“I AM GOD.”

Exodus 3:13-14

¹³Then Moses said to God, “Indeed, when I come to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they say to me, ‘What is His name?’ what shall I say to them?”

¹⁴And God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” And He said, “Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’”

“I AM GOD...”

God bless. I am The Writer. I write for The Lord God.

I completed writing BOOK I in 2005. BOOK II was completed in 2015.

In these notes, there is no TABLE OF CONTENTS or page numbers. However, some repeat CHAPTERS and VERSIONS, titled BOOK I or BOOK II, do appear. Most of these notes from BOOK I and BOOK II are incomplete. However, there remains godly and good, intelligence and information written within. The TITLES and HEADINGS, which are incomplete, appear in purple. In addition, some key structural and strategic notations also appear in that color. The markings “BQ” signify a bible quote, or writing should or could be referenced.

We are distributing the entirety of the writings and completed BOOK III, in 2025. We may also continue to add writing as time goes by.

God bless and peace,

The Writer

“I AM GOD...”

Proverbs 20:1

Wine is a mocker and beer a brawler; whoever is led astray by them is not wise.

Mark my words...

Wine is a “mocker.” It is also a deceiver...remember that...

In other words...

There was a French study and many studies [most my wine makers and drinkers] which decree “wine is good for you.” For example, the French study declared wine helped heart disease.

Wine, fermented, does not help heart disease. It helps kill the brain cells to make a person deaden the pain. I am sure you know heart disease is the sinful work of Satan, and not by the Lord’s design. Only the devil would have people believe sinfulness or sin can heal sin. Furthermore, the French are “big wine drinkers” of course they are going to “promote” its use. If you follow the evil money trail, that type of deception paves the way.

Finally, one note on the Miracle at Cana: you nailed it. Just remember, God and Jesus created the Physical Universe and its principles. And just like God, Himself, these do not change. And the main ingredient in the chemical process of wine fermentation is: time. So to speak, an “instant” miracle of turning water into wine would need time for that drink to become fermented and alcoholic.

Thank you for your wisdom and teaching. If I can serve you in any way, please let me know.

VERSION: Born Again

†

“I AM GOD...”

Born Again

In the Holy Scriptures, this wording, spoken by Jesus, has a two-fold and even deeper than described here, meaning. Initially, most correctly interpret this Scripture to mean: A person must have a rebirth of his or her spirit, or they shall not see “...the Kingdom of God.” This “rebirth” is more profound or dramatic than a renewing or re-inventing; it is a complete transformation from a degenerate, sinful, spirit to one that is holy in God eyes. And this, as Jesus would instruct, is only done by a thoughtful faith and submission to Jesus as Lord and Savior.

In another context, Jesus, above all, knew of the evil spirit that infiltrated mankind with the fall of Adam and Eve. Therefore, in this Scripture, “Unless a man be born-again, he shall not see the Kingdom of God,” Jesus is implying that since this creation of mankind has been permanently tainted and we, mankind, as we exist, must realize we are to take accountability and subscribe to the “curse” placed on us by all our birth parents, Adam and Eve; and unless the entire human race be re-created, we shall not see the Kingdom of God.

“I AM GOD...”

I pray Dr. Stanley has a blessed birthday.

I was blessed to have met him a few times and only learned today he shares a birthday with a beloved uncle of mine who was like a second father; and I have always appreciated Dr. Stanley who has taught me a great many things.

As a gift to Dr. Stanley and his followers, I offer this godly teaching...

I don't know if Dr. Stanley will reside in Heaven at the time of his death and neither should he or any Christian, including myself; since the greatest faith, trust and hope Christians can have is to believe and trust in the judgment of Jesus Christ when our human bodies perish. For only “the Lord knows what is truly in our hearts” and only the Lord God Himself knows if we truly possess the Holy Spirit at the time and moment of our earthly body ceases to exist.

I offer this thought and these words: “I don't know, I don't need to know, I don't want to know, all I know is God knows.”

God bless Dr. Charles Stanley and God bless In Touch Ministries.

CHAPTER: Eternal Security

VERSION: Calling and Election— (2 Peter 1:1-11)

“I AM GOD...”

2 Peter 1:1-11 {NIV}

¹Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who through the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ have received a faith as precious as ours: ²Grace and peace be yours in abundance through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

Mark my words...

Peter is a servant of Christ's....Christ said He was a servant of God's and of mankind's....And both Jesus and Peter have told us that the righteousness of Jesus, and “right” relationship with The Savior; is achieved by faith, grace, and knowledge. We know what faith is and who to have our faith in... We know what grace is, and whose grace we need to reach Heaven....And we even know who Jesus is—but what knowledge could we learn? Read on...

Making One's Calling and Election Sure

³His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness.

God's divine power comes from our belief in the work of Jesus Christ as a servant to mankind and as a sacrifice to God. If we want life, eternal life, and godliness, to be made like God to be one with God, through our knowledge of His Son Jesus and knowing the Word and nature of God; we are called, by the nature of God, the Word of God and the Son of God, to be in His glory and in Heaven where God began the creation of all that was good.

⁴Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature and escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.

The divine nature is the natural and supernatural nature of the Holy Spirit; and the Holy Spirit living inside of us will keep our bodies and souls from a destructive life in a natural, sinful world and the eternal life in Hell.

⁵For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; ⁶and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; ⁷and to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, love.

Read and see the pattern Peter uses here: it is by faith in God we are saved. Add to such faith: goodness [all of creation began in goodness, for after all of creation, God said: “it was good”]—and to goodness, knowledge [the first temptation was to destroy our knowledge; the knowledge we need to have is the knowledge of God and how He chose to work with us and save us through His Son, Jesus]. From knowledge, we need to have self-control [which means we have to keep our “spirit-man” disciplined or maintain ourselves as a disciple of Christ]. To self-control, we must persevere [this means it is an unending battle and growth, in the spiritual war for our bodies and souls that we keep the Spirit of God within us]—and to perseverance we add godliness [which is to say, if we keep in the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, we will continue to be one with God; both in person and place]. And to godliness, brotherly kindness [Jesus told us the two great commandments were to love God and love our brother]. So it is our godliness or love for God, that will be revealed and accomplished through the love we have and kindness we show to our brother. As it began, so shall it end...in love. God created man because of his love for man. Jesus died because of His love for man. And if we follow the pattern of the life of Jesus, and read the Word of God—so too, shall we find ourselves where we began: with the Creator in love.

⁸For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

If we “possess”; this signifies or infers we can have or be “possessed” by something. In “increasing measure” means we must continue our spiritual growth. Once we receive the Holy Spirit, we must choose to grow into He who is within us. If we don’t, we surely will die. And if we are “ineffective” and “unproductive” in our knowledge of Christ—we will be unsuccessful and unable to reach the Heavenly Home of Jesus Christ.

⁹But if anyone does not have them, he is nearsighted and blind, and has forgotten that he has been cleansed from his past sins.

“If you don’t have them”: the foremost quality of Christ is the Holy Spirit of God. If we don’t have the Spirit, we are of Satan who is the master of death, deceit and spiritual blindness. And essentially, we will have “forgotten” the meaning and purpose of the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, the Lord, for our Spirit-filled, sin-free state that allows eternal life with God in Heaven.

¹⁰Therefore, my brothers, be all the more eager to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never fall, ¹¹and you will receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Peter could not say it more clearly—we can lose our salvation—we can lose our eternal security. Be forewarned; make the work Jesus did for us, “sure”, by the working of the Holy Spirit within us. If we do not make our “calling and election” [God’s choice, longing, and willingness to save us to be with Him]; if we are not eager [and willing] to make our homecoming “sure”; if we do not have the Holy Spirit [whether we never had Him or lose Him]; we will not get into Heaven.

MATTHEW 25:1-13

The Parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins
The Return of Christ in Judgment

¹ "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. ²Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish. ³Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them, ⁴but the wise took oil [the Holy Spirit] in their vessels [Bodies] with their lamps. ⁵But while the bridegroom [Jesus] was delayed, they all slumbered and slept.

Mark my words...

Just as the disciples slept in the garden—before Jesus made His way to the cross of our salvation—Christians can lie asleep in what I'll call a state of “lazy grace”. As well, in resting on the notion of having a guarantee of eternal salvation or in banking on “knowing” they are “saved”; is only a guarantee that can cost you your life.

⁶" And at midnight a cry was heard: "Behold, the bridegroom is coming; go out to meet him!" ⁷Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. ⁸And the foolish said to the wise, "Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out."

In other words...

Our lamps are losing their light—our bodies are losing the Holy Spirit within us. While Jesus, the bridegroom, is on His way [His second coming]; some of those awaiting Him were losing their way. As for eternal salvation, the condition of their spiritual body is the way “in”—and it may be lost.

⁹But the wise answered, saying, "No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.'

¹⁰And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready [“...those who were ready”—again, this marks a continuing process—a time and place when a condition was met: a spiritual condition. It is the time and place when the Holy Spirit is with you and in you.] went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut.

¹¹"Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, "Lord, Lord, open to us!" ¹²But he answered and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.' [Ask yourself: What on earth do you think you could say to God in Heaven that will get you in? Rather, it is being filled with the Holy Spirit—it is that indwelling that will get you an invitation that has been Heaven sent. In the presence of Jesus—the presence of His Holy Spirit—will “do all the talking”. Recall the words of the Lord when He told a man how to handle himself in the presence of the judge or at a judgment—the same godly principle is at work here: (Mark 13:11) But when they arrest you and deliver you up, do not worry beforehand what you will speak. But whatever is given you in that hour, speak that; for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. Rest assured in knowing: God’s grace is not having to speak for yourself at The Judgment.]

¹³"Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.

The last word is...

Jesus, the Holy Spirit, the disciples, and the writers of the Bible; understand the timeliness and timelessness of reminding man that he is only one day away from death. This life and eternal life are truly a heartbeat away. And from generation-to-generation, until the time of the end, all who read the Holy Scriptures can come to understand the temporary nature of this life and the everlasting nature of the Word of God.

“I AM GOD...
ETERNAL: YES. SECURE: NO.”

Matthew 12:43-45

An Unclean Spirit Returns

⁴³ "When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none. ⁴⁴Then he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when he comes, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. ⁴⁵Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first. So shall it also be with this wicked generation."

Mark my words...

This records that spirit possession; mind you, both good [the Holy Spirit] and evil [Satanic demons], is more of an ever-changing condition than it is a permanent state-of-being. This again goes to prove that there is no “eternal security” apart from the immediate presence of the Holy Spirit.

As noted elsewhere, Jesus knew this all-to-well and that is why He spent so much time healing and saving those with demons.

In other words...

Protection and security work hand-in-hand. If we are protected—we are secure. If God can remove His protection [and He can]—then we can take away our security.

BOOK: I

CHAPTER: Eternal Security

VERSION: Part 1—Salvation Principle

“I AM GOD... YOU CAN LOSE YOUR SALVATION.”

Salvation Principle

Mark my words...

Salvation has been offered by God. Salvation is always offered by God. Salvation will always be offered by God.

Those who wrongfully teach that a person cannot lose their salvation or eternal security, in all honesty, are missing the point and principle on all “salvation” or “eternal security” teachings. Every Scripture in the Bible that is misinterpreted on this subject points to one error: while salvation will always be available—it is available as a principle of God’s. It is God’s very nature to eternally love, accept, and prepare a place for His creation. But is also the nature of God to allow man the free-will or choice of evil or good; the choice of death or life; the choice of accepting or rejecting His Son Jesus; and the choice of Satan or the choice of the Holy Spirit.

Salvation, while always a gift from an eternally-loving Father—is always a choice for man to make for God—not for God to make for man.

The Bible clearly states that no one; no devil, no evil, no power, no man, nothing can erase salvation. True. There is always salvation, but that is not to say, everyone will get it.

In other words...

It is not as if God is going to lock the doors to Heaven and declare no one can ever get in: “That’s it—there is no more Heaven—the only place you can go is Hell. You’re all going to Hell.” Now, if some people are saved, and some lost, as it is clearly understood in the Biblical teachings of Jesus—if some people are saved and some never get saved—it stands to reason that some people may gain it and some people may lose it. It never changes the fact that salvation or eternal life with God exists—but it does not say that everyone is guaranteed to accept and/or receive it.

Read in Scripture, and imagine in the life of Jesus, how many times He removed and indwelt (or promised to indwell, like the disciples concerning the coming of the Holy Spirit) people with Spirit. Everywhere you look in Scripture, Jesus is removing demonic spirits from people. And once the spirit of evil is removed, the healed are compelled to follow Jesus. A perfect example of the destructive nature of demon possession comes from Mark 5:11-13.

¹¹Now a large herd of swine was feeding there near the mountains. ¹²So all the demons begged Him, saying, "Send us to the swine, that we may enter them." ¹³And at once Jesus gave them permission. Then the unclean spirits went out and entered the swine (there were about two thousand); and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and drowned in the sea.

In this passage, note the first thing that happens to the swine once they are possessed with the evil spirits: they go and kill themselves. Satan is the father of murder, death and destruction. He tries to kill every creature, man and beast, in this life and in the next life. God knows with evil in the world, all man is self-destructive and heading for death. Jesus knows the importance and everlasting condition of the spiritual body.

My last words...

Remember, God is Spirit. He created us as Spirit. And when we die, our true spirit will be revealed to Him. Is your spirit the spirit of Satan or the Holy Spirit?

BOOK: I

CHAPTER: Eternal Security

VERSION: Part 2— “In Spirit” Vs. “Out of Spirit”

“In Spirit” vs. “Out of Spirit”

Mark my words...

When I am living a sin-free, fruitful, Christ-like life; when I am “in the Spirit”, I am comfortable and at perfect peace with believing that my salvation can be lost. Also, I feel a real conviction that those who preach and teach a message guaranteeing my eternal salvation are misleading me.

In other words...

When I am sinning repeatedly, feeling lost, and “out of the Spirit”—I either have no interest if I’m saved; plus, I often feel hopeless and helpless [certainly not the condition or view God would have on me or want me to have]. Also, I often don’t know and have confusion on what I believe about eternal security. And if I do lean toward a belief, I tend to believe I can’t lose it; that regardless of my sin, I’m “in”.

BOOK: I

CHAPTER: Eternal Security

VERSION: Part 3— My Faith Is Greater When I Think I Can Lose My Salvation

My Faith Is Greater When I Think I Can Lose My Salvation.

Mark my words...

When I feel I can lose my salvation, and that my eternal security is dependent on the spiritual condition of my body, mind, heart and soul at the time of my death—this thought gives me greater faith in Christ knowing that I have the choice on whether to keep myself alive in the Holy Spirit or lose the Holy Spirit to sinfulness and evil. The fact that God can allow me to lose my Spiritual and eternal place with Him, compels me to have a greater faith in Him and less faith in myself of any assurance I believe I have. If the soul decision on my salvation rests with God's decision and not my own—and when I die, only He knows for certain the truth of my salvation—I have almost no choice but to simply trust in God that He knows if I am in.

In other words...

It almost “forces” me to put more faith in God. This gives me the greatest faith.

BOOK: I

CHAPTER: Eternal Security

VERSION: Part 4— The Pride of Life

The Pride of Life

Mark my words...

The Bible records Jesus saying, “no man knows what is in another man’s heart.” Well, I am a man, who is to say I know if I’m saved. I believe it would be prideful and self-serving to believe my eternal condition could be “set in stone” at a singular defining moment during my life.

In other words...

If the sun stops shining, a plant stops growing. And it has been said, if a creation stops its growing—it starts dying. I know there are seasons to reap and sow; to live and to die—if the seasons in the growth of created plant life can change, so too can the seasons in my Spiritual and created life.

BOOK: I

CHAPTER: Eternal Security

VERSION: Part 5— Eternal Truth or Consequences

Eternal Truth or Consequences

Mark my words...

What if I believe I am eternally secure and I am not? If I am wrong—if there is something I haven't done, learned, or accepted: I am going to Hell.

What if I am wrong in misunderstanding the principle of eternal security? What happens when I die: I go to Hell.

What if I think I am accepted by Jesus and the acceptance I lived my life thinking I had, I don't have or never had? When I die: I am going to Hell.

In other words...

Believing that my salvation or eternal security is totally in the hands of Jesus, extends the grace He provides me beyond measure and [ironically] guarantees me security. In a sense, if there is no eternal security, if I can lose my salvation by losing the Holy Spirit and Christian life in me—I know I will assuredly be with Him in Heaven and suffer no loss or punishment, or worse, banishment, for having such a self-assurance that once “I received Him” I was somehow automatically “in”.

In other words...

The truth is: If I'm wrong down here [on earth] I have nothing to lose—but if I am wrong up there, then the consequences are eternal.

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

Destruction of the Temple Foretold

¹ Then Jesus went out and departed from the temple, and His disciples came up to show Him the buildings of the temple. ²And Jesus said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Assuredly, I say to you, not one stone shall be left here upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

Mark my words...

This is not only a temple or a building; but it is symbolic of the building that is a person's body, the temple for which the Holy Spirit is to reside.

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

³ Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?"

⁴And Jesus answered and said to them: "Take heed that no one deceives you. ⁵For many will come in My name, saying, "I am the Christ," and will deceive many.

Jesus is not necessarily speaking about a person who says he is the Christ, but people who say they are "Christians". And He warns they will falsely teach and lead others. These "Christians" will say they come in His name, as a "Christian"; but their deceitful and murderous ways will be indicative of the devil and not of God.

⁶And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. ⁷For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in various places. ⁸All these are the beginning of sorrows. ⁹"Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name's sake. ¹⁰And then many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another. ¹¹Then many false prophets will rise up and deceive many. ¹²And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold.

God is love. God is Spirit. God is Spirit and love. Note the many underlined words and see how opposite they are from love—and if they are opposed to love—then they must be from God's opposition. God's opposition is the devil.

If you love your neighbor and love your enemy—then you know God. And in Heaven, God knows you. If you love a life more than your own—and you are willing to sacrifice your own life—then you did just as Jesus did. If you do not love the life of your neighbor or enemy—then you must hate life—and therefore, you are not doing as Jesus would do.

