MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren:

I would like to thank all those who attended the Burger & Beer fundraiser. Your contribution helped a distressed Brother in his time of need. This event was well attended and a generous amount was raised and delivered to a very appreciative Brother. Special thanks to the Officers who quickly responded in organizing this event.

On March 16, 2024, Rainbow Lodge hosted their Installation that was well attended by all district Lodges and visitors from afar, including Ken Christopherson, Deputy Grand Master Elect. Kudos must be mentioned for the exceptional lunch prepared for us. Congratulations to all the Officers of Rainbow Lodge. On March 25, we conferred a FC Degree at Hiram Lodge on Bro. Elliot Storrie. On April 15, a MM Degree will be conferred on our Lodge Bro. Tim Mitchell & Bro. Phil Mathieu of Rainbow Lodge.

It has been brought to my attention that there is a desperate need for new volunteers to assist in manning the bar at booked functions. Donating 1 or 2 nights a year by each member would ease the heavy commitment of the current dedicated few. Bar functions raise money that help keep our dues low, & pay for repair & maintenance to our building. Please contact Bro. Brian Watkins for a schedule of upcoming functions. Brethren, this past couple of weeks has been inspirational to me in reminding me of the 5 Points of Fellowship. "Foot to foot; knee to knee; breast to breast; hand over back; and cheek to cheek or mouth to ear" are the ways in which we support one another during difficult times and in the work that must be done to support our lodge and individuals. Let's keep the 5 Points of Fellowship ever in our hearts and minds.

Fraternally,
Patrick Palmer, Wor. Master

Dear Brother:

Cable Tow

A cable tow is attached to a Freemason's robe and represents a promise that he will help his Brother however much he can - as long as it's within the length of his tow rope. That's why the length of the cable tow rope is so important; it measures how capable the Brother is in terms of being able to assist his fellow Freemason.
