as the East is from the West, meaning, the two shall never meet. That if He has forgiven you, there is no relation anymore between your sin and the forgiveness of that sin. They are on completely different sides of eternity and completely opposite as good and evil.

He also says, not only, are they completely gone, but He remembers them no more. Which means two things:

1. He is not keeping “score” as some people do. And keeping a record of the “rights” and “wrongs” that humans do to one another, but that if God forgives and “forgets” our sins or transgressions against our neighbors, friends, or fellow man, so too should they. And The Lord means completely “forgets”; as if they never happened in the first place.

2. We, ourselves, should never remember our sin. That if The Lord, Himself, “forgives and forgets” who are we to remind Him? Truth be told, it is offensive, disobedient, and sinful if we bring up or remind Him, anyone or ourselves of a sin that He has sent His Son to die for or has personally omnipotently forgiven us from.

In other words...

If you know The Lord God, Jesus Christ, has forgiven you; if anyone ever asks you; be it an authority or a friend, on an application, or any document; “Have you ever...?” and the question relates to an offense, crime or sin that you’ve committed, you can freely, truthfully and sacredly answer, “No.” I did not do that. Surely, there are many ungodly people who may disbelieve, accuse, or condemn you. But your heavenly Father is not One of them. And He promises, guarantees and assures that you will be given the proper disposition, ruling, or judgment by whomever, in the light of the truth that He believes you did not commit that sin.

My Last Words...

“Forgive me, Jesus. Remember my sins no more.”

CHAPTER: Forgiveness
VERSION: Grant Forgiveness

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Forgiveness is not something that can be earned but only granted.

In other words...

The ability to forgive someone who has wronged you cannot be earned. There is nothing on earth a person can do to work, achieve or earn it. To be truly forgiven, a person must use grace and simply give forgiveness to the person who wronged them.

CHAPTER: Forgiveness
VERSION: Turn the Other Cheek

†

“I AM GOD...”

Matthew 5:39

But I tell you, do not resist an evil person. If anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to them the other cheek also.

Luke 6:29

If someone slaps you on one cheek, turn to them the other also. If someone takes your coat, do not withhold your shirt from them.

Mark my words...

Turn the other cheek. This not only means to accept and forgive the sinfulness or crime of another person toward oneself, but it also means as a bystander or person judging the actions of another: turn the other cheek toward the sinfulness or crime directed toward a third party or other human being.

CHAPTER: Future
VERSION: Vision

†

“I AM GOD...”

Luke 16:10

¹⁰"Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much."

Mark my words...

If a person wants to have vision and predict and see into the future; this Scripture can also apply to that. If you can be “trusted” to act godly in the “little” things the Lord will show you, then God will give and show you “greater” vision and ability to see and predict the future.

CHAPTER: God
VERSION: God is Good

“I AM GOD... I AM GOOD.”

Mark my words...

God is good. And in this sense, I mean, God is good and wants to bless His creation and children with all the goodness as it equates to wealth.

Adam, the first human, was the wealthiest man, apart from God Himself, who would or will ever exist. Adam was the largest landowner, he owned all the livestock, all the food, all the natural resources: everything.

However, two things keep a person from all the wealth in the world. And that is the smallest of sins that a person commits and the second is the sin that God knows you are going to commit and the Lord “holds in your account against you.”

Yet, most of all, the greatest determining factor, and this certainly relates to sin, is a person’s salvation. God will do everything to save you and nothing to see you lost or lose your salvation; meaning, there are only two extremes that The Lord envisions: and that is making and letting you be the wealthiest person in the world or the poorest person on the planet; but, again, He does it all in the context of your salvation. If you are sinful and unsaved, He will not let you acquire wealth. If He knows your wealth will cause you to disinherit or lose your salvation; and certainly cause you to do the same toward others; He would be pleased to see you poor and not lose your soul to Satan and inherit eternal riches beyond compare.

However, if a person can abstain from the smallest sins, and The Lord, who knows the future, can see that you will be wise with the wealth, a sinless steward, and one who can be trusted with the riches [and blessings, “it’s not all about money you know?”] that He gives you and, in a sense, takes that portion from others [the wealth of the world is divided by the inhabitants of the world; then there is no measure to the incredible goodness of God. God is good. He truly is good.

In other words...

On the other hand, there is another being who can dispense the world's wealth and belongings to a person, and that is the devil himself. And if a person, who has never become "born-again" or died in Christ; well, then, this person can achieve great wealth through the use of sin and because Satan knows that material riches and money, when placed before a belief or faith in God, is the sure-fire anchor that will keep a sinful person with only the material and monetary treasures of this existence with little hope for salvation, but surely lost forever for eternity.

A prime example of the ends of the spectrum of wealth and God's incredible goodness were Adam and Jesus, Himself. Adam owned everything, no one on earth was, nor can be, any wealthier than he; and yet, he lost it all because he committed the apparent smallest of sin, he took a piece of fruit from a tree that he was told not to take. His small sin of disobedience and Commandment-breaking sin of stealing caused divine retribution from The Lord and in turn, Adam forfeited the entire planet to Satan, who Adam allowed Satan to steal from him. And more so than the earth and all its belongings, and all of God's immaculate goodness, Satan stole the souls of all human beings who would exist thereafter because of the First Human's sins and the foresight of God to see that sin would now always be present amongst mankind.

On the other end of the spectrum is Jesus, Himself, who, above Adam, was the richest Man to ever exist. He not only owned everything, He created everything and gave it to Adam in the first place. Yet, when Jesus walked the planet, he was the poorest of the poor. He essentially owned nothing. He was homeless and broke His entire life, and the only home He ever lived in was either the one belonging to his parents, Joseph and Mary, or one in which He had to ask to be a guest in or was invited to reside in.

Truthfully, Jesus owned everything but was also the poorest-of-the poor to ever exist. And here, Jesus never committed a sin, and The Lord knew Jesus never would. And Jesus would never, in a sense, lose His salvation. Jesus owned it all and He knew it, but He lived here "dirt poor" because He wanted you to know it. He wanted you to know that you could be rich or poor, but that nothing determines wealth more than a person's sinfulness and salvation. God is good. He truly is good....

My last words...

So there are two examples of rich and poor, sinful and sin-free, evil and good. And a prime example of the opportunity to become wealthy, but without salvation, was when The Savior was on the mountaintop and Satan tempted Him with all the riches of the world. Basically, Satan was saying, "If you want to be rich and wealthy, you can be, you only need to commit sin and evil in order to obtain it. But you will also be following me, and one day, being following me, Satan, into Hell.”

Additionally Satan also told Jesus that He could jump off a cliff and not be killed, that angels would lift Him up. Truth be told, not only is Satan a thief, but he is also a liar; and if Jesus did listen to Satan and obey him, that fateful day, He would have leaped off of that cliff and died; and the world would be lost and forever “broke.” Thank God, Jesus didn’t fall for it. God is good. He truly is good.

CHAPTER: God
VERSION: God Speak

“I AM GOD...”

James 5:12

¹²Above all, my brothers, do not swear—not by heaven or by earth or by anything else. Let your "Yes" be yes, and your "No," no, or you will be condemned.

Matthew 23:21-23

²¹And he who swears by the temple swears by it and by the one who dwells in it. ²²And he who swears by heaven swears by God's throne and by the one who sits on it.

Exodus 20:7

⁷"You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.

Genesis 1: 3-5

³And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. ⁴God saw that the light was good, and He separated the light from the darkness. ⁵God called the light "day," and the darkness he called "night." And there was evening, and there was morning—the first day.

Mark my words...

For most people who “swear”; in the name of God, they think this makes them more truthful, when often times they are lying. But what’s worse than that, is that The Lords says, “Don’t swear by Heaven [where He lives] or by Earth [where He also lives]. Thus, if a person swears by any name, he or she is breaking a command of God’s. But the Lord also instituted the Commandment saying, “Thou shalt not take the name of God in vain.” Well, vain, here may mean, without value or effectiveness; thus if you swear by God, especially, you are surely breaking this Commandment as well.

In other words...

“Thou shalt not take the name of God in vain.” That also means, with the word, “vain”; defined as vanity, which is pride. Is such that not only does The Lord disdain pride, but He knows His Name and all of who He is, and He does in character; that His name and being is not all prideful or ineffective.

My last words...

Truthfully, likely the most blatant example of a person using “...God’s name in vain”; is the use by many heretics and heathens of the “Name above all names...” Jesus Christ. I doubt there is not one person, alive, who has not, at least once, heard someone use the name of Jesus Christ as an expression of distaste, or disapproval, or disdain.

Truth-be-told, however, for any person on Earth, who does not believe, worship, or have a relationship with the Lord God, just the very use of His Name “God”; breaks a Commandment. Even if His Name is used positively versus negatively, the Lord does not take delight in anyone even mentioning His name. That is, unless a person knows Him, is speaking reverently, or truly wants to know Him.

More humanly speaking, it’s like calling the President by something other than his title. Do you know him personally? Or, for example, calling some famous person you don’t know by their first name. Doesn’t that sound awkward, pompous, or misleading if you aren’t friends or have a relationship with each other?

Well, then, God is God. And even the speaking of His Name is of the highest spiritual meaning and order. The Father, Himself, spoke all of creation into existence. And His Son spoke about the “power of the tongue”. God is God for those of you whom want to know Him. He is God. He is God.

CHAPTER: God
VERSION: I Exist

†

“I AM GOD...
IT IS HUMANLY IMPOSSIBLE TO NOT KNOW I EXIST.”

Mark my words...

It is humanly impossible to not know God exists.

I think of three revolutionary, at the time, philosophies that changed or molded the minds of man and those were:

A second was the thought was that man, people are inherently evil and negative-minded, and that doom is the final result of their lives, their planet and their existence. While another philosophical thought was that people, mankind, are inherently good and positive; and that people can make their lives better if they “would only put their mind to it.”

“I think, therefore I am.” Truth be told, the second a human being thinks, even from childbirth, and in truth, even from conception; God makes known of His existence to a human.

In other words...

Even in early pagan cultures there was a belief in a “sun god,” or a “god of water,” or even a “goddess of love”; and truth be told, those people were correct. There is a God [not gods] of those things, and His name in Jesus Christ, God: The One, True God.

CHAPTER: Grace

VERSION: “Lazy” Grace vs. Works

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Jewish people thought God accepted you by good works. This left man to decide for himself, or in the Jew’s case; the Jewish leaders; what works were good or bad, how much work to do, and in some cases of judgment, did our life reflect works enough to gain you Heaven? This also led to man; Jewish leaders; to having to judge for themselves only a judgment that God can make. Since, when Jesus Christ lived, He taught that God’s “entry fee” was not an obligation or rewards for your work—but His gift or His grace of having Jesus defeat, “buy back,” and die for man’s sinful ways.

When Jewish teachers and disciples, like Paul, taught people about Jesus and Christianity; they were very strict and clear that grace and the gift of Jesus supersedes and thus replaces the erroneous Jewish teachings.

However, today, with the knowledge, and faith, and work of Jesus; Christians have received the gift and God’s grace needed for salvation. Again it is Jesus who taught, redeemed, and died for grace and the discovery of what man needs to “get in.”

Yet, like forgiveness, and every and anything else given freely by The Lord, we still need to accept it! If we don’t accept or take hold of it, it is not ours.

Today, now that Christianity is the way to Heaven; many Christians and churches have let their human nature and misinterpretations of God’s grace lead them to conclude that essentially no work has to be done. Accepting, taking something, takes effort; it takes “work” in a sense. And now there is a devout reliance on God’s grace by the notion that nothing needs to be done to accept it. Yes, it is given freely, but the Scriptures state throughout, that the acceptance of this of God is accomplished by the works we do for the Lord; as the Lord Jesus as worked for us by doing the will of the Father, and in His case, dying on the cross.

It is our Christian responsibility to work and to serve [serving is working] the Lord. In serving Him and working for Him, we have faith that He judges us acceptable at the time of death.

Working, as the Jews did, before Christ, for the Lord God; was enough for God to credit them as righteous. Accepting the gift of Jesus and the grace of God to provide His Son, gives Christians the opportunity and responsibility to accept Jesus and to live and die in working to accept His grace and to serve Him.

In other words...

Beware not to rely on "grace" so much that you neglect service to God. Human nature will tend to do that, and that is what is happening to some Christians. Working for and serving God, apart from an acceptance of Jesus, is like not working for God at all. Nor is simply relying on God's grace and not serving Him at all. The key is to accept Jesus, and acceptance means following Jesus and His teachings on working for Him and serving Him. That will show you truly accept Him.

CHAPTER: Grace

VERSION: Grace Without Works is Dead

“I AM GOD...”

Matthew 7:15-22

A Tree and Its Fruit

¹⁵"Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves. ¹⁶By their fruit you will recognize them. Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? ¹⁷Likewise every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. ¹⁸A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. ¹⁹Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. ²⁰Thus, by their fruit you will recognize them.

²¹"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. ²²Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?'

Mark my words...

Jesus warns of "False Prophets," but look at the words: "false" which is a negative or evil—and "prophet" which is positive and good. He is not simply saying beware of that which is obviously evil but that or whoever appears to be good but is evil. He says, "Good is good and evil is evil," there is no "mixing" of the two, if there is a "mixture" or evil; then it is evil. Good is good through and through.

In Verse 21, He may very well be telling "Christians" they are not "getting in," and certainly Christians who think all they have to do is know Jesus and not act like Him; which means, by grace alone, or going to church, or recognizing Jesus as Lord, without doing anything like Him or to serve mankind is enough to be saved. It is not. A person must not only identify Jesus as Lord, but identify with Him, by serving others and most importantly, also obediently following the Commandments that God has established.

The fact that, in Verse 22, people can do “spiritual” things like prophesy, heal and perform miracles and appear to represent God, The Father, in that way; but Jesus says, if you don’t realistically do the works of the Father on earth, which is serving mankind, and keep his Commandments, Jesus considers you an “evil doer.”

In other words...

It’s not just God’s grace, but our keeping of the Commandments and the work we do for God and others that opens for Christians the Kingdom of Heaven.

CHAPTER: Health
VERSION: Food and Eating

†

“I AM GOD...
FOOD MANUFACTURERS PUT PROCESSED
SUGAR IN THEIR FOODS SO A PERSON WILL BECOME ADDICTED TO THAT FOOD.”

Mark my words...

Like tobacco companies—who put nicotine and other addictive agents in cigarettes and tobacco products so users would become addicted and be possessed to continue using their product—food manufacturers put sugar in their products so a person will become addicted to that food and have a compulsion to buy that food.

CHAPTER: Health

VERSION: Fruit First —Plant Life is Life.

†

“I AM GOD...
I AM LIFE.
I CREATED LIFE...
I LOVE LIFE.”

Genesis 1

The Beginning

¹¹ Then God said, “Let the land produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and trees on the land that bear fruit with seed in it, according to their various kinds.” And it was so. ¹² The land produced vegetation: plants bearing seed according to their kinds and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good. ¹³ And there was evening, and there was morning—the third day.

²⁷ So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them;
male and female he created them.

²⁸ God blessed them and said to them, “Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky and over every living creature that moves on the ground.”

²⁹ Then God said, “I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food. ³⁰ And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds in the sky and all the creatures that move along the ground—everything that has the breath of life in it—I give every green plant for food.” And it was so.

Mark my words...

In God's perfect creative and dietary plan, He created man and animal to solely and simply eat fruit. Why did The Lord do this? One reason: life. God loves life. He loves life so perfectly and so much that He would have it that not even plants die. Plant life is life.

In other words...

There is a reason and a relationship between the word fruit and be fruitful as you can read in the Bible. Fruit is the blossom of a plant. In God's perfect Earth, a plant may grow and grow and sprout forth or give birth to the fruit it produces and reproduces, and the plant never be killed, die or lose its life.

My last words...

*Lastly, in Genesis 1:30, as imperfect man recorded in the Bible, there then becomes a provision for eating plants and being what is today called a “vegan” or even a “vegetarian.” ³⁰ And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds in the sky and all the creatures that move along the ground—everything that has the breath of life in it—I give every green plant for food.”

Keep in mind, again, “fallen” man is imperfect. In God's perfect dietary plan, we are to eat fruit first, then if we must, plants. In fact, a tomato is a fruit, and for many a delicious and tasty fruit. It is the blossom of the plant. It is the fruit the plant produces. What it does not do is kill or take the life of the plant.

*In the end of this first chapter of the Holy Bible, it is recorded: ³¹ God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning—the sixth day.

And in the end, “God saw all that He had made, and it was good.” The Lord's animal kingdom, animals, “everything that has the breath of life in it”; is good, but not good to eat.

CHAPTER: Heaven

VERSION: Are My Relatives And Friends Looking Down From Heaven?

†

“I AM GOD...
NO. I AM GOD...
THOSE IN HEAVEN ARE LOOKING AT ME.
YOU WOULD BE BEST SERVED IF YOU,
IN YOUR HUMANITY, DID THE SAME.”

CHAPTER: Heaven

VERSION: Believe Jesus in Heaven

“I AM GOD...
HEAVEN IS FOR THOSE WHO BELIEVE IN IT AND JESUS.”

Mark my words...

At this point in my life—I hate my life. I hate my life on this earth. And it’s not as if I’m greatly concerned, interested or enlightened at the prospect of changing it. Rather, my peace comes from the fact that I don’t fear dying. I am enthusiastic about dying. I have my greatest hope from believing [knowing] that the next life, the life in Heaven I long for, will be the good life I can look forward to [and shall find].

One of the most profound types of knowledge I have are the words of Jesus who said a person must hate or lose his life on this earth to have his life in the next world (John 12:24-26). I think, in part, that Jesus wants you to suffer for good in this life [and for Him]. The greater a person suffers for good—the greater they are going to have to suffer with evil. Yes, you must suffer evil in suffering for good. And this “suffering” will lead to “hating” this life. And from this hatred, a person must have faith in God to have the gifts, including faith, to believe there is a new life, another life in Heaven. In addition, only by faith in God, can God give you other needed attributes like hope and peace.

The other thought I have is this: that Heaven is only available to those who believe in Heaven. If you love this life on earth to the point you don’t believe, or essentially need, long for, or desire Heaven—Heaven is not available for you. In addition, to those who suffer or are burdened through this life and have no place to turn; no hope, no faith, no belief in Heaven—pity them—for Heaven is not available to them. Heaven is only available to those who believe in it. And the only way to truly believe in it is to believe truly in Jesus. And in truly believing in Jesus, one must be willing to suffer and lose their life in this world in order to gain the Heaven they so too believe in.

CHAPTER: Heaven

VERSION: Heaven is Real

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

I believe there is a Heaven.

Here are two reasons why:

- 1. Jesus prayed, “Our Father who art in Heaven...”*
- 2. I know God exists. I have spoken with Him. He must exist somewhere.*

CHAPTER: Heaven
VERSION: If I Was God...

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

“At times, I think: If I was God...I wouldn’t let anyone in.”

- The Writer

CHAPTER: Heaven

VERSION: "I'm no one special, but I know I'm going to Heaven."

†

"I AM GOD...
HEAVEN IS FOR IMPERFECTION."

CHAPTER: Heaven
VERSION: Obedience to Heaven

†

“I AM GOD...”

1 Samuel 15:22

²²So Samuel said:

“Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices,
As in obeying the voice of the LORD?
Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice,
And to heed than the fat of rams.

Mark my words...

Believing in Christ and what Christ teaches is one thing—being disobedient is something else.

In other words...

This means people need to at least know who God is, and how God is, to have a chance to go to Heaven. If people, then know the true God—then they can use free-will to choose to be disobedient.

CHAPTER: Heaven
VERSION: Who Gets In?

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

So, who does get into Heaven?

When Jesus Christ walked the earth, He had twelve original disciples. Three of whom were very close to Him: Peter, James, and seemingly His closest of all, John; “The disciple Jesus loved most,” as recorded in the Bible. Of the nine other disciples, one would outright betray Him: Judas Iscariot. Later, Judas, after killing himself, by the way, the most acute and immediate form of self-destruction, would be replaced by Matthias. So, in fact, there were 13 disciples.

I believe the lives (and deaths) of the disciples of Jesus’ day may give great indication of the answer. And perhaps, the ratios and probabilities still apply today. However, I may add an exponential equation or factor to it; similar to a “rate of inflation,” if you will. For example: if 1 of the 13 disciples did something; rather than have the probability or ratio be 1 in 13 or 13-1, I may equate it to: 1 in 1,300,000,000,000,000,000,000. I simply multiplied each generation, since the death of Jesus Christ, by ten.

Now, less-mathematically, here is the integral part of the character and lives of the disciples in relation to Jesus. To begin, of the original dozen, following the outright betrayal by Judas, all but one, John (again, “...the one Jesus loved most”) actually was crucified, martyred and put to death for their preaching and belief in Jesus Christ. They, each, in fact, died a death very similar to The Savior’s: crucifixion. It was not a death that could save or resurrect all of mankind; but it was a death that could redeem and resurrect their own individual lives for a life eternal with The Savior, Jesus Christ, God Himself.

Now, the lone disciple who was not openly crucified, or at least had historical (to date) record or Biblical accounts or reports of his own crucifixion was John. And while it may come to pass, that John, exiled to the island of Patmos for the remaining days of his life, following the death of Christ; may have been crucified himself, it appears he died of what we would call “a natural death” or of “old age.” Nonetheless, keep in mind; this was the disciple Jesus “...loved most.”

And we can be quite certain, one who, regardless of the actual means of death, would have ended up in Heaven with God Above, Jesus. John certainly devoted his life to following The Christ.