And since God is also Spirit—relate the passage to the importance of the human spirit—and more meaningfully, the spiritual condition of a person. If the spirit of God is not present; then who's spirit is present and at work? The evil spirit must be present. The evil spirit is Satan.

If you are not in possession of the Holy Spirit—you are possessed by the devil. If you are in possession of the devil—you will be with the devil. The devil will be in Hell—so too, you will be in Hell—end of story.

¹³But he who endures to the end shall be saved.

These words by the Savior indicate that your salvation is not an eternal guarantee. To "endure" means that there is a path to follow and not just a point to stop at. There is a continual move, or in this case growth, that leads to "the end" and being "saved".

¹⁴And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

The Great Tribulation

¹⁵ "Therefore when you see the 'abomination of desolation,' spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place" (whoever reads, let him understand), ¹⁶"then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. ¹⁷Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house. ¹⁸And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes. ¹⁹But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! ²⁰And pray that your flight may not be in winter or on the Sabbath. ²¹For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no, nor ever shall be. ²²And unless those days were shortened, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect's sake those days will be shortened. ²³"Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'There!' do not believe it. ²⁴For false christs and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. ²⁵See, I have told you beforehand. ²⁶"Therefore if they say to you, 'Look, He is in the desert!' do not go out; or 'Look, He is in the inner rooms!' do not believe it. ²⁷For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. ²⁸For wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

The Coming of the Son of Man

²⁹ "Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ³⁰Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. ³¹And He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

³² "Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. ³³So you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near--at the doors! ³⁴Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place.³⁵ Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

³⁶ "But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only. ³⁷But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. ³⁸For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, ³⁹and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. ⁴⁰Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left. ⁴¹Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left. ⁴²Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Lord is coming. ⁴³But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into. ⁴⁴Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

The Faithful Servant and the Evil Servant

⁴⁵ "Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his master made ruler over his household [human body], to give them food in due season?

Food is the "bread of life". Without food, man would die. Food is symbolic for eternal life.

⁴⁶ Blessed is that servant whom his master, when he comes, will find so doing.

To "find so doing"; is indicative of an action or a doing of something. This works in relation to a person's possession or indwelling of the Holy Spirit, it does not relate to a guarantee of a grace-filled salvation once received that may never be lost.

⁴⁷ Assuredly, I say to you that he will make him ruler over all his goods.

⁴⁸ But if that evil servant [Notice Jesus doesn't "beat around the bush". The unfaithful servant is not just disobedient, mistaken or deceived; that person is downright evil. If you are not holy and good, you are unholy and evil.] says in his heart, "My master is delaying his coming," ⁴⁹and begins to beat his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunkards,

These two evils: beating [“beating” alludes to anger, war, and murder]; and drunkenness [drunkenness alludes to all matters contained in an evil spirit]; truthfully, they both equate to all evil and sin, period.

⁵⁰the master of that servant will come on a day when he is not looking for him and at an hour that he is not aware of,

Jesus will come either at His second coming or when you [as a human] die. And at Jesus’ second coming, He comes on a day unknown by all, and of all the days in the history of existence—this one day seems by human nature, so minute, that not only will man not see it coming—he may miss most of it while he is sleeping. Secondly, human death, from the day of birth—is only a heartbeat away. From the day of our birth, we are forever a day closer to dying.

⁵¹and will cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Jesus makes a revealing statement here, He does not immediately say the evil servants are appointed to the devil. He says the deceived sinner will make his place with the “hypocrites”. These hypocrites are the “Christians” who are not truly following the Lord. They may say they are Christians and may “act” like Christians, but they will not possess the Holy Spirit. In addition, their deeds will be deceitful and murderous. And the place the hypocrites are going is the same place as all sinners, evil spirits, Anti-Christians and Satan himself will go: Hell—where “there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth”—they are going to Hell.

As Jesus would say: “for those who have ears let them hear”: Those deceitful, murderous, and satanic “Christians” who lead and teach that war and killing is the will of God or the “just and righteous” thing to do are lying and going to Hell—believe me.

Notice how all these aforementioned paragraphs: [Destruction of the Temple Foretold—The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age—The Great Tribulation—The Coming of the Son of Man—The Parable of the Fig Tree—No One Knows the Day or Hour—The Faithful Servant and the Evil Servant] address the end times—the last great battle—the battles that have led to the spiritual war between good and evil. The timeline of Jesus addresses about the end of the world: the end of life. In regard to eternal security, He does not speak about the singular point in time when a person is “saved”. Like the world, and life as we know it, Jesus does not put the greater importance on the minutes totaling an hour—as He does what happens in the final hour and at the last minute. You see, the condition of a person’s spirit is the sole thing that Jesus cares about. While the world is in constant spiritual warfare, so too, is a person at war within their own body as they maintain a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

The truth of the matter is: a person will never know they are saved—until the end of their days when and if Jesus actually does save them. If you want to see what spiritual condition your spiritual condition is in: wait till you see God eye-to-eye—He'll let you know. In the meantime, grow in love and the Holy Spirit and have faith in Jesus. Have faith that His judgment of your spiritual condition at the time of your death, or of His second coming, will make you acceptable to Him. Until that time, rest in the peace of knowing that Jesus knows if you are “saved”.

In other words...

I don't need to know—I don't want to know—all I know...is God knows.

My last words...

Trust Jesus. Just trust Jesus.

I believe the primary negative emotion in women, is fear. Women live and think in fear often. Therefore, female ministers, as written in the Scriptures, because of this innate abundance of fear are not equipped to lead, teach or as the Bible says, speak in the churches.

In other words...

Women and people who live in fear are generally less forgiving and more vengeful and murderous than those who are not. They support war, a death penalty, abortion and the like. They are so fearful and demand such security and comfort, they unwisely and in an anti-Christian way place this emotional and physical security above the mind and heart of God.

Dear People:

As you may know...I have been homeless/spiritual retreat for 7-months (starting on 2-11-04 and emerging from the woods on 9-11-04) and trusting on God to work through people (perhaps you) to provide financial support to pay for my storage (310-301-6668...Unit# D-2039, if someone will please see if it is paid for through September and October), food, and other needs (razor, etc.); perhaps you will continue to help financially. As many of you know, I have a very difficult time operating “in the world” and the transition to stability is costly (both financially and mentally) at times. As a minister and big dreamer, there is no such comfort as a steady paycheck. Not to mention, with an average 72-90 hour workweek, I have little time but to go all-or-nothing for ministerial work, dreams and the financial success I hope you can/will share in.

For the most part, this is what God, and I worked on during my homelessness... I am pleased to note, He used me to write a 555 page-book (see promo) and will be closing with ministry partner(s) [REDACTED] on an Upstate New York retreat property on Dec. 30th ...of which many of you will/may be invited to live/or work on (see book and property/retreat attachments).

CHAPTER:

VERSION: Healing Touch

†

“I AM GOD...
HAVE FAITH IN ME.”

The Healing of a Blind Man at Bethsaida

Mark 8:22-26

²² They came to Bethsaida, and some people brought a blind man and begged Jesus to touch him. ²³ He took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village. When he had spit on the man's eyes and put his hands on him, Jesus asked, “Do you see anything?”

²⁴ He looked up and said, “I see people; they look like trees walking around.”

²⁵ Once more Jesus put his hands on the man's eyes. Then his eyes were opened, his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly. Jesus sent him home, saying, “Don't go into the village.”

Mark my words...

As noted in the Version: Water, in this Chapter (need to note where located): there is something scientific and spiritual to water and it is exemplified here in the fact that Jesus had to twice touch the man's eyes to fully restore his vision. Symbolically, this connects the scientific and the spiritual. Jesus was a Man of Miracles, He could certainly heal with His Words and just one touch; and yet, here, The Savior twice has to touch the man in order for him to be healed.

In other words...

Apart from the spiritual and healing power of water; there is a literal and symbolic lesson to be learned here about the nature of healing. God is the Maker of Universal Laws and the Maker of Scientific Laws. He is the Maker of the Material World. And the Lord God can move mountains with His Words and has given man the same power to do so with man's words. And while the Lord God is miraculous and can do any and everything instantaneously; He is most and more likely, in the same way He answers prayer; to work within the scientific, biological, physical, and material world and laws He created to make things happen.

My last words...

Jesus, not only in His divine humility and the knowledge that the more miracles He performed, tragically, the more in jeopardy His life became—especially when done on an “untimely” day, like the Sabbath—told the man not to return to the village.

Truth be told, the Savior also did this because God knows, as there is great evidence of today, that many of man's ailments, injuries, and handicaps are actually more mental, emotional, and most importantly spiritual than physical. And surely, all can be healed by faith in God. And just as the knowledge on why angels often appear to a person when they are alone [because the person is more likely to be tempted and disbelieve seeing the angel because of the unbelief of those to whom they testify or speak]; Jesus commanded that the healed blind man not return to the village so the disbelief and unbelief of the villagers would not affect the faith of the man whom the Lord had just healed.

And no matter in what realm beyond the spiritual [it is always, spiritual] the Lord chooses to heal someone, even if it involves a more “realistic” healing or cure rather than a miraculously divine or spiritual one; God never wants for the faithful whom He's healed to lose faith in Him.

CHAPTER: Health
VERSION: 6/7's Fasting

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Most people in the world are overweight. Jesus designed every human being to have a perfect weight for each. The first Christ-like method to dieting and weight loss is fasting. Numerically speaking, if a person completely fasts [no food or drink] just one day a week, as prescribed by God Himself; they will lose 1/7th or 14.2857 % of the bodyweight they now have. Overall, they will basically be 1/7th or 14.2857 % more effective physically.

In addition, if a person fasts one day per week; financially, they will save 1/7th or 14.2857% off of their food bills. For example, if you spend $100 per week on food, when you completely fast you will save almost $743 over the course of a year.

As well, you will appreciate the blessing of the food God has given you. The great, godly and wise King Solomon said one of the best things man can do for himself is to enjoy his food. And a person will be less spoiled, and naturally more appreciative, if they administer fasting to the plan for their health and well-being.

Also, it has been misinterpreted and falsely believed that fasting causes a person to hallucinate. This is absolutely wrong. When people fast, they will often see visions and hear things that they normally would not. This is not hallucinating; simply, fasting better connects a person to their spiritual self. God created man a spiritual being. And God had a special connection and communication with man even before man ate his first meal.

Finally, when you fast, you will be honoring God and improving your personal relationship with Him.

Mark my words...

I just saw a man who had open heart or some similar life-saving surgery. If that were me, I thought about what I would've done, or better yet, should do, or best yet—What Would Jesus Do?

My thought, ending in a win-win situation would be—I would have declined the physician. I would always resist the surgery, knowing God had no original design for His creation to be cut open. Secondly, I would have declined for a better option: natural healing or cure. Finally, I would accept the greatest Healer known to man: I would...

Without a doubt—I would elect to pray for a miracle. Because...should I get one...I am able to see, give, and speak all the glory to God for His supernatural saving work. And, if that method does not work and God chooses not to heal or cure me—then I die and start my next bodily life. [ADDED NOTE: and I start my next life, having my last earthly act be my life-or-death faith in Him]. The situation and the resolve therefore can only be win-win. [The less I put faith in humanity—the less likely I am to not give God all the credit. Or, the more I put faith in man—the less chance a man will give God the glory.]

In other words...

The only reason Jesus saves you in a life-threatening instance, the only reason, [not family, friends, more wealth, not more appreciation for life, not even to give you a thousand-second chances for a thousand things done or undone], it is solely so you can [begin for the first time or work harder] to go on with your life to share the Gospel or Good News of Jesus Christ.

John 2:1-11

Water Turned to Wine

Jesus' First Miracle at Cana

¹On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. ²Now both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding. ³And when they ran out of wine, the mother of Jesus said to Him, “They have no wine.”

⁴Jesus said to her, “Woman, what does your concern have to do with Me? My hour has not yet come.”

⁵His mother said to the servants, “Whatever He says to you, do it.”

⁶Now there were set there six waterpots of stone, according to the manner of purification of the Jews, containing twenty or thirty gallons apiece. ⁷Jesus said to them, “Fill the waterpots with water.” And they filled them up to the brim. ⁸And He said to them, “Draw some out now, and take it to the master of the feast.” And they took it. ⁹When the master of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom. ¹⁰And he said to him, “Every man at the beginning sets out the good wine, and when the guests have well drunk, then the inferior. You have kept the good wine until now!”

¹¹This beginning of signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and manifested His glory; and His disciples believed in Him.

Mark my words...

This was Jesus' first "miracle" recorded in the Bible. It was not the first "miracle" He performed. For by sheer definition, a miracle is simply an act of God. And miracles cannot be comprehended by man, but it is wholly attributable to an often-misunderstood God. Again, anything that God does is from God's perspective, just God being God. But from man's perspective, when something unexplainable occurs and the person of God is unknown or misunderstood; that occurrence is called a "miracle." The moral of the story is: since Jesus is God, all that Jesus does can be called miraculous, and Jesus has been in the Heavens and on earth since the beginning of time; not to mention, when He came to earth as a man, in human form, He was alive about 30 years before the day of this wedding.

In other words...

As well, God would not let the first recorded "miracle" of His Son's be one that could lead to intoxicating, irresponsible or irreverent behavior of the guests at this gathering. Keep in mind, the nature of wine itself is derived from fruit. Through time and the process called fermentation, together with a spiritual loss of purification, natural fruit juices then take on strong, alcoholic qualities that lead to drunkenness, sin and destruction. The fact remains, for a liquid to become wine, it must have a length of time to ferment. It is the natural process of fermentation that turns plain nectar or fruit juice into an alcoholic mixture. And as John's story clearly relates, the change from water to wine was instantaneous and by all means miraculous. And those which are natural wonders of The Lord's creation: water and fruits; Satan has perverted into a self-destructive and suicidal poison which serves no earthly purpose in glorifying the Creator.

My last words...

Liquor stores that offer nothing more than intoxication, escapism, depression, addiction and self-destruction often times are seen as offering "wine and spirits." How true that is. The wine is from the fermented grape and the "spirits" are no less than the Spirit of Evil, Satan himself, and the demonic forces and evil spirits that accompany him.

There is no value to drinking "strong drink" or drinking "spirits." In no way does it glorify God and your body; a body which the Holy Spirit is intended to reside.

This loss of sanctification can take place in the growing of plants and all vegetation. And the natural goodness and healing functions can either be mixed or enhanced to create medicines, drugs, and poisons that are sinful and also destructive.

John 21:1-14

A Breakfast by the Sea

¹After these things Jesus showed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias, and in this way He showed Himself: ²Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together. ³Simon Peter said to them, “I am going fishing.”

They said to him, “We are going with you also.” They went out and immediately got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing. ⁴But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. ⁵Then Jesus said to them, “Children, have you any food?”

They answered Him, “No.”

⁶And He said to them, “Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some.” So they cast, and now they were not able to draw it in because of the multitude of fish.

⁷Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment (for he had removed it), and plunged into the sea. ⁸But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits), dragging the net with fish. ⁹Then, as soon as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. ¹⁰Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish which you have just caught.”

¹¹Simon Peter went up and dragged the net to land, full of large fish, one hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not broken. ¹²Jesus said to them, “Come and eat breakfast.” Yet none of the disciples dared ask Him, “Who are You?”—knowing that it was the Lord. ¹³Jesus then came and took the bread and gave it to them, and likewise the fish.

¹⁴This is now the third time Jesus showed Himself to His disciples after He was raised from the dead.

Mark my words...

I believe I finally have understanding on Jesus' eating of fish—Jesus had resurrection power, and these creatures are His—He can restore their life. Man hasn't the power and therefore should not kill; and should adherently follow the laws of nature that say we don't need to eat meat. It was okay one time because Jesus made fish—later He miraculously multiplies the fish.

1 Corinthians 10:23-33

All to the Glory of God

²³ All things are lawful for me, but not all things are helpful; all things are lawful for me, but not all things edify. ²⁴Let no one seek his own, but each one the other's well-being.

²⁵Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, asking no questions for conscience' sake; ²⁶for "the earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness."

²⁷If any of those who do not believe invites you to dinner, and you desire to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no question for conscience' sake. ²⁸But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," do not eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for conscience' sake; for "the earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness." ²⁹"Conscience," I say, not your own, but that of the other. For why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience? ³⁰But if I partake with thanks, why am I evil spoken of for the food over which I give thanks?

³¹Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. ³²Give no offense, either to the Jews or to the Greeks or to the church of God, ³³just as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

Mark my words...

If someone has brought to you an animal that has died—without being killed by man—certainly eat of it—for it is permissible. Also, if a person brings to you an animal that has been killed, it is better that you eat of it rather than keep that person from being saved over the debate on which foods are clean or unclean, or for that matter, over being a vegetarian, period.

Ideally, eat with those [vegetarians], who are like-minded, or at least with those who are Christian and only in need of correction.

John 16:7

⁷Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send Him to you.

Mark my words...

Jesus needed to die for the Holy Spirit to come. Jesus not only died for our sins and to save us from Satan's Hell—Jesus came and went because this would send or transfer the Holy Spirit from the heavenly realm to the Earth and we in the human realm.

The Father—He is Jesus and Spirit.

Jesus—He is the Father.

The Holy Spirit—Jesus died and left His with us—similar to when we sense the remembrance, presence, and “spirit” of loved ones who died before us [keep in mind, there is absolutely no spirit of loved ones left behind. The only spirits in the world are Jesus' Holy Spirit and Satan's evil spirit].

CHAPTER: Holy Spirit

VERSION: The Two Keys to Heaven

“I AM GOD...
THERE ARE TWO KEYS TO HEAVEN.”

Mark my words...

There are two keys in a human being's life that determine their eternal life, and these two keys open the entry gates into Heaven.

1. You must have the Holy Spirit present within you when your body and mind cease to exist.

In other words...

It does not make a difference when or if He, the Holy Spirit, was in you at any time prior in your life; whether at birth, Baptism, or becoming “born again.” The Holy Spirit must be within you at the exact moment your life on earth ceases to exist and your true spiritual self meets Jesus Christ.

