MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren All:

The Festive Board is an integral part of the Masonic evening and our first Masonic family dinner was well received. I enjoyed the opportunity to meet our newest initiate and his wife as well as some other interested people and friends. There are several more applications for Initiation at Discovery. I encourage you to come out and meet them. We had a fine meal prepared by our JW and interesting conversations. The November meal will be a delight as well with a full course menu, which will be well worth the small charge. I would like all members of our Masonic family and friends to come out and enjoy dinner with us, served at 6:30 p.m. Please email the JW and let him know you are coming so that he is prepared for the numbers. For those of you not interested in dinner, the bar will be open and light snacks available. Darkness comes earlier in the fall and some of our Brethren who find it difficult to drive at night may not feel comfortable to get out and on that note I would encourage you all to get together and use the internet or phone to organize rides and most of all to be aware of the hazard and drive safe.

Fraternally,
Bill Rogers,

Worshipful Master