After the deaths of the disciples, there were other new disciples. Many of whom followed and walked with Jesus during His earthly life and those thereafter; and many of whom I know were killed and crucified for their beliefs in Christ. There would also be a few hundred or more that were present at Pentecost when the first “church” was started, in a large room, when the Holy Spirit descended upon them 50 days after the crucifixion of Christ. Subsequently, after the apostle Paul started the formation of other churches; “Christianity” began to spread and grow. Yet, as with nature, especially human nature, the purity and “closeness” to Christ naturally also became diluted, distanced, and literally deceived from the centrality of perfection that surrounded and enveloped human creation when Jesus Christ lived as a human being on earth; a purity and “perfection” that has not existed since the days and creation of Adam, then Eve, and before the second-coming of Jesus.

Now, let’s look at people in general, or mankind as a whole. To begin, every human being on earth is self-destructive. And, in fact, they are all therefore suicidal. Of course, some act more acutely and instantaneously, in a way, than others, by immediate forms of imposing death; but basically all are self-destructive and suicidal. The difference is: some take an instant to kill themselves and others a lifetime. However, in a true sense, they, we, all take a lifetime—some lives just take longer than others to reach the height of their own demise or death. And this is a fact that cannot be altered since all people die, period.

Now, keep in mind, the way of universal self-destruction began in the Garden of Eden at the beginning of human creation when Eve, then Adam, the parents of mankind, willfully and knowingly chose to submit to the temptation of the devil, the deceiver and destroyer of all creation, and initiate and invite death to mankind and creation in the first place. Importantly, since God is The Creator, the death of human beings was self-imposed and self-destruction became, if you will, “a way of life.” Self-destruction (and therefore, suicide) is the human condition, period. It is the way of all humans, death.

Now, think about something...the disciples were human beings, just like you and me. Therefore, they too, were self-destructive. They were each, “destined” to die. Yet, they did the sole and singular life-saving thing that could actually save their eternal life and soul; and that was placing their dying faith in Jesus Christ and then receiving an indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

Think about something...even the death of Jesus Christ was allowed, in one sense, because--while He was and is God--He was also a human being; a human being existing on an evil planet and put to death by evil mankind who was under the rule of Satan. The two distinct differences were that Jesus was the only human never to have sinned and was completely innocent of the self-destructive earthly nature and choices of creation's first parents and could not have been because He was The Creator, their creator, and actually existed in creation before them. And secondly, and eternally more important, while He did have to "live by the rules" of earthly creation, He did also exist as God in the spiritual realm and overcome infinite and eternal death by rising from the dead and will one day return again: finally defeating Satan for all of time.

Now, let me write about people, and the world today; and where and who may be going when they eventually self-destruct and die. To begin with, simply, there is a Heaven; there is the earth; and there is a Hell. Heaven is where God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit live eternally. Earth is also a place where God lives, but He lives here, for the limited time of human creation, only in one form of existence. He only lives here in the spiritual realm and not in earthly, bodily, human form. This "living" is accomplished in the spiritual sense as the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Jesus on earth. And while He is available to all mankind, just as Adam and Eve had a choice; mankind has a choice to accept Jesus. If a person does so; then they will be indwelt with His Holy Spirit--then, and only then, once a person, at the time of earthly death, has the Holy Spirit within them, they too are considered Holy, and their spiritual soul will live forever in Heaven. Once in Heaven, they will be re-created with a new body, an unimaginable body; and exist in Heaven, with God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit, forever and eternally. If a person does not accept Jesus, and either never gets or loses possession of the Holy Spirit within; that person, when their earthly body ceases to exist, that person, by the time of their bodily death, will have chosen to succumb to self-destruction and suicide and their soul that remains, never become transformed into new creation or body, but their soul, that being of theirs, that exists beyond this earthly existence, goes to Hell, for eternity.

Understand there is a process to salvation, and it is: You must willfully and willingly accept Jesus Christ as God. Once doing so, you will be filled or indwelt with His Holy Spirit. You must then work and willfully seek to maintain this indwelling of The Spirit and sanctify yourself; for just as a person can certainly and willfully chose to forfeit their belief Jesus "along the way"; they can also do the same with the Holy Spirit. Furthermore, and most intriguing, is that a person can also maintain a false or less-than-satisfactory or Holy (according to Jesus) belief in Christ, and thus never truly have the Holy Spirit. Or, even if they did once have possession of the Holy Spirit; they can later lose that indwelt presence of Him. Remember: God, the Father, will always give mankind the choice. He will never extinguish or destroy Heaven or the Holy Spirit or eliminate the opportunity for salvation; but He does allow mankind the choice to discontinue Holy sanctification and thus, through sinfulness, lose the Holy Spiritual indwelling and forfeit Heaven and re-creation for eternity.

Keep in mind, only people who have the Holy Spirit within can overcome their now natural and self-destructive nature and live eternally in a new body, in a place called Heaven. They are not bound to the Law of self-destruction, in the sense that they, like Jesus, become “innocent,” sin-free, and Holy. Their bodies will be self-destructed, because that is part of being human; but they will be given a resurrected, “second chance,” to change their Holy souls into a newly created body in Heaven. And those who do not accept Jesus, and either never receive the Holy Spirit, or lose Him, by the time of the cessation or perishing of their earthly body; their soul that remains, never becomes transformed into a new creation or body, but their soul, that being of theirs that exists beyond this earthly existence, continues to reside in Hell, for eternity.

So, let’s look at the deaths of the disciples and how their death’s reflected on their lives and on the lives of those who choose to become disciples of Jesus Christ and Christians. There are only a couple states of beings and “causes of death” that will gain us a place in Heaven. The first and foremost, is the most similar to the death of the disciples, and in a way, closest to Jesus Himself. Although, as you will read, a person who dies with Christ and “in Christ,” or the Holy Spirit; actually honors all the means of “acceptable death” or “states of being” at the time of earthly death. The first and foremost is laying down your life in belief of Jesus Christ. If you, as the disciples did, are willing to truly believe in Jesus Christ and be indwelt with Holy Spirit, the devil is sure to attack you and even use evil mankind to destroy you. The disciples may not have physically, in a sense, “laid down their life” (as a person may do by standing in front of a train to preserve the life of another); but they actually spiritually were willing to lay down their lives of sin, and self, and profess; in body, mind, heart and soul; that Jesus Christ is Lord and is God.

Today, in the world as we know it; this is still being done for those who willingly and openly preach the Gospel and the love and life of Jesus Christ in an evil existence that encompasses unbelief, hatred, deception and destruction. Simply preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ can “get you killed.” What a glorious, honorable, worthy and Holy way to die.

A more literal way of “laying down your life” is to physically do so. For instance...running into a burning fire to save the life of another; or as I noted, running in front of a train to spare the life of someone on the “wrong track,” is a Christ-like way to die and can be a great indicator of what it takes to gain eternal Heaven. Keep in mind, though; a person who may do this, and do it “instinctually,” or because they believe it is good or right, or worse yet, do so because they are exercising their suicidal nature and cowardly killing themselves with the hope of “going out in a blaze of glory,”...any of them, without a faith in Jesus Christ or the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, will still almost certainly go to Hell; for the final decision or judgment as to what is “in that person’s heart” or their “spiritual condition” is up to Jesus Himself.

Another misleader and great deception; is the professed “Christian” who kills or endorses the murder of created life. Jesus, when on earth, said: “There will be many who come to me at The Judgment and say, they are a 'Christian' and yet, depart from Me you doers of inequity and evil." Only Jesus knows for certain if they are "telling the truth" of their Christianity when they die and meet Him. Still, one false indicator is the "Christian" who chooses to or supports murder. This includes the killing of babies, animals, the sick, criminals, and your "enemies." Furthermore, there is no place in Heaven for sin, hatred or any Anti-Christian belief--period.

In truth, these ways of "laying down your life," for Jesus Christ and in His Name, are the great indicators of true Christianity and possession of the Holy Spirit. Truthfully, the only disciple who may not have been crucified was the aforementioned, John. And while we can be almost certain John is in Heaven, he was the only one of the thirteen disciples not to be murdered by another human being and die a "natural" death. Truthfully, it is very, very, very rare that a person can live such a life and die such death. In my life, the only person I have witnessed that has remotely lived such a life and died such a death was Pope John Paul II. His life was exemplary of the life of the disciple John. But still, only Jesus knows for certain, what He chose to do with the soul and eternal life of Karol Wojtyla.

In parting, personally, I once recall telling a blessed relative of the true "narrowness" of "the gate of Heaven" and how few people of the billions and billions in the history of human existence will ever truly get to Heaven to stay. And she said, with partially blinded disbelief, "Then Heaven must be a very lonely place." At that moment, I had no answer in response to preach to her how truly lost and deceived humankind is concerning God and Heaven.

Months later, I heard more clearly what Jesus had to say about it; and it was something like this: "Not with Me there it won't be." He is right. Even if it were just, you and He for eternity—Heaven would be heavenly.

CHAPTER: Holy Days
VERSION: He “Rested”

†

“I AM GOD...
I AM DONE.”

Genesis 2:1-3

¹ Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array.

² By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work. ³ And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

Mark my words...

God did not “rest” on the Sabbath Day. He was just done creating.

In other words...

Rather He just “sat back” and, in a sense, “worshipped” what He had created.

“I AM GOD...”

Matthew 12:1-14

Lord of the Sabbath

¹At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick some heads of grain and eat them. ²When the Pharisees saw this, they said to him, "Look! Your disciples are doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath."

³He answered, "Haven't you read what David did when he and his companions were hungry? ⁴He entered the house of God, and he and his companions ate the consecrated bread—which was not lawful for them to do, but only for the priests. ⁵Or haven't you read in the Law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple desecrate the day and yet are innocent? ⁶I tell you that one^[a] greater than the temple is here. ⁷If you had known what these words mean, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice,'^[b] you would not have condemned the innocent. ⁸For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

⁹Going on from that place, he went into their synagogue, ¹⁰and a man with a shriveled hand was there. Looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, they asked him, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"

¹¹He said to them, "If any of you has a sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will you not take hold of it and lift it out? ¹²How much more valuable is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."

¹³Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." So he stretched it out and it was completely restored, just as sound as the other. ¹⁴But the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might kill Jesus.

Mark my words...

Praying on the Sabbath when the sick and possessed and lost came to church.

CHAPTER: Holy Days

VERSION: Holy Days or Holidays?

“I AM GOD... HOLY DAYS OR HOLIDAYS?”

Mark my words...

Americans and many in the world who keep, mark, or celebrate holidays have sinfully bypassed the godly, truthful, and holiest ideals of these days.

Briefly, a “day” is a creation of The Lord God’s and like every single day, or hour, or even second; they are to be spent glorifying The Creator; and recognized as being a gift from Him. A “day” has as much life in it as does the life of a person who lives one.

Truth be told, the most sacred of days have become the most sinful. Here is simple synopsis of these special days, which God, Himself, has created and Satan and sinners have sinfully perverted.

In other words...

Christmas:

The celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ; the Son of God, the Savior of Mankind should be the most revered day on the calendar and in the life of every human being created and who will be created.

The name itself is being erased and destroyed because of the name of Christ. The day itself has become synonymous with gift giving; but sinfully, not giving gifts which glorify God for His gift of His Son to mankind; but gifts which celebrate materialism whereby shopping has become a sport.

It is also a day of feasting and food; and yet, most people kill God’s creation of the Animal Kingdom and those who He created and calls, “friends”; man kills and calls “food.”

New Year's Day:

The year is 2015, it will be 2016, and if you ask Americans and most people; they would not know the origin of how the years, on this calendar, were numbered. They are the years, after the death of Jesus Christ, or A.D. In fact, "A.D." has virtually been erased from the lexicon because Satan and sinners don't want to mark or acknowledge the death of The Son of God or believe He ever existed.

For most people, New Years Day is synonymous with celebration instead of reverential remembrance. It is a day dedicated to drug and alcohol consumption. It may also be a day of college football and again; the destruction and gluttonous consumption of God's created beings. It is also a day for resolutions whereby most revolve around money or some sort of self-empowerment or self-improvement; the least of which is a rededication and revering of The Father, but rather resolute revelry.

Easter:

Easter is the day to celebrate the resurrection of The Son God, Jesus Christ. It is a day to remember the life of The Savior, who died for sinful mankind, and was raised on the third day, this day, so mankind may have life eternal.

Easter has become another day of celebratory feasting of food and the devouring of the life of the created Animal Kingdom, in addition to the addictive, sickening, consumption of sugary sweets or chocolate and other candies.

Truth be told, the name of Jesus Christ is remarked about less than the fictitious "Easter Bunny"; not unlike His name is less mentioned than that of Santa Claus or even Saint Nicholas.

Thanksgiving:

Tragically, Thanksgiving or "Turkey Day" has become synonymous with feasting on a bird. If you truly want to give thanks; thank The Creator, The Lord God, for His blessed gift of life and the Animal Kingdom; and don't kill or eat His beautiful creation.

Turkeys themselves are also tempted to sin and kill since they eat insects, spiders, snails, slugs, salamanders, small lizards, small frogs, millipedes, grasshoppers, very small snakes, and worms. Bear in mind, when you eat turkeys, this is what you also eat. To the good, turkeys also love, give birth, have families and give thanks and love to live.

My last words...

Truth be told, all these sacred days are earmarked for materialism; be it under the guise of gift-giving or of shopping; and surely the murderous and addictive consumption of confections, alcohol and drugs, and created beings.

CHAPTER: Humility

VERSION: Don't Mistake Confidence for Arrogance

†

“I AM GOD ...”

Mark my words...

In one instance, I can clearly recollect, in my personal “Christian” life, I was accused of being arrogant. I believe it stemmed, in part, from my proclamation that I knew more about God than anyone living on earth, at the moment. I only said so because I know the Holy Spirit and I know He is all knowledge and all truth, and that I was only bearing witness to the words and knowledge, the truth and information that The Father was giving and sharing with me.

My last words...

I pray to God that Satan does not pervert the confidence I have in Christ—whether to my brethren or to myself. And I know, without a doubt, a perfect God has never failed to humble me should I ever cross-the-line.

CHAPTER: Humility
VERSION: Humble

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

God never fails, never ever fails, to humble us.

In other words...

Humble yourself when you can and spare yourself the loss of pride or the discipline because God never fails, never ever fails, to humble us.

My last words...

CHAPTER: Iscariot
VERSION: The Judas Syndrome

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

- The person who is to betray you; is the one who calls you “friend”; as Judas did.
- The person who is evil-minded is the one who calls themselves a “Christian” but is not.
- The person who appears as a “Christian” may be an Anti-Christ.

In other words...

Satan is a deceitful liar and counterfeiter. He is too clever and evil-minded to tempt; trick; attack or destroy you by letting you be informed exactly of who he is and how he appears. He is more devilish, demonic and destructive when appearing as something or someone he truly is not.

CHAPTER: Jesus

VERSION: I Must Confess...

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

I must confess, that at times, I wonder if Jesus Christ really is God? There are times I think, “Just God is God.” And I think, as much as I believe in The Father, and would never, ever, disbelieve in Him; that Jesus was just a Man; a man who desperately, desperately tried to love, serve and act like God if God were a Man.

And I think, at the very worst, if I did mistakenly believe in Jesus Christ as God; that God, The Father, would forgive me for believing in a Man who seemed so much like how God would be if God Himself were a Man. God must know how desperately I want to know everything about Him [The Father] and how much I would miss believing in Jesus if I had to stop believing in someone who is so godly.

CHAPTER: Jesus

VERSION: "Jesus was a great man..."

"I AM GOD...
JESUS IS MY SON.
I AM JESUS."

1 Corinthians 1:21

²¹For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe.

Mark my words...

Paul, in this Chapter, addresses those are considered the elite, the wise, or the intelligent of their or any time; when in truth, anyone who does not believe in God or in Jesus Christ is actually foolish.

1 John 2:23

²³No one who denies the Son has the Father; whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

John 10:25-30

²⁵Jesus answered, "I did tell you, but you do not believe. The miracles I do in my Father's name speak for me, ²⁶but you do not believe because you are not my sheep. ²⁷My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. ²⁸I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one can snatch them out of my hand. ²⁹My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all; no one can snatch them out of my Father's hand. ³⁰I and the Father are one."

In other words...

There are many who may be considered wise or intelligent who often say, "Jesus was a great man...a prophet." Yet, they do not believe that Jesus was God or is The Son of God.

Truthfully, any person who speaks such a thought is actually the most foolish of the foolish, since Jesus Himself said: "If you have seen Me, you have seen the Father. I and the Father are One." Therefore, truth be told, anyone who thinks Jesus was a great man or prophet; well then, their "great prophet or great man" is either crazy or a liar. And are either of those characteristic signs of a "great" man or prophet?

CHAPTER: Jesus
VERSION: Jesus Tempted

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

When Jesus walked to the mountaintop, the devil was there to tempt Him. Satan promised and offered Jesus the entire world and all the Heavens if only Jesus would bow down to him.

To begin, Satan can trick and fool everyone, everyone except Jesus. The world and the Heavens were not Satan's to give; they all belonged to the Christ from the beginning of Creation.

The devil is a deceiver and a destroyer. Since the fall in the garden, all men, including Jesus in His humanity, were sentenced to die. Mankind, apart from Jesus, is all doomed to die a self-destructive and suicidal death. Jesus would later overcome eternal death on the Cross, but don't think for a minute, that when the devil tempted Jesus to jump off the cliff, that the devil was not lying, knowing The Savior would fall to His death.

In other words...

Mankind has 2 choices in this life and man's death, that determine his never-ending eternal life, those two choices are self-destruction or suicide, slow as it may during our life; or to “lay down” his life for His Savior and his fellow man. The man who is assassinated or killed for preaching the Gospel, or the one who risks and loses his physical life in order that his neighbor may physically live long enough to hear and receive the Gospel, and then do the same with his or her own life....only that man will be saved.

CHAPTER: Killing
VERSION: "Depart From Me"

"I AM GOD..."

Psalm 6:8

⁸Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity;
For the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping.

Psalm 119:115

¹¹⁵Depart from me, you evildoers,
For I will keep the commandments of my God!

NOTE: Please refer also to Psalm [119:113-120, 121-128, 129-136 and other Psalms].

Mark my words...

Even in the days before the birth and life of Jesus Christ, King David, when his life was threatened, commanded and pleaded that the sinners and killers depart from him. He prayed and made record of the fact that killers had no place in the life of this man of God. Years later, Jesus Christ, The Living Son of God, would be born through the earthly family of David. Jesus too, would command and testify that killing is a sin.

1 Kings 20:36

³⁶Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, surely, as soon as you depart from me, a lion shall kill you." And as soon as he left him, a lion found him and killed him.

Jeremiah 17:13

¹³O LORD, the hope of Israel,
All who forsake You shall be ashamed.

“Those who depart from Me
Shall be written in the earth,
Because they have forsaken the LORD,
The fountain of living waters.”

Jeremiah 32:40

⁴⁰And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from doing them good; but I will put My fear in their hearts so that they will not depart from Me.

The prophets before Christ were wise enough to know that The Lord God of Life and His beliefs on killing were completely separate from one another. Basically, life is good and of God and killing is evil and of the devil. And there is a necessary departure from those who kill from God.

Matthew 7:23

²³And then I will declare to them, “I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!”

Luke 5:8

⁸When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, “Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!”

Luke 13:27

²⁷But He will say, “I tell you I do not know you, where you are from. Depart from Me, all you workers of iniquity.”

Luke 14:25-27

²⁵ Now great multitudes went with Him. And He turned and said to them, ²⁶“If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple.²⁷ And whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple.

In other words...

The Lord God is so opposed and opposite from sin, and there is no worse sin than murder, and the denial of the Holy Spirit within man that serves to prevent man from killing, that in the eternal end, the Lord will disbar any and every unrepentant, unreformed, and unforgiven killer from His presence. In fact, anyone who is not willing to give up their own life and willing to die and sacrifice it for the Lord, they too, will be permanently separated from Him. This is the way it has always been, and this is the way it will always be.

2 Corinthians 12:8

⁸Concerning this thing I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me.

My last words...

This long-lasting, meaningful, recognized and personal statement from the apostle Paul certainly pertains to all men and all sin. For certain, the “thorn in my side” may well apply to any and all sin. However, in Paul’s case, it would surely pertain, in part, to the “killing spirit” he may have had when persecuting Christians and Gentiles alike. In fact, any sin, murderous or otherwise, or evil spirit within; must always “depart” from a person in order to purify and perfect that person before Christ.

CHAPTER: Killing
VERSION: Killing the Innocent

†

“I AM GOD...”

Luke 23:34

Then Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do.”

Mark my words...

These were Jesus’ last words. He was saying, forgive them Father they are doing unrighteous in killing an innocent man. He was thinking and saying this as a man. At the same time, being God, Jesus was able overcome this sin of man’s and be raised or resurrected to life again, and then to eternal life with the Father.

In other words...

Perhaps this is what happens to the “innocent” people who don’t hear about Jesus. Although, I rather believe, all will hear about Him in Spirit if not in Word by the time of their judgment.

CHAPTER: Killing
VERSION: "Thou Shalt Not Kill"

†

"I AM GOD..."

Mark my words...

*The Bible clearly states the words and The Commandment of God as it was given to Moses:
"Thou shalt not kill."*

It "kills me" to see or hear of how many people refuse or disobey this request, rule and commandment of God's. The excuses, examples, exclusions, and extenuating circumstances involved in people deciding when killing or murder is appropriate are incredibly imperfect, foolhardy, and satanic. First of all, who is man to decide what conditions constitute the breaking of a rule, and in this case, the very Law of God?!

In other words...