2. If and when the Holy Spirit is within you at the time of your earthly death—it will be He who “speaks” for you and represents you at the judgment seat of Christ. And the Holy Spirit will know what to “say on your behalf.” In fact, by His presence alone, will Jesus find you acceptable?

On the other side, if you do not have the Holy Spirit present within you at your death; when you do meet Jesus at The Judgment, you will not appear to God as holy. And only holy beings can enter into His Kingdom. Furthermore, there is nothing you can say in your defense that will gain you entry into Heaven.

Finally, if you should be alive when Jesus Christ returns, in what is commonly referred to as “the rapture”; again, you must have the Holy Spirit dwelling inside of you and only He will represent you and unite you to Christ at that time.

My last words...

As noted, there are two keys in a human being's life that determine their eternal life, and these two keys open the entry gates into Heaven.

1. You must have the Holy Spirit present within you when your body and mind cease to exist.

These are Scripture verses that attest to this fact...

1 Thessalonians 5:3

The Day of the Lord

¹But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I should write to you. ²For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night. ³For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape. ⁴But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. ⁵You are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. ⁶Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober. ⁷For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night. ⁸But let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet the hope of salvation. ⁹For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁰who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him.

¹¹Therefore comfort each other and edify one another, just as you also are doing.

Various Exhortations

¹²And we urge you, brethren, to recognize those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, ¹³and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves. ¹⁴Now we exhort you, brethren, warn those who are unruly, comfort the fainthearted, uphold the weak, be patient with all. ¹⁵See that no one renders evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good both for yourselves and for all.

¹⁶Rejoice always, ¹⁷pray without ceasing, ¹⁸in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

¹⁹Do not quench the Spirit. ²⁰Do not despise prophecies. ²¹Test all things; hold fast what is good. ²²Abstain from every form of evil.

Blessing and Admonition

²³Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely; and may your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴He who calls you is faithful, who also will do it.

²⁵Brethren, pray for us.

²⁶Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss.

²⁷I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read to all the holy brethren.

²⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

Hebrews 10:1-39

Justified By Faith in Christ's Sacrifice

¹For the law, having a shadow of the good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with these same sacrifices, which they offer continually year by year, make those who approach perfect.

²For then would they not have ceased to be offered? For the worshipers, once purified, would have had no more consciousness of sins. ³But in those sacrifices there is a reminder of sins every year. ⁴For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and goats could take away sins.

Christ's Death Fulfills God's Will

⁵Therefore, when He came into the world, He said:

“Sacrifice and offering You did not desire,
But a body You have prepared for Me.

⁶In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin
You had no pleasure.

⁷Then I said, “Behold, I have come—
In the volume of the book it is written of Me—
To do Your will, O God.”

⁸Previously saying, “Sacrifice and offering, burnt offerings, and offerings for sin You did not desire, nor had pleasure in them” (which are offered according to the law),⁹ then He said, “Behold, I have come to do Your will, O God.” He takes away the first that He may establish the second.¹⁰ By that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Christ's Death Perfects the Sanctified

¹¹And every priest stands ministering daily and offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. ¹²But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down at the right hand of God, ¹³from that time waiting till His enemies are made His footstool. ¹⁴For by one offering He has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.

¹⁵But the Holy Spirit also witnesses to us; for after He had said before, ¹⁶“This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the LORD: I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them,” ¹⁷then He adds, “Their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more.” ¹⁸Now where there is remission of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

Hold Fast Your Confession

¹⁹Therefore, brethren, having boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh, ²¹and having a High Priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. ²³Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful. ²⁴And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, ²⁵not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.

The Just Live By Faith

²⁶For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, ²⁷but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and fiery indignation which will devour the adversaries.²⁸ Anyone who has rejected Moses' law dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.²⁹ Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be thought worthy who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, counted the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified a common thing, and insulted the Spirit of grace?³⁰ For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord. And again, "The LORD will judge His people."³¹ It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

³²But recall the former days in which, after you were illuminated, you endured a great struggle with sufferings:³³ partly while you were made a spectacle both by reproaches and tribulations, and partly while you became companions of those who were so treated;³⁴ for you had compassion on me in my chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your goods, knowing that you have a better and an enduring possession for yourselves in heaven.³⁵ Therefore do not cast away your confidence, which has great reward.³⁶ For you have need of endurance, so that after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise:

³⁷"For yet a little while,
And He who is coming will come and will not tarry.
³⁸Now the just shall live by faith;
But if anyone draws back,
My soul has no pleasure in him."

³⁹But we are not of those who draw back to perdition, but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

James 5:19

Bring Back the Erring One

¹⁹Brethren, if anyone among you wanders from the truth, and someone turns him back,²⁰ let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death and cover a multitude of sins.

1 John 5:6-13

The Certainty Of God's Witness

⁶This is He who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ; not only by water, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is truth. ⁷For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. ⁸And there are three that bear witness on earth: the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.

⁹If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is the witness of God which He has testified of His Son. ¹⁰He who believes in the Son of God has the witness in himself; he who does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed the testimony that God has given of His Son. ¹¹And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. ¹²He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life. ¹³These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.

As noted, there are two keys in a human being's life that determine their eternal life, and these two keys open the entry gates into Heaven.

2. If and when the Holy Spirit is within you at the time of your earthly death—it will be He who “speaks” for you and represents you at the judgment seat of Christ. And the Holy Spirit will know what to “say on your behalf.” In fact, by His presence alone, will Jesus find you acceptable.

These are Scripture verses that give evidence to the Holy Spirit speaking for man or representing a person on their behalf before Christ at The Judgment [Romans, Chapter 8 is applicable for both of these keys, numbers 1 and 2, in this teaching].

Romans 8:1-30

Free From Indwelling Sin

Salvation from Sin, Death, and Suffering

¹There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. ²For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death. ³For what the law could not do in that it was weak through the flesh, God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, on account of sin: He condemned sin in the flesh, ⁴that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. ⁵For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. ⁶For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. ⁷Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be. ⁸So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

⁹But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His. ¹⁰And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. ¹¹But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.

Sonship through the Spirit

¹²Therefore, brethren, we are debtors—not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. ¹³For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. ¹⁴For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. ¹⁵For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, “Abba, Father.” ¹⁶The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, ¹⁷and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together.

From Suffering to Glory

¹⁸For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. ¹⁹For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God. ²⁰For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; ²¹because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. ²²For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now. ²³Not only that, but we also who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body. ²⁴For we were saved in this hope, but hope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees? ²⁵But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance.

²⁶Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. ²⁷Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

²⁸And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose. ²⁹For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren. ³⁰Moreover whom He predestined, these He also called; whom He called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these He also glorified.

John 3:16

¹⁶For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

1 John 5:1

Obedience by Faith

VERSION: Praying Down the Holy Spirit

“I AM GOD...
THE HOLY SPIRIT IS ALREADY THERE.
YOU NEED TO PRAY
TO PUT YOURSELVES IN MY PRESENCE.”

Mark my words...

Many pastors speak about the Holy Spirit “showing up” or “now being present.” Truth be told, the Holy Spirit is always present [like the air]. The communication and “presence” are made when man gets his mind, body, and his spirit in the proper place: in a union with the ever-present Holy Spirit.

There is a great divide between Heaven and Earth [In a different teaching, Luke 16:26 illustrates a divide between Heaven and Hell: “And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can those from there pass to us.”]. In this teaching on being in the presence of—or receiving the Holy Spirit—let it be known; the Holy Spirit is alive here on Earth; Christians don’t ask or “pray Him down.” Either He is in you and you “have Him”; or He is not “in you” and you don’t “have Him.” If a person does not have or know Him, that person is not a Christian. In either case, a person may pray to God that they may receive Him. In these circumstances, it is a person’s position to ask the Holy Spirit from the world around you into your heart and mind; and do so by praying to receive and accept Him.

In other words...

You cannot pray the Holy Spirit to come down upon you or visit you—rather pray that you “lift up” or “open up” your minds and hearts to come in touch with Him. Therefore, a prayer might go: “Holy Spirit who is in us—work your power and glory through us. Holy Spirit, for those who don’t know or have you—God draw them near to you and let your Holy Spirit fill them.” And believe me; just the thought of this makes all the difference in the [spirit] world.

[Also good for Rapture principle of Jesus coming back to receive those unto Him who are in His Church. And the Church is 2 or more people gathered in His name who are filled, and one, with the Holy Spirit of God.]

“I AM GOD...
DON’T EXPLOIT HIM—WORK WITH HIM!”

Lying To The Holy Spirit

¹ But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession. ²And he kept back part of the proceeds, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part and laid it at the apostles' feet. ³But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back part of the price of the land for yourself? ⁴While it remained, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your own control? Why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God." ⁵Then Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and breathed his last. So great fear came upon all those who heard these things. ⁶And the young men arose and wrapped him up, carried him out, and buried him. ⁷Now it was about three hours later when his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. ⁸And Peter answered her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much?" She said, "Yes, for so much." ⁹Then Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out." ¹⁰Then immediately she fell down at his feet and breathed her last. And the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her out, buried her by her husband. ¹¹So great fear came upon all the church and upon all who heard these things.

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Unless a man be Born Again...Jesus could very well be saying: Since you were born and are alive; you exist; you have no chance to be saved or see the Kingdom of God. It means you were born; you exist and were born into a sinful state of being. The only chance you could have had were if you had never been born. This just shows the depths one must go to truly be holy.

Yet, I do believe “born again” may be the more understood meaning which means since we are alive; you must have a born-again experience or second sort of rebirth.

God’s plan is for everyone to do their part in serving Him. Everyone has a “calling” and when everyone on Earth; at the same time, serves God and fulfills the plan He has for them and their life; He will return again.

If that day never comes and odds, are it won’t; then two things will happen. Either a person will die and his or her “personal relationship” with God will be judged when that person meets with Him upon their death....or, the world as one will cease to exist, and humankind and their planet will be destroyed and die.

- I AM GOD

Jesus said, “Lay down your sword, he who lives by it will die by it.” Then said, “Don’t you think I can call 12 legions of angels?” Well, there is the answer to guns, weapons and war: “Don’t you think we, humans, can call 12 legions of angels? We can. I would love to start a charity called “12 Legions of Angels” who battle vs. guns, weaponry and war with prayer for peace.

-I AM GOD

In the Gospel of Luke and the Gospel of Matthew; when Jesus was about to die on the cross, the writer's either said, or recorded Jesus saying, "I give up my spirit." This again, goes to the nature of one's body at the exact time of their death, whereby they must have the Holy Spirit within as this is truly who we are when we die, and The Lord sees and judges us for eternity.

- I AM GOD

I also heard how when Jesus died all the "Holy Men" were resurrected. This too is how we will be if we are holy. Meaning, Jesus died for us, so if we are holy or filled with the Holy Spirit; we too will rise from death to new life; because of the life and death and resurrection of Jesus.

- I AM GOD

John 9: The Man Born Blind at Birth

For children afflicted since birth from some malady, handicap, or ailment; as Jesus said, is not necessarily caused by the sin of the baby or the baby's or child's parents; which also translates to say it does not have to even be attributed to the sin of mankind, Adam, or even Satan.

Jesus then talks about work and night and that darkness will be here soon enough. He is speaking about Hell and death. He says He is the "light of the world." This will mean, as I pray you read, that the time believe in God, be born again, and to fill oneself with the Holy Spirit is now, while alive and prepare for eternal life.

As Jesus is teaching, the way to think when the man was born blind, another symbolic story; or any handicap, is no matter the reason, scientific or spiritual; the important thing is to know Jesus can heal anyone and everything. This is the only thought anyone in or related to such a situation should think. And more meaningful than that is the primary or sole purpose for any healing; and that is to be saved for eternity. Healing is mainly for a person's salvation.

If you believe and accept the God who healed you today; Jesus Christ--you are accepting and believing in the Son of God who can save your eternal life.

-I AM GOD

In John 11, the same principle as taught in John 9 exists; this time at the end of one's life even to the point of death.

Jesus again mentions how He is the "light of the world" vs. the darkness and how even Lazarus who has been "sleeping" for 4-days can rise again. This is not only true of this life; but again, our eternal spiritual life.

In fact, Jesus also speaks, earlier, I believe in Chapter 10 about He being the Shepherd and that He is the Shepherd to two herds; this could mean any combination of humans and angels; humans/angels who died and are in Heaven and humans/angels who died who are in Hell and when the end-of-time comes will be forgiven and accepted when the earth ceases at the end of time. Or, it may even mean, not this creation [the sixth "version"] but also the next "version" of creation: the "new body" or 7th "version" as in the "7th Heaven."

NOTE: I may want to study John, Chapter 10 to bridge the symbolism and stories in Chapters 9 and 11.

-I AM GOD

Physic Hell

Those in Heaven cannot see or communicate with anyone on Earth; only those in Hell. And if a "psychic" can communicate with the dead; rest-assured, I hate to say; that person is not in Heaven, but in Hell. And just like their father the devil, the father of lies, Satan; a psychic will lie or be blind and tell you that the person is a peace. They are not. They are in Hell. In either a witting or unwitting way, they will give you good news in a vain attempt to comfort you; but they deceive you. The Holy Spirit is The Comforter and if the deceased had the Holy Spirit and was in Heaven; then they would know the joy of the Lord in Heaven communing only with Him; and you, the one on earth; would have the comfort here you seek.

Matthew Commandments 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 5 and the great Command.

Note: He doesn't mention those about God, Himself who He is...and as one with nothing, #10 not covet. He, as a human and with parents, notes #5 last.

Matthew 19

Jesus tells the rich man to give up his possessions not only from an earthly sense as a way to help the poor; but more so to see and lead a man with possessions to the condition of his heart; which will then be open to possession of the Holy Spirit and a priceless and “rich” eternal life.

^^Jesus, in the Bible makes reference to keeping quiet and not “worrying” about what to say in a time of trouble or testimony in a courtroom or elsewhere. The Rabbi instructs, do not think or rehearse what you are to say. He commands, “Keep silent and let the Holy Spirit do the talking.”

Well, this day, you are given, as was I on the day I meditated upon and experienced it “first-hand” that the same Biblical instruction applies when in times of praise as well. In good times, one ought to not plan or rehearse how to praise the Savior, but rather, “Go with the flow” [of the Holy Spirit] and in times of commendation or celebration, let the Holy Spirit “do the talking.” God is an amazing witness to both the troublesome and the good. And His Holy Spirit will lift you from both the depths of despair to the clouds of celebration.

some Christians. Working ^{for} and serving ~~the~~ ~~of~~ ~~Jesus~~ ~~Christ~~ but apart from ~~that~~ ~~was~~ an acceptance of Jesus - is ~~like~~ not working but ~~at~~ ~~all~~. But ~~Christ~~ ~~is~~ ~~not~~ ~~all~~
Now it is simply relying on God's

The key is to ~~not~~ ~~for~~ ~~and~~ accept Jesus and acceptance means working following Jesus and His teachers in working ^{for} Him and serving Him. That will show you truly ① Grace vs. Works. accept Him.

Jewish people thought God accepted you by good works -
That left man to decide for himself, or in the Jew's case - the Jewish leaders who were good or bad, how much work to do and in some cases of judgment - did your life reflect work ~~enough~~ to gain you Heaven. This also led to man, Jewish leaders, to have to judge for themselves only a judgment that God can make. Since, when Jesus Christ lived, he taught that God's entry fee was not an obligation or rewards for your work - but the ^{gift} ~~grace~~, ~~and~~ His grace of having Jesus defeat, by death, and rise for man's sinful ways.

When Jewish teachers and disciples, like Paul, taught other people about Jesus and Christianity - He they were very distinct and clear that grace and the gift of Jesus superseded and ^{there} replaced the Jewish ~~enormous~~, Jewish teachings.

Human, today, with the knowledge and faith and work of Jesus, Christians have received the ^{gift} ~~grace~~, ~~and~~ Grace needed for salvation. Again, it is Jesus who man needs to get

~~Yet today~~ Yet, like forgiveness and every and anything else given freely by the Lord, we still need to accept it. If we don't accept or take hold of it, it is not ours.

Today, it now that Christianity is the way to Heaven, many Christians and churches have let their human nature and misinterpretations of God's grace lead them to conclusion that essentially no work has to be done. Accepting, taking something takes effort. It takes work in a sense. And now there is a ~~divine~~ devout reliance of on God's grace by the notion that nothing needs to be done to accept it. Yes, it is given freely, but the Scriptures state throughout, that the acceptance of this grace of God is accomplished by the works we do for the Lord, as the Lord as worked for us by dying on the cross, in bearing doing the will of the Father, and in His case, dying on the cross.

It is our ~~proper~~ Christian responsibility to work and to serve (serving is working,) to serve the Lord.
In serving Him and working for Him, we have faith that that He judges us acceptable ^{of the Lord} at death.

Working, as the Jews did ^{for Christ}, was enough for God to credit them as righteous. When accepting the gift of Jesus and the Grace of God to provide His son given Christians the clear opportunity and responsibility to have accept Jesus and to

CHAPTER: Killing

VERSION: The Nature of Murder in the Old Testament

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

The nature of murder in the Old Testament is vital to understanding the meaning and value of life today. First of all, when I write “Old Testament,” or “The Old Covenant”; I would rather write God’s “First Promise.” Secondly, the First Promise is also considered the Holy Book and Scriptures of the Hebrew or Jewish people. Finally, and most importantly; it is the written Word of God, and The Father’s and Creator’s perspective, purpose and promise on life and killing for all of mankind.

In other words...

To begin with, the nature of murder in the Old Testament is the fact that the people were murderous. Ever since Eve, then Adam allowed sin and destruction to enter the nature of creation, and mankind; there has been murder. The destruction of life is death, and death at the hands of humankind is murder. Man’s sin against God allowed the devil the position and authority to bring death and murder to the plant and animal kingdom, and even the planet earth as a whole. Soon after the first birth of the children of mankind, Cain and Abel, the sons of Adam and Eve; came the first murder at the hands of man. Since that first murder, man has become more and more murderous ever since. And by the sinful nature of man, man has a killing spirit and a murderous nature.

