MASTER'S FORUM

Brethren:

Brethren it has been an extremely busy fall, having completed all three degrees plus renovations in the hall and kitchen: Thank you Dave Emery. With the degree work behind us for a while, let us turn our sights toward family and friends and our upcoming Christmas Dinner.

Our Jr Warden has been working tirelessly to put together this year's event. If you want to volunteer to pick up a widow or help out in anyway please contact Rob Mason. I would like to thank my Officers and all the brethren for their efforts with in the lodge room. It is great to see the seats full again. Both Doric and Rainbow lodges have sent their thanks for the efforts of everyone who put forward their time and effort to support the MM degree. A job well done by all.

I on behalf of myself and the Officers of Discovery Lodge wish you and your family the Merriest of Christmas and all the best for 2018.

Rob MacNeill
