MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren:

Visiting other lodges in our district and beyond, gives me pause to think about how they run their lodges. They each have their own wav performing the ritual and it's all good. They are in sync with each other and know how their lodge does their work. They come together to complete the task at hand, then enjoy each other's company and companionship. You can feel that brotherly love in every lodge and how it is extended to welcome every visitor. It's good to visit other lodges knowing you are welcome and in good company. It's great to be a Freemason! On a related subject, I also visited a Jobie's meeting. After some turmoil, Bethel #29 is restructuring and rebuilding. They do not, at present, have an Honoured Queen but have one in waiting. Their meetings are every 2nd Tue. at 7:00 p.m. If any Bro. would like to attend, they really would appreciate your support. Well the Christmas season is truly upon us. We inundated with advertising and marketing of how great a Christmas this will be if you have one of these gadgets under the tree; or one of these trinkets to show how much you care for a loved-one. I prefer to celebrate it as a time for family and friends to get together to make memories and reflect on past ones. Let us not forget the reason for Christmas itself:

A celebration of the birth of a saviour for those of Christian faith. I wish you all a very Merry Christmas and all the best in the new year. See you at the Christmas dinner

Fraternally, WM., Rob Mason