Years and years of death, murder, and killing reigned supreme; and the truth of the matter is: mankind was actually self-destructing. And just like God saving Noah, in order to save creation and humanity from extinction; God let people over to their sinful ways, so many people are deceived and allowed to believe that murder and killing was and is part of God’s way or plan. And all too often, people will commit and justify murder based on the deceptive belief that God allowed murder...the truth is: God allowed it because mankind chose it.

BOOK: I

CHAPTER: Killing

VERSION: The Reason for Murder in the Old Testament

“I AM GOD...
THE TRUTH IS:
I DID ALLOW IT BECAUSE MANKIND CHOSE IT.”

Mark my words...

Today, many will murder and kill for reasons like punishment, protection, hatred, vengeance, mercy, sacrifice, and war. And they will believe that God requires and justifies it. Especially in times of war, deceived and murderous killers will improperly look to the Old Testament or First Promise of God, and believe God allowed and ordained murder and killing. Truth be told, this could not be farther from the perfect, created truth.

In other words...

With regard to war in the days before the coming of God to earth as Christ, remember; the religious peoples and all of mankind have a murderous nature. Secondly, God would often support man in battle as “the lesser of two evils” for those of mankind who awaited a Savior. And most importantly, God also empowered those in battle to preserve the line of the human race in order to birth Jesus; basically, to keep people, the Hebrew Nation, alive for Jesus Christ to come into human existence. And in truth, from the beginning of time, the first promise of God the Father was to work within the framework of evil human existence in order to keep mankind alive long enough to save and resurrect all of creation through the birth, life and even the death of Christ.

My last words...

In the end, I have heard it wisely said: “If God could save mankind by any other way, don’t you think He would have done it apart from the death and killing of His only Son?”

VERSION: The End of Murder in the New Testament

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

In the New Testament, or Final Promise of God; The Father and Creator has once again mercifully and lovingly chosen to save mankind and all of creation from self-extinction. He did so by sending His only Son Jesus to earth. As well, God the Father and Creator has mercifully and lovingly given mankind the choice to accept this way out of earthly and eternal death.

In other words...

In times of war, and in through all death, murder, and killing; Jesus is there to protect and defend, to guard against and make amends. Jesus is there to resurrect and to save. Jesus is there to live and to love, to love and to die, and to live and come back to life.

My last words...

In the final days and times of death, murder, killing, and war; these will be the combatants, cultures and religious clashes that will, again, bring about a coming of Christ; not the first coming of Christ, but the second coming of Christ.

The final world war clashes these people:

Islam—Muhammad was a war-like Old Testament (c.600 BC) prophet.

Judaism—Follow the Old Testament, First Promise; but they do not believe in Jesus Christ or the New Testament, Final Promise.

Christians—Believe in the Old Testament, First Promise; and New Testament, Final Promise; but do not always see the perspective of why there was “godly” murder, and they still believe war and murder is still justified...when, in truth, it is not.

Atheists—Do not believe in God at all; and murder is primarily “second nature.”

CHAPTER: Killing

VERSION: You Cannot Be a Christian Killer

“I AM GOD...
I HAVE GOT NEWS FOR PEOPLE:
A ‘CHRISTIAN’ WHO KILLS IS NOT ACTING LIKE A CHRISTIAN.”

Mark my words...

The worst judgment a “Christian” can make, is to kill a neighbor who is “lost” [without salvation through Christ]. Essentially, the “Christian” is casting that person to Hell. God Himself would not let man die in his sin—an eternally separate state—so a Christian should do the same. A Christian should live and offer the Good News of eternal life—not hate; yes, hate and sin, by murdering an unsaved soul. What a rejection of Christ this is: by not allowing the Holy Spirit to do His job and convict a lost person of their sins and then call them to salvation. What a denial then, by “Christians,” to not disciple and spread the same Word of Jesus that keeps “them” from eternal damnation. This is the hypocrisy that The Lord warned against. This is the satanic pride that had Satan cast out of Heaven for “thinking he was God.” This self-same sin shall keep all of man eternally apart from God.

The innocent life, in Christ’s eyes, is as much the person who is murdered by an “evil” enemy—as is the “evil” enemy; whom without a belief in Jesus, is slain by a “Christian,” before that “enemy” can be reconciled to God thru the love, death and resurrection of Jesus.

All are “innocent until proven guilty” and the only judgment Jesus spoke of was The Judgment He gives from the throne. Therefore, no man can be declared “guilty” until that final day. This, in Jesus’ eyes, is the only judgment “that counts.” Every action on earth pales in comparison to this Judgment. And this judgment of guilt, from The Lord, is the everlasting, final judgment. And any man’s, “Christian” or not, any man’s murderous act—is the deceptive, sinful work of Satan. It is the final, earthly judgment that wrestles the unbeliever from the Holy Spirit and declares a man “guilty” for his life.

In other words...

Jesus said, simply: "Love thy neighbor."

Jesus died so man could have eternal life. What is the difference between the Muslim, Jew, or "Christian" who kills? If it is a sin for the Muslim or Jew to kill—why is it not a sin for the "Christian"? Give any earthly explanation you want. But I have got news for you: a person who believes a "Christian" can kill—and God does not think it is a sin—or the "Christian" can kill because they'll still go to Heaven—is a person who simply does not believe in what Jesus lived for, said, and died for.

¹¹⁵Depart from me, you evildoers,
For I will keep the commandments of my God!

NOTE: Please refer also to Psalm [119:113-120, 121-128, 129-136 and other Psalms].

Mark my words...

Even in the days before the birth and life of Jesus Christ, King David, when his life was threatened, commanded and pleaded that the sinners and killers depart from him. He prayed and made record of the fact that killers had no place in the life of this man of God. Years later, Jesus Christ, The Living Son of God, would be born through the earthly family of David. Jesus too, would command and testify that killing is a sin.

1 Kings 20:36

³⁶Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, surely, as soon as you depart from me, a lion shall kill you." And as soon as he left him, a lion found him and killed him.

Jeremiah 17:13

¹³O LORD, the hope of Israel,
All who forsake You shall be ashamed.

“Those who depart from Me
Shall be written in the earth,
Because they have forsaken the LORD,
The fountain of living waters.”

Jeremiah 32:40

⁴⁰And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from doing them good; but I will put My fear in their hearts so that they will not depart from Me.

The prophets before Christ were wise enough to know that The Lord God of Life and His beliefs on killing were completely separate from one another. Basically, life is good and of God and killing is evil and of the devil. And there is a necessary departure from those who kill from God.

Matthew 7:23

²³And then I will declare to them, “I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!”

Luke 5:8

⁸When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, “Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!”

Luke 13:27

²⁷But He will say, “I tell you I do not know you, where you are from. Depart from Me, all you workers of iniquity.”

Luke 14:25-27

²⁵ Now great multitudes went with Him. And He turned and said to them, ²⁶“If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple. ²⁷And whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple.

In other words...

The Lord God is so opposed and opposite from sin, and there is no worse sin than murder, and the denial of the Holy Spirit within man that serves to prevent man from killing, that in the eternal end, the Lord will disbar any and every unrepentant, unreformed, and unforgiven killer from His presence. In fact, anyone who is not willing to give up their own life and be willing to die and sacrifice it for the Lord, they too, will be permanently separated from Him. This is the way it has always been, and this is the way it will always be.

2 Corinthians 12:8

⁸Concerning this thing I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me.

My last words...

This long-lasting, meaningful, recognized and personal statement from the apostle Paul certainly pertains to all men and all sin. For certain, the “thorn in my side” may well apply to any and all sin. However, in Paul’s case, it would surely pertain, in part, to the “killing spirit” he may have had when persecuting Christians and Gentiles alike. In fact, any sin, murderous or otherwise, or evil spirit within; must always “depart” from a person in order to purify and perfect that person before Christ.

These were Jesus’ last words. He was saying, forgive them Father they are doing unrighteous in killing an innocent man. He was thinking and saying this as a man. At the same time, being God, Jesus was able overcome this sin of man’s and be raised or resurrected to life again, and then to eternal life with the Father.

In other words...

Perhaps this is what happens to the “innocent” people who don’t hear about Jesus. Although, I rather believe, all will hear about Him in Spirit if not in Word by the time of their judgment.

*The Bible clearly states the words and The Commandment of God as it was given to Moses:

It "kills me" to see or hear of how many people refuse or disobey this request, rule and commandment of God's. The excuses, examples, exclusions, and extenuating circumstances involved in people deciding when killing or murder is appropriate are incredibly imperfect, foolhardy, and satanic. First of all, who is man to decide what conditions constitute the breaking of a rule, and in this case, the very Law of God?!

In other words...

People have become increasingly broad and satanic in their inclusion of what types of murder are acceptable; self-defense, animal slaughter, enemies, you name it. Basically, for whatever reason people may think killing is acceptable, ask yourself: than for what reasons does God think killing is unacceptable? When then, in people's thinking, do you think God does not want you to murder? When in Hell?

Mark my words...

Think of this also: if a person, let's say you, the reader, finds killing acceptable—then when and under what conditions does God also think killing is acceptable?

Mark my words...

God’s first plan is for one man and one woman to be fruitful and multiply. As Jesus once spoke; God then planned for man and woman to be married as husband and wife, thus becoming “one.” And in the end, Jesus said God has planned no marriage—that everyone will be one body once again—as in the beginning: so too, in the end.

In other words...

While marriage is meaningful to God in the shadows of earth—it is meaningless to Him in the light of the eternity of Heaven.

BOOK: I
CHAPTER: Marriage
VERSION: Sex and Marriage

“I AM GOD... REACH PERFECTION.”

Mark my words...

To begin, there is God. And God creates mankind without the use of “sex.” God “birthed” Adam from the dust of the ground and by breathing life into the first man.

From Adam, God takes the man’s rib and creates the woman, Eve. There was no “sex” involved.

With Adam and Eve, God commanded them not to have “sex” or a “sexual relationship.” He commanded these first two human beings and the first male and female to: “Be fruitful and multiply.” Therefore, from God’s viewpoint, He commands to be fruitful and multiply. And, in a sense, it just happens to be done by having intercourse; clearly, sex for creation, procreation and re-creation [not recreation].

Now, God comes to earth as a human man named Jesus Christ. And He comes with a miraculous virgin birth. Again, God does not use intercourse in order to conceive.

Lastly, Jesus Christ, the perfect man and perfect person is not married, and never has “sexual” physical relations with another person.

In other words...

Here is the natural progression of imperfection:

- Sexual intercourse in order to have children [As well: abstinence always, never contraception].*
 - Only during the woman’s 40-week gestation period, when the God-given goal of giving birth is in the process of being satisfied.*
 - Only in marriage, as a physical relationship between man and woman.*

CHAPTER: Marriage

VERSION: Marriage and “Sexual” Relations

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Orgasm has come to serve two purposes: First of all, for those who spiritually follow God’s command to be fruitful and multiply and are supernatural and godly in their being; orgasm in its purest form, is a sensation created by God to reward the parents for following His command.

Imagine as a person, you knew God wanted you to birth, let’s say, two children. Imagine the sensation you would have if your body physically knew, and your mind mentally knew, you were only going to engage in sexual intercourse two times; and you knew you had God’s healthy best and wholehearted blessing? And, in the course of your lifetime, you truly only experienced that orgasmic sensation two times? The pleasure, joy, and wonderment of the experience would be miraculous and divine.

In other words...

Secondly, for those who spiritually do not follow God’s command to multiply and are more natural, humanistic, animalistic, and ungodly in their being; orgasm becomes a natural inducement, a “pleasurable sensation”, perverted by Satan to entice people to have sexual intercourse or sexual relations.

Imagine as a person you did not know the Lord. Imagine the sensation you would have if you mentally knew you were going to engage in sexual intercourse, and other perverse sexual acts, multiple and untold times. And you were perversely following Satan [and it is all perversion if it is not purely of God]. And, in the course of your lifetime, you experienced that orgasmic sensation many times? The orgasmic sensation certainly can be abused, addictive, destructive and deadly. And the ungodly use of sexual intercourse and “sex” has led to overpopulation, addiction, crime, displeasure, disease, divorce, and a host of other sins and perversions all leading to death.

In God permitting Cain to kill Abel; or whether God was commanding Noah to build an ark in order to save mankind from extinction; or if God was on the side of David as the future king slew Goliath—The Old Testament, God's First Promise, is all about keeping the bloodline of Jesus alive and saving mankind. In fact, it was to keep the whole genealogical line of David alive from Adam and [beginning and ending] with Jesus. The entire purpose of God was to keep a human body or life form alive to send Jesus and allow Him to be born a man. This is why the genealogy of Jesus is mentioned in Matthew 1:1-17. And this genealogy of Joseph was to keep and protect Mary from being killed and ultimately, again, Jesus.

In other words...

Holy God → Sinful Man → To Bring About The Life Of Jesus

God had been working with sinful man to at least leave a human body, Mary, alive at the right time and place for Jesus to enter into the world as God/Human. Especially with regard to war are the choices of the Lord most evident; if God let evil men and sinners kill godly men and women, and evil enemies withstand and defeat every human being; there would have been no human beings for God to make a way to come and save mankind in the person of Jesus. As much as God hates killing, at one time in existence, He had to take sides...thank God, no more.

My last words...

As it has been written; life and salvation leading to eternal life through Christ—is the "soul" purpose and perspective we need to look at the Old Testament through. God the Father, after man's sin, had to work within the framework of fallen man and earth to come to earth and be born of the Virgin Mary as the Messiah...The first appearance of Jesus the Christ, was God's “next-to-last-chance” for man. Christ’s second coming will be the last, final chance: the end of the age.

The purpose of people born before the birth of Jesus—was to do their part in His entrance into the world.... The purpose of people born after the death of Jesus—is to do their part in each other’s exit from this world through and to Jesus.

In other words...

In a sense, the Jews are not God’s chosen people—they were God’s chosen people for the Messiah; and then those same brethren, or people, chose to reject God, the Messiah. Now, in a sense, Jesus’ believers are God’s chosen people. Keeping in mind, all [Jewish brethren as well] who accept Him are God’s children. Again, the Jews were God’s chosen people. That is, until God sent the Messiah and He was crucified, and the chosen people did not choose Him. Now, Christians are God’s chosen people; and if Christians chose to kill their forefathers and neighbors, they too would choose against Him when He comes again.

CHAPTER: Pope Francis

VERSION: Pope Francis — Healing Sinful Sexual Abuse

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

It appears to me a great healing needs to be done toward the victims of sexual abuse in the Roman Catholic Church and throughout the world; and not only the victims, but those who commit such sins (who are also victims), and also those who aren't directly affected who cannot forgive and those who are for some human “justice” for they too are also victims. Keep in mind; we are all, all of us, victims of sin.

In other words...

One of the greatest temptations and sins of Satan is the sin of sexuality which is a perversion of Satan at God's first Command to “Be fruitful and multiply.” Men are sinners and so are women. Eve invited sin into the world when she was tempted by the snake and the man, Adam, when he blamed her before The Creator; but we all sin and we all must forgive. Jesus Christ is the only One who is perfect and sin-free, we are all sinners.

Jesus, Himself, was most critical of the Scribes and Pharisees, the priests, teachers and preachers who are supposed to shepherd mankind to salvation; He knows the adulterers and fornicators who break the Commandments. And He alone; and to He alone, will mankind face eternal judgment.

My final words...

I have been a student and a teacher; I have been a victim and sinful perpetrator of “sexual abuse.” In truth, it is simply a sin. It is nearer to the “Original Sin” (of death) than any other; but just as Jesus was at the right hand of The Father at the Creation; He too, with the power and comfort of the Holy Spirit, is The One who heals, forgives and saves.

God bless, heal, forgive, and save us all.

BOOK: II

CHAPTER: Pope Francis

VERSION: Humility and Humbleness

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Pope Francis, who I love, is known for his humility and humbleness.

I asked The Lord, or at least, meditated a moment on it; to teach me something about humility and humbleness. I know the Scripture, “He who humbles himself will be exalted and he who exalts himself will be humbled”; but I wanted to learn or hear something I didn’t know or had not heard. This is what I am sure The Lord brought to my mind: Humility and humbleness are about trust and faith in God.

In other words...

When you are humble, you might feel, as do I, you relinquish your power over your interactions, relationships or dealings with other people; and even your own inner chance to control them or a situation. However, when you are humble and show humility; you have to give up your position, or power, or control of a person or situation; you have to implicitly and intrinsically trust them.

Furthermore, you not only have to trust that person or persons; but you really have to trust God. You have to trust that when you submit yourself to a situation or person; that God will take power over the other person as well as the situation. You really have to trust yourself to God and have faith in Him over that person, the situation, and mostly over you, yourself.

Too me and honestly for me; and I believe after asking God, for all humans, it is very difficult to not try to “be your own person”; but, rather, to submit to God Above and the Holy Spirit which may be within you. When you truly trust and have full faith in God; you then become humble, and humility will rule over and within you. This is a lesson, and these attributes of humbleness and humility help to reveal if a person has the Holy Spirit within.

CHAPTER: Pope Francis

VERSION: Pope Francis — In the United States of America

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

People ask, “What is it about this Pope?”

The answer is this: He possesses the Holy Spirit and acts like Jesus Christ.

God the Father promised He loved mankind, so He sent His only begotten Son. His Son died and promised that He would not leave us alone; He would send us the Holy Spirit. God is love and God is the Holy Spirit; this is the reason people are drawn to Pope Francis. People cannot help but be drawn to their Creator and His Son and the Holy Spirit here on Earth; (no matter what person on Earth possesses the Holy Spirit).

In other words...

Americans ask, “How long will the inspiration of the Pope’s visit last?”

God has sent great signs during his visit: the sun, the wind and rainbows. Jesus said, to paraphrase, and as a promise...