People have become increasingly broad and satanic in their inclusion of what types of murder are acceptable; self-defense, animal slaughter, enemies, you name it. Basically, for whatever reason people may think killing is acceptable, ask yourself: than for what reasons does God think killing is unacceptable? When then, in people's thinking, do you think God does not want you to murder? When in Hell?

Mark my words...

Think of this also: if a person, let's say you, the reader, finds killing acceptable—then when and under what conditions does God also think killing is acceptable?

CHAPTER: Killing
VERSION: Who Killed Jesus?

†

“I AM GOD...
THE WRITER KILLED JESUS.
I LET JESUS BE KILLED.
JESUS LET HIMSELF BE KILLED.
I AM GOD.”

Mark my words...

Jesus let Himself be killed. Jewish priests and teachers killed Jesus. Jewish people killed Jesus. Gentiles killed Jesus. Pagans killed Jesus. Non-believers killed Jesus. Romans killed Jesus. His own disciples killed Jesus. Christians killed Jesus. Non-Christians killed Jesus. You killed Jesus. I killed Jesus. God the Father let Jesus be killed. Jesus let Himself be killed.

I am The Writer, and The Writer killed Jesus. God said, “I let Jesus be killed.”

In other words...

We all kill Jesus every time we sin and The Lord God, Jesus Christ, died for all our sins.

CHAPTER: Law

VERSION: Above the Law

†

“I AM GOD...”

Matthew 5:20

²⁰ For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.

Mark my words...

“...unless your righteousness exceeds...” Like everything Jesus said, it had multiple literal, symbolic, and spiritual meanings to it. One thing, on one level, the Lord is saying here is that: Unless you are better, more righteous, and godlier than the Pharisees or the teachers of the Law, you will not enter Heaven. Meaning; they are not always right or certainly don't teach the truth or act as they should, and you must be more righteous, godly, and holier than they are to enter into Heaven.

In other words...

Not because they are good, godly, and right; but because they may think or act like they are and to Jesus they are not.

CHAPTER: Life
VERSION: The Meaning of Life

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

In the eternal past and for the eternal future, for life here on planet Earth, the singular universal question created mankind has ever asked in this existence is: “What is the meaning of life?”

To begin, let me answer the question as God would answer; for this book, from this writer, is His Words to His creation. I also want to share a quote from modern scientist Albert Einstein who wrote: “Everything should be made as simple as possible, but not simpler.” And will thus answer in that context: simply.

And the simplest answer I can give you comes in context from the Holy Bible, whereby it reads in its first line on its first page:

In the beginning, God created...

In other words...

In the beginning...before God created the Earth and man, in fact, all life, He, The Creator, in an unimaginable, unthinkable and inconceivable sense; created “time.” And like the Creator Himself, time is infinite and eternal. Creation, man, can truly understand time in only one context, and that is: in the face of eternity, in the space of eternity, and in this place man presently exists. In truth, the mortal and physical body of a human being is a minute, minuscule point in time. From the days of old, when men lived 100’s of years, perhaps 1000’s of years or more, till today, when man, humankind, may live 1 second to 100 years; it is the smallest unit of time in the space or time of “Existence.”

Now, in understanding that, in keeping that in mind, the man whom God created, in which the Bible declares was: “...Created in His own image,” also means that man is a spiritual being first and foremost, for the Bible also declares, “God is spirit.” Thus man, in his truest and timeliest, [also meaning eternal], sense is a spiritual being. He, man, lives spiritually in the eternal past and in eternal future; first and foremost, and forever.

Therefore, keeping that timeframe in mind, and in the perspective that Creation is a spiritual being; in the Mind of God, Man’s physical existence on this Earth, and even the life and Creation of the planet itself, is just a “moment in time.” In fact, it is just one thought of The Almighty Creator, God. Eternally spiritual man, past and future, is given God’s thought to exist in this physical, created body, on this created place called the universe and earth, because of a thought God had. If you will, “something He wanted to do.” “Something or someone He wanted to create.” “Something He wanted to give.”

Therefore, if creation is weighed against the context of time, man may reason and realize that it is a momentary choice by The Creator for His spiritual existence [human being] to exist in another form. And truth-be-told, a creator is a giver. The Creator who creates, actually chooses to give. He is a giver, by nature, so-to-speak. He may give Himself something, but He is a giver, nonetheless.

My last words...

So, in keeping with Einstein’s thought which again reads, “Everything should be made as simple as possible, but not simpler.” And infinitely more important, from the Holy Bible, which reads: “...For God so loved the world, that He gave...”

The simplest answer I can give you to the ages-old question, “What is the meaning of life?” is this: Life is a gift from God. It is the “once-in-a-lifetime” chance, if you will, to exist in this form. And to exist as a gift means to live life in an unbelievable appreciation to The Giver, and with a seemingly unreal joy to God for the moment in this creative existence that even in the Bible it is noted; that the eternally created, eternally spiritual beings called, “angels” are “jealous” of and cannot even appreciate.

It is not, as many people satanically pervert, the self-seeking, self-serving, self-existent, self-eternal purpose for sinful pleasures, rather it is the combination of the gift of life from a Holy Creator for the godly joy or godly pleasure of appreciating and loving the gifts from God that are simply, the created plane on which this existence lives which is the universe, earth, and all nature; and every and all created beings that exist, be it angel, animal or man; and infinitely and eternally, most meaningfully, appreciation and love to The Giver and The Creator Himself.

Furthermore, it is the undying love and appreciation mankind should have that God wanted and chose to exist on this plane, Himself, in the person of Jesus Christ, and that God Himself, would sacrifice Himself, and give, again, this life that we live for the chance to live it with a loving, appreciative, joyous and positive mindset that this gift was redeemed from the perverse imitator [and not creator], who is the evil angel Satan who exists also on this plane as a spiritual being [and is also evilly jealous to not exist as “human”] and who hates and destroys all time [by deceiving humans into thinking this life is temporal, self-existent and finite] , life and joy.

Because, truth-be-told, if God did not make such a sacrifice, man would only have this momentary form of existence and not only forsake the spiritual, eternal future that is his, but also not have the mindful understanding to know of the context and meaning of this created life, and the necessary context of time and the understanding that I have shared with you. He would only think that this life is all that there is, all of the time; and he would not appreciate the meaning of life, in that it is truly a gift of God.

CHAPTER: Life

VERSION: The Second Meaning of Life

†

“I AM GOD...
TO DIE, KNOWING YOU SAVED A LIFE;
IS THE GREATEST GIFT YOU CAN GIVE ME FOR THE GIFT OF THIS LIFE.”

Mark my words...

While life is a gift from God; and the “meaning of life” is to live it with godly joy, enjoying a loving relationship with The Son of God, God Himself, and all of His nature and creation... The Second Meaning of Life, is to die.

In other words...

Adam, the first man, was created to have a perfect life with the meaning of enjoying this loving and joyous relationship with The Creator and all of creation; however, Adam committed the “original sin.” He immediately and irrevocably, destroyed all life by inviting death into the creation. Now, everything and everyone dies, both nature and creation.

Therefore, “The Second Meaning of Life” is death. And to simply live one’s life preparing for death and accepting the responsibility that every person is a child of the man, Adam. And every person must live accepting the responsibility of the mistake and sin of their earthly father. Every person must sacrifice the perfect, godly joy that was initially intended to be mankind’s, for the sacrificial service and life that is to live in order to spare every other creation [including nature and animal] from death.

And truth be told, since there is no sparing of life, in this life; that means to spare and prepare creation for the next life, which is eternal life. Man dies. Creation dies in this life; that is the second meaning to this life. But Creation never dies in eternal life and the Second Meaning of Life, is to save a life; an eternal life.

My last words...

One day, a person's godly joy may end in this life. They may die in peace, seeking the next life; or in torment, believing this was the only life. But to die, knowing you saved a life, is the greatest of all godly joy and the greatest gift a person can give to God for the gift of this life.

CHAPTER: Life
VERSION: Water

†

“I AM GOD...”

Genesis 1:2

² Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

Genesis 1:20

²⁰ And God said, “Let the water teem with living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the sky.”

Genesis 2:7

⁷ the Lord God formed the man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being.

Mark 8:23

²³ He took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village. When he had spit on the man’s eyes and put his hands on him, Jesus asked, “Do you see anything?”

John 19:34

³⁴ Instead, one of the soldiers pierced Jesus’ side with spear, bringing a sudden flow of blood and water.

Mark my words...

Baptism truly does mean salvation for those who believe in Jesus Christ and become Christians. As it has been taught in this writing and from God; it is not an option, but a Command and a necessity. Truth be told, there is more to it than obedience, a public declaration, or spiritual cleansing; there is something deeply, remarkably and mysteriously spiritual about the properties of water.

In other words...

In just the second verse of the Holy Bible, Moses writes that “darkness was over the surface of the deep” and the Spirit of God, the Holy Spirit, was hovering over the waters. Waters that seemingly and apparently are already in existence even before the Lord God created light and the six days of creation, thereafter.

In Genesis 1:20, the Lord’s first created beings, following archangels and angels, were the living creatures in the waters.

In Genesis 2:7, the record many know, is that man was created from the dust of the ground. Man’s very existence and body is seemingly as material (apart from God’s breathing life and Spirit into the man) as the earth from which he was created. Yet, it is not mentioned, that mortal man and the human body is comprised, like the planet, mostly of water.

And later in the Scriptures, in Mark 8:22, the Lord God, Jesus Himself, actually spits in a blind man’s eyes and as is also recorded, actually mixes watery liquid with dirt and places mud over the man’s eyes to heal and cure him of blindness.

In John 19:34; while there is Old Testament prophecy in the piercing of Christ and biological reasoning to assure his mortal and bodily death; there is a symbolic and spiritual mysterious meaning to the outpouring of both the blood and the water.

My last words...

Science will surely inform that water extinguishes any hellish fire and that for life to exist, even if on another planet, there must be water. Truthfully, I do not know all the scientific properties of water, other than it being H₂O; but I do now that there is something amazingly miraculous and spiritual about the properties of water. I just don’t know it all.

CHAPTER: Love

VERSION: Love Thy Neighbor

†

“I AM GOD...
LOVE THY NEIGHBOR—FOR EACH FRIEND WAS ONCE A STRANGER.”

CHAPTER: Love

VERSION: How can I love, forgive, or even serve to save a sinner; especially since I don't personally know the man?

†

“I AM GOD...
LOVE YOUR FELLOW MAN.”

Mark my words...

Not knowing someone personally would make it difficult to love, forgive or serve. More so, even if you did “know the man” it is still difficult [as all these points are for all men concerning all men] for a person to do those things or feel that way.

The key answer or solution is to personally get to know Jesus Christ. Not only is the Lord the person we can all “get to know” best—The Lord Jesus is the only one whom we can do and feel these things toward. And in our doing so directly toward Him, it reflects back on the way we act and feel in relation to others.

CHAPTER: Love

VERSION: Don't Love Someone until the Day They Die—Love Them until the Day You Die
— (John 15:12-14)

“I AM GOD...
MY LOVE IS TO DIE FOR.”

John 15:12-14

¹²This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. ¹³Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends. ¹⁴You are My friends if you do whatever I command you.

Mark my words...

Jesus spoke about loving one another. There are only two ways to develop this love: the love needed to “lay down one’s life for one’s friends”. Firstly, it is so difficult to love people the way we are...sinful and evil. Think about how a hateful, mean or angry person makes us feel...it’s so difficult to love them. But Jesus tells us we need to. Now the only way to do this is through Christ. His love in us is the love we can have for another.

In other words...

There is a step to get there—the only step that can empower us to love a person the way Jesus instructs and does: is to love life... “life” covers [includes] all people. The evil reason [apart from being Christ-like] we don’t love each other is because we don’t value or love life. If we were to love created life—the way God does—this is to love life itself. For Jesus said: I am the way, the truth, and the life.

CHAPTER: Love

VERSION: The Christian Equation

†

“I AM GOD...”

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

⁴ Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. ⁵ It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. ⁶ Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. ⁷ It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

Mark my words...

THE CHRISTIAN EQUATION

_____ + LOVE (kind, patient, etc.) = _____ or

ACT + LOVE = ACTION

In other words...

Whatever ACT you are doing or thinking of doing, if you add in LOVE (1 Corinthians 13:4-7) then you should do the resulting ACTION. That is what Jesus would do, and He promises it will never fail.

CHAPTER: Marriage
VERSION: A Devil of a Divorce

†

“I AM GOD... I AM LOVE.”

Mark my words...

It has been spoken, many times, how “God hates divorce.” But what are a few of the primary reasons why?

First of all, “God is love.” It may well be written, and said, that “God hates hate”; in the sense that divorce symbolizes, represents and equates to a loss of love. And if “God is love”; and “God loves love”; which He does, then God hates divorce. It symbolizes, represents and equates to a loss of love toward one another and especially a loss of love toward God Himself.

A second reason is because of the divide or division...the separation. The devil is a divider. God unites. The Lord loves togetherness and the Lord loves marriage. Marriage truly is a sacred “union” and a blessed sacrament; never to be broken. It is the premier union of humankind to one another, even before parenting, which marriage precedes in the creative order. God created Eve to be Adam’s wife; before He created and commanded Adam and Eve to give birth to children.

In addition, even though the reason God created Eve was to “be fruitful and multiply”; there is a primacy to the order of created beings that there must be a union of man and woman for the birth of mankind to take place.

Thirdly, as introduced, is parenting. God, as noted in this work, even though He created His Son from a virgin, and the woman from the rib of the man; the creation of children, the multiplication of the human race, is somewhat “out of his hands”; meaning, it physically and biologically requires two humans to breed for there to be a birth and human creation to exist and subsist.

Regarding children, from a clinical view, even; it has often been noted the damaging and devastating effects divorce has on children. Undoubtedly, from the quintessential fact that inherit to all creation is a male, father and a female, mother; and the godly “requirement” that offspring be raised by both a man and a woman; but even more so because of the loss of love divorce symbolizes, represents, and equates to the children.

In other words...

A child learns love from their parents not only from the way the parents love the child, but from the way the parents love each other. Now, tragically, if the love a child learns, trusts, or comes to believe in from the parents is broken; if that marriage bond is broken; the child clearly perceives the loss of love the parents now have toward each other; and most meaningfully, the child comes to distrust and disbelieve the love the parents had and have for the child!

My last words...

A human being, especially children, needs love. “God is love” and love rules and unites the people of the planet. If a child believes the parents don’t love one another, despite any words of the parents saying, “We still love each other,” or parenting done post-divorce; the truth remains, in the mind of the child, the love they received or came to learn was something of a deception, a lie, or fraud; and that the child, is truly unloved. That is the true tragedy of divorce.

“I AM GOD... REACH PERFECTION.”

Mark my words...

To begin, there is God. And God creates mankind without the use of “sex.” God “birthed” Adam from the dust of the ground and by breathing life into the first man.

From Adam, God takes the man’s rib and creates the woman, Eve. There was no “sex” involved.

With Adam and Eve, God commanded them not to have “sex” or a “sexual relationship”. He commanded these first two human beings and the first male and female to: “Be fruitful and multiply”. Therefore, from God’s viewpoint, He commands to be fruitful and multiply. And, in a sense, it just happens to be done by having intercourse; clearly, sex for creation, procreation and re-creation [not recreation].

Now, God comes to earth as a human man named Jesus Christ. And He comes with a miraculous virgin birth. Again, God does not use intercourse in order to conceive.

Lastly, Jesus Christ, the perfect man and perfect person is not married, and never has “sexual” physical relations with another person.

In other words...

Here is the natural progression of imperfection:

- Sexual intercourse in order to have children [As well: abstinence always, never contraception].*
- Only during the woman’s 40-week gestation period, when the God-given goal of giving birth is in the process of being satisfied.*
- Only in marriage, as a physical relationship between man and woman.*

CHAPTER: Marriage

VERSION: "Sexual" Relations and Marriage

†

"I AM GOD..."

Mark my words...

Orgasm has come to serve two purposes: First of all, for those who spiritually follow God's command to be fruitful and multiply and are supernatural and godly in their being; orgasm in its purest form, is a sensation created by God to reward the parents for following His command.

Imagine as a person, you knew God wanted you to birth, let's say, two children. Imagine the sensation you would have if your body physically knew, and your mind mentally knew, you were only going to engage in sexual intercourse two times; and you knew you had God's healthy best and wholehearted blessing? And, in the course of your lifetime, you truly only experienced that orgasmic sensation two times? The pleasure, joy, and wonderment of the experience would be miraculous and divine.

In other words...

Secondly, for those who spiritually do not follow God's command to multiply and are more natural, humanistic, animalistic, and ungodly in their being; orgasm becomes a natural inducement, a "pleasurable sensation", perverted by Satan to entice people to have sexual intercourse or sexual relations.

Imagine as a person you did not know the Lord. Imagine the sensation you would have if you mentally knew you were going to engage in sexual intercourse, and other perverse sexual acts, multiple and untold times. And you were perversely following Satan [and it is all perversion if it is not purely of God]. And, in the course of your lifetime, you experienced that orgasmic sensation many times? The orgasmic sensation certainly can be abused, addictive, destructive and deadly. And the ungodly use of sexual intercourse and "sex" has led to overpopulation, addiction, crime, displeasure, disease, divorce, and a host of other sins and perversions all leading to death.

CHAPTER: Marriage

VERSION: Marriage is Meaningful and Meaningless

“I AM GOD...
FOR EVERY ADAM THERE IS AN EVE—AND FOR EVERY EVE THERE IS AN ADAM.”

Mark 10:24–25

‘But from the beginning of the creation, God “made them male and female.’⁷ “For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife,⁸ and the two shall become one flesh’; so then they are no longer two, but one flesh.⁹ Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate.”

Mark 12:24–25

²⁴Jesus answered and said to them, "Are you not therefore mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures nor the power of God? ²⁵For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven

Mark my words...

God’s first plan is for one man and one woman to be fruitful and multiply. As Jesus once spoke; God then planned for man and woman to be married as husband and wife, thus becoming “one”. And in the end, Jesus said God has planned no marriage—that everyone will be one body once again—as in the beginning: so too, in the end.

In other words...

While marriage is meaningful to God in the shadows of earth—it is meaningless to Him in the light of the eternity of Heaven.

“I AM GOD...”

Luke 11:9

⁹"So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.

John 15:7

⁷If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you.

James 4:1-3

Submit Yourselves to God

¹What causes fights and quarrels among you? Don't they come from your desires that battle within you? ²You want something but don't get it. You kill and covet, but you cannot have what you want. You quarrel and fight. You do not have, because you do not ask God. ³When you ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, that you may spend what you get on your pleasures.

Mark my words...

You can make the greatest, most profound, economic plan in the history of creation. All any person, buyer, or consumer has to do is ask any person, seller, or merchant if they can pay less.

Not before or since the system of barter has any economic plan had such an impact.

CHAPTER: Money

VERSION: "For the love of money..."

†

"I AM GOD...
LOVE ME."

1 Timothy 6: 9-10

9 Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. 10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.

Mark my words...

One of the more famed, infamous, notable or quotable verses in the Bible reads, "For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil." What you don't necessarily read, or which is revealed and realized; is the spiritual side to that sacred Scripture.

In other words...

I have finally learned through personal experience this godly and spiritual truth: If you set your heart and mind on wanting to make money; without you cognitively or knowingly reasoning, you open your soul and spirit to satanic spiritual attack. Surely, the recognizable sinful traits like greed, or deception, or theft will be invited into your mind; but more so, "invisibly," you invite every single, satanic spiritual force to invade your being; the innumerable and immeasurable which you and mankind don't normally characterize or recognize.

Now, one may surely recognize the "1st level" of satanic sins and characteristics noted like greed, deception and theft; but most probably don't recognize the "2nd level" and the sinfulness of wasting time (which is infinitely more valuable than money), or distrusting God, or becoming materialistic.

My last words...

Finally, again, it is this “3rd level”; or every singular and unseen spiritually satanic sin which you invite into your system and soul when you spend your time loving to make money which destroys and kills you.

CHAPTER: Money

VERSION: "Hell to Pay."

†

"I AM GOD...
YOU WILL HAVE HELL TO PAY."

“I AM GOD...”

Numbers 15:17-21

¹⁷ The LORD said to Moses, ¹⁸ “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘When you enter the land to which I am taking you ¹⁹ and you eat the food of the land, present a portion as an offering to the LORD. ²⁰ Present a loaf from the first of your ground meal and present it as an offering from the threshing floor. ²¹ Throughout the generations to come you are to give this offering to the LORD from the first of your ground meal.

Nehemiah 10:37

³⁷ “Moreover, we will bring to the storerooms of the house of our God, to the priests, the first of our ground meal, of our grain offerings, of the fruit of all our trees and of our new wine and olive oil. And we will bring a tithe of our crops to the Levites, for it is the Levites who collect the tithes in all the towns where we work.

Mark my words...

There is a financial principle in Scripture that is totally true; and that is the principle of tithing—giving 10% of everything we receive [money, gifts, and possessions] to God’s work or to ministry.

Now surely, there are many ways to look at this principle; one being, God owns everything, so we should give it all back to Him. Another may be that with God’s blessing, we can earn or gain more with 90% than we can with 100%, but minus His blessing. A third may be; if you are in ministry, then give 90% and retain 10%.

Well, I would like to add a perspective based on the simple principle of giving God's ministers and ministries 10% of any money, gifts, or possessions we receive. And I hope you see this as a positive perspective since many perceive that giving God 10% is a subtraction, loss, minus or negative; however, the truth is: if you give God 10% of your "first fruits" God will multiply what you give by 900% or 9-times over.

In other words...

Think of it not as if you are losing or giving-up 10% of what you receive, since it is all of God's anyway, and only God truly gives; but think of it as Him giving you the opportunity to invest a 10% share in what He lends you for the chance to receive a 900% or 9-to-1 return on your investment.

