MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren:

I would like to start by saying thank you to all the brethren who have shown their support to our lodge by attending lodge again. It warms my heart to see the return of brethren old and new to our lodge room. As we move into November the tempo will not slow down. With Remembrance Day just around the corner we will observe the day, during our business meeting, by the members of the Northern Lights Degree Team doing an 'empty chair ceremony'. Our emergent meeting will see two of our FCMs being raised to the sublime degree of MM. They will be joined by another brother from Rainbow Lodge. On the lighter side our JW has planned a murder mystery and dinner scheduled for Nov 25. Tickets are $10, this is a mixed event. Again, Brethren thank you for your ongoing support to your officers and lodge.

More Information on

Murder Mystery Night

November 25, 2017

The setting is a 1920's speakeasy and costumes are encouraged. There are 8 suspects 4 men, 4 women. If you wish to be a suspect, 1 male and 4 female still open, let Bro. Rob Mason (robdoro@saywardvalley.net) know as these parts are first come first serve. If you become a suspect a bio will be emailed to you to study along with a rundown of the scenario which all attendees will receive. All attendees without a role can pick a name for themselves or use their own name and can participate in the solving of the crime, but even the perpetrator does not know who he or she is. Name tags will be used.
