MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren:

Burns Night was, once again, a great night. The Lodge room was filled, with extra chairs needed to be brought in. From receiving the Grand Master and the Northern Lights Degree Team, to the EA degree, to the pomp and ceremony of piping in and addressing the haggis, the fellowship amongst the brethren, who came from far and wide, made it a truly glorious event. I wish to thank all the brethren of Discovery Lodge, and their Ladies, who came together and assisted with arrangements, the setup. preparation, execution, and clean-up of this event.

It's time again for Hiram #14 to have the installation of officers, Saturday February 1st. Hiram #14 will have an open installation and although we may have our differences regarding this, as my Brothers, I will support them in their decision to perform the work of their choice and would encourage other brethren to do the same.

On February 24th, as is our long standing tradition, Discovery Lodge will confer an EA degree for Hiram #14, as a courtesy to the new officers.

Thank you, to WB Dave Wardell for sitting in the East for me on January 6th, while I was away, and to all the brethren who step up and fill in when the need arises.

Fraternally,

WM Rob Mason