CHAPTER: Money
VERSION: The Great Deception

“I AM GOD...
I AM THE ALMIGHTY.”

Matthew 6:24 and Luke 16:13

“No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”

Mark my words...

God knows how true this statement is. What Jesus is saying spiritually is this: You can only serve Him. If you serve money at all, you will eventually and always serve money.

There is no serving both God and money. Money is like an addiction. And there is an old saying about addiction, “One is too many and a hundred is not enough.” Well, so too with money or the “almighty dollar.”

God knows that sinful man will eventually turn from Him and serve money. He knows it. It is either one or the other; it cannot be both. It is humanly impossible. It is absolute. And believe me, most people believe they can do or manage both; and that is the great deception.

In other words...

Matthew 6:25

²⁵ “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes?”

In the very next verse in Matthew, Jesus assures us not to worry about serving money. He guarantees, yes, guarantees, that if you serve only Him, He will take care of you. He will take care of your finances. Therefore, don't be tempted or tricked, or trapped at all to serve money. Don't worry about it. Just serve the Lord; He will take care of you...guarantee it.

My last words...

Trust me; the great deception is you cannot serve Almighty God and the "almighty dollar."

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

I am convinced, after personal experience, experimentation and even accidents, there is a direct correlation between dreams and nightmares and spirit possession. In particular, if and when a person is possessed by an evil spirit, they will have nightmares; and if and when they are filled with the Holy Spirit, they will have dreams. And by dreams, I mean not only those, along with visions, which come directly from God as a means of communication; but also those “sweet” dreams or “good” dreams rooted in the human subconscious.

Again, however, if a person is demonically possessed, their subconscious and negative imagination will produce nightmares, and satanic demons will infiltrate the mind for the most horrific of nightmares.

CHAPTER: Obama
VERSION: Before and After War

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Old Testament—First Promise

An Old Testament God, under the Old Covenant, may have taken the side of killers in the name of war...but that was for one reason and one reason only—so that 1 human being and her husband could stay alive: Mary and Joseph, the parents of God’s Son. God needed one female body for God Himself, in the person of Christ, to enter the earth through the body and virgin birth of Mary. In a sinful world, full of death and destruction, let me see you keep one single, mortal body alive for you to bring God’s Son to life.

In other words...

New Testament—Final Promise

Thank Jesus, after His birth, death, and resurrection; God has given us a New Covenant a New Testament and that is the life of Jesus Christ. What would Jesus do? Would Jesus murder, kill, or defend Himself against anybody, any single soul on earth? No! God forbid! Jesus died for you, Adam and Eve, Moses, Abraham, Noah, Mary and Joseph, the disciples, Pontius Pilate, the Caesar’s, Alexander the Great, Mussolini, Hitler, Saddam Hussein, Osama bin Laden, George Bush, Barack Obama, Reverend Billy Graham, the Pope, the False Prophet, the Antichrist and me!

My last words...

So now, let me ask you again...what and who do you believe? Rest assured, your answer will have eternal life and death consequences.

CHAPTER: Obama

VERSION: The Spirit of Antichrist

“I AM GOD...
THE SPIRIT OF ANTICHRIST—
IS THE DECEPTIVE THOUGHTS, WORDS,
AND ACTIONS THAT GO AGAINST THE SPIRIT OF CHRIST.
THE SPIRIT OF ANTICHRIST INVOLVES DEATH AND DECEIT; HATRED AND HYPOCRISY.”

1 John 4:1-6

Love for God and One Another

¹Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

²By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God,³ and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world.

⁴You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. ⁵They are of the world. Therefore they speak as of the world, and the world hears them.

⁶We are of God. He who knows God hears us; he who is not of God does not hear us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

Mark my words...

The spirit of antichrist can affect a Christian believer—it's the deceptive choice to do against the Holy Spirit.

In other words...

There are a great many examples of the working of the spirit of antichrist. First and foremost, I have to look at myself. Although, at present, I have the Holy Spirit living inside of me, if I repeatedly sin and do not repent, eventually the Holy Spirit will lose His position to a demonic spirit. And once that demonic spirit begins to grow and “harden my heart,” and evil becomes second nature for me; then I will eventually have the spirit of antichrist living inside of me.

I will be an antichrist. And in such a case, while I may have known the Holy Spirit and the power of Jesus in my life, an antichrist will be my true identity. I may lie by speaking like a “Christian,” and at times I may even do a good or godly thing; but truthfully, I am only living in deceit, and I am filled with the antichrist spirit.

Another perfect example would be US President Barack Obama [in fact most US Presidents, “Caesars” past, present and future]; and in fact, anyone who repeatedly sins and sins. And in the instance of Mr. Obama, and anyone for that matter, who believes in, endorses, or continually wars and kills another human being; they are certainly possessed with the spirit of antichrist. And furthermore, what is so deceptively worse and is truly the epitome and utmost of a person with an antichrist spirit, is one who calls themselves a “Christian” and repeatedly sins and sins or murders and kills. In fact, killing anyone in the name of Jesus is the spirit of antichrist and its finest definition—and at the moment in time, when the Antichrist makes himself known; killing in the name of Jesus or Christianity will be the breaking point for the return of Jesus Christ to defeat the Antichrist and the spirit of antichrist.

My last words...

I’ve got news for you [and Dr. Stanley, whom I love and revere]—anyone who is not filled with the Holy Spirit—their body is inhabited by demon spirits. Moreover, the spirit of antichrist—that is Satan, is at war in the Heavens against God and God controls His angels and the Holy Spirit. Satan has control of antichrist spirit and demons.

CHAPTER: People

VERSION: Praying to “saints” is “dead-wrong.”

“I AM GOD...
PRAYING TO ANYONE OTHER THAN ME IS WRONG.”

Mark my words...

The Apostle Paul called Christian believers and followers of Jesus on earth, “Saints.” However, nowhere in Scripture is a person who dies called a “Saint.” A human being may lead a saintly life here on earth, but for people to pray to other people who may be in Heaven is “dead” wrong.

It is a Commandment-breaking sin to pray to anyone who is deceased. They or anyone in Heaven cannot hear you. The only persons to pray to are God the Father, Jesus, God the Son, and the Holy Spirit. You may not even pray to the angels. If you wish to communicate with the angels, you may pray to God for them, and He will use or send them as He chooses.

*Remember His First Commandment: “I AM A JEALOUS GOD.”

In other words...

People who may or may not be in Heaven, are in such a state, if you will, of heavenly bliss and perfection; in truth, in the very presence of God, that there is nothing or no one else that they can, are able, or would want to see, hear from, speak to, or communicate with. They are in Heaven with God, there is no place else they’d rather be and no one else with whom they would want to be or communicate with.

In any faith, religion, or practice whereby anyone prays to “Saints” is in truth, praying to false gods. It is divine disobedience. God gave us Jesus and the Holy Spirit. He gave we humans other humans, here on earth, to petition for us to Jesus—not Mary [the mother of Jesus], “Saints,” or dead relatives.

In further regards as to trying to communicate with them; Heaven is the home of God, The Creator and The Builder of All. When you go to a person’s home—it is only right that you speak to The Man of the House.

My last words...

The people in Heaven worship God in Heaven. Believe me, they don't have time or would God allow them the pain of having our problems.

CHAPTER: Pope Francis

VERSION: Pope Francis — Healing Sinful Sexual Abuse

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

It appears to me a great healing needs to be done toward the victims of sexual abuse in the Roman Catholic Church and throughout the world; and not only the victims, but those who commit such sins (who are also victims), and also those who aren't directly affected who cannot forgive and those who are for some human “justice” for they too are also victims. Keep in mind; we are all, all of us, victims of sin.

In other words...

One of the greatest temptations and sins of Satan is the sin of sexuality which is a perversion of Satan at God's first Command to “Be fruitful and multiply.” Men are sinners and so are women. Eve invited sin into the world when she was tempted by the snake and the man, Adam, when he blamed her before The Creator; but we all sin and we all must forgive. Jesus Christ is the only One who is perfect and sin-free, we are all sinners.

Jesus, Himself, was most critical of the Scribes and Pharisees, the priests, teachers and preachers who are supposed to shepherd mankind to salvation; He knows the adulterers and fornicators who break the Commandments. And He alone; and to He alone, will mankind face eternal judgment.

My final words...

I have been a student and a teacher; I have been a victim and sinful perpetrator of “sexual abuse.” In truth, it is simply sin. It is nearer to the “Original Sin” (of death) than any other; but just as Jesus was at the right hand of The Father at the Creation; He too, with the power and comfort of the Holy Spirit, is The One who heals, forgives and saves.

God bless, heal, forgive, and save us all.

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Pope Francis, who I love, is known for his humility and humbleness.

I asked The Lord, or at least, meditated a moment on it; to teach me something about humility and humbleness. I know the Scripture, “He who humbles himself will be exalted and he who exalts himself will be humbled”; but I wanted to learn or hear something I didn’t know or had not heard. This is what I am sure The Lord brought to my mind: Humility and humbleness are about trust and faith in God.

In other words...

When you are humble, you might feel, as do I, you relinquish your power over your interactions, relationships or dealings with other people; and even your own inner chance to control them or a situation. However, when you are humble and show humility; you have to give up your position, or power, or control of a person or situation; you have to implicitly and intrinsically trust them.

Furthermore, you not only have to trust that person or persons; but you really have to trust God. You have to trust that when you submit yourself to a situation or person; that God will take power over the other person as well as the situation. You really have to trust yourself to God and have faith in Him over that person, the situation, and mostly over you, yourself.

Too me and honestly for me; and I believe after asking God, for all humans, it is very difficult to not try to “be your own person”; but, rather, to submit to God Above and the Holy Spirit which may be within you. When you truly trust and have full faith in God; you then become humble, and humility will rule over and within you. This is a lesson, and these attributes of humbleness and humility help to reveal if a person has the Holy Spirit within.

CHAPTER: Pope Francis

VERSION: Pope Francis — In the United States of America

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

People ask, “What is it about this Pope?”

The answer is this: He possesses the Holy Spirit and acts like Jesus Christ.

God the Father promised He loved mankind, so He sent His only begotten Son. His Son died and promised that He would not leave us alone; He would send us the Holy Spirit. God is love and God is the Holy Spirit; this is the reason people are drawn to Pope Francis. People cannot help but be drawn to their Creator and His Son and the Holy Spirit here on Earth; (no matter what person on Earth possesses the Holy Spirit).

In other words...

Americans ask, “How long will the inspiration of the Pope’s visit last?”

God has sent great signs during his visit: the sun, the wind and rainbows. Jesus said, to paraphrase, and as a promise...

“The seed fell on the cement and sidewalks of this nation. In some hearts and minds, the sun burned it, and the wind blew it away and it lasted only a moment. In other places, it took root, but Satan and the fire scorched it; the wind of natural life problems and disasters blew it away and it died and failed to take root and finally grow. However, in some places, the seed grew and rose up and blossomed and the fruit grew for many generations to come.”

My last words...

In the end, the answer to the questions is YOU! If YOU accept God the Father, the death and resurrection of The Son, and The Holy Spirit to live within YOU; then the seeds of love and life will grow and bear much fruit in this earthly life and the present eternal life. God bless YOU.

CHAPTER: Pope Francis
VERSION: Pope Francis — Prisoner

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

It is a blessing to see Pope Francis in a prison of this new unholy Roman Empire, the United States of America. Jesus Himself, said, He too is a prisoner. “And when I was in prison, you came to visit Me.”

Let it be known; God is perfect and sin-free. He is against the death penalty. He created life. He loves life. His Son Jesus forgives us and died for our sins.

I have been imprisoned and jailed a few times and can tell you, since Christianity is not criminal and illegal as it was in the days of the Roman Empire. Truth be told, it is not usually the case that the government, justice system or law enforcement imprisons for religious beliefs since the US “worships” many gods in allowing “Freedom of Religion” and there are many, many varying faiths practiced and houses of worship in the US. In this way, the US worships many false gods.

In other words...

In relation and rather than imprisonment for the worshipping of false gods; Christians are still imprisoned today by Satanic attacks and demonic possession. There are many Christians incarcerated today.

Keep in mind; most people are in jail for one of these reasons:

- 1. Drugs*
- 2. Anger*
- 3. Theft*
- 4. Sinful or bad relationships with the opposite sex.*

My last words...

Keep in mind, many Christians of the Bible were imprisoned by Satan and even by God, Himself, since Satan must get permission from The Lord to enslave and imprison; and imprisonment can be a blessed way to come to know The Savior. The truth is: We are all enslaved and captured by sin; but we all have the greatest gifts God gave us: love and life. And we all have the greatest freedom and power known to man: Our free-will human choice and the power of the Holy Spirit to live within us; all done through the life and death and resurrection of the Lord God, Jesus Christ.

God Bless Pope Francis

CHAPTER: Pope Francis

VERSION: Pope Francis — The Interfaith Ceremony in New Babylon

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

It is with love and peace and with a love for life; the life of all mankind; including the saved and the lost that I write this....

The Interfaith Ceremony held in New York City in September of 2015 was prophesied in 2000.

It is also prophesied, with reverence to Pope Francis, the most blessed of men at the ceremony, and to all mankind; please keep in mind and know that New York City is the New Babylon and while love, life and peace are God's way; this event is spiritually, not unlike the spirit at the Tower of Babel. The Antichrist is the one who deceives “even the elect” into believing that God is a universal “God.”

*Keep in mind, many who died on 9-11-2000 in New York City, were perhaps in pursuit of financial gain and materialism; those who died without the Holy Spirit, within, are lost in Hell for eternity; non-existent; just as there are likely those in Heaven who believed in The Father and The Son and who possessed The Holy Spirit at the time of their death and who gave the greatest sacrifice of “laying down one's life for another.”

In other words...

*The truth be told: There is only one way to true peace; both here on Earth and in Heaven; and that is through the Prince of Peace, Christ Jesus, who said, “He who is not for Me is against Me” and more meaningfully, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father but by Me.”

God bless Pope Francis and God bless and save all the lost in the name of The Father, The Son, and The Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER: Pope Francis

VERSION: Pope Francis — The Pope's Speech

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

The United States of America should know the speech by Pope Francis at the World Festival of Families on 9-26-2015 is the greatest speech ever made on US soil.

In other words...

And the singing of “The Lord's Prayer,” following that speech; the most blessed moment in US television history!

CHAPTER: Pope Francis

VERSION: Pope Francis — “The Vicar of Christ”

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

How is it that people say they don't agree with the Pope; and how is their spirit such that they think the Pope is a showman or political? Who on Earth knows the mind and heart of God more?

In other words...

The Pope is celibate and against adultery in demonic gay “marriage” and homosexuality (I pray). He is against the death penalty. He is against abortion and slavery. He is not materialistic or militaristic; he is humble and honorable. He is a blessed man, and the world would be better served to agree with him and submit to his thoughts and lifestyle instead of their sinful own.

My last words...

Keep in mind, however, the Catholic Church is not “the church” or a perfect church. Praying to anyone, like Christ's blessed mother Mary; while she is to be hailed for being the mother of God on Earth; is irreverent and disrespectful to Father God.

In addition, the Apostle Paul taught us that we are all saints; those sinners who have been “born again,” and only God Himself knows who resides and reigns with Him in Heaven for the rest of eternity.

CHAPTER: Pope Francis

VERSION: Pope Francis — Thirteen Things...

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Thirteen Things I Learned about Pope Francis on His Visit to the United States of America

1. He is happy whenever he is not contemplative.
2. He exercises by ascending or descending stairs alone and with vigor.
3. He likes the United States because he can meet all the races here.
4. He doesn't sleep a lot, working six full days a week and resting once.
5. He is highly intelligent and able to focus on details.
6. His pain within comes from a yearning to know and serve God more.
7. He doesn't like it when people kiss his ring because it implies, he is greater than they.
8. His humility comes from knowing he is human and knowing he is not Jesus.
9. He is fearless of death (already).
10. He is very subservient and lives in servitude to the Spirit. He goes with the “flow.”
11. He is most concerned with people seeing the Spirit within him, rather than looking at him.
12. He appears to have had the Holy Spirit within him for many, many years.
13. He was the right choice of the Catholic Church to be Pope.

CHAPTER: Pope Francis

VERSION: Pope Francis — Women in the Church

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

As was in the beginning, so to shall it be in the end when it comes to satanic pride and devilish deception...

In other words...

When I hear women speak about their role in the Church or a church; Pope Francis is serving and working to bring women to church and to Christ. Jesus Christ's teachings on the role of women in the church are clear and certain. If women want a bigger role in the church: Go to it. Serve your husband; and if unmarried, serve the priest by loving him and supporting human life.

My last words...

Keep in mind, there is only one true church; and that is the church in Heaven where all men and women who live there eternally are members and saints of the one true church of The Lord God and The Lord God Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER: Prayer

VERSION: God vs. "The Universe"

†

"I AM GOD...
TRUER WORDS HAVE NOT BEEN SPOKEN."

Mark my words...

To those who question the existence of a Creator, or in this case, "God"...I simply appeal to them that they need and use only one tool to establish the truth for themselves; and that is prayer.

And to those whom believe that if you follow a certain set of universal laws or principles, that "the universe" will give you what you ask for, I simply have to relate to them that the universe is an inanimate object, and that any rewards or requests met by "the universe" are factually at the hands of created beings like man or animals.

Truth-be-told, only a being can hear another being speak a request. And as far the Universal Laws, these too are inanimate "objects" or objectives, in a sense, if you will, and that all laws and principles need a mind to establish them and in truth are a thoughtful reaction that has a thoughtful cause-and-effect relationship, they don't just "come from thin air."

In other words...

Truth-be-told, all any human being has to do to discern and learn for themselves that a Creator, an Establisher, a Hearer, to the requests and actions of humankind exists; is to believe in Him, establish or create a relationship with Him, and listen or speak to Him in communication called, "prayer."

Truthfully, it is too miraculous and inconceivable that once a person establishes, as I have, a communicative relationship with The Creator, God; that the cause-and-effect, the coincidences and the rewards, and requests that are met; can come from anyone other than a Hearer, God, Himself, who hears and answers these prayers. Impossible!

“I AM GOD...”

⁵"And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by men. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. ⁶But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you. ⁷And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. ⁸Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

Mark my words...

Your Father, God, who, in one sense, here, sees what is done in secret; meaning that which He is doing “secretly” that we can’t see Him orchestrating; He sees what He is doing.

In other words...

While Jesus is reprimanding the pagans, Scribes and Pharisees here; in the context of God orchestrating our prayer needs; the father already knows what we need, however we must ask Him. God is not automatically orchestrating the events or putting things into motion, in His Universal Laws, to satisfy or meet our needs, both basic or essential, or gratuitous and blessed above and beyond; The Father asks, commands and requires, He needs, for us to ask Him first...then, already knowing, that which we need, He sets His divine hand to doing it.

My last words...

Just because The Father knows, doesn’t necessarily mean He’s already set about putting the events and the request into motion. It means, He knows. But it is prayer, faithful prayer, for each and every single necessity, need, or desire that we, as human beings, as man, as His children, need to ask Him for in order for Him to do that which He desires and wants to see done.

CHAPTER: Prayer
VERSION: Meditate

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

It has been said, "He who hesitates is lost."

I say, "He who does not meditate is lost."

In other words...

The greatest human attribute or exercise is to meditate about God. And while prayer is both speaking and listening to God; it has also been said, and is true, that it is better to listen than to speak. The saying, "That is why God gave you two ears and one mouth," is not all together untrue. It is better to listen than to speak. And there is no greater thought process or action than to listen to God and to think and meditate about that which He has said and that which He thinks.

CHAPTER: Prayer
VERSION: Patience

†

“I AM GOD...
I AM PATIENT AND I AM NOT PATIENT.
MAN, MAN IS IMPATIENT.
I, I AM GOD.”

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

People, who don't believe in a God, the God, should pray and in a way, experiment, to see if God does exist. In the Bible, it is written by the prophets of old; that man needs to simply look at nature to know, without a doubt, that there is a God. Creation itself is reason enough to believe in God the Creator and God the Master of the Universe.

In fact, some the greatest of modern scientists and human minds, when searching in the deepest and highest depths of their own understanding, have come to realize and reason that “there must be a ‘Higher Power.’ There “must be a God.” Leonardo DaVinci, Albert Einstein, Isaac Newton, Michelangelo, Benjamin Franklin and Galileo are just some of the many earthly “geniuses” and men who seem to believe that there is a God: a “Higher Power,” “Creator,” “Sustainer of the Universe,” and “Supreme Being.”

Even today, the scientists who study DNA, and the molecular structure or “building block of the universe,” have come to believe, due in part to the organized and mathematical composition of the simplest, fundamental, basic and foundation of all matter or beings: the molecule, that “there must be a God.”

And I, The Writer, wholeheartedly believe, by witnessing creation or nature alone, there can be no doubt in the existence of God. In truth, there is no “higher power” than that of God, Jesus Christ and The Holy Spirit and the creative, sustaining and supreme power of God, The Father. Furthermore, I believe, with simple implementation and experimentation of prayer, prayer directed to God, that even the non-believer and doubter in the existence, power, and nature of God, and of Jesus Christ, and The Holy Spirit can be proven and any doubts “laid to rest.”

CHAPTER: Prayer
VERSION: Praying at Night

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Pray at night. And truth be told, pray “every minute of the day.” However, at night, it will guide your subconscious and decision-making and it will prevent the devil from attacking your mind while you are awake the next day. It will put you in a spiritual path to God’s perfect place that following day.

In other words...