“The seed fell on the cement and sidewalks of this nation. In some hearts and minds, the sun burned it, and the wind blew it away and it lasted only a moment. In other places, it took root, but Satan and the fire scorched it; the wind of natural life problems and disasters blew it away and it died and failed to take root and finally grow. However, in some places, the seed grew and rose up and blossomed and the fruit grew for many generations to come.”

My last words...

In the end, the answer to the questions is YOU! If YOU accept God the Father, the death and resurrection of The Son, and The Holy Spirit to live within YOU; then the seeds of love and life will grow and bear much fruit in this earthly life and the present eternal life. God bless YOU.

CHAPTER: Pope Francis

VERSION: Pope Francis — Prisoner

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

*It is a blessing to see Pope Francis in a prison of this new unholy Roman Empire, the United States of America. Jesus Himself, said, He too is a prisoner. “And when I was in prison, you came to visit Me.”

Let it be known; God is perfect and sin-free. He is against the death penalty. He created life. He loves life. His Son Jesus forgives us and died for our sins.

I have been imprisoned and jailed a few times and can tell you, since Christianity is not criminal and illegal as it was in the days of the Roman Empire. Truth be told, it is not usually the case that the government, justice system or law enforcement imprisons for religious beliefs since the US “worships” many gods in allowing “Freedom of Religion” and there are many, many varying faiths practiced and houses of worship in the US. In this way, the US worships many false gods.

In other words...

In relation and rather than imprisonment for the worshipping of false gods; Christians are still imprisoned today by Satanic attacks and demonic possession. There are many Christians incarcerated today.

Keep in mind; most people are in jail for one of these reasons:

- 1. Drugs*
- 2. Anger*
- 3. Theft*
- 4. Sinful or bad relationships with the opposite sex.*

My last words...

Keep in mind, many Christians of the Bible were imprisoned by Satan and even by God, Himself, since Satan must get permission from The Lord to enslave and imprison; and imprisonment can be a blessed way to come to know The Savior. The truth is: We are all enslaved and captured by sin; but we all have the greatest gifts God gave us: love and life. And we all have the greatest freedom and power known to man: Our free-will human choice and the power of the Holy Spirit to live within us; all done through the life and death and resurrection of the Lord God, Jesus Christ.

It is with love and peace and with a love for life; the life of all mankind; including the saved and the lost that I write this....

The Interfaith Ceremony held in New York City in September of 2015 was prophesied in 2000.

It is also prophesied, with reverence to Pope Francis, the most blessed of men at the ceremony, and to all mankind; please keep in mind and know that New York City is the New Babylon and while love, life and peace are God's way; this event is spiritually, not unlike the spirit at the Tower of Babel. The Antichrist is the one who deceives “even the elect” into believing that God is a universal “God.”

*Keep in mind, many who died on 9-11-2000 in New York City, were perhaps in pursuit of financial gain and materialism; those who died without the Holy Spirit, within, are lost in Hell for eternity; non-existent; just as there are likely those in Heaven who believed in The Father and The Son and who possessed The Holy Spirit at the time of their death and who gave the greatest sacrifice of “laying down one's life for another.”

In other words...

*The truth be told: There is only one way to true peace; both here on Earth and in Heaven; and that is through the Prince of Peace, Christ Jesus, who said, “He who is not for Me is against Me” and more meaningfully, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father but by Me.”

God bless Pope Francis and God bless and save all the lost in the name of The Father, The Son, and The Holy Spirit.

Mark my words...

How is it that people say they don't agree with the Pope; and how is their spirit such that they think the Pope is a showman or political? Who on Earth knows the mind and heart of God more?

In other words...

The Pope is celibate and against adultery in demonic gay “marriage” and homosexuality (I pray). He is against the death penalty. He is against abortion and slavery. He is not materialistic or militaristic; he is humble and honorable. He is a blessed man, and the world would be better served to agree with him and submit to his thoughts and lifestyle instead of their sinful own.

My last words...

Keep in mind, however, the Catholic Church is not “the church” or a perfect church. Praying to anyone, like Christ's blessed mother Mary; while she is to be hailed for being the mother of God on Earth; is irreverent and disrespectful to Father God.

In addition, the Apostle Paul taught us that we are all saints; those sinners who have been “born again,” and only God Himself knows who resides and reigns with Him in Heaven for the rest of eternity.

Jesus Christ's teachings on the role of women in the church are clear and certain. If women want a bigger role in the church: Go to it. Serve your husband; and if unmarried, serve the priest by loving him and supporting human life.

The other day was the most hopeful day in the almost 250 years of the United States of America. This nation is the second coming of the Roman Empire. This nation is at a crossroads. The US, I fear, is going to also fall; however, today, with the presence of Pope Francis in Washington, there is the hope for eternal life with God for those who follow the Commandments of The Lord above the Constitution. God Bless Pope Francis for representing the mind and heart of Jesus Christ in the USA.

Pope Francis is an inspiration, and I am blessed to see and hear a human with the heart and mind of God; speak about the “Joy of Jesus” and the “Sadness of the devil” in the same speech to the little children. God bless this man of God.

This day, I have never been more pleased to have been raised Catholic and prouder to be a New Yorker and so grateful to the Lord God for being my Father; His Son, Jesus for being my Brother and the Holy Spirit for saving my life and giving me the gifts of vision, speech, hearing and the written word. Thank you, Father, Mother, and thank you to the Pope, The Lord God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit and God Bless New York and God Bless the United States of America.

God bless the Pope in Philadelphia. Please read “The Archangel” because what is happening with the Pope was prophesied in 2000 when God told and helped me to write the book. I do not profit from it; I simply want to stay alive and get the movie made and bless those who read it.

Thank you and God bless you.

If Joe Biden wants to be President, he should use the power of words to announce the day after Pope Francis leaves, he has been called to be President. The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

³ Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?”

⁴ And Jesus answered and said to them: “Take heed that no one deceives you. ⁵ For many will come in My name, saying, “I am the Christ,” and will deceive many. ⁶ And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. ⁷ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in various places. ⁸ All these are the beginning of sorrows.

⁹ “Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name’s sake. ¹⁰ And then many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another. ¹¹ Then many false prophets will rise up and deceive many. ¹² And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold. ¹³ But he who endures to the end shall be saved. ¹⁴ And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

Mark my words...

The Bible says that The Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ should be preached to the entire world. This is The Lord’s “Great Commission.” Not only does God command this to be done, He also promises that it shall be done, saying, “And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.”

In other words...

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

³ Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?”

Keep in mind; the “end of the age” is when Jesus comes to the earth again. Nonetheless, the “end of the age” might well read, “the end of your age”: that is: when you die. One way or the other, every person on earth will one day meet his Maker.

⁴ And Jesus answered and said to them: “Take heed that no one deceives you. ⁵ For many will come in My name, saying, “I am the Christ,” and will deceive many.

Jesus clearly warns that people need to be on the lookout for deceivers; and basically, the deceit or lies which are not the truth of who God is or of His true nature.

The “many who come” saying “I am the Christ” will be no others than those who say they are “Christians.” In fact, not just a few will be misled, but “many.” And “many” might well translate into being the consensus, the crowd, the common denominator, the democracy; not to mention the masses, the multitudes, the mainstream; and finally the population, the popular opinion, the pack, and the “politically correct”; notwithstanding, the messages you read or hear so much more easily than the truthful message you had until this point not heard.

⁶ And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. ⁷ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in various places. ⁸ All these are the beginning of sorrows.

Note that the first thing The Lord mentions is “war” and “rumors of wars.” Truth be told, war is nothing more than mass murder or killing; and “rumors of wars” may just as well read “threaten the life of a person or nation” or the “threat” of war. And not only will “nation rise against nation,” but read what is to follow in the wake of war: hunger and starvation, sickness and disease, and natural disasters (as in the earthquakes caused not only by the Lord's response to attacks and to wars, but the ground shaking response of the planet earth to the violent attacks and upheaval of it's land and seas).

NOTE: At the time of this writing, the New Roman Empire, the United States, is at war with Iraq. It will be the first of many wars and rumors of wars for the Unholy Roman Empire.

⁹“Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name's sake.

“They” will deliver you up. “Christians” will hate Muslims, Jews, Atheists, and “New Age” believers in that universal “being” they call “God.” And the truth is: only the true “anti-killing” Christian will be the one who is Jesus’ “name’s sake.”

¹⁰And then many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another.

Believers in “God” (but not Jesus Christ as God), will be “offended.” And “Christians” who kill will betray true Christians who do not. And then “hate” will define the differences between Muslims, Jews, Atheists and false “Christians.” Keep in mind, each group possessed by the hateful and the deceitful, killing spirit for one another.

¹¹Then many false prophets will rise up and deceive many. ¹²And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold.

“False prophets” are the leaders of the pack who pastor, proclaim and profess the deceitful messages of war. And the “lawlessness” that will abound will be the breaking of the Commandments of God, and none other than that which reads: “Thou shalt not kill.”

¹³But he who endures to the end shall be saved.

“He who endures to the end” is none other than the man or woman who willfully believes in Jesus Christ as The Son of God, and under no circumstances, takes the life of another being. Truth be told, it is the person who is willing to sacrifice and lay down their life for another and “every other.”

¹⁴And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

“This Gospel” is the good news of which you should read and hear—the Good News of lifesaving and not life-taking; that of life-giving, not life-threatening. In fact, not under any circumstances is it the “gospel” you may read or hear. Truth be told, The Lord might very well say that the gospel you will hear is the false one. And once you hear it, then the “end will come”; weather that “end” is when you die in your earthly life, or when the Lord comes to earth again to put a stop to your killing.

My last words...

Many pastors, teachers, evangelists, and even “tele-evangelists” are able to preach virtually worldwide, weather through the printed word, radio, the Internet and through television. Truth be told, God has certainly made a way for His Word to be read or heard throughout this world of billions of people. However, it is all-to-easy for many to preach fraudulent and false fundamentals and teachings of The Lord Jesus Christ. In fact, truly with the help and power of Satan are these many messages being communicated to the masses. Truthfully, the honest and actual teachings and messages of Jesus are so often those that you do not read or hear. It is extremely difficult to get the factual message and true meanings of Jesus out to so many of the people. Ultimately, it is much easier to spread a false Gospel and mislead people, Christians or otherwise, than it is to reach them with the truth.

Basically and simply read or said, any and everyone who preaches a message of killing or war, murder or abortion, suicide or euthanasia, death penalties or capital punishments are not telling the truth! They are working with and through Satan to spread deceit, death, and destruction. They are the enemies of Christ and when “they” die (in addition to those non-Christians “they” may kill)—in the end, Jesus will come again to put an end to them and their killing.

In the talents parable [money, talents, gifts, blessings], everyone gets a chance, but everyone gets a different start.

ENCOURAGEMENT

Romans 15:4, Isaiah 55:8-9, 11 Phil 1:29

Things were written for our learning so we might use patience and comfort to have hope God's Word will not come back void. It shall accomplish what I please. My thoughts are not your thoughts. My ways are not your ways, believe in Him and suffer for His sake.

FIGHT THE GOOD FIGHT

1 Tim. 2

Timothy is not about women praying for men.

Must pray in the Holy Spirit and the warfare is also during our time in prayer - whether that be individual or group prayer.

GOD DISCIPLINES HIS SONS

God disciplines us so we may forsake our sin and indwell ourselves with the Holy Spirit that leads to salvation.

12:1 Let us throw off the sin that so easily entangles us and leads to Hell.

12:4 We are blessed to only be disciplined whereby our Savior Jesus Christ endured the cross with all our sins so we may have the Holy Spirit that leads to salvation.

Mark 7:31

Jesus heals everyone so they will believe in Him--for their health means less to Jesus, but their belief in Jesus will bring salvation--and that means the more, the most. Symbolically, it also means so much more. For example: Jesus knows the Gospel heals and Christ wants the deaf to hear and then He wanted the healed to preach the Gospel. And Christ was so humble, for but only one reason he told the man not to speak about it.

EXTREMES

Jesus will go to any and every extreme to bring us back to our salvation. Thank God for any and all who will come to the aid of those in need or who have lost the Holy Spirit that leads to salvation.

Malachi 1:6-14

The Lord is saying, "How dare you?" When you offer up your lame and sick to the honorable Father who heals - we should do so with the greatest reverence humanly possible--not with the mindset that "you owe me." It's like giving back the new car that we broke to the carmaker and saying, "Here, you built me a bad car or you made it broken, now you go fix it for me."

The priests of the day, the "cookie-cutter Christians," the Governors and the government seemed to think they had the answer in sacrificing the beaten and blemished sacrifices for holiness--yet God knew in this last Word from the Old Testament, that the lamb to be sacrificed needed to be pure and perfect: Jesus!

Matt. 25:21 Parable of the Talents, Parable of the 10 Gold Coins

? All had the same opportunity [All will be given an opportunity] [but to much is given, much is expected]. The lesson is: God is a God of production, reproduction, and increase, and evolution.

We reap what we sow, and God needs to test and trust us. If we pass the test and remain faithful, God will trust us with the most we can be faithful with. In the talents parable [money, talents, gifts, blessings], everyone gets a chance, but everyone gets a different start.

Encouragement

Romans 15:4, Isaiah 55:8-9, 11 Phil 1:29

Things were written for our learning so we might use patience and comfort to have hope God's Word will not come back void. It shall accomplish what I please. My thoughts are not your thoughts. My ways are not your ways, believe in Him and suffer for His sake.

Fight the Good Fight

1 Tim. 2 Timothy is not about women praying for men.

Must pray in the Holy Spirit and the warfare is also during our time in prayer - whether that be individual or group prayer.

God disciplines His sons

God disciplines us so we may forsake our sin and indwell ourselves with the Holy Spirit that leads to salvation.

12:1 Let us throw off the sin that so easily entangles us and leads to Hell.

12:4 We are blessed to only be disciplined whereby our Savior Jesus Christ endured the cross with all our sins so we may have the Holy Spirit that leads to salvation.

Mark 7:31

Jesus heals everyone so they will believe in Him--for their health means less to Jesus, but their belief in Jesus will bring salvation--and that means the more, the most. Symbolically, it also means so much more. For example: Jesus knows the Gospel heals and Christ wants the deaf to hear and then He wanted the healed to preach the Gospel. And Christ was so humble, for but only one reason he told the man not to speak about it.

Extremes

Jesus will go to any and every extreme to bring us back to our salvation. Thank God for any and all who will come to the aid of those in need or who have lost the Holy Spirit that leads to salvation.

Malachi 1:6-14

The Lord is saying, "How dare you?" When you offer up your lame and sick to the honorable Father who heals - we should do so with the greatest reverence humanly possible--not with the mindset that "you owe me." It's like giving back the new car that we broke to the carmaker and saying, "Here, you built me a bad car, or you made it broken, now you go fix it for me."

The priests of the day, the “cookie-cutter Christians,” the Governors and the government seemed to think they had the answer in sacrificing the beaten and blemished sacrifices for holiness--yet God knew in this last Word from the Old Testament, that the lamb to be sacrificed needed to be pure and perfect: Jesus!

VERSION: How to be Saved: 12-Steps to Scriptural Salvation

†

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Every step of the way in our life—God speaks to us about being saved. But He is an evolutionary God: a God of process and progress, a God of growth. Once He gets you to Step-A, He will then ask you to go to step-B, and so on—right until you die a death like Jesus. Once so, you will rise to Heaven as Jesus rose again.

It is Jesus' command to “preach this Gospel...” and you are responsible to obey and go as far as the stage of the evolving Good News or Gospel you read, or the instruction you hear. Paul said: “...work out your salvation with fear and trembling.” He's saying work toward it—don't fall away. Don't “dry up” as Christ said, bear a fruit that grows.

Also [ex. human relations, eating animals], some things progress toward perfection and Heaven [like salvation]; and others recess [like our bodies and certain earthly things and principles]. There is the road to perfection as well as imperfection.

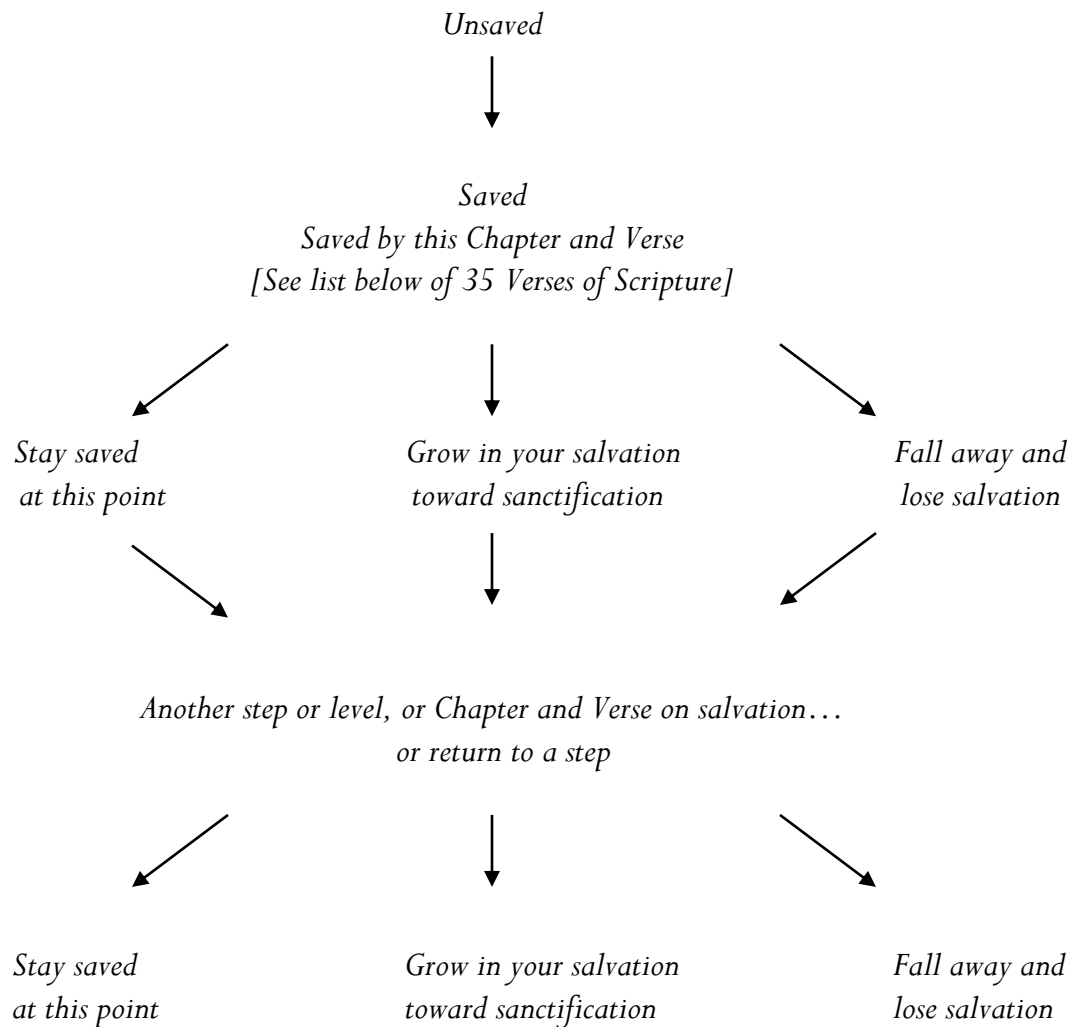

In other words...

