MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren:

It's been a long time since any one has done ritual work. I go over it on occasion and find that I stumble a little and have to refer to the book for certain phrases or words. Keeping up on ritual is a good thing and I find it helps fill the present void of no craft lodge. I worry that this suspension of lodge meetings may cause some brethren to pursue other interests thus allowing their interest in the Craft to fade. I hope this will not be the case & encourage all to keep up on ritual.

With February ending and March beginning I'll be on the lookout for herring. I like to get out, off Point Holmes, in a little row boat and jig for them. Good fun and there's only a short window of opportunity. If it's good, I can get enough for bait and pickling. Yum.

Hopefully, that's it for the snow, we can now look forward to the rains. All said, it's been a pretty mild winter.

Our monthly Zoom meeting participation is rising but I can appreciate it's not Lodge. In these times we have to use the tools we have to do the best we can. I found the education piece in Feb. regarding the Baal's Bridge Square interesting. Also the inscription on the bridge is catchy and relevant; "I will strive to live with love and care, upon the level and by the square".

Stay safe!

Fraternally

Rob Mason,

Wor. Master