Praying at night, especially regarding your wants or needs; gives the Lord time, while you sleep, to work in the material world He created, with nature, animals, and people to perfectly put the answers to your prayer requests into place.

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Does God answer prayer? Yes, always. Yet, man’s understanding of the nature of prayer and the communication involved is unlearned and misunderstood. To begin, God is love. God is also good. In truth, God is God and God can only act and answer prayer that is consistent with His character. For example, if a person asks for something that is hateful or bad, or out of hatred or badness, God cannot answer that prayer. God will not answer that prayer. He just cannot, God is God. God can only answer and do that which is loving and good.

Secondly, God is The Creator who rules, runs, and reworks the entire universe, earth and creation. In truth, the complete existence He created in six days, not an instant. Yet could He have created all in an instant, many, as I once did, would reason, “yes.” But, either God cannot, although from our feeble human minds, I know, “God can do all things,” He certainly chose not to create all things in “an instant” and we should honor the fact that He did create all things in His timeframe and not instantaneously. The point being, is; while God can do miracles, which are “instantaneous,” God works solely on His timetable, and in keeping with His character. Truth be told, He is more likely to take “time,” or even six days to answer a prayer, than to do so instantly. The fact of the matter is: God needs to organize, initiate and communicate amongst the entire material universe and all the created beings to “physically” bring about the change, the completion, and the “answer” to a prayer; in addition, the “greater” or more complex the prayer, the lengthier the time and greater the circumstances which God must coordinate to bring about the change or answer. Simply put; simple prayers take simple solutions in less time and are “easier” for God to answer than more complicated prayers which take more time and circumstances for completion. Keep in mind, while God is the Father, in Heaven above; God is also Jesus Christ, a human being; and God is also the Holy Spirit; a spirit. God must work in these three realms and among all human creation to complete a request made in prayer. And when a human being prays, from a planet called, “earth,” and in a “spirit” that might be anything but holy, God must reorganize, realign and then respond in kind.

Thirdly, in the process of God answering a prayer, He often times will require an action or reaction from the person who prayed. God will often send a sign or require a person to complete a step in this earthly, human and spiritual realm to have a prayer answered. And the most “difficult process” in all of God’s answering prayer is the participation of the person praying. They will either miss, misinterpret, or misunderstand the sign or action they need to take in order for the prayer request to be accomplished. Keep in mind, there is a saying, “God helps those who help themselves.” And while I don’t believe this to be true, because God is the kind of God who helps those “who can’t help themselves.” He is, however, a God who asks for love, obedience, honor, servitude, discipline and faith among others. And in accomplishing these human mindsets, heartiness and spirituality is where man impedes the progress of God in answering the prayer.

For example...let’s say a person prays simply for a basketball. God may need to prompt the owner of the basketball to part with it at a garage sale. It may take a few days for those holding the sale to organize it. Then, God would have to prompt the person in prayer to go to a garage sale. Keep in mind, in altering the course of getting the person to move in a certain direction, God will often allow Satan to inflict harsh pain to the person and in simply seeking an “escape,” they choose to go to a garage sale to “ease their mind.” In addition, rest assured, as with every prayer request, the devil will tempt and seek to discourage the person from believing in God or turning a person away from God and down a sinful path. In fact, this is always done by Satan, and allowed by God, as a “test” of faithfulness and fortitude; and guaranteed, the answered prayer or a blessing is always “on the other side.” Again, on the other side of every temptation is a blessing. The greater the blessing that waits, the greater the temptation to sin that comes before it. In closing, as for the example, the person, once attending the sale, would need the one dollar in their pocket, perhaps as the result of a monetary blessing for non-paying Christian work, and with that one singular dollar, “purchase” the basketball, prayed for days earlier, and recognize its acquisition has been miraculously orchestrated by God through circumstances and servitude (not only that of the person praying, but God will often “use” evil, or non-believers to submit, virtually unwittingly, to His will and in accordance with answering your prayer) and faithfully; on His part, and on yours, been placed in your possession--all, in divine diligence, as a simple answer in a complex universe, among heathen humankind; as an answer to your prayer.

Another example...if a person prays for an automobile, will God answer that request? Keep in mind some of the thoughts from the previous example and then understand this...a car is a material object. It may take six days to a year or more for God to coordinate all the factors involved in order to put that material possession in your hands. To begin, in supposing, He has to give the idea to a TV show’s creators to run a contest to win a car. He then has to make certain you are in a place to watch the advertising for the contest on TV. Then, while viewing, you have to follow up with the thought that, “Hey, I’ve been asking for a car and here is a show

I seldom watch and what are the odds that I would be watching today, of all days. I am thankful I decided to stay at a ministry partner's home and study about God, rather than go out and have fun. And I am in wonder, that the old television I was watching would only have this show on because the reception is so bad that all the 'better' stations would not tune in." No lie, then you would need the faithful foresight to take the unexpected $400 gift, given by a loyal servant of The Lord's, and make the connection that this was intended to be used for airfare to faithfully fly from one end of a country to another. Then, once arriving to the place, you would need another good friend to arrange transportation to that TV show, then, on the way, you would have to lay down the temptation to use all human intellect and reason and rely on divine intervention to recognize the answers to the contest. Lastly, you, the person would have to vow to honor God and recognize God promises for food, clothing and shelter, to those who faithfully serve Him, and by selling the prize won in victory, realizing you can't tithe 10% on an object and would be equally blessed by having those needs met. Not to mention, pocketing enough extra winnings to actually purchase another car and amazingly, in keeping with cycle, pray and receive another automobile, in much the same way, "down the road."

The moral of the story, it may take a minute to pray, and someone could drive up with a car to give the next minute, but it is more likely that God will have the entire prayer answered and done in six days, but it may take an imperfect human being six months to have their prayer answered. Yet, truth be told, God does answer prayer, "always has always will."

A final example... prayers for improved health, let's say the reversal of a terminal physical ailment like a brain tumor, may take years to reverse, then again, it may take minutes--"God's time in not our time."...And with all that needs to be done takes, "time." Thus, it is most likely God will have to work within the three realms like this:

To begin: God is the Father...Do you love Him with all your heart, mind, body and soul? Do you love your fellow mankind as such? Is your life one that honors God? Will you use your miraculous healing to do good? Is your life one God would be glorified by "saving?"

As a human being, do you recognize the signs or direction God gives when it seems you are being "prompted" to move to another country? A country, for instance, which may have less noise or air pollution, perhaps better food or water? Also, as a human being, are you willing to make a conscious choice to give up eating His animals, or smoking or taking drugs or medication? Are you willing to pray, meditate and communicate with Him more? Are you willing to "walk" with Him more?

Furthermore, in a spiritual way, are you working to become more holy? Are you resisting temptation and sin? Are you acting more like God's Son, Jesus Christ?

Now, by example, if you are willing to do such things, as is commanded by God; and work and be willing to keep your personhood in line with the character of God the Creator and your creator; God will answer your prayer. It may be in an “instant” or over 40 years. Still, in the 40 years “human time,” God performed a miracle and answered the prayer. In the end, God created everything and every being. And God created time. Time is His. And The Lord God made mankind “In His image”...God always hears and answers the prayers of His creation. Sometimes He says, “No.” Sometimes, He says, “Yes.” But all of the time He loves His children and His creation, and He loves to speak and listen with them. The choice is yours: to pray, to listen, to know Him and to love Him and His Son, Jesus Christ and His Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER: Preaching

VERSION: Peaceful and Passionate Preaching and Prayer

“I AM GOD...”

1 Corinthians 14:32

³²The spirits of prophets are subject to the control of prophets.

Mark my words...

You can virtually measure the indwelling of the Holy Spirit within a person by the volume and tone of their voice; either the preacher or the person praying.

If a person preaches or prays excessively loudly, unless it is a rare crying-out go to God, that likely is a counterfeit or Anti-Christian spirit. However, if a person preaches or prays reverently and peacefully, even if passionately, then you are likely to be evidencing the Holy Spirit within them.

In other words...

Peaceful and passionate preaching and prayer is reflective of the indwelling nature of those whom, by decibel, Have possession of the Holy Spirit And have the heart and mind to hear and to speak the still and silent voice of God.

“I AM GOD...”

2 Corinthians 10:1

¹By the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I appeal to you—I, Paul, who am “timid” when face to face with you, but “bold” when away!

2 Corinthians 10:10

¹⁰For some say his letters are weighty and forceful, but in person he is unimpressive and his speaking amounts to nothing.

Mark my words...

Notice how the Apostle spoke quietly. He was not a screamer. He is timid. So too, should a preacher, teacher, or minister of the Gospel speak in such tone. But not because he is instructed to do so, as many who do scream and are purposely or unwittingly loud as imitators and mockers of one another; rather, if a person truly is possessed of the Holy Spirit, this is how the Holy Spirit sounds and speaks; either passionately, quietly, or silently. And contrarily, if they do yell, scream, and loudly mock Christ; rest-assured they are not of the Holy Spirit.

“I AM GOD...
LISTEN AND WATCHOUT.”

Luke 16:19-31

The Rich Man and Lazarus

¹⁹"There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day. ²⁰At his gate was laid a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores ²¹and longing to eat what fell from the rich man's table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores.

²²"The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. ²³In hell,^[a] where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. ²⁴So he called to him, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this fire.'

²⁵"But Abraham replied, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in agony. ²⁶And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who want to go from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.'

²⁷"He answered, 'Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my father's house, ²⁸for I have five brothers. Let him warn them, so that they will not also come to this place of torment.'

²⁹"Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the Prophets; let them listen to them.'

³⁰" 'No, father Abraham,' he said, 'but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.'

³¹" He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.' "

Mark my words...

Can someone see the future?

Yes, it is possible to see the future. A person may see it from God's point-of-view, so-to-speak, and be a prophet or visionary. But it does not mean they see everything. Only the Father in Heaven sees everything.

But a person may also be able to see the future from Satan's point-of-view, so-to-speak, as in fortune-telling, palm-reading, witchcraft, "channeling," or speaking to the dead. And the person who is telling you will be demonically possessed; and you, yourself either already are or soon will be. And whatever a person tells you that comes from Satan will be a hateful, destructive, lie; even if, for profit or power, a person tells you of a great or good future, it is lie. People don't generally pay for bad news.

And truth-be-told, if you listen to someone who is satanic, or you listen to Satan, or you are or become Satanically possessed; it will always lead to destruction and death.

In other words...

Can someone communicate with the dead? Rest-assured, people in Heaven cannot hear or communicate with people on Earth.

Lightheartedly, but truthfully; if you lived in Heaven and could look and listen with God, why would you look or listen down to people on Earth? And if you think a "loved-one" in Heaven is looking down on you, even if it's with concern and caring, you are being deceived and misled. No matter how much of a bond of love you or they had with each other—God is love. And saints in Heaven would be so "in-love" and in the presence of God's love—they would never look or listen away from Him.

Truth-be-told, any voice coming from "the other side" is coming from Hell and persons in it. But you will never hear the destroyer and liar; the devil, or his messenger, tell you that or of the pain and eternal torment that anyone and everyone in Hell is suffering or how you too may soon be suffering such eternal damnation.

CHAPTER: Relationships
VERSION: We People

†

“I AM GOD...
I AM HERE.”

Mark my words...

Why is it when people encounter so many problems—problems which lead them to fear, pain and suffering, or death--or even problems in healing resulting from consultations, counselors, recovery programs or just a listening ear; do people rely, depend on and trust in other people? It is because deep down, at a person's core, is the need for a relationship with another person.

In other words...

People need a relationship with other people. God created people in His own image and then later came as His Son. This is how much God loves people and loves that they were created to fellowship and “be” with each other.

My last words...

“I AM GOD...
IF YOU BREAK ONE OF MY COMMANDMENTS—
YOU ARE A SINNER.”

Genesis 39

Joseph and Potiphar's Wife

¹ Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt. Potiphar, an Egyptian who was one of Pharaoh's officials, the captain of the guard, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him there.

² The LORD was with Joseph and he prospered, and he lived in the house of his Egyptian master. ³ When his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD gave him success in everything he did, ⁴ Joseph found favor in his eyes and became his attendant. Potiphar put him in charge of his household, and he entrusted to his care everything he owned. ⁵ From the time he put him in charge of his household and of all that he owned, the LORD blessed the household of the Egyptian because of Joseph. The blessing of the LORD was on everything Potiphar had, both in the house and in the field. ⁶ So he left in Joseph's care everything he had; with Joseph in charge, he did not concern himself with anything except the food he ate.

Now Joseph was well-built and handsome, ⁷ and after a while his master's wife took notice of Joseph and said, "Come to bed with me!"

⁸ But he refused. "With me in charge," he told her, "my master does not concern himself with anything in the house; everything he owns he has entrusted to my care. ⁹ No one is greater in this house than I am. My master has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How then could I do such a wicked thing and sin against God?" ¹⁰

And though she spoke to Joseph day after day, he refused to go to bed with her or even be with her.

¹¹ One day he went into the house to attend to his duties, and none of the household servants was inside. ¹² She caught him by his cloak and said, "Come to bed with me!" But he left his cloak in her hand and ran out of the house.

¹³ When she saw that he had left his cloak in her hand and had run out of the house, ¹⁴ she called her household servants. "Look," she said to them, "this Hebrew has been brought to us to make sport of us! He came in here to sleep with me, but I screamed. ¹⁵ When he heard me scream for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house."

¹⁶ She kept his cloak beside her until his master came home. ¹⁷ Then she told him this story: "That Hebrew slave you brought us came to me to make sport of me. ¹⁸ But as soon as I screamed for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house."

¹⁹ When his master heard the story his wife told him, saying, "This is how your slave treated me," he burned with anger. ²⁰ Joseph's master took him and put him in prison, the place where the king's prisoners were confined.

But while Joseph was there in the prison, ²¹ the LORD was with him; he showed him kindness and granted him favor in the eyes of the prison warden. ²² So the warden put Joseph in charge of all those held in the prison, and he was made responsible for all that was done there. ²³ The warden paid no attention to anything under Joseph's care, because the LORD was with Joseph and gave him success in whatever he did.

2 Samuel 11:14-15

¹⁴ In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it with Uriah. ¹⁵ In it he wrote, "Put Uriah in the front line where the fighting is fiercest. Then withdraw from him so he will be struck down and die."

Mark my words...

Joseph honored his master by not committing adultery. Unlike King David, who did commit adultery. David followed up his adultery with murder.

Proverbs 6:25

²⁵ Do not lust in your heart after her beauty or let her captivate you with her eyes,

Matthew 5:28

²⁸ But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

In other words...

Sin begets sin. It's not unlike the gambler who needs a drink while gambling, or the drunkard who desires a woman after he drinks. The lustful look, let alone, adulterous sin, is so captivating, so ensnaring, such an entrapment; that the great King David of Israel followed up his adulterous sin with murder.

If you break one Commandment, you break them all. If you break one Commandment, eventually you will break them all. If you break one Commandment, you break them all-in-one: or all, one-at-a-time.

Proverbs 18:22

²² He who finds a wife finds what is good and receives favor from the LORD.

1 Corinthians 7:1-3

¹Now for the matters you wrote about: It is good for a man not to marry.

²But since there is so much immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman her own husband. ³The husband should fulfill his marital duty to his wife, and likewise the wife to her husband.

My last words...

Marry if you must, but do not lust.

CHAPTER: Shame

VERSION: "Ashamed"

"I AM GOD...
I AM NOT IN ANYWHERE THERE IS SIN."

Mark 8:38

³⁸If anyone is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his Father's glory with the holy angels."

Luke 9:26

²⁶If anyone is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

Mark my words...

Surely man can experience shame and the feeling of being ashamed; and in this Scripture: "ashamed" of God. What Jesus is saying, in part, and one must spiritually realize the way Christ is and what He thinks, on a level above and beyond the simple words that one reads or hears; is that God does not really become "ashamed"; He doesn't experience "shame." Humanly speaking, what the writers were recording the Savior as saying and meaning is that God knows this feeling of being "ashamed" means you will reject Him, He is not necessarily ashamed of you. The Lord rejects sin and does not want to be rejected.

In other words...

In the Gospel of Mark, where the sin of "adultery" is clearly pointed out amidst all sin in this "generation"; be aware that often times shame and embarrassment, separation and sorrow accompany the moral sin and Seventh Commandment of "adultery"; and that such negative emotions are not characteristic of The Savior and that if a man (or woman) forsakes such a sin, that feeling of being "ashamed" and all the negative emotions and consequences that come with such sin will evaporate and be negated. And those opposing, positive feelings, like those possessed by The Savior; will inhabit a person's life and being.

CHAPTER: Silence

VERSION: Speak Now or Forever Hold Your Peace

†

“I AM GOD...”

John 14:6

‘Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

Mark my words...

Physically, mentally and emotionally, the sole determining factor as to the true character and constitution of a human being is the spirit that possesses them.

The bad news is: if you are possessed with an evil spirit, that spirit ultimately and always leads to destruction. Tragically, every human being is born with a predominance of an evil spirit or spirits. And equally tragic, when and because people perish and die; that evil spirit ultimately defeats and devastates them. It is the human character and condition.

The good news is... The Good News is... those evil spirits can be replaced by the Holy Spirit. And not only will the Holy Spirit heal and enhance your being in this life or existence, but He will also prepare and posture a person for an eternal existence and not eternal destruction and death in Hell.

Moreover, the dynamic relationship within a person works twofold: If you possess the Holy Spirit, the Holy Spirit will “grow” the goodness within a person and manifest many blessings physically, mentally, emotionally and soulfully.

Secondly, if you lose the Holy Spirit, or never had Him in the first place, when you first receive Him or if you restore Him, then you can recreate or rebuild yourself by exorcising the evil spirit out of yourself.

CHAPTER: The Ways of God
VERSION: The Way to Pray

†

“I AM GOD...”

Proverbs 18:21

²¹ The tongue has the power of life and death, and those who love it will eat its fruit.

Luke 6:45

⁴⁵ The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in his heart, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in his heart. For out of the overflow of his heart his mouth speaks.

Mark my words...

This truth is profound in the sense that most all of humanity is unknowledgeable on the spiritual workings of the Savior versus Satan when it comes to the very process of a human's speech and the “outside” voice Satan steals.

To begin, from our hearts or feelings; or mind and thought, come the very words a person speaks.

But keeping in context with the spiritual possession of a person, if the person is indwelt with the Holy Spirit, we can trust that the words spoken by that person will be good and powerful for life.

Truth be told, surely, that same person can be tempted and attacked by the devil and prompted to speak evil which will lead to death. While, surely, a demon-possessed person is unprotected and from their mouth emanates all manners of deceit, evil and destruction.

Truthfully, it is the power of our thoughts and feelings that lead to our speech, but we must protect the power we have from God whether in thought or by prayer, that when we do speak, we do so wisely and only when necessary.

In other words...

Matthew 6:5-8

⁵"And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by men. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. ⁶But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you. ⁷And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. ⁸Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

Even the very feelings, thoughts or things we request or say about God and ourselves can be considered "prayer" in the mind of God. Thus, no matter what we say, once we speak it, "once it leaves our mouth," so to speak; it is open for Satan to steal. Because, truth-be-told, unless we are demon-possessed, Satan cannot get to our mindful thoughts or heart-filled feelings. He must lie in wait for us to speak the words that exemplify or equate to our thoughts or feelings for him to gain knowledge of them and then steal and destroy them.

My last words...

Revelation 8

¹When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

"Silence is golden." Silence is golden and speech is an invitation to steal. If God in Heaven can be silent, so can we. Perhaps this is why there was silence in Heaven at the end of time; so that Satan couldn't steal the final judgment against him that the Lord who spoke all of creation into existence, finally handed down.

“I AM GOD...
IT IS NO MIRACLE THAT I LOVE YOU.”

John 5:14

¹⁴ Later Jesus found him at the temple and said to him, “See, you are well again. Stop sinning or something worse may happen to you.”

Mark my words...

In the Old Testament story of the blessed man, Job; Job contends against the theory of three people whom he knows, that even though he believes he is sinless; bad, negative and life-threatening things happen to him. Job believes that “sometimes things just happen” and that all evil is not a result of direct sin, but a test from God as to one’s faithfulness.

In one way, Job is correct. He may consider that he committed no sin, but every person has a sinful nature and an “original” sin from Adam bequeathed to mankind. Yet, while Job may not have broken a Commandment or sinned during the course of his life enough to warrant losing everything, the Lord, as is the lesson, was testing Job’s faithfulness, simply by allowing Job be mortal and no different to the sinful mortality and the sin that is present in the world.

Truth be told, the Lord was also pruning and improving Job in a way, as God later blessed Job in direct relation to his increase in faith with an abundance of earthly, emotional, and material blessings. But, first, from Job’s and man’s perspective, he had to lose it all. But from God’s standpoint, it is just His nature to “give and take away” things and reduce our character in the realm of this earth and with other people, in order to develop a more personal relationship with Him and a character that is more like His than human beings.

In other words...

And while faithfulness, justice, blessings, human growth and sin were some of the lessons in the Book of Job; Jesus Christ, Himself, in His own words, makes clear in the Gospel of John (5:14) after “miraculously” healing a paralyzed man; that human pain, injury, handicaps, and bodily destruction are directly related to sin. And whether a person realizes what his sin was, or he does not, that there is a consequence and a penalty for sin. And that the “punishment” may not fit the “crime”; but the Lord will and must justly and lovingly allow sin to have a negative effect on man and that sin does destroy and kill physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually.

My last words...

Thank God, literally, that Jesus Christ, as written extensively in the four Gospels and recorded throughout the Holy Scriptures; is able to help, heal, and save every human being from every hurt, pain, suffering, injury, handicap and sin that leads to earthly and eternal destruction, death and damnation. Thank God.