While God is a God of process, progress, and growth—He is also a God of principle, Commandments, rule and Law. And while people are expected to grow toward eternal salvation, there are some principles and things to know that will form and help format spiritual growth.

- God is unchangeable.
- “To whom much is given, much is expected.” This means people are all on different spiritual “levels.”
- People are at different levels and people need to change—to grow—and the top level is eternity in Heaven.

- People need to change when God tells or commands them—whether by spiritual experience or personal experience with God; or by hearing the Word of God or reading the Word of God.
My last words...

Actually, this rudimentary and basic diagram will show you the process or “growth cycle” of salvation freely offered by God. And there are also 35 Biblically researched Verses of Scripture that the Holy Spirit has divinely noted that instruct on “How to be Saved.”

While it is the works we do for Him, it is a belief in Jesus that leads to salvation; and ultimately, it is by the grace of God whereby God will judge whether we have done enough work for Him and how truly we believe in Jesus Christ. Nevertheless, Paul also notes the final decisive factor in salvation: the inner presence of the Holy Spirit. CHAPTER: Salvation

VERSION: The Do's and Don'ts

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

You are saved; you gained salvation initially by your belief in the life Jesus led and His work on the cross. The Jews would believe it was by works. Nowadays, some Christians do rest solely on God's grace—the truth of the matter is as such:

Romans 10:9

⁹that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

Now, you have the door open; but to be accepted, you need to begin your work for The Lord. There are 3 questions and 1 “don't” instructing you on your salvation.

The “don't” is don't relax solely on God's grace—God knows the devil will take advantage of this and you get caught doing nothing to serve God and your fellow man.

The 3 Questions are:

How much do you work?

The answer is: start at every minute of every day, day-to-day, for the rest of your life.

How does my work compare with someone else's?

The answer is: Jesus knows what and how much He has given you to do—and each person is a unique instrument for The Lord to use. You are not to try and “outdo” or out serve your neighbor, your goal is to satisfy The Lord; and once you have done so—He is certain minute-by minute, day-by-day, to let you know the joy, peace, and reward that come your way when He is pleased with you [Luke 12:48, in part, reads: ⁴⁸...For everyone to whom much is given, from him much will be required; and to whom much has been committed, of him they will ask the more.] Remember, The Lord always loves you and always provides for you. He knows all that you are, and all that He wants for you. You only need to believe, trust, and have faith in Him; and know that your creation was not your own doing: you were created to love and serve The Lord, and your life is His life; and He is always loving, and always working His love and goodness for you.

How do you know if you've worked and done enough to achieve salvation in Heaven?

The answer is: You don't. You don't need to know—all you need to know is God knows. Your belief in Jesus has the door open; He will accept you—but now your faith in His decision is all one needs to have. With this, you can have true, life-long peace and all the promises The Lord provides.

Keep in mind, once you accept Jesus; the Holy Spirit enters you. And God the Holy Spirit, He comes to work inside and through you [so long as you are truly indwelt with the Holy Spirit].

Mark 5:1-13

Jesus Commands Demons, Death, and Disease

¹Then they came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gadarenes. ²And when He had come out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, ³who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no one could bind him, not even with chains, ⁴because he had often been bound with shackles and chains. And the chains had been pulled apart by him, and the shackles broken in pieces; neither could anyone tame him. ⁵And always, night and day, he was in the mountains and in the tombs, crying out and cutting himself with stones.

⁶When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and worshiped Him. ⁷And he cried out with a loud voice and said, “What have I to do with You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I implore You by God that You do not torment me.”

⁸For He said to him, “Come out of the man, unclean spirit!” ⁹Then He asked him, “What is your name?”

And he answered, saying, “My name is Legion; for we are many.” ¹⁰Also he begged Him earnestly that He would not send them out of the country.

¹¹Now a large herd of swine was feeding there near the mountains. ¹²So all the demons begged Him, saying, “Send us to the swine, that we may enter them.” ¹³And at once Jesus gave them permission. Then the unclean spirits went out and entered the swine (there were about two thousand); and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and drowned in the sea.

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

I, by my very nature, am self-destructive. I believe I am more acutely aware of it than most—as evidenced by many suicidal actions, thoughts, and voluntary destructive choices. Yet, all people are self-destructive. Mankind, because of Adam’s willful choice, invited sin and destruction upon the human race. God’s choice was that the body, like the soul, be eternal in this earthly life.

Now, this self-destructive nature in mankind is unchangeable and inevitable. Some choose unhealthy living, like smoking, or eating habits; and others choose unhealthy behavior, like driving recklessly or crime. I have found the key, and I believe the key for all man; is to live through this self-destruction. And to do so with unequaled peace is to use one’s self-destruction to serve The Lord; in suffering for The Lord, and in not only giving ourselves or our lives; but the destruction and decimation of ourselves completely to Him. In doing so, our self-destruction has a purpose. [(John 12:21) ²⁴Most assuredly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain.] Our suffering has meaning. Think also of what happens when people are stricken with a serious or life-threatening illness, especially a disease [and diseases too, are also a part of humankind being destined to self-destruction]. Think how that person devotes much of the remainder of their life to finding a cure for such an illness or serving to help others in the same situation. It seems to give their life a new meaning. It gives their life value and purpose. It gives them peace. This is not done merely out of a survival instinct: that is human nature. It is more deeply born out of the spirit of serving God by following His commandment to serve others by serving Him through our self-destruction.

“I AM GOD...”

‡Self-destruction vs. dying in defense of the Gospel

Satan, the devil is all about self and death and the goal of Satan is death and death to self, begins with self-destruction and ends with suicide—All death, on earth, apart from Christ—is suicide.

-All but one of the disciples was crucified

-We need to follow 5 Principles

1. God so loved the world [John 3:16]
2. God is love [1 John 4:16]
3. There shall be no other Gods—therefore no other love—love God with all your heart [John 15:12-17]
4. Love thy neighbor. [Matt.22:37-38]
5. There is no greater love than to give up our life for another [John 15:13]

-Without the acceptance of Jesus

-However without the born-again experience

-the indwelling of the Holy Spirit

-Baptism

-Without these a person will be lost and may die a good death, but not a holy death

-secondly, for let's say Islam, no one, who truly has Christ in their heart, can murder. There is no “Holy” War. You can never take another life. And there is never a Christ-like excuse for doing so. Jesus never taught His disciples to take a life for “His sake”.

John 10:11

John 15:13

John 3:16 John, Chapter 3, very good

Remember: The only reason for murder or war in the Old Testament, was because God had to “play by the world’s rules” in which Satan is the leader of the world [] and whereby, death and murder are in the world]. And the only reason for any murder in the Old Testament—including the “just” murders by the likes of David and or other godly greats—was to keep, essentially, Jesus’ birth mother, Mary, alive....In fact, to keep the whole genealogical line of David from Adam and [beginning and ending] with Jesus. The entire purpose of God was to keep a human body or life form alive to send Jesus and allow Him to be born a man. This is why the genealogy of Jesus is mentioned in Matthew 1:1-17. And this genealogy of Joseph was to keep and protect Mary from being killed and ultimately, again, Jesus.

CHAPTER: Sex

VERSION: Sex—Sex—Sex

“I AM GOD...
MAY THE FRUITFULNESS OF CHRIST JESUS AND MY WORD BE A BLESSING TO YOU ALL.”

Mark my words...

Jesus. Jesus had a way about Him when it came to a “sex” life. His way was perfect, righteous, and good. It is the way and the only way.

After investigation, introspection, and experience, it displeases me to report 99.9% of all human beings are living an adulterous lifestyle concerning human sexuality. And the greatest devilish deception of all is the teaching I would most like to focus on. It begins like this...

On that day in the garden, God commanded man to be fruitful and multiply. While Adam and Eve, the father and mother of all mankind, are considered God’s first married couple, and the parents of us all...God did not instruct Adam and Eve to have “sex.” God commanded the parents of us all—“To be fruitful and multiply.” Of course, this conception could not be accomplished without intercourse. Yet, it would later be fallen man that would call this action, the “act”: “sexual,” or “sexual intercourse.”

Now, let me elaborate. God did no way mention all the other “acts” man calls or finds “sexual.” They are unnecessary for conceiving a child. And anything apart from the command of God is a sin. God knows Jesus never acted this way. So, human beings committing all means of sexual behavior, apart from marriage, are sinful without a doubt. Yet, of course, The Master, Himself, was never married. Jesus has asked us to be married to Him. Yes, He did find provision for man and woman to be united, as one, as his disciples would later teach. (As well, the Apostle Paul spoke of carrying out one’s “duty” to one’s spouse. “Where in the world does this mean ‘sex’?” The “duty” is to “be fruitful and multiply,” as it is to love one another enough to die for one another. Nevertheless, there is a radical deception occurring among married couples today and there is an equally radical truth...

“Sex,” more appropriately, intercourse, was not given for “pleasure!” While most of fleshly humankind finds it pleasurable—Jesus never had it or condoned it. Jesus, as The Creator of the human race, did not need intercourse to reproduce, nor did He need intercourse to even be formed a man Himself. And the greatest fleshly, demonic deception of all is this paraphrase from most of today’s misguided teachers: “Sex is a gift from God...”

Let it be known...the gift from God is to be blessed to follow His commandment and re-create humankind. And if there is any mortal, fleshly “pleasure,” or gratification—that moment of orgasm, that “sexual feeling” people have is the most perverted of God’s goodness. Read me well; the physical feeling involved in orgasm should be looked upon as the bodily, reward for consummating the birthing or reproductive command. There is no godly reason or command to have “sex” apart from this will of God. Moreover, the greatest “gift” or blessing is to have followed the command of The Father and served Him to re-create the human race!

THE PROPERTY...

Matthew 12:25

Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand.

Mark 3:25

If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

THE POSSESSIONS...

Luke 12

THE PARABLE OF THE RICH FOOL

¹³Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

¹⁴Jesus replied, "Man, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter between you?"

¹⁵Then he said to them, "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."

THE PLAYERS...

Deuteronomy 21

RIGHTS OF A FIRST-BORN SON

Moses said to Israel:

¹⁵⁻¹⁷ Suppose a man has two wives and loves one more than the other. The first son of either wife is the man's first-born son, even if the boy's mother is the wife the man doesn't love. Later, when the man is near death and is dividing up his property, he must give a double share to his first-born son, simply because he was the first to be born.

THE PLAN...

Micah 2

PUNISHMENT FOR THOSE WHO ABUSE THEIR POWER

¹ Doomed! You're doomed! At night you lie in bed, making evil plans. And when morning comes, you do what you've planned because you have the power. ² You grab any field or house that you want; you cheat families out of homes and land. ³ But here is what the LORD says: "I am planning trouble for you. Your necks will be caught in a noose, and you will be disgraced in this time of disaster." ⁴ When that happens, this sorrowful song will be sung about you: "Ruined! Completely ruined! The LORD has taken our land and given it to traitors." ^[1] ⁵ And so you will never again own property among the LORD's people. ⁶"Enough of your preaching!" That's what you tell me. "We won't be disgraced, so stop preaching!" ⁷Descendants of Jacob, is it right for you to claim that the LORD did what he did because he was angry? Doesn't he always bless those who do right? ⁸My people, you have even stolen clothes right off the backs of your unsuspecting soldiers returning home from battle. ⁹You take over lovely homes that belong to the women of my nation. Then you cheat their children out of the inheritance that comes from the LORD. ¹² ¹⁰Get out of here, you crooks! You'll find no rest here. You're not fit to belong to the LORD's people, and you will be destroyed. ¹³ ¹¹The only prophet you want is a liar who will say, "Drink and get drunk!"

THE PRISONER...

Matthew 5:25

Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison.

THE PAYOFF...

Numbers 33

⁵³you shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land and dwell in it, for I have given you the land to possess. ⁵⁴And you shall divide the land by lot as an inheritance among your families; to the larger you shall give a larger inheritance, and to the smaller you shall give a smaller inheritance; there everyone's inheritance shall be whatever falls to him by lot. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your fathers. ⁵⁵But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it shall be that those whom you let remain shall be irritants in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they shall harass you in the land where you dwell.

Jesus loves you and died for you...and so would I. If this writing means losing communication, and the sharing of my life with you on this earth, in the fleeting time that remains—than so be it. I will choose to honor my Father above and my father below.

Happy Anniversary of the day of your birth, I love you, your #1 son,

Matthew 12:43-45

An Unclean Spirit Returns

⁴³"When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none. ⁴⁴Then he says, "I will return to my house from which I came.' And when he comes, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. ⁴⁵Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first. So shall it also be with this wicked generation."

Mark my words...

This records that spirit possession, mind you; both good [The Holy Spirit] and evil [satanic demons], is more of an ever-changing condition than it is a permanent state-of-being. This, again, goes to prove that there is no eternal security apart from the immediate, internal presence of the Holy Spirit.

As noted, [in the CHAPTER: Eternal Security, VERSION: Matthew 12:43-45], Jesus knew this all-to-well and that is why He spent so much time healing and saving those with demons.

¹⁵And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples (altogether the number of names was about a hundred and twenty), and said, ¹⁶“Men and brethren, this Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus; ¹⁷for he was numbered with us and obtained a part in this ministry.”

¹⁸(Now this man purchased a field with the wages of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his entrails gushed out.

¹⁹And it became known to all those dwelling in Jerusalem; so that field is called in their own language, Akel Dama, that is, Field of Blood.)

Acts 1:25

²⁵to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.”

Mark my words...

Judas sinned, betraying Christ. Because of his sin (Acts 1:25) and even through his remorse, Judas became demon possessed. And it was not the sin or transgression, or the lack of forgiveness from Christ, but the gateway opened by sinning against God Himself that allowed demonic spirits to invade his body that compelled and led him to commit suicide and kill himself.

CHAPTER: Spirit Possession

VERSION: Music Soothes

“I AM GOD...
SALVATION IS MUSIC TO YOUR EARS.”

1 Samuel 16:14

¹⁴ Now the Spirit of the Lord had departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord tormented him.

1 Samuel 16:23

²³ Whenever the spirit from God came upon Saul, David would take his harp and play. Then relief would come to Saul; he would feel better, and the evil spirit would leave him.

Mark my words...

A person can clearly read that spirit possession can either be holy or evil, and that the spiritual possession of a person, in this case, King Saul, can change dramatically.

In other words...

Note that the Spirit Saul had is the godly, good and Holy One: The Holy Spirit. And that is why the recording of His name is capitalized: ¹⁴ Now the Spirit of the Lord had departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord tormented him.

And the spirit that now possesses him is the satanic, evil spirit and it is not capitalized; as it is not only an evil spirit, but a nameless, demonic countless one of many of the devil and not the singular Holy Spirit which is from the Lord.

In addition, note in this verse that the spirit twice mentioned is the evil demonic one and thus is not capitalized: ²³ Whenever the spirit from God came upon Saul, David would take his harp and play. Then relief would come to Saul; he would feel better, and the evil spirit would leave him.

Also, the wording here may be misunderstood in that God does not send an evil spirit as something He created and purposely does to injure or kill; but rather the Lord allows Satan to go ahead and send the evil spirit because God is a loving, good and therefore “just” Father. And everyday on earth, so long as Satan still exists; there is a war between good and evil, and for the possession of every person’s spiritual being and soul. There always has been from the day Eve and Adam sinned and till the day a person dies.

My last words...

It has been said, “Music soothes the savage beast.” Well, in this circumstance or story, truer words could not have been spoken. Spiritual warfare for the soul is savage, and Satan the Beast is relentless, but salvation is music to one’s ears.

The Evils, Pain and Suffering of Demonic Spirits

Your Possession at Your Death

All Life is Eternal Life

God's Power Balance

All Life is Eternal Life

Spiritual Traffic on a 2-Way Street

It has been widely taught and believed...

The Holy Spirit Is a Person

One of the keys to your understanding about the Holy Spirit lies in your recognition that the Holy Spirit is not an "it"; He is a person. TRUE

Have you ever been asked, "Are you filled with the Holy Spirit? Do you have the Holy Spirit?" There is only one set of answers: yes or no. You can't have a little bit of the Holy Spirit. Either you have been filled by Him, or you haven't. TRUE

You can't have had Him once but not have Him now. Either you have Him, or you've never had Him. The error tends to come because we think of the Holy Spirit as a force, a power, an event, an experience, a manifestation. FALSE

Holy Spirited=Good
Human=Evil
Demonized=Evil

There are 3 states that a human being, in mind, body, and spirit can be in. Initially, when a human is born, they are possessed by their own human nature. It's as if their body was an empty bottle. Since the fall of man, that bottle itself is already contaminated or in a state in opposition to its Creator, God. This is usually called our "sinful human nature."

Charles Stanley gives a great illustration when he speaks of a 1-year-old baby, when put in the crib, instinctively tries to get out or when told "not to do something"; seems to naturally disobey and rebel.

