MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren All:

We are well into the fall session of Discovery Lodge and a new Master Mason has been raised with more candidates coming along. Our lodge is healthy! There are dedicated people, all part of our Masonic family, who give freely their time to help get things done. I thank each and every one of you. The October business meeting will start with a dinner served BEFORE LODGE OPENS. This dinner is open to all the Brethren, as well as their family members and any potential candidates or interested persons. I ask all Discovery Lodge Brethren to support this endeavour. There will be a $10 per plate charge for this dinner, please advise our Jr. Warden if you plan to attend so that he may prepare properly. Contact Dave Wardell at (caroleanddave@shaw.ca). There will certainly be some work required to do this and so any Brethren who are able, your help is welcome. We are coming close to the end of the calendar year which means your dues are payable. We have been working on some different methods to pay but in the meanwhile please be diligent. A reminder to all Life Members that your Cancer Car assessment is payable and if you are able, a donation is gratefully accepted. Grand Lodge has not forwarded any return to us this year for the Life Membership Program and this has left the Craft Lodge short of funds to pay our rent to the Temple Association. Fraternally,
Bill Rogers,
Worshipful Master