“I AM GOD...
WHY ON EARTH DIDN'T YOU LISTEN TO ME?”

Genesis 3:22

²²And the Lord God said, “The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take from the tree of life and eat, and live forever.”

Mark my words...

Adam's “Original Sin” initiated mortal death into mankind. And this death was caused because Adam disobeyed God, which is sin. It was also instituted because only God knew what good and evil were, and the Creator loved His creation so perfectly, that He did not want man to know what evil was. God knew it existed. He knew when the angelic-being; Satan, disobeyed the Lord and Satan's evil spirit and angelic being was still in existence; that this embodiment of evil, the Devil, and evil itself would destroy and kill all of creation.

So God commanded Adam not to eat or even touch of the fruit of the tree. And this was because The Lord knew that in His perfect and loving justice that all sin leads to death. God had not designed or wanted mortal man to die because of sin. Yet, when the man disobeyed God, even if it was the weaker woman of human creation who was tempted and tricked, and then did the same to the man; God had no choice but to allow sin to destroy the human body in a mortal or bodily death, “...from dust you are and to dust you will return.”

Truth be told from that point onward, Adam could no longer be trusted, as God knew that Satan was going to again try to reach Adam and destroy man's spiritual life, forever. Therefore, God had to evict Adam from the Garden of Eden and the presence of The Tree of Life. Not because God felt threatened against Satan destroying spiritual life as it existed, but because The Tree of Life was the “Tree” that determined the spiritual existence of man. And in the fact that man was initially a spiritual being, this eternal spiritual life must now be protected and certainly protected against Satan. And that if sin or now sinful man were allowed to “poison” this tree, then sin would permanently be attached to spiritual life forever and “sin” would be allowed to “live” and go on forever. And just as the weaker of creations; the woman, tempted the man; God knew the weaker of creations; the human being, was no match for the stronger created beings of angels and that Satan would soon use man to get to that “Tree” or life. Therefore, God had to banish the man from the perfection that was, was the Garden; and God had to place angelic cherubim and a spiritual flaming sword to guard the tree; this was an angelic and spiritual guard, over spiritual life eternal, against the angelic and spiritual being, Satan.

In other words...

When Adam disobeyed God in the Garden, God had to allow just punishment and curses for the animal, man, and the woman.

He cursed the serpent by making it an animal that once stood virtually upright to one who slithers on the ground. And one who would lose the love that man and woman once had for it, but would now, for the most part, especially in women, be fearful of and murderous enemies with serpents or snakes. But most off all, God, like man to follow, would determine that mortal animals would now have to die and lose their mortal lives or beings.

He cursed the woman, by adding pain to childbearing. When in God’s perfect creation, childbirth was designed to be a joyous and painless form of re-creation or reproduction. He also determined that there would be pain in the relationship between a man and a woman, and a woman and her children, and in the emotional and physical realm as well. And while her “desire” will be for her husband, he will “rule” over her. Which is to declare, that while man and woman, husband and wife, were designed to peacefully co-exist, that perfect bond would be broken and while the male was created beforehand, and thus supremely, that supremacy would become tainted and sinfully misused by males and divorce and all adultery would stem from it. And in turn, a perfect relationship between “flesh of my flesh and bone of my bones” woman, would become painful, sinful and destructive.

He cursed the man by making his life one that must be of work and not solely of the pleasure of just existing. He cursed the man, by allowing “natural disasters” to destroy lives. When in God’s perfect creation, there is immeasurably beauty to all extreme natural occurrences and all events in nature; from the winds to the seas, and to the ground itself. And it would lead to all forms of nature and the earth itself, suffering destruction and death.

God also cursed the man and the earth, because while man was to rule over animals and earth, man’s introducing of sin and death, would eventually lead to the death of nature. The Lord had never intended for plants and nature to cease in existing or living. Now this death, would lead to starvation and man having to struggle and toil to feed himself in order to physically sustain this physical body. And it would also lead to man desiring and later killing animals as a form of sustenance or satisfying the pain of hunger, in which pain or hunger never existed in perfect creation.

But most of all, as man was created from the dust of the ground and would physically sustain himself from the plants that grew from that that selfsame ground, this mortal being, this creative miracle that is the human being, would cease to exist as perfect and eternal, and would die.

Animals, man, woman, and nature; all of creation was “cursed” by God because of sin. Life as it was created to be loving, peaceful, joyous and eternal; would now be the opposite and would at one point cease to exist.

And such a perfect relationship that existed between earth, animal and mankind (both man and woman) would also lead to the offspring of each variation one day killing each other. Just as Cain, who had charge over the earth, would murder Abel who had charge over the animals. Sin is killing and sin is destruction and dying.

My last words...

Thank God, He so loves the world that He still exists and that life in the spiritual realm still exists for eternity and that He will one-day, when this earth and all creation ceases to exist; create a new life, one more and final time.

“I AM GOD...”

Hebrews 6

¹Therefore let us leave the elementary teachings about Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from acts that lead to death, and of faith in God, ²instruction about baptisms, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. ³And God permitting, we will do so.

⁴It is impossible for those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, who have shared in the Holy Spirit, ⁵who have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the coming age, ⁶if they fall away, to be brought back to repentance, because to their loss they are crucifying the Son of God all over again and subjecting him to public disgrace.

⁷Land that drinks in the rain often falling on it and that produces a crop useful to those for whom it is farmed receives the blessing of God. ⁸But land that produces thorns and thistles is worthless and is in danger of being cursed. In the end it will be burned.

⁹Even though we speak like this, dear friends, we are confident of better things in your case—things that accompany salvation. ¹⁰God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them. ¹¹We want each of you to show this same diligence to the very end, in order to make your hope sure. ¹²We do not want you to become lazy, but to imitate those who through faith and patience inherit what has been promised.

The Certainty of God's Promise

¹³When God made his promise to Abraham, since there was no one greater for him to swear by, he swore by himself, ¹⁴saying, "I will surely bless you and give you many descendants." ¹⁵And so after waiting patiently, Abraham received what was promised.

¹⁶Men swear by someone greater than themselves, and the oath confirms what is said and puts an end to all argument. ¹⁷Because God wanted to make the unchanging nature of his purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised, he confirmed it with an oath. ¹⁸God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope offered to us may be greatly encouraged. ¹⁹We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, ²⁰where Jesus, who went before us, has entered on our behalf. He has become a high priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7

Melchizedek the Priest

¹This Melchizedek was king of Salem and priest of God Most High. He met Abraham returning from the defeat of the kings and blessed him, ²and Abraham gave him a tenth of everything. First, his name means "king of righteousness"; then also, "king of Salem" means "king of peace." ³Without father or mother, without genealogy, without beginning of days or end of life, like the Son of God he remains a priest forever.

⁴Just think how great he was: Even the patriarch Abraham gave him a tenth of the plunder! ⁵Now the law requires the descendants of Levi who become priests to collect a tenth from the people—that is, their brothers—even though their brothers are descended from Abraham. ⁶This man, however, did not trace his descent from Levi, yet he collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises. ⁷And without doubt the lesser person is blessed by the greater. ⁸In the one case, the tenth is collected by men who die; but in the other case, by him who is declared to be living. ⁹One might even say that Levi, who collects the tenth, paid the tenth through Abraham, ¹⁰because when Melchizedek met Abraham, Levi was still in the body of his ancestor.

Jesus Like Melchizedek

¹¹If perfection could have been attained through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the law was given to the people), why was there still need for another priest to come—one in the order of Melchizedek, not in the order of Aaron? ¹²For when there is a change of the priesthood, there must also be a change of the law. ¹³He of whom these things are said belonged to a different tribe, and no one from that tribe has ever served at the altar. ¹⁴For it is clear that our Lord descended from Judah, and in regard to that tribe Moses said nothing about priests. ¹⁵And what we have said is even more clear if another priest like Melchizedek appears, ¹⁶one who has become a priest not on the basis of a regulation as to his ancestry but on the basis of the power of an indestructible life. ¹⁷For it is declared:

"You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek."

¹⁸The former regulation is set aside because it was weak and useless ¹⁹(for the law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.

²⁰And it was not without an oath! Others became priests without any oath, ²¹but he became a priest with an oath when God said to him:

"The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind:

'You are a priest forever.' " ²²Because of this oath, Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant.

²³Now there have been many of those priests, since death prevented them from continuing in office; ²⁴but because Jesus lives forever, he has a permanent priesthood. ²⁵Therefore he is able to save completely those who come to God through him, because he always lives to intercede for them.

²⁶Such a high priest meets our need—one who is holy, blameless, pure, set apart from sinners, exalted above the heavens. ²⁷Unlike the other high priests, he does not need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. He sacrificed for their sins once for all when he offered himself. ²⁸For the law appoints as high priests men who are weak; but the oath, which came after the law, appointed the Son, who has been made perfect forever.

Hebrews 8

The High Priest of a New Covenant

¹The point of what we are saying is this: We do have such a high priest, who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven, ²and who serves in the sanctuary, the true tabernacle set up by the Lord, not by man.

³Every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices, and so it was necessary for this one also to have something to offer. ⁴If he were on earth, he would not be a priest, for there are already men who offer the gifts prescribed by the law. ⁵They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: "See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain." ⁶But the ministry Jesus has received is as superior to theirs as the covenant of which he is mediator is superior to the old one, and it is founded on better promises.

⁷For if there had been nothing wrong with that first covenant, no place would have been sought for another. ⁸But God found fault with the people and said:

"The time is coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

⁹It will not be like the covenant
I made with their forefathers when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they did not remain faithful to my covenant,
and I turned away from them, declares the Lord.

¹⁰This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord.
I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts.
I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

¹¹No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

¹²For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more."

¹³By calling this covenant "new," he has made the first one obsolete; and what is obsolete and aging will soon disappear.

2 Timothy 1:13-14

¹³What you heard from me, keep as the pattern of sound teaching, with faith and love in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴Guard the good deposit that was entrusted to you—guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

Matthew 12:31

³¹And so I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

Mark 3:29

²⁹But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven;
he is guilty of an eternal sin."

Luke 12:10

¹⁰And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

1 John 5:13-20

¹³I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life. ¹⁴This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. ¹⁵And if we know that he hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have what we asked of him.

¹⁶If anyone sees his brother commit a sin that does not lead to death, he should pray and God will give him life. I refer to those whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I am not saying that he should pray about that. ¹⁷All wrongdoing is sin, and there is sin that does not lead to death.

¹⁸We know that anyone born of God does not continue to sin; the one who was born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot harm him.

¹⁹We know that we are children of God, and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one. ²⁰We know also that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true. And we are in him who is true—even in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

Mark my words...

In other words...

The “Unpardonable Sin” which is lack of possession of the Holy Spirit, is another argument and Scripture proof that a person can lose the Holy Spirit.

If a human being, upon accepting Jesus Christ and His death and resurrection; and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, were able to maintain the Holy Spirit permanently in their earthly being and existence, then there would be no sin that cannot be forgiven or unpardonable.

By the very fact and nature, that Jesus speaks and teaches of an “unpardonable sin” not only instructs us that there is one [which again, is lack of possession of the Holy Spirit], but it also teaches and informs, that if man truly had the Holy Spirit “all-the-time” in this existence after his “born-again” experience; then man’s spiritual possession would be, in a sense, “impenetrable” and no sin, unpardonable or not, could ever tempt, taint, or indwell him. But as it were, men is not “immune” to sin and while all-but-one is forgivable or pardonable, because of Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit, the only one that is not; is the one whereby you never have or forfeit the Holy Spirit in the first place.

My last words...

This teaching or misteaching is the number one mistake in all of Christianity. So much so, not understanding it or accepting it can damn a person for eternity.

CHAPTER: Spirit Possession
VERSION: Music Soothes

†

“I AM GOD...
SALVATION IS MUSIC TO YOUR EARS.”

1 Samuel 16:14

¹⁴ Now the Spirit of the Lord had departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord tormented him.

1 Samuel 16:23

²³ Whenever the spirit from God came upon Saul, David would take his harp and play. Then relief would come to Saul; he would feel better, and the evil spirit would leave him.

Mark my words...

A person can clearly read that spirit possession can either be holy or evil, and that the spiritual possession of a person, in this case, King Saul, can change dramatically.

In other words...

Note that the Spirit Saul had is the godly, good and Holy One: The Holy Spirit. And that is why the recording of His name is capitalized: ¹⁴ Now the Spirit of the Lord had departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord tormented him.

And the spirit that now possesses him is the satanic, evil spirit and it is not capitalized; as it is not only an evil spirit, but a nameless, demonic countless one of many of the devil and not the singular Holy Spirit which is from the Lord.

In addition, note in this verse that the spirit twice mentioned is the evil demonic one and thus is not capitalized: ²³ Whenever the spirit from God came upon Saul, David would take his harp and play. Then relief would come to Saul; he would feel better, and the evil spirit would leave him.

Also, the wording here may be misunderstood in that God does not send an evil spirit as something He created and purposely does to injure or kill; but rather the Lord allows Satan to go ahead and send the evil spirit because God is a loving, good and therefore “just” Father. And every day on earth, so long as Satan still exists; there is a war between good and evil, and for the possession of every person’s spiritual being and soul. There always has been from the day Eve and Adam sinned and till the day a person dies.

My last words...

It has been said, “Music soothes the savage beast.” Well, in this circumstance or story, truer words could not have been spoken. Spiritual warfare for the soul is savage, and Satan the Beast is relentless, but salvation is music to one’s ears.

CHAPTER: Spiritual Principles
VERSION: A Blessing and a Curse

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Jesus, on the Mount; had everything and resisted Satan's temptation with a counterfeit, deceitful, destructive version of the very things that God actually had.

In other words...

On the opposite or other side of a blessing are temptation and a curse.

My last words...

And on the opposite or other side of a temptation and a curse is a blessing. Mark my words.

CHAPTER: Spiritual Principles
VERSION: “Check Your Heart”

†

“I AM GOD...”

2 Timothy 1:13-14

What you heard from me, keep as the pattern of sound teaching, with faith and love in Christ Jesus. Guard the good deposit that was entrusted to you—guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

Mark my words...

I record the Scripture and knowledge, or inspiration, which I don't already possess. Yet, in fact, I write and rewrite everything I hear on the tablet of my heart.

CHAPTER: Spiritual Principles
VERSION: "Don't Jinx It."

†

"I AM GOD... WHAT I WILL HAVE HAPPEN TO HAPPEN—WILL HAPPEN."

Job 13:13

¹³"Keep silent and let me speak; then let come to me what may."

Mark my words...

I had often wondered if there was any merit, once a person repeats a spoken desire or plan either to themselves alone or aloud to someone else, to the expression, "Don't jinx it." I believe, spiritually, there is...for a couple of reasons. There are two spiritual truths at play here...

First of all, it has often been warned that Satan has limited "hearing" or powers of discernment. The spoken word, to the positive, was how The Lord created all. He spoke it into existence. And as with all positives in the spiritual nature of the earth, as we know it, there is a negative. The negative is that once something is spoken, Satan, in all his power, will try to pervert, steal or destroy it. Once something comes from the mind of The Almighty to His "voice"; Satan cannot discern or interfere, just as when something comes from the mind of God to a believer, Satan cannot intercept that thought. It is, however, true, that once that thought is spoken of Satan then learns and knows about it. He actually, thief that he is, steals it. And surely, the destroyer that he is, immediately tries to destroy it.

There are two related expressions, "From God's mouth to the devil's ears" and "Loose lips sink ships." They are comparative in the sense that once something is spoken of aloud either alone or amongst individuals, that direct relationship between the voice or vision of God to the hearer or seer is now broken and an invitation to Satan goes out into the world just as the desire or plan does and to the ears and eyes of all whom listen or see.

"Speaking of which"; secondly, there are only two types of people in existence: those filled with the Holy Spirit and those filled with a demonic spirit. And assuredly, one must be discerning and wise as to whom they mention their thoughts. As an agent of Satan, people can also thief and deceive and steal and slander the thought or plan.

In other words...

Job, while he was crying out to God in Chapter 13 as to the glory of God in times of trial and torment and to the greatness of God in times of peace and prosperity; Job was well aware that God is the ultimate decision-maker. And what He will have happen to happen—will happen.

And that man needs to always be reverent and protective of all that comes from The Lord in thought or in vision, from speaking and from listening, and from man's mouth to God's ears—from the highly personal two-way relationship that a creation does and should have with its Creator.

And to break down the Biblical Text, from Job, Chapter 13, Verse 13: “Keep silent and let me speak; then let come to me what may.” In this sense, reads, “Keep silent [don't speak about your plan at all or at least without reverence, discernment and wisdom]... and let me speak [let God 'do the talking' and the work to make the plan come to fruition, while you keep silent vigil or labor with Him]... then let come to me what may [then let that which God has planned for you come your way].

My last words...

Is it godly coincidence or irony that a Scripture numbered 13:13 contains an answer pairing a number that is almost universally considered “unlucky” and is recorded from a Biblical character and man who may be considered the “unluckiest” of all in the Scriptures: Job? Now that is a Bible Code too me, if there ever was one. God is a God of numbers, logic, principle, circumstance and revelation. God is God.

CHAPTER: Spiritual Principles
VERSION: Good Luck?

†

“I AM GOD...
GOD BLESS.”

Mark my words...

Good luck?

CHAPTER: Spiritual Principles
VERSION: "Go with the flow."

"I AM GOD..."

Mark my words...

Rejection: I hate it. I personally hate it. I know all of us have been rejected and all of us dislike it or hate it. Personally, whenever I am rejected, I immediately comfort myself or ally myself with The Son of God and I always try to recall the words of Jesus, "...before they rejected you, they rejected Me."

In other words...

While we all dislike or hate "rejection"; there is a fine line between being "rejected" and being "redirected" by God. Often times, when we are rejected, for whatever reason; that "rejection" is redirecting by God; it is not unlike a road being closed because the bridge is out or a disaster is at the end of it; and the redirection or guidance to another road which will ultimately lead us to our destination.

Keep in mind, there are instances when "rejection" is a roadblock or attack from the Evil One; who is trying to derail or destroy our desire or plan; in which case, we must persist and persevere; we must fight and battle to win the war for what we want. However, there are times, when such a rejection is placed there by God. To determine who is rejecting us or blocking us and the reason why is one of the most difficult things to discern on planet earth.

My last words...

*For the most part, I find the path to be followed is probably the path of least resistance and rejection since God is a good God and "...His way is made straight."

*In the end, I often think of expressions like: "When God closes a door, He opens a window."
"Let go and let God." "Go with the flow."*

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

God is good. Working with Him, we grow and succeed. This growth and success could be with any project, process, or person, including, in fact, any “garden,” building, or our very lives.

Like a garden, we plant a seed, tend to the garden, water it and watch it grow. It takes time, patience, and love for the garden to grow and for us to succeed.

However, after we have taken time and the garden has grown; Satan, The Evil One, will send a person or people, but most often our very selves, a “Judas,” who will lie to us in the sense this is a person who we most believe represents God in our human lives and yet, this person, in some way, is an Anti-Christ, or the opposite of God. And because we believe this person is God-like; we allow them to gain access through thoughts, feelings, or actions to our “garden” and in a moment of time, the fruit of the garden is stolen and then destroyed.

In other words...

God grows and Satan lies, steals, and destroys using someone we most think is God. And this satanic stealer and diabolic destroyer is usually us or that one person we most trust is God-like and in one moment or minute; that which has taken much time and months, to grow or build, is stolen and destroyed.

CHAPTER: Temptation VERSION: I'm Tempted...

†

“I AM GOD...”

1 Corinthians 10:13

¹³No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it.

Mark my words...

Like many sayings, writings, or phrases in The Word of God; there are multiple deep-seated meanings to each. One meaning of this Scripture is that all humans are tempted. No one, not even the Lord God Jesus Christ was without temptation. Thankfully, praise The Father, Jesus is the only human to ever not sin. Every man including Adam and since, apart from The Holy One, has given in to sin, and there is no temptation that is uncommon to man; we all get tempted.

CHAPTER: Theft
VERSION: Three Degrees of Robbery

†

“I AM GOD...”

Malachi 3:8

⁸ "Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me.
"But you ask, 'How do we rob you?'
"In tithes and offerings.

Mark my words...

There are many ways to rob God or to be robbed of God. Most people will rob God by not tithing or giving of their finances to God, in the persons of His church, and to those children [young and old] of His whom He loves and asks that they are cared for.

1 Corinthians 13:3

³If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames, but have not love, I gain nothing.

In other words...

In fact, people can also rob and be robbed of God, by having a loss of, a theft, or no love in their life, as the Scripture reads. A person can truly feel “robbed” if they live a life without love.

Matthew 19:14

¹⁴Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

My last words...

Truth be told, a person can rob from God not only by not tithing, or not having, giving or sharing love; but also by keeping one's children, all children from a spiritual understanding of God and a personal relationship with His Son, Jesus Christ, and a spiritual possession of their persons by the Holy Spirit. This is the greatest theft and robbery of all.

CHAPTER: The Gospel of Mark II
VERSION: Life

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

*-The tree of the knowledge of good and evil...
-The equilibrium of justice: For every good there is evil...For every life there is death to that life...*

In other words...

-Jesus symbolized bread to mean life and wine to be blood.

Just as knowledge, and the fruit from the tree, was something humankind hungered and thirsted for; at the Last Supper, the symbolism was used, again. In the dipping of the body or bread into the wine or blood, Jesus was spiritually talking about the loss of life or death; and the two sides to human life whereby man determines his death: Would it be like Jesus who is killed for following God, or being God-like, or laying down His life for His fellow man or mankind; or would a person choose suicide as Judas would (as Jesus knew beforehand) do? With knowledge, Jesus and I, knows that most means the evil; the betraying humans are those who commit suicide, albeit slow suicide or live their lives for themselves.