The second state we can be in, which many unknowingly are: is demonized or demon possessed. If you continue to maintain a body or bottle that is corrupt or has a sinful nature, eventually Satan is allowed to dispense his demons to take over that body. In addition, if and as you continually sin, you begin to fill that body or bottle with poison. For example, let's say you commit a sin, your bottle or body may only be 1% full, but as you continue in that sin, the demons will know they have a place to continue to pour their poison. One sin, then another sin, then another, and before long your body or bottle is demon possessed. That includes the body or bottle, the poison liquid within and any air or vacuum that is contained. As well, demons are very "specialized". By that I mean, if you sin in a particular area, and you grow or develop in that sin, Satan will discharge a demon(s) of that sin. If you steal, a demon of theft will possess you. If you are addicted, it may be said you have the "demon of addiction"; and if you habitually lie, you have a "demon of deceit".

The foremost area in which Satan and his demons have a hold--and has poisoned mankind--is that which is his very nature: death and destruction. Satan is a destroyer. The evil spirit, that murderous spirit most of mankind possesses is for killing and murder. It may be self-murder [or self-destruction] or the murder and killing of other creatures. The "demon of death" is Satan himself. [Please read writing on Demonic Beings].

The third state we can be in is to be indwelt or full of The Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is as if we fill our corrupt body or bottle with water--pure, clean, refreshing water--"living water". And like a seed in the garden, that Holy Spirit that makes up our spirit can and will continue to grow and expand. The bottle itself may corrode and die in this earthly life, but it will be resurrected to a new body through our death in Christ. The liquid that fills the bottle will be the renewing of our mind, our mind and life on this earth will be full of "living water". Finally, that which remains as the vacuum or air also confined in the bottle, this completes our spirit as one with the Holy Spirit. The whole of the body, mind, and spirit, when possessed by the Holy Spirit, which makes us one with Jesus Christ, The Savior.

The error in teaching from many of the teachers today is the incorrect assumption that once you have the "Holy Spirit" you never lose the "Holy Spirit". For one, many Bible References INCLUDE BQ's instruct and prove otherwise. And secondly, it is God's very "earthly nature" [please see writing on God's Power Balance, keeping in mind that the ultimate balance is God rules eternal life and the Devil rules this earthly life, and in the end of time, the balance of power belongs to God, for God is the most powerful Being, Man, and Spirit in existence] is to be a perfectly balanced, just, and equal God: There is a Heaven and there is a Hell; there is good and there is evil. There I AM as God and there is a Devil. To that end, if you "could never lose the Holy Spirit" then it stands to reason that you could never lose a demonic spirit. If you gain or become filled with one type of spirit and can be indwelt by another--it makes sense that it goes both ways. It is a two-way street, not a one-way street. Spiritual traffic goes both ways. [Note: on earth, in this life, spiritual traffic goes both ways. But when God creates a new Heaven and new Earth, BQ then traffic will only go one-way. The one-way is God's way].

The lesson to be learned is vital to not only your earthly, but your eternal life as well [please read writing on Your Possession at Your Death, and All Life is Eternal Life]. You must be constantly aware of the state of possession your body, mind and spirit are in.

If you are in either of the two spiritually evil conditions other than being truly filled with the Holy Spirit, than only through confession, repentance, forgiveness and baptism in the Holy Spirit--and acceptance of Jesus Christ as Lord and the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ--shall you change the evil state or condition you are in.

Demonic Beings

The Devil--Demonic Spirits--Demons/Demonic or Evil Angels

[Note: Demonic spirits are present either in created beings--that includes animals and human bodies [Note: the devil himself and his demonic spirits, demons/demonic or evil angels are created beings just as humans and animals are. They are entirely different creations of mine; therefore they cannot be one in the same. Yet, let it be known: The devil himself or any one of his demons /demonic or evil angels may appear as a human or an animal. As recorded in...

Genesis 3:1--The Fall of Man--¹ Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden'?"

The truth of the matter is: no evil being can actually be a human or animal. Let it be known they may also be present around celestial bodies or plants, and may be present or attracted to a man-made, created structure or item; or they are present and at war in the heavens [Note: The evil angels or demons, are constantly at war with God's angels in "space".] The devil, demonic spirits; and demons/demonic angels are essentially "in the air", but the devil's main function for them and for prolonging their existence is for them to invade and inhabit a body [Note: The devil prolongs a demon's existence by the fact that their eternal place is in Hell and the only other beings in Hell are the human spirits of deceased human beings.]

Life=Murder, Killing and Self-Destruction; Deception; Anti-Christian or Counterfeit Christianity, False Religions, Addictions (sex, entertainment, alcohol etc.); and all that is Evil.

The Lesson to be learned is: it is Me, God, The Son, The Holy Spirit and My Angels of the Light against the demonic Spirits and the evil angels of the dark--but just as we are a team: The Father, Son, Holy Spirit--and all the Angels of Heaven--so too, the Devil works together with his forces. The Good News is: In the end, I win. BQ devil defeated

The Evils, Destruction, Pain and Suffering of Demonic Spirits

All--not some, not 99.9%, but all evil, pain and suffering is due to the Devil and his demonic spirits. Any and all conceivable illnesses, pain and sufferings, anything that affects the human body is a result of demonic possession or oppression. And it can and will be cured by losing a demon or defeating the Devil. [Note: oppression is understood as being the attack by Satan toward a body that is winning the war on possession and is not possessed by whichever demon is inflicting the pain or destruction].

Keep in mind: a demonic spirit invades the body--just as the Holy Spirit can indwell in a body.

Demonic angels, just like God's angels cannot indwell a body, but exist in the spiritual realm, or space if you will. They can, however, at times, appear as a body of life, plant life, animal life or human life.

“I AM GOD...”

1 Peter 1-3

1 Peter 1

¹Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,

To God's elect, strangers in the world, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, ²who have been chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and sprinkling by his blood:

Grace and peace be yours in abundance.

Praise to God for a Living Hope

³Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade—kept in heaven for you, ⁵who through faith are shielded by God's power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. ⁷These have come so that your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. ⁸Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, ⁹for you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

¹⁰Concerning this salvation, the prophets, who spoke of the grace that was to come to you, searched intently and with the greatest care, ¹¹trying to find out the time and circumstances to which the Spirit of Christ in them was pointing when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow. ¹²It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you, when they spoke of the things that have now been told you by those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even angels long to look into these things.

Be Holy

¹³Therefore, prepare your minds for action; be self-controlled; set your hope fully on the grace to be given you when Jesus Christ is revealed. ¹⁴As obedient children, do not conform to the evil desires you had when you lived in ignorance. ¹⁵But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do; ¹⁶for it is written: "Be holy, because I am holy."

¹⁷Since you call on a Father who judges each man's work impartially, live your lives as strangers here in reverent fear. ¹⁸For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed from the empty way of life handed down to you from your forefathers, ¹⁹but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect. ²⁰He was chosen before the creation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for your sake. ²¹Through him you believe in God, who raised him from the dead and glorified him, and so your faith and hope are in God.

²²Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere love for your brothers, love one another deeply, from the heart. ²³For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God. ²⁴For,
"All men are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field;
the grass withers and the flowers fall,
²⁵but the word of the Lord stands forever." And this is the word that was preached to you.

1 Peter 2

¹Therefore, rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander of every kind. ²Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation, ³now that you have tasted that the Lord is good.

The Living Stone and a Chosen People

⁴As you come to him, the living Stone—rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him— ⁵you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. ⁶For in Scripture it says:

"See, I lay a stone in Zion, a chosen and precious cornerstone, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame." ⁷Now to you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe,
"The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone," ⁸and,
"A stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall." They stumble because they disobey the message—which is also what they were destined for.

⁹But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. ¹⁰Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

¹¹Dear friends, I urge you, as aliens and strangers in the world, to abstain from sinful desires, which war against your soul. ¹²Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us.

Submission to Rulers and Masters

¹³Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every authority instituted among men: whether to the king, as the supreme authority, ¹⁴or to governors, who are sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to commend those who do right. ¹⁵For it is God's will that by doing good you should silence the ignorant talk of foolish men. ¹⁶Live as free men, but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil; live as servants of God. ¹⁷Show proper respect to everyone: Love the brotherhood of believers, fear God, honor the king.

¹⁸Slaves, submit yourselves to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and considerate, but also to those who are harsh. ¹⁹For it is commendable if a man bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because he is conscious of God. ²⁰But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God. ²¹To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.

²²"He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth." ²³When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly. ²⁴He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. ²⁵For you were like sheep going astray, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

1 Peter 3

Wives and Husbands

¹Wives, in the same way be submissive to your husbands so that, if any of them do not believe the word, they may be won over without words by the behavior of their wives, ²when they see the purity and reverence of your lives. ³Your beauty should not come from outward adornment, such as braided hair and the wearing of gold jewelry and fine clothes. ⁴Instead, it should be that of your inner self, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth in God's sight. ⁵For this is the way the holy women of the past who put their hope in God used to make themselves beautiful. They were submissive to their own husbands, ⁶like Sarah, who obeyed Abraham and called him her master. You are her daughters if you do what is right and do not give way to fear.

⁷Husbands, in the same way be considerate as you live with your wives, and treat them with respect as the weaker partner and as heirs with you of the gracious gift of life, so that nothing will hinder your prayers.

Suffering for Doing Good

⁸Finally, all of you, live in harmony with one another; be sympathetic, love as brothers, be compassionate and humble. ⁹Do not repay evil with evil or insult with insult, but with blessing, because to this you were called so that you may inherit a blessing. ¹⁰For,

"Whoever would love life and see good days must keep his tongue from evil and his lips from deceitful speech.

¹¹He must turn from evil and do good;
he must seek peace and pursue it.

¹²For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their prayer, but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."

¹³Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good? ¹⁴But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. "Do not fear what they fear; do not be frightened." ¹⁵But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, ¹⁶keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed of their slander. ¹⁷It is better, if it is God's will, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil. ¹⁸For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive by the Spirit, ¹⁹through whom also he went and preached to the spirits in prison ²⁰who disobeyed long ago when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built. In it only a few people, eight in all, were saved through water, ²¹and this water symbolizes baptism that now saves you also—not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a good conscience toward God. It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ²²who has gone into heaven and is at God's right hand—with angels, authorities and powers in submission to him.

“I AM GOD...”

Mark my words...

Old Testament—First Promise

An Old Testament God, under the Old Covenant, may have taken the side of killers in the name of war...but that was for one reason and one reason only—so that 1 human being and her husband could stay alive: Mary and Joseph, the parents of God’s Son. God needed one female body for God Himself, in the person of Christ, to enter the earth through the body and virgin birth of Mary. In a sinful world, full of death and destruction, let me see you keep one single, mortal body alive for you to bring God’s Son to life.

In other words...

New Testament—Final Promise

Thank Jesus, after His birth, death, and resurrection; God has given us a New Covenant a New Testament and that is the life of Jesus Christ. What would Jesus do? Would Jesus murder, kill, or defend Himself against anybody, any single soul on earth? No! God forbid! Jesus died for you, Adam and Eve, Moses, Abraham, Noah, Mary and Joseph, the disciples, Pontius Pilate, the Caesar’s, Alexander the Great, Mussolini, Hitler, Saddam Hussein, Osama bin Laden, George Bush, Barack Obama, Reverend Billy Graham, the Pope, the False Prophet, the Antichrist and me!

My last words...

So now, let me ask you again...what and who do you believe? Rest assured, your answer will have eternal life and death consequences.

"I AM GOD... 'CHRISTIAN?'"

Mark my words...

A non-Christian does not follow Jesus Christ; and does not follow Jesus Christ into Heaven.

A "Christian" or "Born-Again" Christian believes they follow Jesus Christ and will follow Him into Heaven.

Now, "war and peace"; "attack and defense"; "murder and killing" are on the minds of all men. Truth be told, "war and peace"; "attack and defense"; "murder and killing" and "life and death" are also on the mind of Christ. So, ask yourself a question: "What would Jesus do?"

Remember: Jesus Christ, Himself, never, never, never killed or murdered a life in "defense" or attack. He never...

...did.

...said to...or asked any disciple to do so.

...defended or supported anyone who did.

As a matter of fact: He did the opposite. He loved the life of the mankind [He created] enough to lay His life down.

So, why are so many "Christians," and "Born Again" Christians in support of the killing and murder in "The War against Terrorism?"

*Now, in the Bible (Luke 11:23), Jesus said..."He who is not with Me is against Me"—"...against Me."

Did you know? The dictionary defines "Anti-" as: opposed to—or against.

So, “against Christ” is defined as Anti-Christ.

Now, in the Bible (1 John 2:22), the apostle said... “Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.”

No lie... Anyone who is a “non-Christian”; or any “Christian” who kills or murders a life in “defense” or attack—now, is defined as “antichrist.”

Now you know why so many “Christians,” and “Born Again” Christians are in support of “The War against Terrorism.”

Truth be told... “Anti-Terrorist” is identical to Anti-Christ.

Now you know... don’t be deceived. Believe on The Lord Jesus Christ. Don’t be a non-Christian, “Christian” or a “Born-Again” Christian. The true followers of Jesus Christ are truly Christians.

In other words...

Sound unrealistic? “God willing”... so is “love thy neighbor” when you read about it.
Sound unbelievable? “Thank God”... so is the death and life of Jesus... when you hear about it.
Sound unimaginable? “God only knows”... so is Heaven... when you think about it.

Soldiers, from any country or fighting any battle, are either deceived or hateful. At their heart, they have been lied to and deceived into believing there is a reason for war; or, at their core, they truly hate their opponent or fellow man.

The truth of the matter is: either way, from God’s viewpoint the combatants are evil vs. evil—and the truth is only evil can and will win. The fact is: God is the God of love, goodness and peace; when God fights a battle or war against evil—He fights it with love, goodness and peace—and in any war, it is the will of God that love, goodness and peace prevail.

God created, created man to live; not to die. The devil brought death into the world. And whoever believes in killing, whether offensively or defensively, is following Satan. Period.

CHAPTER: War
VERSION: Criminal and Sinner

†

“I AM GOD...”

Luke 23:32-43

³²There were also two others, criminals, led with Him to be put to death.
³³And when they had come to the place called Calvary, there they crucified Him, and the criminals, one on the right hand and the other on the left. ³⁴Then Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do.”

And they divided His garments and cast lots. ³⁵And the people stood looking on. But even the rulers with them sneered, saying, “He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ, the chosen of God.”

³⁶The soldiers also mocked Him, coming and offering Him sour wine, ³⁷and saying, “If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself.”

³⁸And an inscription also was written over Him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew:

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

³⁹Then one of the criminals who were hanged blasphemed Him, saying, “If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us.”

⁴⁰But the other, answering, rebuked him, saying, “Do you not even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? ⁴¹And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this Man has done nothing wrong.” ⁴²Then he said to Jesus, “Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom.”

⁴³And Jesus said to him, “Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise.”

Mark my words...

The one criminal says, "Do you not even fear God..." For this man knew that he too, like Jesus and the other criminal was going to die. And that the eternal decision on where his soul would be, in Heaven or Hell, came down to these final breaths in this man's life. Tragically, this man believed that his sins and crime would condemn to Hell. He also clearly believed that Jesus was not a sinner, that Jesus was innocent and not deserving of death. This man then took the two final steps to his eternal place by admitting his guilt and accepting the fact that he was a criminal sinner. Whereby, he was basically asking Jesus to forgive him of his sin. The truth of the matter was, that Jesus knew and offered the forgiveness of this man's sin and that no sin or sinner was deserving of condemnation, but by simply asking forgiveness, could be made to be a saint in the eyes of God.

In other words...

Jesus's near final words on the cross would be "Forgive them Father, they know not what they do."

My last words...

Truth be told, and in addition to the forgiveness from sins that all of mankind needs; by identifying and accepting Jesus as The Man, later testified to by calling him "Lord" and recognizing that Jesus was God; this criminal and sinner knew who was holding the power of glory and keys to The Kingdom. Triumphantly, for his confession and acceptance, he was promised the reward of Heaven and an eternal life with The God of Heaven, Jesus Christ.

In the synagogue, Jesus read from the Scriptures the words of the prophet Isaiah. And it was, He, Jesus, who gave these words to the prophet many, many years before Jesus came to the earth as a human being Himself. It was Jesus who said: “I came to set the captives free.”

In other words...

He did not say He came to kill the criminal. In this case, “captives” may equate to those who are in bondage, imprisoned, and hell bound.

Blair denies his faith in Jesus. The problem for both leaders is that not only do they represent a nation with a separation of Church and state—but they [especially the US] view other nations that way.

For instance, instead of their desire to set Iraqi people free—and kill and war against the “state” or military in Iraq—they ought to honor their faith and seek to truly set Iraqi people and set Saddam Hussein free with the truth of who Jesus Christ is.

To their credit—these Middle Eastern nations better let the religious beliefs of their people guide their governments. Whereby, the US and Great Britain rank and treat democracy and government higher than God. Yes, Islam is a false religion, but at least its people recognize this is a spiritual war. My heart goes out, and I know Jesus is willing to forgive—both these mistaken and deceived nations.

Continued spiritual proof that God is more so on Iraq’s side—Is that the coalition forces are losing more troops by their own accidents, friendly fire, and supernatural circumstances...like a sandstorm...than lives taken by direct warring and killing by Iraqi troops. And further spiritual proof exists in the fact that God is against, and Satan is ruling in the coalition, because still higher numbers of Iraqi troops are getting killed by direct war actions by attacking coalition forces. And a third point...how many Iraqis are surrendering because perhaps they’ve had a change of heart? There is 50,000 or so in their troops and I’m certain some of the 4,000 who’ve surrendered may have repented and confessed to leading to a peaceful change of heart. The coalition forces number 250,000 and I have not heard one single report about a single, not one of them, surrendering. But, lastly, and most importantly; let it be known—God is against all war and killing—directly or indirectly, naturally or supernaturally.

