MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren:

As we come out of darkness to begin our Masonic year, it is with a heavy heart that we say goodbye to Bro Jack Clark: His was a presence that will truly be missed in lodge. I would like to thank our JW Rob Mason and all those who worked so hard on the garage sale this year. A job well done. Moving forward we have a very busy agenda ahead of us with an EA degree in Sept, a FC degree in Oct and a Master Mason degree in Nov. Also, several prove ups planned. Our Education Officer RWB Ed Lomax will help us dust off our Masonic memories with some refresher training as he conducts the rusty square for education at our meeting on Sept 11th. We will be holding our fist social of the year at the Coachman Pub on Sept 28th at 7pm. This is an informal get together to share a drink & some stories with friends & family. Potential new candidates are both welcome & encouraged to attend. There is no charge this is a drop-in come as you will. In closing I encourage all members to come out and support Discovery Lodge at our meetings. Our officers have been working hard to ensure that lodge will be both fun and educational this year; so please come out and show your support for your Lodge.

Rob MacNeill
