MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren:

Because of the recent developments in Covid cases, we seem to be stalled at stage three of reopening plans for the province and cannot, as yet, per Grand Lodge directive, hold tyled lodge meetings. But, stage three does provide some leeway to meet with certain conditions. Currently I am having discussions on a plan to allow us to meet without breaking provincial health laws or conflicting with the wishes of Grand Lodge. A notice will be sent to all Brethren when a plan is in place.

We continue to seek out a Brother to care for the cancer van. A volunteer driver has offered to do this, for which we are truly grateful, but he is not a Brother. As we sponsor the van, it seems appropriate for a Brother to be involved in the care of it. It's presently stored at Bro. Charlie Walcot's compound and can remain there. It would not have to be kept at your residence. Please give this some consideration.

I've been in Vancouver all summer assisting an ailing friend from Campbell River. He's now home again and recovering well. I can now spend more time with lodge issues.

Please, my brothers, don't be discouraged, "that time, patience, and perseverance accomplish all things"

Fraternally,

Rob Mason, Worshipful Master

Dear Brother,

The Point Within a Circle

In recent history, Freemasonry has adopted its interpretation of this image, with the point in the center of the circle representing the individual man or Mason. The circle represents the line between our passions, vices, prejudices, and those around us. As Masons, we work each day to prevent our selfish interests from passing beyond the circle and infringing on our duty to our God and fellow man. The two perpendicular parallel lines represent the patron saints of Freemasonry: Saint John the Baptist and Saint John the Evangelist.