If Saddam Hussein has been a sinful ruler—how many people do you think his government has killed compared to the murders in his nation with all our victims of abortions, capital punishment, gang warfare, homicides, gluttony leading to heart attacks, drinking and drug-related deaths, animal slaughters, and first and foremost all the multitudes of false religions and gods the people of this country worship and serve?

Subject: Soldiers--Salvation Army

Soldiers and their battling nations are either deceived or hateful. There is NEVER a reason to be a soldier at war. In all cases, the battle is between evil versus evil--and in that war, evil will always win.

Please refer to My commands in this battle: And this in a day when My chosen people knew not the grace, love and peace of My only begotten Son, Jesus.

Joshua 6

The Destruction of Jericho

The Fall of Jericho

1 Now Jericho was securely shut up because of the children of Israel; none went out, and none came in. 2 And the LORD said to Joshua: "See! I have given Jericho into your hand, its king, and the mighty men of valor. 3 You shall march around the city, all you men of war; you shall go all around the city once. This you shall do six days. 4 And seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark. But the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets. 5 It shall come to pass, when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, that all the people shall shout with a great shout; then the wall of the city will fall down flat. And the people shall go up every man straight before him."

6Then Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD." 7And he said to the people, "Proceed, and march around the city, and let him who is armed advance before the ark of the LORD." 8So it was, when Joshua had spoken to the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the LORD advanced and blew the trumpets, and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. 9The armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard came after the ark, while the priests continued blowing the trumpets. 10Now Joshua had commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout or make any noise with your voice, nor shall a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I say to you, "Shout!" Then you shall shout." 11So he had the ark of the LORD circle the city, going around it once. Then they came into the camp and lodged in the camp. 12And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. 13Then seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually and blew with the trumpets. And the armed men went before them. But the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while the priests continued blowing the trumpets. 14And the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp. So they did six days. 15But it came to pass on the seventh day that they rose early, about the dawning of the day, and marched around the city seven times in the same manner. On that day only they marched around the city seven times. 16And the seventh time it happened, when the priests blew the trumpets, that Joshua said to the people: "Shout, for the LORD has given you the city! 17Now the city shall be doomed by the LORD to destruction, it and all who are in it. Only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. 18And you, by all means abstain from the accursed things, lest you become accursed when you take of the accursed things, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it. 19But all the silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are consecrated to the LORD; they shall come into the treasury of the LORD."

20So the people shouted when the priests blew the trumpets. And it happened when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat. Then the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. 21And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword.

22But Joshua had said to the two men who had spied out the country, "Go into the harlot's house, and from there bring out the woman and all that she has, as you swore to her." 23And the young men who had been spies went in and brought out Rahab, her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had. So they brought out all her relatives and left them outside the camp of Israel. 24But they burned the city and all that was in it with fire. Only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD. 25And Joshua spared Rahab the harlot, her father's household, and all that she had. So she dwells in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26Then Joshua charged them at that time, saying, "Cursed be the man before the LORD who rises up and builds this city Jericho; he shall lay its foundation with his firstborn, and with his youngest he shall set up its gates."

27So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout all the country.

The only way for a soldier to go to war is in the way of a salvation army. Rather than go in with the evil attitude of "kill or be killed," or "kill the enemy" The way God would wage war, would be to use "prayer warriors". If ever a nation, in resorting to using soldiers should NEVER used armed soldiers.

A hero is not anyone who kills or dies in a battle. A hero is one who does not choose to kill. And the greatest of heroes is the martyr who battles with no weapon in hand, but for love and peace.

For example, in the recent US wars against the nations of the Middle East, the only Christ-like way to wage a war is to send troops, unarmed, into another country, hostile or otherwise to share the news of peace and the love God has for them. And even if you are not entering into battle to share the Good News of salvation, but to share a national doctrine; truthfully, so say

I, the Lord God, keep marching until you reach the peoples, leaders, governments, or head of state. And if soldiers fall along the way, then those soldiers are victorious heroes.

The United States itself has the world's foremost army; the only godly way to win a war is to go unarmed. And if capturing an "enemy" country's leader, toppling a regime, or taking over a nation is the goal, then this is the only Christian way to do it. In this way, God will go to battle with you. He will protect you and empower you to victory. If a person or nation goes to war, for whatever reason, and in anyway or means takes the life of another person, that soldier or nation has disobeyed Me and has committed a sin--and it may be a mortal sin.

Life and killing/ War

There is not a person alive—not one—who, when you get to the heart or core of it, will tell you they war for any reason other than:

- anger
- hatred
- following the leader or duty
- fear
- vengeance
- injustice
- greed
- covetousness
- self-preservation or self-defense
- evil enjoyment

or...they will incorrectly tell you it is for:

- self-righteousness
- and to protect others

NOTE: if you read any of these reasons, alone, apart from the question, you will see none of these are a characteristic of the person of life of Jesus Christ.

Q: How can I love, or forgive, or even serve to save Saddam Hussein; especially since I don’t personally know the man?

RESULT: Not knowing him personally would make it difficult for any of these. More so even if you did “know the man” it is still difficult [as all these points are for all men concerning all men] for me to do those things or feel that way.

The key then, is to personally get to know Jesus Christ. Not only is the Lord the person we can all “get to know” best—The Lord Jesus is the only whom we can do and feel these things toward. And in our doing so directly toward Him, it reflects back on the way we act and feel in relation to others.

Killing the “Innocent”

“Forgive them Father; they know not what they do.” These were Jesus’ last words. He was saying, forgive them Father they are doing unrighteous in killing an innocent man. He was thinking and saying this as a man. At the same time, being God, Jesus was able overcome this sin of mans and be raised or resurrected to life again, and then to eternal life with the Father.

SIDE NOTE: Perhaps this is what happens to the “innocent” people who don’t hear about Jesus. Although, I rather believe, all will hear about Him in Spirit if not in Word, by the time of their judgment.

‡Love

Can include Paul’s description of love and/or Jesus 2 commands and “lay down one’s life”

Jesus spoke about loving one another. There are only two ways to develop this love: the love needed to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. It is so difficult to love people the way we are sinful and evil. Think about how a hateful, mean or angry person makes us feel...it’s so difficult to love them. But Jesus tells us we need to. Now the only way to do this is through Christ. His love in us is the love we can have for another. But there is a step to get there—the only step that can empower us to love a person the way Jesus does and instructs: is to love life...Life covers [includes] all people. The evil reason, apart from Christ, we don’t love each other is because we don’t value or love life. If we were to love life—the way God does—is to love life. For Jesus said: I am the way, the truth, and the life.

Self-destruction vs. dying in defense of the Gospel

Satan, the devil is all about self and death and the goal of Satan is death and death to self, begins with self-destruction and ends with suicide—All death, on earth, apart from Christ—is suicide.

-All but one of the disciples was crucified

-We need to follow 5 Principles

1. God so loved the world [John 3:16]
2. God is love [1 John 4:16]
3. There shall be no other Gods—therefore no other love—love God with all your heart [John 15:12-17]
4. Love thy neighbor. [Matt.22:37-38]
5. There is no greater love than to give up our life for another [John 15:13]

-Without the acceptance of Jesus

-However without the born-again experience

-the indwelling of the Holy Spirit

-Baptism

-Without these a person will be lost and may die a good death, but not a holy death

-secondly, for let's say Islam, no one, who truly has Christ in their heart, can murder. There is no “Holy” War. You can never take another life. And there is never a Christ-like excuse for doing so. Jesus never taught His disciples to take a life for “His sake”.

John 10:11

John 15:13

John 3:16 John, Chapter 3, very good

Remember: The only reason for murder or war in the Old Testament, was because God had to “play by the world’s rules” in which Satan is the leader of the world [] and whereby, death and murder are in the world]. And the only reason for any murder in the Old Testament—including the “just” murders by the likes of David and or other godly greats—was to keep, essentially, Jesus’ birth mother, Mary, alive....In fact, to keep the whole genealogical line of David from Adam and [beginning and ending] with Jesus. The entire purpose of God was to keep a human body or life form alive to send Jesus and allow Him to be born a man. This is why the genealogy of Jesus is mentioned in Matthew 1:1-17. And this genealogy of Joseph was to keep and protect Mary from being killed and ultimately, again, Jesus.

‡“Christians”

A non-Christian does not follow Jesus Christ. And does not follow Jesus Christ into Heaven.

A “Christian” or “Born-Again” Christian believes they follow Jesus Christ and will follow Him into Heaven.

Now, “war and peace”; “attack and defense”; “murder and killing” are on the minds of all men.

Truth be told, “war and peace”; “attack and defense”; “murder and killing” and “life and death” are also on the mind of Christ. So, ask yourself a question: “What would Jesus do?”

Remember: Jesus Christ, Himself, never, never, never killed or murdered a life in “defense” or attack. He never...

Did...

Said to...or asked any disciple to...

Or, defended or supported anyone who did...

As a matter of fact: He did the opposite. He loved the life of the mankind (He created) enough to lay His life down.

So, why are so many “Christians,” and “Born Again” Christians in support of the killing and murder in “The war against terrorism”?

Now, in the Bible (Luke 11:23), Jesus said... “He who is not with Me is against Me.”

“...against Me.”

Did you know? The dictionary defines “Anti-” as: opposed to...or against.

So “against Christ” is defined as Anti-Christ.

Now, in the Bible (1 John 2:22), the apostle said... “Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.”

No lie... Anyone who is a “non-Christian,” or any “Christian” who kills or murders a life in “defense” or attack. Now, is defined as “Antichrist.”

Now you know why so many “Christians,” and “Born Again” Christians are in support of “The war against terrorism.”

Truth be told... “Anti-Terrorist” is identical to Anti-Christ.

Now you know...don’t be deceived. Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. Don’t be a non-Christian, “Christian” or a “Born-Again” Christian. The true followers of Jesus Christ are Jesus Christians.

Sound unrealistic? God willing... so is “...love thy neighbor...” when you read about it.

Sound unbelievable? Thank God... so is the death and life of Jesus...when you hear about it.

Sound unimaginable? God only knows... so is Heaven...when you think about it.

“I AM GOD...”

The Universal Church of Angels, Life, and God

Military Service and War

We believe that Christians and Jesus Christians are forbidden by the commandments of God from taking human life directly or indirectly and that bearing arms is contrary to this fundamental belief. Therefore, we believe that Christians and Jesus Christians should not voluntarily become engaged in military service. If they are involuntarily engaged in military service, we believe they should refuse conscientiously to bear arms and, to the extent possible, refuse to come under military authority (Exodus 20:13; Matthew 5:21-22; 1 Corinthians 7:21-23; Acts 5:29).

The way of God is the way of love, sacrifice and sharing (Romans 12:1, 10). The teaching of God for an individual regarding the taking of human life is summed up in the Sixth Commandment, which says, "You shall not murder" (Exodus 20:13). Christ repeated a great principle when He said, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Matthew 22:39). Paul said, "Love does no harm to a neighbor" (Romans 13:10).

Jesus stated, "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, then would My servants fight . . ." (John 18:36). The spiritual Israel of God is no longer composed of the 12 physical tribes. People from all nations have been grafted into spiritual Israel (Romans 9:1-8) and are a part of the spiritual Body of Christ (Romans 2:25-29). As Christians, we have come out of darkness, from the power of Satan to the power of the Kingdom of God (Acts 26:28; Colossians 1:11-13).

We now have our citizenship in heaven (Philippians 3:20). We are to emulate the actions of Jesus (1 Peter 4:1, 13-16). Christ did not respond in kind when He was reviled, and He did not threaten when He suffered. He suffered for doing good and endured suffering patiently because of His desire to please God (1 Peter 2:19-24). He taught that to be angry with our brother can result in sin (Matthew 5:21-22). We are to love our enemies and do good to those who hate us (verses 43-44). We are not to avenge ourselves; vengeance belongs to God (Romans 12:19). Our warfare as Christians is in the spiritual arena (Ephesians 6:10-20). We do not war against flesh (2 Corinthians 10:3), but against wicked spirits in high places (Ephesians 6:12). We are to be good spiritual soldiers of Jesus Christ (2 Timothy 2:3-4). This is our calling in life. As such, a Christian must at times face a conflict between man's laws and the laws of Almighty God. When that happens, the Christian must obey the laws of God (Acts 5:29; 1 Peter 2:13-14).

In most countries, the military has its own rules and regulations. A person in the military is not free to decide what he or she can do. The wisest course of action is to refrain from putting oneself in such a position, since a person in the military is subject to its authority and may be called upon to take human life. The apostle Paul tells us not to become slaves of men (1 Corinthians 7:23).

Therefore, the Universal Church of Angels, Life and God supports the conscientious objection of its members toward military service and war.

LETTERS—Alcohol Teaching

God bless you men, that is the first time I've ever heard broadcast an accurate teaching on alcohol.

Wine is a “mocker.” It is also a deceiver...that is the first Scripture you noted...remember that...Because with regard to that French study...don't worry about the factual points...it's a lie. Period. Wine, fermented, does not help heart disease. It helps kill the brain cells to make a person deaden the pain. And men, I am sure you know heart disease is the sinful work of Satan, and not by the Lord's design. Only the devil would have people believe sinfulness or sin can heal sin. Furthermore, the French are “big wine drinkers” of course they are going to “promote” its use. If you follow the evil money trail, that type of deception paves the way.

Finally, one note on the Miracle at Cana: you nailed it. Just remember, God and Jesus created the Physical Universe and its principles. And just like God, Himself, these do not change. And the main ingredient in the chemical process of wine fermentation is: time. So to speak, an “instant” miracle of turning water into wine would need time for that drink to become fermented and alcoholic.

Thank you for your wisdom and teaching. If I may serve you in any way, please let me know.

BOOK: I & II NOTES

LETTERS—A Letter for Dad and Dysfunctional Families

Dad...here is a set of writings that I sent to my Aunt Helen regarding some questions and thoughts she had about my situation with my “family” and the chance I am willing to take in “abandoning” them...I give it to you as one present for my birthday...I hope it blesses you, and I send it with love in my heart, despite our often-times “strained” relationship.

When following God, means to “not follow” or “disown” your “parents” and “family”...

²⁸Peter said to him, "We have left everything to follow you!"

²⁹"I tell you the truth," Jesus replied, "no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for me and the gospel ³⁰will fail to receive a hundred times as much in this present age (homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields—and with them, persecutions) and in the age to come, eternal life. ³¹But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

Now, here are 4 Scriptures and points in Jesus' life, where as He grows more spiritual and closer to God, He “disowns” His “family”...Here He is teaching His “parents and family” that the closer you get to God, odds are you are going to have to distance your “unwise, unfaithful, and God-less” family, even “parents.” Note where the parents “did not understand” at the time and felt they were being “mistreated”; but then Jesus briefly went back to being Mary’s boy, but Mary knew in her heart that Jesus was right to do what He was doing and that He would one day have to “disown” her as a mother.

The Boy Jesus at the Temple

⁴¹Every year his parents went to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover.

⁴²When he was twelve years old, they went up to the Feast, according to the custom. ⁴³After the Feast was over, while his parents were returning home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but they were unaware of it. ⁴⁴Thinking he was in their company, they traveled on for a day.

Then they began looking for him among their relatives and friends.

⁴⁵When they did not find him, they went back to Jerusalem to look for him. ⁴⁶After three days they found him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.

⁴⁷Everyone who heard him was amazed at his understanding and his answers. ⁴⁸When his parents saw him, they were astonished. His mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for you."

⁴⁹"Why were you searching for me?" he asked. "Didn't you know I had to be in my Father's house?" ⁵⁰But they did not understand what he was saying to them.

⁵¹Then he went down to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. But his mother treasured all these things in her heart. ⁵²And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

And now here is more about "disowning" His mother (family)--look, He calls her "woman" and not "mother or mom"; and this Scripture is symbolic: water (Jesus in human form) turning into "wine" or blood, and that speaks of Him being the Son of God and His coming crucifixion. The real meaning of His first miracle, think, why on earth would His first miracle be to get people drunk at a wedding? And by the way, the "wine" was actually juice, not alcoholic wine, wine needs to ferment, in an instant it had no time to do so, and Jesus would never, ever use His first miracle to get people drunk! The truth is: the "wedding" is the marriage to God and Jesus the bridegroom and this is what must become of each human being, they go from "water" to "wine or blood."

Jesus Changes Water to Wine

¹On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, ²and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. ³When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine."

⁴"Dear woman, why do you involve me?" Jesus replied, "My time has not yet come."

⁵His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

And here is the one, where I instructed, Jesus really "disowns" His own mother and defines His family...

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

⁴⁶While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. ⁴⁷Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." [g]

⁴⁸He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?"

⁴⁹Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. ⁵⁰For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

And lastly...He not only was giving John and His mother up for adoption of each other; but He finally "denies" His mother as He comes to the brink of His death and meeting His heavenly Father. He was acknowledging and teaching that His "mother" was simply the body of a human woman, by which He became human--but that He was really God's Son, a Son without an earthly mother and one soon to become Spirit (the Holy Spirit). Personally, for me, this teaches that none of us really has parents (in part, this is how I learned to live through and even delight in my mother's death and how I can live with a father's some time persecution, disrespect and misunderstanding of me).

²⁵Near the cross of Jesus stood his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶When Jesus saw his mother there, and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Dear woman, here is your son," ²⁷and to the disciple, "Here is your mother." From that time on, this disciple took her into his home.

Dad, please pass this on to every single family you know, it will richly bless them in times of "dysfunction," "separation," and "miscommunication."

Lastly, and in closing, honestly, a couple of weeks ago, you said, "you loved me so much as your son." I never recall you ever sounding so heartfelt for no other reason than I believe you truly felt and meant it. In fact, I thought you or I might die in the next moment after I heard it. It really brought me to tears, not only was it the godliest I have ever heard you in my entire life; it really made me feel that I did something to honor both my fathers. On this my 45th birthday, the only thing I can think to give you, is that which you have given me, the genetic and learned talent to speak, and think, and write... "to that end," (as you often say and have penned yourself), I regret I cannot give you more...than to give you this present, this one sentence...

Love, "your son,"