On the other hand, in the Gospel of Judas, Judas, like I, in my demon-possessed and sinful state, that alters with godly thoughts and enlightenment that are bequeathed to me at grace-filled and merciful times whereby Jesus allows me the opportunity to come back to the Holy Spirit; the black and white equilibrium and the “knowledge” of the fruit inherent in mankind, gives Judas, like me, the rationale to understand or even the peace-filled mind to say, “I know I sin, and this is my justification for doing so,” that I, like Judas in his Gospel, know there is good and bad too ourselves and every time we think or do one, there is the countering color of black or white, good or evil, which we can contemplate on becoming. We knew we have divine and earthly knowledge, and they work “hand-in-hand.”

For, Judas, like the decisions I must make, daily, and certainly today; must question ourselves, “will I choose to follow Christ and live my life for Him only to lay it down or will I live in my appeal and justification that my life is my own, a betrayer of Christ whose death will be suicide and separation from God?”

I understand Judas and “where he was coming from” in his Gospel [The Gospel of Judas], reason for which I wrote this short one similarly titled [The Gospel of Mark II]. Judas “knew” Jesus like no other, perhaps like Peter later, who chose to follow Christ after denying Him, whereby Peter was eventually crucified. Wherein Judas, hungry for the most and having it; the knowledge of Jesus and the ultimate godliness of life; that Jesus knew completely and spiritually, even literally in the Gospels, spoke to Judas and the disciples about the meaning of life and how determinate it is The Creator, Himself, God and God’s Son, Jesus.

CHAPTER: The Ways of God
VERSION: The Two Ways of the Holy Spirit

†

“I AM GOD...”

John 14:6

‘Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

Mark my words...

In Prayer, we pray with the Holy Spirit within us and without Him in us, our prayers will not be answered...the prayers must then go through Jesus Christ who defeated Satan, so Satan does not hear it and steal it. Then Jesus, Himself, said, we pray directly to the Father.

In other words...

So if we are going to pray, we can either pray to Jesus to intervene to The Father or if we are Christ-like and are “Born Again”, we can be like Jesus and pray directly to The Father.

CHAPTER: The Ways of God
VERSION: The Ways God Exists

“I AM GOD...”

John 14:6

‘Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

Mark my words...

The Holy Trinity is The Great Mystery. Basically, how can God be The Father, The Son and The Holy Spirit?

To reveal and make more knowledgeable this mystery, simply think and realize that basically God exists in three “Forms.”

The first “Form” is as The Father. God, the Creator, the One-And-Only, the “invisible” incomprehensible God.

The second “Form” is as the Son. When God came to earth and existence as a human being; a form He created and then appeared as and in.

The third “Form” is the Holy Spirit. The “form” God the Father and God the Son, takes and “leaves behind” when a, the, human body perishes or ceases to exist. And God is the only created human being who can leave a spirit behind. The Holy Spirit is in direct opposition to Satan’s demonic spirits. The “spirit” that every other person leaves behind, that people often speak about; is not an actual being or creation [Yes, the Holy Spirit is a Creation or The Creator, Himself], but a spiritual thought that people have regarding a deceased person whom they, in one way or another, knew.

CHAPTER: The Ways of God

VERSION: Think Positive

†

“I AM GOD...
I AM POSITIVE.”

Mark my words...

Many people in this new age have proposed that people either envision success or “think positive.” But spiritually, how does that notion or concept really work in the Eyes of God and work in a holy human way and not a self-improved satanic way?

In other words...

There are two forces in existence, which is God versus the devil, good versus evil, and positive versus negative. And the main thing God encourages us to do is to think about Him. And The Almighty is good and is always positive; meaning He is always a holy and good God who wants the best for humans. However, surely, Satan, the counterfeit and evil thief, is the negative side to everything The Lord does and gives; and God wants man to be godly and Christ-like and not like the Devil. God wants man to think about Him and not the Evil One.

CHAPTER: Time

VERSION: This is The Day...

“I AM GOD...
THIS IS THE DAY I HAVE MADE;
REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN IT.”

Psalm 118:24

²⁴ This is the day the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Mark my words...

This saying clearly states that the Lord is the Creator. He made this day. He made the heavens, the earth, the universe, the light, the day, and all of nature and creation. And daily we celebrate Who He is and what He has done and created.

In other words...

In addition, we are grateful for the very gift of life, even if for just one day; one day that the Lord took all of eternity past and present just to create. At times, I personally have felt that if I only had one single day on earth, it would be all I ever needed just to celebrate and be grateful for existing as a human being: for having one, single day just to experience this life and all of nature and creation. Not only because there is so much infinitely more to experience in eternity; but because just one day fully encompasses all the characteristics of The Creator in both His Being and His creation.

My last words...

In addition, we are commanded to "...rejoice..." and "...be glad" in it, which means we are to be positive and thankful, celebratory and joyous in spite of any negative, imperfection or evil that exists in ourselves, each other, or this creation.

“I AM GOD...”

Matthew 17:5-8

⁵ While he was still speaking, a bright cloud enveloped them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, whom I love; with whom I well pleased. Listen to Him!”

⁶ When the disciples heard this, they fell face down to the ground, terrified. ⁷ But Jesus came and touched them. “Get up,” he said, “Don’t be afraid.” ⁸ When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus.

Mark my words...

Most times, when someone hears the voice of God, the Lord speaks in a language and with a voice that one of His followers can recognize and understand, and that voice is their own. They don’t actually hear a voice audibly, but rather as a thought that comes to their mind while communicating with the Father.

However, in the story of The Transfiguration, the account and profound nature of hearing the voice of the Father in unison by Peter, James and John; while in the actual physical presence of Jesus Christ, Himself; leads me to believe that a once-in-a-lifetime, once-in-creation miraculous moment may have occurred and the three disciples may have actually heard a clear and audible voice, from the Heavens, of the Lord God.

The Father may well, in the clarity of a bird chirping, a lion roaring in the distance, or thunder booming and lightning clapping; spoke audibly, either in a voice of His own; or as the disciples heard it, in each of their own voices; but audibly and loudly, outside of it just being a thought. Normally, the near-silent, recognizable, thoughtful voice of the Father would not terrify a person or three individuals at the same time.

In other words...

The transfiguration was such a profound and life-changing miraculous moment, that I wouldn't doubt the Lord God in Heaven did something with humans He had never done before and may never do again. Since the visual occurrence was miraculous as it is recounted in Scripture; yet surely one "had to be there and see it to believe it." But I would not doubt the audible nature of the event was miraculously momentous and mind-boggling to have heard as well.

“I AM GOD...”

Romans 1:18-25

¹⁸ The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of people, who suppress the truth by their wickedness, ¹⁹ since what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them. ²⁰ For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse.

²¹ For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened. ²² Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools ²³ and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images made to look like a mortal human being and birds and animals and reptiles.

²⁴ Therefore God gave them over in the sinful desires of their hearts to sexual impurity for the degrading of their bodies with one another. ²⁵ They exchanged the truth about God for a lie, and worshiped and served created things rather than the Creator—who is forever praised. Amen.

Mark my words...

When an image or artistry appears on earth, when supernatural drawings and designs appear on the planet there are generally two explanations that are erroneous and one fact that is the truth.

1. It is not “aliens.” There is no such thing as extraterrestrials, aliens, or “intelligent” life from outer space.

2. It is often a “hoax.” It is artwork that is made by humankind designed to deceive other humans into believing there are aliens. The good news is...it is artistic humans creating works of art.

The bad news is...they do so to deceive other humans and are unaware and ignorant of the fact that aliens do not exist.

Now, what is the truth?

The truth is: God is The Great Creator. And God, using His nature, the nature He created; will at times, make artwork. He will, in a way, use elements like the sun, light, the earth, trees, the seas, and shape them with the winds, earthquakes, the rains, and all that He has created and controls to design a wondrous, monstrous, masterful, almost unexplainable work of art. An artwork, whereby He uses His hand to sculpt, mold, paint and create.

Why does God do this?

Romans 1:20

²⁰ For since the creation of the world God’s invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse.

God has already said, “If you have seen nature, you have seen Me.” “There is no reason not to believe in Me, when you have seen nature.”

In this way, God again proves He is The Creator and He exists. And the reason God creates such almost unexplainable phenomenon and phenomenal works of art; is because He knows mankind loves and is impressed by art. And God is thus trying to, in a sense, impress man. If man is impressed by such displays, well then God wants to display who He is. He wants to prove to man that He exists and He is God.

In other words...

If man believes a higher form of intelligence exists in the Universe; the Lord wants man to know that it does; and it is He, the Lord God, alone, the Creator.

CHAPTER: Visualization

VERSION: Vision-Envision-Visualization

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Many people speak about the power to visualize things in an effort to find success and make their desires or dreams come true. Granted, some do it with a New Age mentality and others are non-believers in God. Yet, there are still some, like Super Bowl Champion Quarterback Russell Wilson, who profess to be Christians and do so with a spiritual and godly reverence.

I confess, I have not totally completed this study but believe there is power in the process of visualizing things and visualization. Let me explain why...

As a true, true believer in the power of prayer and the blessedness of having one-on-one communication with The Lord God Almighty, The Lord of the Universe; I know, without a doubt in my mind, He exists, and prayer works. Yet, I also believe in the power of Satan who is always working to steal and disrupt our communication with The Lord.

As you may read in Book I, CHAPTER: “Don’t Jinx It”; I do believe if we are prideful and speak of our plans or share are godly communication in a spoken way; Satan can surely steal that communication and God no longer bless us. If however, we keep our communicative prayer between The Creator and ourselves; that prayerful plan will be answered and will succeed.

Therefore and additionally, I believe the power of visualization is a version of silent prayer; it is one which Satan cannot steal. It is not unlike the power of speaking in tongues and speaking a secretive language only The Lord understands. It appears to me, the process of visualizing a prayerful plan is a spiritually internal and “secretive” version of prayer which only God can see, and Satan cannot steal.

CHAPTER: Visualization

VERSION: Visualization-Visualize-Envision-II

“I AM GOD...
THINK TO ME.”

Mark my words...

In the prophetic hope of realizing a goal or a dream, many will take the time to close their eyes and picture what it is they want themselves to do or to happen. This is a godly practice for those who believe in Jesus Christ and are indwelt with the Holy Spirit.

Truth be told, visualization can help a Christian possess the Holy Spirit and exorcise a demon or demons. This is accomplished because visualizing something is a form of prophetic communication with The Almighty and it His goal for every human being to possess His Holy Spirit.

In other words...

When a Christian envisions him or herself doing something which is positive or productive; or achieving a purpose or plan; what they are basically doing is communicating with God and asking, yes, asking Him to look at what they want. It is similar to speaking a prayer and in this instance, is something or a “picture prayer.”

Truth be told, the reason visualization works well is because it is somewhat a “secret” or concealed communication with God which Satan cannot steal or destroy from succeeding. Whereby, in truth, when a person speaks about something they wish to succeed; Satan, himself, can hear and will work to destroy such a godly plan. Keep in mind that is not to say praying aloud is not an effective way to achieve a purpose or plan; prayer works. Truthfully, the spoken word was powerful enough for God to create all of creation and God, Himself, always hears His children’s prayers.

However, in many cases, whether wittingly or unwittingly, often times a person who prays is not asking The Father; but more so demanding of Him, and even more so, with regards to “the power of positive thinking”; they are not asking with humbleness and humility, but with a predisposition that what they are seeking is guaranteed them. There again, is a marked difference, between faith and being faithful, which one must be to achieve a godly goal; versus being arrogant or conceited to think that whatever you visualize or envision, whatever you “picture” offers you a guarantee or empowers you in some way above The Creator that it will come to pass. Keep in mind, just as with prayer; if what you ask for is not the will, the purpose, or plan of God; then your prayer or “picture prayer” will not come to pass.

In addition, while visualization, in truth, again, is another “form” of prayer; in most cases, it is harder to do and more time-consuming than spoken prayer; and not a practice many can master. That is not to say, again, it is more effective than prayer if and when mastered; it is simply an added way to have an interpersonal communication with God which is prayerfully less prone to a self-serving demand without humility; nor open for satanic stealing or public dissention [yes, when you pray aloud in public, often times the greatest adversary to your prayer is other humans].

My last words...

Truthfully, the practice of visualization or visualizing something is actually a practice of godly meditation. Keep in mind, however, many in the “New-Age” community or spiritualists also adhere to this practice; but they, they are not communicating with the God of the Bible. They, in fact, are communicating with Satan or simply with themselves.

In truth, remember, even spiritualists and Satanists can recognize this power and powerful form of meditation and communication; but that only empowers them to evil or something which is not the will of God and something which ultimately separates and segregates themselves and you from The Lord.

A famed godly athlete, who I believe professes to be a Christian, Quarterback Russell Wilson, often speaks of the power of visualization or envisioning an outcome and the success it has brought to his life on and off the field. I don’t doubt it. He has been successful in sport, while facing many foes; and just as in the game of life; it is only with belief and faith in God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit; that the power of prayer and the practice of visualization will result in the positive purpose or plan for any created person or people.

CHAPTER: War
VERSION: Hard Heart

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark 10:5

“It was because your hearts were hard that Moses wrote you this law,” Jesus replied.

Mark my words...

Jesus once remarked how hard the hearts were of the Jewish people since their law had allowed divorce; and He did so because He was teaching against divorce.

In other words...

Since the Jewish hearts were hard, there was also a great amount of warring amongst the Jewish people and toward their enemies. When it comes to warring and war; Jesus is also against it.

CHAPTER: War

VERSION: War is Wrong

†

“I AM GOD...”

Hebrews 8:7-8

⁷For if there had been nothing wrong with that first covenant, no place would have been sought for another. ⁸But God found fault with the people and said:

“The time is coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

Mark my words...

Most teachings regarding war in the Old Testament, or First Covenant are wrong. Certainly as they pertain to any Anti-Christian behavior or the teachings of Jesus Christ in the New Testament or Second Covenant. This most certainly means the destruction and killing of life.

CHAPTER: Women
VERSION: Female Empowerment

†

“I AM GOD...
I AM A MAN.”

Mark my words...

Men were created naturally stronger and more powerful than women. This was God’s design and is His nature. He did this with purpose and reason. One of those reasons is the fact, that when imperfect and mortal man destroys, deceives, hates, or brings any kind of devilish intent toward a woman; be it her father, uncle, brother, boss, boyfriend, husband or any male; then God the Father is there to love, save, heal and comfort her. If God were a woman, He would not have the power or nature to do so.

In other words...

Believe me; it is in a female’s best interest that the Lord God is a male who came to earth in the person of Jesus Christ, The Son of God, and remains with them today as a living God and in the person of The Holy Spirit.

My last words...

Jesus Christ suffered and died solely because He loves and wants to save women...and men.

“I AM GOD...”

Genesis 2:18-24

¹⁸ The LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him.”

¹⁹ Now the LORD God had formed out of the ground all the wild animals and all the birds in the sky. He brought them to the man to see what he would name them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. ²⁰ So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds in the sky and all the wild animals.

But for Adam no suitable helper was found. ²¹ So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man’s ribs and then closed up the place with flesh. ²² Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man.

²³ The man said,

“This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh;
she shall be called ‘woman,’ for she was taken out of man.”

²⁴ That is why a man leaves his father and mother and is united to his wife, and they become one flesh.

Mark my words...

God said, "I will give man a helper." When God told man to reproduce, it became apparent to Adam that he could not properly do so with any creation in the animal kingdom. That is when he spoke to God and God gave him a "helper." In truth, the primary "help" a woman provides is to give "help" in the birthing process. She was created to help give birth to life.

In fact, the animals were created before woman. A great indicator of respect for the creative order, organization and hierarchy of creation is the way in which womankind treats the animals in the animal kingdom. It is reflective of how she will love all of created life and especially that of the man.

CHAPTER: Women

VERSION: "So You Say..."

†

"I AM GOD ..."

Mark my words...

The Apostle Paul, in the Bible, clearly admonishes and instructs that women should be silent in the church. As well, the man, the male, should be the spiritual leader of the home. Surely, this clearly would include women, especially modern-day, "liberated," vocal women who take the altar to preach, teach, or lead a church or congregation. It is a sinful act of disobedience, no less than breaking a Commandment from God.

Paul, noted, as is clearly evident in the story of Adam and Eve, that the female, gifted as she may be in childbearing and mothering, is the weaker of the human species and the one whom the devil tempted, attacked and tricked into welcoming sin into creation. Clearly, Adam was ultimately accountable to God, for he was the first created being and the responsibilities of human existence rested on him, but Satan is well aware that the "weakest link is that which breaks the chain"; and that women, females, each of whom is a descendent or daughter of Eve [and Adam], are more prone and more easily tricked and tempted.

Paul knew, as is clearly evident, that if a world of sin could be welcomed in by a woman, surely misleading teaching or wicked words could infiltrate the minds, heart and mouth of a woman.

In other words...

I am not shocked that every time I hear a woman attempt to preach, often times during their speaking, they will stammer and stutter. And especially when reciting or reading Holy and Sacred Scripture. They are ill-equipped to speak or teach in the church and surely spirits, demons and angels wage war with their words.

CHAPTER: Women

VERSION: War on Women

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Satan is alive. He was born the premiere angel of God. He then wanted to be God. He was then thrown out of Heaven. At the creation of Earth, he laid in wait, his evil, devilish and demonic spirit waiting to hate, destroy and kill.

When The Lord God created man, Satan attacked, but the man; Adam resisted, rejected and rebuked Satan. This is why there is no real record or biblical account; because Adam never acknowledged Satan, he never fell to the temptation. Adam resisted the devil and he [the devil] fled.

Then, from the rib of the man, from the “guardrail” of his heart and soul; The Lord God created woman. There is a part of every man ever created which needs a woman; in fact, every man ever born, apart from Jesus Himself, needs a woman; a woman to be his mother and give birth to him. Every man on Earth has a mother.

As the Bible records, man, Adam, was lonely, he wanted and needed a woman. God blessed creation with Eve, the first woman. Then, while life was good, Satan attacked. He attacked the woman, Eve.

Eve, however, was not as godly strong as Adam and when she was tempted by Satan; she didn't reject him; she engaged him. Satan the master liar and deceiver; tempted, tricked and trapped Eve. She, in turn, basically did the same to Adam; Eve tempted Adam and thus Satan had tricked and trapped them both. In truth, Satan, the Evil One had used the woman to attack, destroy, and murder the man; the first man, all men, and the last man; in truth, all of mankind and all of womankind with the first and Original Sin.

Now Satan and his demonic spirits inhabit and possess the bodies of man. Satan the Hater, Satan the Destroyer and Satan the Killer used the woman once to murder mankind; and today, he uses the same temptations, tricks, and tactics. He basically attacks the man and mankind through the woman and womankind.

In other words...

In the Islamic and Muslim faith, amongst those of this faith who choose to hate, destroy and murder in the name of war; it is no revelation that Satan uses, through the minds, hearts and souls of demonic men; the promise of marriage to “10,000 virgins” in Heaven when the deceived man believes and murders in the Name of God, or of Allah.

My last words...

Satan has waged war against God and life since the beginning of time in the Garden of Eden; there is “no reason on earth” for him to change how he works and wars; this day and every day till the end of time.

CHAPTER: Words

VERSION: "Thank you." & "I love you."

"I AM GOD..."

Mark my words...

"Thank you." You can often discern the spiritual possession of a person, either of the Holy Spirit, or of Satan, by a simple action followed by a simple phrase, "thank you." Truth be told, you can also encounter the same chance at discernment by the three words that The Father says, from the beginning of time, "I love you."

In other words...

Here is an example: If someone does something for you or gives you something, and certainly service and giving are of God; you may graciously respond with the words, "thank you." Now, to better discern the nature of that person's heart and even spirituality, you might get one of 4 responses to your, "thank you."

- 1. Nothing. The person says nothing. Which tends to mean they did not serve or give with a joyous heart and/or don't care to truly interact with your gracious and appreciative nature.*
- 2. "Ugh." Or some non-spoken word, but simply a sound in reply, which is at least an attempt at responding to you, but likely with a lazy, virtually indifferent and disgruntled feeling.*
- 3. "You're welcome." The common, courteous response which may simply be done, less-than-willingly, as the acceptable social standard or with a positive and good mindset that may be humble and proper.*
- 4. "No, thank you!" Which is likely the best of responses, as it generally shows added appreciation at the opportunity to serve and an attempt to give some more, by returning in word, along with deed or gift, the graciousness, you the receiver tried to convey to them.*

The moral of the story: You can tell a lot about the inner-spirit, heart and mind of a person, by the words they speak and simple human nature.

My last words...

Truth be told, more meaningfully, with likely the greatest phrase ever spoken that all person's "love" to say or hear, "I love you." A similar discernment may be gleaned.

And while it may be difficult for some people to speak or hear those words, it does relate to their nature and doesn't need to be the understandable norm.

Thus, you might also get a set of responses that sound like these:

- 1. Nothing. The person has not the heart or the feeling to respond or reply to your words, "I love you."*
- 2. A sound. Some strained, maybe handicapped, negatively unloving grunt or simple uncomplimentary sound in reply to you.*
- 3. "Thank you." This may genuinely be an accepting and loving way of accepting your words and feelings; or a way of just selfishly receiving the love you have to give.*
- 4. "I love you." The Bible says, the mouth speaks the words of the heart. And to give and receive love is the greatest gift of all and the greatest words that humans can speak with one another.*

The moral of the story: While every person is different, human nature is deep, and the words and feelings people share complex; but spirit-possession can be simple. Either one has the Holy Spirit which is gracious, generous and loving; or a demonic possession, which is self-centered, self-seeking and unloving.

