MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren:

Spring is coming Brethren and with it a new beginning: New growth around us and warmer days with more sunshine. It's been a long winter so far with some dark times, but now we can look forward to getting out and being involved. Some of you will have made resolutions to change your lives and perhaps to get more involved with what matters to you. I wish you well in your endeavours. February includes the Installation of Officers of Hiram Lodge, which means we will again travel there to confer their first degree on Feb. 27th. This is a long standing tradition with our mother lodge: Hiram, which sponsored Discovery for our charter in 1952. This is why we share the same ritual work with them. The earliest record of this tradition that's available to me is from, "The History of Hiram Lodge No. 14", which reads; "At an Emergent meeting held February 24th, 1975. Bro. Russell Bush of Hiram Lodge and Bro. Alfred Molyneaux of Penticton Lodge were passed as Fellowcraft Masons by Wor. Bro. Clarence Fulton and his officers of Discovery Lodge #149, Campbell River. The F.C. lecture was delivered by Bro. Lee Watson, working tools presented by Bro. Keith Johnston and the charge by Bro. Neil Campbell." Brethren that would be 42 years ago! So once again we will confer a degree in Hiram and it is hoped that as many as possible from Discovery Lodge will join us. Please accept my warmest fraternal greetings.

Fraternally,
Bill Rogers,
