MASTER'S FORUM

Greetings Brethren:

I hope this message finds you & yours, well & comfortable during these unsettling times. W.B. Rob MacNeill assisted me at the cenotaph on Remembrance Day in laying a wreath for Discovery Lodge & pay our respects to the fallen. By request, there was not a large crowd, but it was good to see that people had not forgotten, & did come & pay their respects. The Zoom meeting on Mon. Nov. 2nd was attended by 8 brothers. There was discussion that there would be no Christmas dinner this year but we cannot ignore our widows. A meeting of the events committee was called. All agreed to remit the dues of those Brethren for whom the dues were remitted last year for the same reasons. This was our first Zoom meeting & we will do one again on Mon. Dec 7th, 7pm. Login details will be sent via email. The events committee will give each widow a small, easy-care plant along with a card from all the officers & brethren & a little bag of Christmas goodies made by the Jobies. These will be delivered by the committee just before Christmas. Arrangements will be made ahead with the recipients so that there will be minimal contact. The Christmas season is upon us & I'm sure this will be a memorable one. Traditionally a time of family gatherings & visiting friends, I expect this year will be greatly subdued. However, I believe that we should not let the spirit of Christmas be subdued, but embrace it for what it represents & look ahead for better things to come.

Merry Christmas to all,

Fraternally, Rob Mason Wor. M.