CHAPTER: Work

VERSION: Watch God Work

“I AM GOD... WATCH ME WORK.”

Genesis 2: 1-3

¹ Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array.

² By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work. ³ And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

¹⁵ The LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it. ¹⁶ And the LORD God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; ¹⁷ but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat of it you will surely die."

¹⁸ The LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him."

Genesis 4

Cain and Abel

¹ Adam lay with his wife Eve, and she became pregnant and gave birth to Cain. She said, "With the help of the LORD I have brought forth a man."

² Later she gave birth to his brother Abel. Now Abel kept flocks, and Cain worked the soil.

Exodus 20: 8-11

⁸ "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy. ⁹ Six days you shall labor and do all your work, ¹⁰ but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the

LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant, nor your animals, nor the alien within your gates. ¹¹ For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

2 Thessalonians 3:10

For even when we were with you, we gave you this rule: "If a man will not work, he shall not eat."

Mark my words...

It has been written before that the first characteristic or attribute of God is that He is a creator, the Creator.

Genesis 1:1 ¹ In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

And thus, when God made man "...in His own image..."—He also made man to be creative, a creator.

Genesis 1:27 ²⁷ So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

Now perhaps the second characteristic that God has instilled, or even created, and in fact later asks or commands man; is that man work. Man was created to work. And while it has often been taught that the primary characteristic in man, in his relation to God is to "worship" Him; is it any wonder that the words worship and work, and even "word" are so closely related in their derivation and spelling?

Yes, God did create man to love and worship Him, but He also created us to work for Him.

In other words...

When most people read the Commandment on "...Keeping holy the Sabbath," or Exodus 20:9, I am certain what most people most value and take from that is the instruction from God "to rest"; the advice and admonishment from the Lord to "take they day off."

However, what's more important to The Lord is that which He did for 6-days; or to look at it another way, that which He did 6-times more—and that is work.

Truth be told, what is more valuable to the Lord than a person keeping the Commandment to “Keep Holy the Sabbath”; is the entire context of the Commandment and that is to make certain a person works 6-days and then rests—not that a person just “Keep holy the Sabbath.” There are many people who can “rest” one day of the week or go to church, without actually working 6 consecutive days prior to that day. But to the Lord, a person who breaks any part of a Commandment breaks the entire Commandment.

Philosophically, a person needs to have a reason he or she earns the right to rest and to successfully look back on all they have accomplished and to rejuvenate themselves and re-grow, so as to endeavor as diligently and successfully the following 6 days. If a person doesn’t follow the first part of the Commandment, there is no value, or reasoning, or virtual meaning to the latter part of the Commandment; in a sense, it becomes null and void. The Commandment is to work, first; rest, second.

My last words...

Furthermore, the nature of the work, as evidenced in the story of Cain and Abel, is of the utmost importance to God. Without getting into detail, man should work for God the six days he labors and keep holy his day of rest. And surely that work should not be sinful work. Therefore, in a realistic sense, today, there are bartenders, pharmacists, cooks, and maybe bankers; whomever supplies a sinful “good or service” who could serve God and themselves better to leave their sinful professions and profess that God is good and God is love, instead.

CHAPTER: X-number

VERSION: The Philosophy of Positive and Negative

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

God, The Creator, has brought to mind two revolutionary, at the time, philosophies that changed or molded the minds of man and those were:

The thought that man, people, are inherently evil and negative-minded, and that doom is the final result of their lives, their planet and their existence. While another philosophical thought was that people, mankind, are inherently good and positive; and that people can make their lives better if they “would only put their mind to it.”

Truth-be-told, only in Spirit does man have, because of Jesus Christ, the opportunity to be good and perfect, because man was created in a perfect image of God Himself. And God, Himself, makes nothing imperfect and everything in the universe He creates is good.

However, when Eve and Adam sinned man instantaneously became evil, negative, and bad; and all of creation including the universe and the earth became “polluted.” And truthfully, man’s very nature is bent on evil and destruction.

In other words...

Truth-be-told, both philosophies are correct. But how can that be? A positive and negative simultaneously. Truth is...they cannot. In bodily form, man is evil and will destroy and be destroyed because of his imperfect, satanic, sinful state. Yet, because of God’s Son and the power of the Holy Spirit, man can spiritually become good [good enough] to one day achieve perfection and a re-created new body for an eternal life.

However, what this conundrum, dichotomy and opposites have done is implemented a new philosophy and knowledge of understanding existence which I want enlighten man on. It begins with a two-fold understanding:

1. On the “opposite side” of every spiritual, bodily, and earthly positive or good; there is a bad, evil and negative side. Meaning, if you have something good happen to you or you build something positive or good; immediately bad, negative, or evil will try to destroy or steal it.

The nature of building is that it takes work and time; yet, with theft and destruction, they may take some time; but they usually have the power to happen instantaneously. For example: a person works for a lifetime saving in a bank account; yet, in minutes, a robber or thief can come and steal it all away.

2. On the “opposite side” of every spiritual, bodily, or earthly negative or evil; there is a good and positive side. Meaning, if you want something good to happen to you, you will be tempted or must battle sinful, evil and bad things to achieve a good and positive reward. Truthfully, it is a war and there is “light” on the other side of the “darkness.”

My last words...

Now, the foremost philosophical principle to enlighten man about is the truth that such a direct positive-negative, good-evil, and good-bad relationship can and will take place over a lifetime and it may be days, weeks, or years before “divine justice” “sets-in.”

For example: For every birth in someone’s life, there will be a death; for every marriage, a funeral; for every victory, a defeat. If you meet someone who gives you something, you will meet another person who takes it away. If you spent 50 years of your life doing good things, whether you realize it or not, you will spend 50 years doing an opposing bad thing.

The “odds” of a two-sided coin landing on “heads” or “tails” is 50-50; which in one sense means there is a completely random unknowing opportunity for either decision to come up; and that it is totally unpredictable. Furthermore, each prior toss has no predetermined effect on the next; meaning, you could flip “heads” ten times, yet, on the 11th try, the odds are still 50-50, as if there were no prior tosses at all. One cannot think, “Because it was heads 10 consecutive times, the next toss is ‘bound’ to be tails.” That is untrue. The odds are always 50-50 and “completely random,” “unpredictable” tosses “do not have a memory.”

However, and this is the key: The tossing of a coin is not random! Truth-be-told, we know, mathematically, the odds are 50-50. There is a mathematical and even spiritual probability factor; we have the knowledge. If it were completely unpredictable, we would not know that it was 50-50; we would know absolutely nothing.

Truthfully, and in a sense; there is a “great scoreboard in the sky” whereby, in every flip from the beginning of existence to the end, will turn out exactly even. For God knows “the score” and He will always keep His mind set on mathematical, spiritual, or universal principles He established. And while man may only see X-number of flips in his lifetime and know that to him, man, that each flip of a coin has a 50-50 probability and any resulting flip is not dependent on a prior flip; God has created, established, and sees otherwise. In a sense, "God knows the score."

Now, back in relation to the point about existence...over the course of a person's lifetime, if they can prognosticate and use their vision in victories or develop a strategy in their defeats; they should know that there is a divine "50-50" balance to all of existence in all realms; the physical and spiritual. And that in the battleground of the mind, in the war for peaceful perfection; that such a balance or outcome will be the case if mankind, while looking for the positive; realizes that there is an opposing negative in this plane of bodily and spiritual existence and "if they only put their mind to it"; they may only "lose the battle, but win the war." And if they "win the battle," still find peace "in losing the war."

CHAPTER: Years

VERSION: Years of Eternity

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

I know there is an eternity because life is too short.

In other words...

It seems highly unlikely and improbable God would only create a being that now only lives 100-years; knowing that after he or she dies, life on Earth may go on for another one-hundred, one-thousand, ten-thousand or one-million years.

CHAPTER: Zoo

VERSION: Animal Jail

†

“I AM GOD...
I CREATED THE ANIMAL KINGDOM.”

Mark my words...

A zoo, to an animal, is like a jail for a human.

In other words...

The Creator made all animals to be free and wild. To capture and cage an animal for exploitation and exhibit is as ungodly as it gets.

My last words...

In fact, it's the most important instinct to an animal, even before the instinct to reproduce and mate since all of creation's animals were meant to be born free.

TITLE: I AM GOD II
QUESTIONNAIRE

“I AM GOD...
IT IS HUMANLY IMPOSSIBLE TO NOT KNOW I EXIST?”

Mark my words...

To begin, I am a child of God, so I can only give you God’s point-of-view on the questions, being in the position I am in. And as both a spiritual being and a human being, I will try to express the godly point-of-view in the human realm and direct them with love, and yet, oft-times, in a sarcastic tone; to those who disagree.

The tabloid and celebrity culture: Has our obsession with celebrities gone too far?

“Our obsession”; please, speak for yourself. You’d be better off asking, “Has your obsession...gone too far?” Actors, athletes, musicians...some deceive or “act” for a living, others play games, and others play instruments...there are greater things to life than the world’s number one addiction...entertainment...and their “pushers”: entertainers.

Stem cell research: Should the US use embryonic stem cells for medical research?

There are too many drugs, too many doctors, and too much “science.” We are all going to die...live with it.

Iraq war: Is it time for the US to pull out of Iraq?

Vietnam, Vietnam ... “War, what is it good for? Absolutely nothing.”

Gun laws: Should the 2nd Amendment regarding the right to bear arms be changed?

It's been said: “Guns don’t kill, people kill.” Yet, I have never seen or heard of a person shot to death by having a bullet thrown at them. Forget the Second Amendment, how 'bout the Sixth Commandment?

Sex education: Should teenagers in public high schools be taught sex education?

Sex, sex, sex...it's all about sex. How about educating in human reproduction? A man marries a woman, and he waters her seed with his organ...Hopefully, in 9 months, a baby is born. There, now you have been educated.

Immigration: Should illegal immigration be stopped?

Should you close the doors to your house to those who want to visit or live with you? Should you lock everyone out? You know, people wouldn't be "illegal" if you "legally" allowed them to visit or live with you.

Medical marijuana: Should marijuana be legalized for medical use?

No. Medicine is overused and abused for medical use, why should another drug be any different?

Death penalty: Should the US continue to use the death penalty as a means of punishment?

What ever happened to rehabilitation? As for punishment, the death penalty is not punishment. The death penalty is murder, it is final, and it is the end. When you think "punishment"; don't you think that means there will be a lesson to be learned or a life to live afterward for the punished, regardless of the punishment? The death penalty or "capital punishment" is murder, it is the end, it is not "punishment."

Church and state: Does religion have a place in today's political world?

No! By God, no! Politics would never allow it!

TITLE: I AM GOD II

TEST—Fill In the Blank II

†

“I AM GOD...
AND THIS IS THE TEST OF A TRUE CHRISTIAN.”

THE TEST OF A TRUE CHRISTIAN
FILL IN THE BLANK

QUESTION #1: I _____ Hitler, [Saddam Hussein, Charles Manson, or the most “evil” person in the world, etc.]

ANSWER KEY: Did you answer— love?

FINAL MARK: Talk to John, the disciple Jesus loved most. Because John said: “He who does not love—does not know God—for God is love.”

QUESTION #2: God _____ life.

ANSWER KEY: Did you answer— is...loves...made...created...

FINAL MARK: If God is life...then who are you to kill it?
If God loves life...then who are you kill it?
If God made life...then who are you kill it?
If God created life...then who are you kill it?

TITLE: I AM GOD II

TEST—Multiple Choices II

THE TEST OF A TRUE CHRISTIAN
MULTIPLE CHOICES

Abortion?

- A. Only in cases of rape or incest.
- B. Only if the mother's life is in danger.
- C. No, but I am for contraception.
- D. Always, any of the above, or all of the above.
- E. Other explanation for doing so.
- F. Never.

Death Penalty?

- A. Only against terrorists or atheists.
- B. Only in cases of murder.
- C. Only in certain circumstances.
- D. Always, any of the above, or all of the above.
- E. Other explanation for doing so.
- F. Never.

Physician-assisted Suicide?

- A. Only in the last days or final world war when Christian leaders declare that it is a form of self-sacrifice.
- B. Only if I, or a person, is declared terminally ill [Keep in mind: We're all terminally ill. You could die in a day, a week, a year...no one knows.].
- C. It's a personal choice.
- D. Always, any of the above, or all of the above.
- E. Other explanation for doing so.
- F. Never.

Suicide?

- A. Only if, as a Christian, killing myself will save another human life.
- B. Only if Jesus tells me to, or I will be a martyr for a Christian cause.
- C. Only if I am terminally ill or in extreme pain.
- D. Always, any of the above, or all of the above.
- E. Other explanation for doing so.
- F. Never.

I will kill an animal? ☐ Yes ☐ No

- A. If I was the last person on earth and that animal could keep me alive as my food; or if it attacked me and my self-defense would save my or someone else's life.
- B. Only if that animal's death will save me or another human being; or, for example, if animal research will help to save a human life. I will not kill an animal myself, but I won't stop others if that's what they believe.
- C. Only for food, or if it threatens my life or someone else's life.
- D. Always, any of the above, or all of the above.
- E. Other explanation for doing so.
- F. Never.

War [when attacking]?

- A. Only when it was in Old Testament days, or BC [before Christ]; or if it is against an evil person or nation.
- B. Only if it serves to spread Christianity.
- C. Only if it is declared by the government.
- D. Always, any of the above, or all of the above.
- E. Other explanation for doing so.
- F. Never.

War [when attacked, or in self-defense]?

- A. Only if it defends the life of myself, my family, or my country against an evil person or nation.
- B. Only if it defends my Christian beliefs.
- C. Only if it defends my, or my nation's freedoms, justices, and righteous ways.
- D. Always, any of the above, or all of the above.
- E. Other explanation for doing so.
- F. Never.

War vs. Nations [or a person, house, neighborhood, city, state, country, planet]?

- A. Only when it was in Old Testament days, or BC [before Christ]; or if it is against an evil person or nation.
- B. Only if it serves to spread Christianity.
- C. Only if it is declared by the government.
- D. Always, any of the above, or all of the above.
- E. Other explanation for doing so.
- F. Never.

War vs. Religion

- A. Only if it defends the life of myself, my family, or my country against an evil person or religion.
- B. Only if it defends my Christian beliefs.
- C. Only if it defends my, or my religion's freedoms, justices, and righteous ways.
- D. Always, any of the above, or all of the above.
- E. Other explanation for doing so.
- F. Never.

ANSWER KEY:

A=Antichrist

[Your spirit is “anti” or “against” Christ’s—all the while you appear to all and to yourself to be a “Christian”].

B=Born Again

[Your “Born Again” spirit is against Christ’s. God is a living God, not a killing or dead God].

C=Christian

[Your “Christian” spirit is not Christ’s Holy Spirit. You are a “false” or “counterfeit” Christian].

D=Devil

[You are of “your father” the devil, as Jesus said. The devil has been a murderer (and a deceiver) from the beginning].

E=Explanation of other reason for doing so

[The devil has an innumerable number of explanations and an untold number of lies to combat the one, singular truth. And well-meaning or otherwise; your truth is that you are like he, a murderer (and a liar)].

F=Follower

[You are a true Christian: a follower of Jesus Christ].

FINAL MARK: The Commandment is simple: “Thou shalt not kill.”

Jesus spoke 2 Great Commandments: “Love God”—“Love thy neighbor”

*He also said: If you break one Commandment—you break them all.

These questions all follow these Commandments: If you break one [or fail one question] you fail them all.

TITLE: I AM GOD II

TEST—Bonus Question II

THE TEST OF A TRUE CHRISTIAN

BONUS QUESTION:

A house is on fire...What is your first instinct? [What have you done in the past in a similar circumstance? What would you do today? What would God have you to do tomorrow]?

- A. Stand still in shock.
- B. Run for your life.
- C. Call for help.
- D. Nothing.
- E. Instantly run to the fire to see if you can help or save a life.

*ANSWER KEY: Hell is like a house on fire—and if you answered A, B, C, or D—
You had better run for your life!*

TITLE: I AM GOD II

TEST—Final Question II—True or False

THE TEST OF A TRUE CHRISTIAN—FINAL QUESTION:
TRUE OR FALSE

Question: Does Jesus love everybody?

Answer: ☐ True ☐ False

ANSWER KEY: Then who are you to kill anybody?

TITLE: I AM GOD II
THE LAST CHAPTER

†

“I AM GOD...
THIS WRITING IS A BIBLE COMPANION, NOT A BIBLE ADDITION.”

TITLE: I AM GOD
THE PHILOSOPHY OF "I AM."

"I AM GOD...
IT IS HUMANLY IMPOSSIBLE TO NOT KNOW I EXIST."

Mark my words...

It is humanly impossible to not know God exists.

In a revolutionary, philosophical thought, it was remarked: "I think, therefore I am." Truth-be-told, the second a human being thinks, even from childbirth, and in truth, even from conception; God makes known of His existence to a human. And there is no reason, to ever, ever, ever, deny the existence of God.

In other words...

It has been noted in this writing that childbirth [in knowledge and information about abortions] begins when parents think about having a child. There is a spiritual and thoughtful mental birth before physical conception. So too, that the very thought of life, before it came into existence, came from a Creator. In a sense, a "God of Thought."

Thought. So the existence of God can be proven and made manifest simply by the fact that there is thought in life, thought in creative beings, thought in existence. Furthermore, the existence of God is undeniable in a handful of simple existences: thought, life, nature, prayer, and principles.

Life. Life itself, and the fact there is an existence. There is animal and human life is proof enough and undeniable evidence that there must be a Creator, a God. Even if erroneously one thinks humans evolved from animals, where did animals come from? And if animals evolved from "matter," where did "matter" come from? Truth-be-told, there is a Creator and His name is God.

Nature. In early pagan cultures there was a belief in a "sun god," or a "god of water," or even a "goddess of love"; and truth be told, those people were correct. There is a God [not gods] of those things, and His name in Jesus Christ, God; The One, True God.

In the Holy Bible, it has been written: "If you see nature, you've seen God." Meaning, God is the Creator of Nature. Nature did not create itself, or "happen by accident." Furthermore, there is the creation of animals and man. They too, while evolving all-the-while, did not start from "nothingness" [nor did man evolve from animals], yet each independently, like all of creation, evolved from a creative beginning at the hands of a Creator.

Prayer. Simple communication in thought and words. And with words so powerful that from the mouth of God, brought all being into existence, is enough evidence to know that God exists. To experience the relationship between a thoughtful voice which a human can hear that interaction must come from someone, somewhere; or to ask of something from creative existence and see it actually come to true fruition, can only mean there is a Mind that exists, listens and produces. Such powerful and productive communication does not materialize or come to fruition by "accident." Nature, the universe, or other people, just don't do things without a divine and almighty God behind it.

Even if one credits one's own thought, to oneself, and that any "answer to prayer" can only come as a result of people circumstantially choosing to act in accord [which it does in most cases]; as written in the beginning; where did that thought come from? There must be a life to give thought. And there must be a Mind, the Mind of God, behind the created human mind. Because it is the thoughtful Mind of God that influences the free-will choices that all of mankind is allowed and gifted to make for themselves and most importantly, an Almighty God, who circumstantially brings a "consensus of conscious and conscience" and a "meeting of the minds."

Principles. The "Universe" as some might call it. It a material "being," if you will, or entity. "The Universe" does not "think for itself." It is a creation, but it is not a creation "with a mind of its own." It is a creation with a "universal" set of principles or laws that God, The Creator, Himself has established and implements from His own mind, without variation or independent thought or participation from the entity, itself.

For such a set of laws or principles to exist, they must have had a Creator. They exist; therefore, they were created. They operate, with divine rules; therefore, there must be a Ruler. They are surely too complex and innumerable to have simply developed without a Mind. A Mind, a Thinker, a Universal Creator, a Ruler, God is and must be behind these universal laws [like positive and negative, blessing and curse, growing and reaping, etc.]. And there must be and is a God of the Universe. There is, His name is God.

My last words...

God exists. Therefore, I am.

“I AM GOD. READ THIS BOOK.”

- I AM

Read what God has to say about Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit and angels.

Writings include:

I AM GOD – Autobiography • Numbers • Test • The Last Chapter • Questionnaire

Chapters include:

Animals • Antichrist • Atheist • Church • Commandments • Demons • Earth • Entertainment • Eternal Life • Evil • Fear • Forgiveness • Health • Heaven • Humility • Iscariot • Killing • Law • Life • Love Marriage • Money • Nightmares • Obama • Pope Francis • Prayer • Preaching • Relationships • Shame Sex • Sin • Spiritual Principles • Temptation • Theft • Time • UFO's • Visualization • War • Women

Passages include:

A Blessing and a Curse

Above the Law

A Devil of a Divorce

Are You Afraid to Die?

Atheist Beliefs

Atheist Beliefs

Change Economy

Check Your Heart

Deported Demons

Don't Jinx It

Female Empowerment

For the Love of Money

Give Thought to the Thought

God vs The Universe

Go with the Flow

Healing Sexual Sin

Heaven is Real

Holy Days or Holidays

Seeing the Future

Speak Now or Forever Hold Your Peace

The Bird Murderer

The Christian Equation

The Great Deception

The Judas Syndrome

The Meaning of Life

The Nature of Prayer

The Simple Ten Commandments

The Philosophy of Positive and Negative

Thou Art

Visualization-Visualize-Envision

War on Women

Watch God Work

We People

Women in the Church

Copyright © 2015 by The Writer. All Rights Reserved. ISBN: 0-xxxxxxx-x-x

I AM GOD